EZEKIEL 31

31 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month*, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,*

(31.1) "And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month,"

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

6 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

(31.18) "Thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord."

32 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month*, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,*

(32.1) "And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month."

2 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

(32.3-6) God will treat Pharaoh like a whale fished out of the sea. Every bird and beast in the world will feed upon him.

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

(32.3) “Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee … and … shall bring thee up in my net.”

> 4 Then will I leave thee upon the land*, I will cast thee forth upon the open field,* and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

(32.6) “I will also water with thy blood the land … even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.”

(32.7-8) God “will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.” To Ezekiel, the sun is just a little light that can be covered with a cloud, and the moon produces its own light.

> 7 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

(32.7) “I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.”

> 8 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

(32.8) “All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark … saith the Lord.”

(32.9-15) God will vex hearts, destroy nations, brandish his sword, kill animals, and cause floods. In this way people will come to know him.

9 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations*, into the countries which thou hast not known.*

(32.9) "I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations."

10 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life*, in the day of thy fall.*

(32.10) "I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life."

11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

(32.11) "For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee."

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall*, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.*

(32.12) "By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall."

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

(32.13) "I will destroy also all the beasts thereof."

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.

(32.14) “Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord.”

> *15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.

(32.15) “I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute … I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.”

> 16 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.
> 17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

> 19 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

(32.20-32) Pharaoh and all his multitude, along with the uncircumcised, will be killed with the sword.

22 Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

(32.23) “All of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.”

24 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living*; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.*

(32.24) “All of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living.”

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living*, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.*

(32.25) “All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living.”

(32.32) “For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord.”

EZEKIEL 33

33 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

(33.2-6) When God is getting ready to kill people with the sword, it’s the watchman’s duty to warn them about it by blowing a trumpet. If the people hear the trumpet but don’t take warning, then God will kill the people but not the watchman. But if the watchman doesn’t blow the trumpet when he sees God coming, then God will kill the people and the watchman.

2 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman*:*

(33.2) “When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman.”

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

(33.3) “If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people.”

4 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

(33.4) "Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head."

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

(33.5) "He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him."

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned*; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but* his blood will I require at the watchman's hand*.*

(33.6) "But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned … his blood will I require at the watchman's hand."

(33.7-9) God tells Ezekiel that he is the watchman. So the usual watchman rules apply to him.

7 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

(33.7) "So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me."

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

(33.8) "When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand."

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

(33.9) "Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul."

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

(33.12-13) If a "righteous" person does something wrong, God will forget every good thing that that person has ever done. Then God will kill him for the single mistake.

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

(33.12) "The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth."

≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

> 13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

(33.13) "I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it."

> 14 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;
> 15 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.
> 16 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.
> 17 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal*: but as for them, their way is not equal.*

⚖ (33.17, 20) The Israelites rightly recognize the injustice in God's killing rules.

(33.17) "Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal."

> 18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.
> 19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

(33.19) "If the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live."

≠289 Does God destroy both the righteous and the wicked?

20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal*. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.*

(33.20) "Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal."

21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

23 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

25 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

26 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

(33.27-29) God plans some more killing by the sword, beasts, and the pestilence. "Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate."

27 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

(33.27) "Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence."

28 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

29 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

(33.29) "Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate."

30 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

31 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

32 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

33 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

EZEKIEL 34

34 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

16 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

(34.28) “They shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.” Ezekiel prophesies God will protect the Israelites from “the heathen”. “And they shall be safe in their land.” But the Israelites have never lived peacefully with their neighbors, and they’ve never been safe from attack.

> 29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.
> 30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD.
> 31 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

EZEKIEL 35

35 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

(35.2-15) God tells Ezekiel about his plans for the Edomites (Seir). He’s going to kill them all. That way they’ll know for sure that he is the Lord.

> 2 Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it*,*

(35.2) “Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it.”

> 3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

(35.3) “I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.”

> 4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD*.*

(35.4) “I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.”

> 5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:
> 6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee*: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.*

(35.6) “As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee.”

> 7 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.
> 8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

(35.8) “I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.”

> 9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD*.*

(35.9) “I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.”

> 10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them*; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.*

(35.11) "I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them."

12 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD*, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.*

(35.12) "And thou shalt know that I am the LORD."

13 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.
14 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate*.*

(35.14) "Thus saith the Lord GOD; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate."

15 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

(35.15) "Thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD."

EZEKIEL 36

(36.1-14) At God's request, Ezekiel prophesies to the mountains.

36 Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

(36.1) “Son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD.”

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are our’s in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes*, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;*

(36.4) “Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes.”

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

(36.5) “Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen.”

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen*:*

(36.6) “Say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen.”

> 7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.
> 8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches*, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.*

(36.8) “But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches.”

> 9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

(36.9) “For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you.”

> 10 And I will multiply men upon you*, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:*

(36.10) “I will multiply men upon you.”

> 11 And I will multiply upon you man and beast*; and they shall increase and bring fruit:* and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

(36.11) “I will multiply upon you man and beast … and I will … do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.”

> 12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you*, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.*

(36.12) “Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you.”

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

(36.14) “Thou shalt devour men no more … saith the Lord.”

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

16 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

♀ (36.17-18) “Their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman. Wherefore I poured my fury upon them.” The Israelites were like a menstruating women, so God poured his fury on them.

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name’s sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

EZEKIEL 37

(37.1-10) Ezekiel prophesies to bones and brings them back to life. (The leg bone's connected to the thigh bone.)

> 37 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

(37.1) "The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones."

> 2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

(37.2) "There were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry."

> 3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.

(37.3) "And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest."

> 4 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

(37.4) "He said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD."

> 5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

(37.5) “Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live.”

> 6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
> 7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

(37.7) “So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.”

> 8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

(37.8) “The sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.”

> 9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

(37.9) “Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.”

> 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

(37.10) “So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.”

11 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

(37.12) "Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel."
≠167 Is death final?

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves,

14 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

? (37.16-17) God shows Ezekiel how to join two sticks together.

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

(37.16) "Son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it … then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim." Mormons believe "the stick of Ephraim" is a prophecy of the Book of Mormon. (Doctrine and Covenants 27.5)

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

(37.17) "And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand."

18 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

(37.23) “Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things.” Worshipping idols and other gods is “detestable.”

24 And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

(37.24) “David my servant shall be king over them.” How’s that supposed to happen? David had been dead (if he ever lived) for more than 400 years when these words were written.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

27 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

EZEKIEL 38

38 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

(38.2-20) Gog and Magaog

2 Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

(38.2) "Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog … and prophesy against him."

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

(38.3) "Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog."

4 And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.

7 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought:

(38.10) "Thus saith the Lord … at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought."

11 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

12 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

16 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

(38.16) "Thou shalt come up against my people of Israel … in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me … O Gog."

17 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

(38.18-20) God will get so angry that his fury will come up in his face so that even the fish, birds, beasts, and bugs will shake when they see him. God will throw a tantrum, toppling every wall and mountain.

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face.

(38.18) "When Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face."

19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

(38.19) "For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel."

20 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

(38.20) "So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground."

(38.21-23) God will cause each man's sword to be against his brother; he will send disease and make it rain fire and brimstone. By doing this he'll magnify and sanctify himself and let everyone know that he is the Lord.

> 21 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

(38.21) "I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother."

> 22 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

(38.22) "I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone."

> 23 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

(38.23) "Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD."

EZEKIEL 39

39 Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

(39.1) “Son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog.”

2 And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:
3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

(39.4-7) God will set fire on Magog and feed Gog and all his people to the birds and beasts. He will do this to let them know that he is the Lord.

4 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

(39.4) “I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.”

5 Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.
6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

(39.6) “I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

7 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

(39.7) “And the heathen shall know that I am the LORD.”

> 8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken.
> 9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years:

(39.9) “Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons … and they shall burn them with fire seven years.” The Israelites spend seven years burning Gog’s weapons.

> 10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

(39.10) “They shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.”
≠91 Is it wrong to steal?

> 11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog.
> 12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

(39.11-12) “There shall they bury Gog and all his multitude … Seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them.” After spending seven years burning the weapons of Gog’s soldiers, the Israelites will spend seven months burying the dead bodies.

> 13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

(39.17-28) After the Israelites spend seven months burying Gog's soldiers, God will feed their bodies to the birds and beasts and gets them drunk on their blood.

17 And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

(39.17) "Thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood."

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

(39.18) "Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth."

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you*.*

(39.19) "Ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you."

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

(39.20) "Thus ye shall be filled at my table … with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord."

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

(39.21) "I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them."

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

(39.23) "Therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword."

24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name*;*

(39.25) "I … will be jealous for my holy name."

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

(39.28) "Then shall they know that I am the LORD."

29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

EZEKIEL 40

(40.1-49) The hand of the Lord takes Ezekiel on a trip to Israel and sets him on a mountain top, where a brass man measures a building with a rod. (I'd skip this chapter unless you are interested in the dimensions of the brass man's imaginary building.)

40 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

(40.1) "The hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither."

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain*, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.*

(40.2) "God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain."

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed*; and he stood in the gate.*

(40.3) “There was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed.”

> 4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.
> 5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man’s hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

(40.5) “In the man’s hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.”

> 6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

(40.6) “He … measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.”

> 7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

(40.7) “Every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.”

> 8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

(40.8) “He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.”

> 9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

(40.9) “Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits.”

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side*.*

(40.10) “The little chambers … were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.”

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

(40.11) “He measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.”

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side*.*

(40.12) “The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.”

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits*, door against door.*

(40.13) “He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits.”

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits*, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.*

(40.14) “He made also posts of threescore cubits.”

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

(40.15) “From the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.”

> 16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.
> 17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.
> 18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.
> 19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

(40.19) “Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits.”

> 20 And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.
> 21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

(40.21) “The posts thereof and the arches … the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.”

> 22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.
> 23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits*.*

(40.23) “The gate of the inner court … measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.”

> 24 After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.
> *25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

(40.25) “There were windows … the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.”

> 26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.
> 27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

(40.27) “There was a gate in the inner court toward the south … an hundred cubits.”

> 28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;
> *29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

(40.29) “The little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof … fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.”

> 30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

(40.30) “The arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.”

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

(40.33) "The little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof … fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad."

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

*36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

(40.36) "The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof … the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits."

37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

(40.42) "The four tables … a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high."

43 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

(40.47) "He measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad."

*48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

(40.48) "Each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side."

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits*; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.*

(40.49) "The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits."

EZEKIEL 41

(41.1-22) The brass man provides more exciting measurements of Ezekiel's imaginary temple. (I'd skip it, if I were you.)

41 Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side*, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.*

(41.1) "He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side."

2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

(41.2) "The breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits."

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

(41.3) “The post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits”

4 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits*, before the temple: and he said unto me,* This is the most holy place.

(41.4a) “The length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits.”

(41.4b) “This is a most holy place.”

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits*, round about the house on every side.*

(41.5) “He measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits.”

6 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits*.*

(41.8) “The height of the house … six great cubits.”

9 The thickness of the wall*, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.*

(41.9) “The thickness of the wall … five cubits.”

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

(41.10) "Between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits."

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

(41.11) "The breadth of the place that was left was five cubits."

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

(41.12) "The building … was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits."

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

(41.13) "So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long."

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

(41.14) "The breadth of the face of the house … an hundred cubits."

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

(41.15) "He measured the length of the building … an hundred cubits."

16 The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.

18 And it was made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces*;*

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side*: it was made through all the house round about.*

(41.18-19) "Every cherub had two faces. So that the face of a man … on the one side, and the face of a young lion … on the other side."

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD.

(41.22) "The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits."

23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

EZEKIEL 42

42 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

(42.2-20) The brass man takes even more measurements of Ezekiel's imaginary buildings.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

(42.2) "Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits."

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court*, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.*

(42.3) "Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court."

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit*; and their doors toward the north.*

(42.4) "Before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit."

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

(42.7) “The utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.”

> 8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits*.*

(42.8) “The length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.”

> 9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the utter court.
> 10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.
> 11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.
> 12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.
> 13 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.
> 14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.
> 15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about*.*

(42.15) “Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about."

16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

(42.16) "He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about."

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about*.*

(42.17) "He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about."

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

(42.18) "He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed."

19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

(42.19) "He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed."

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad*, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.*

(42.20) "He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad."

EZEKIEL 43

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

(43.2-7) We get to take a little break from building dimensions to learn about God. His glory can fill a house and cause people to fall on their faces, his voice sounds like “many waters,” and the soles of his feet will dwell with Israel forever.

> 2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters*: and the earth shined with his glory.*

(43.2) “The glory of the God of Israel came … and his voice was like a noise of many waters.”

> 3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

(43.3) “I fell upon my face.”

> 4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

(43.4) “The glory of the LORD came into the house.”

> 5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

(43.5) “So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.”

> 6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

(43.6) “And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.”

> 7 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever*, and my holy name, shall the house of* Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

(43.7) “He said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever.”

8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

(43.8) “They have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.”

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

(43.10-17) But the dimension break is over. God himself (in all this glory) takes over the measurements from the brass man, telling us all about the fashion, form, law, and the dimensions of the house.

10 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.

(43.10) “Son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel.”

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

(43.11) “Shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof.”

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

(43.12) "Behold, this is the law of the house."

13 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span*: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.*

(43.13) "These are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span."

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

(43.25) “Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.”

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

27 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

EZEKIEL 44

44 Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

(44.2-3) The gate is shut because God entered by it. The only other person that can use the gate is the prince who eats bread in front of God.

2 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut*, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it*; because the LORD*, the God of Israel*, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

(44.2) "Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut … because the LORD … hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut."

3 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

(44.3) "It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same."

4 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face.

(44.4) "Behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face."

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

(44.7-9) Don't bring any strangers or people with uncircumcised hearts or flesh to God's sanctuary when you're offering him fat and blood.

> 7 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

(44.7) "Ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh … to pollute it … when ye offer … the fat and the blood."

> 8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.
> 9 Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

(44.9) "Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary."

(44.10-15) Stay away from idols or you'll bear your iniquity (i.e., God will kill you). But be sure to offer God lots of fat and blood and burnt offerings.

> *10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

(44.10) "When Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity."

> *11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols*, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have* I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity*.*

(44.12) "Because they ministered unto them before their idols … I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity."

13 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

(44.15) "They shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord."

15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

(44.17-18) Priests must wear linen when they are in the sanctuary. No wool is permitted. And whatever they wear, it must not cause them to sweat. God hates sweat!

17 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them*, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.*

(44.17) “They shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them.”

18 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

(44.18) “They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.”

19 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

24 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord GOD.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be their's.

30 And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

(47.1-11) Water starts to flow from under the door of the house. At first it was just a trickle, but soon it got up to the ankles, knees, and finally the loins. The brass man measured it to be a thousand cubits and it became too deep for wading anymore. The water that got to the ocean would be healed, but not the marshes, "they will be given to salt."

47 Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

EZEKIEL 48

48 Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; a portion for Dan*.*

≠84 What were the 12 (or 13) tribes of Israel?

2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah.

(48.8-35) In the exciting conclusion of the book of Ezekiel, we learn who is going to get what and what the city is going to be named. I'm not going to spoil it for you, though. You have to read it yourself.

DANIEL

The king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces. — Daniel 6.24

Although the book of Daniel was supposedly written during the Babylonian Exile by an official of King Nebuchadnezzar, modern scholars date its writing to the second century BCE. The reasons for this include:

- It is listed in the Writings of the Jewish canon, rather than the Prophets. This indicates that Daniel was written after the collection of prophetic books had been closed (sometime after 300 BCE).
- Parts of the book (2.4-7.28) were written in Aramaic, which suggests a later date when Aramaic had become the common language.
- The author of Daniel used Persian and Greek words that would not have been known to residents of Babylon in the 6th century BCE.
- The book contains numerous historical inaccuracies when dealing with 6th century BCE Babylonian history. Such mistakes would not have been made by an important official of King Nebuchadnezzar.
- Daniel is the only book in the Old Testament in which angels are given names (such as Gabriel in 8.16 and 9.21 and Michael in 10.13, 10.21, and 12.1). Elsewhere in the Bible, names for angels only appear in the in the Apocrypha and the New Testament.
- The absence of Daniel's name in the list of Israel's great men in Ecclesiasticus.
- Nebuchadrezzar is spelled Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel, which is the way the king's name was spelled, under Greek influence, at a later time.
- In 2.2 the king's wise men are called "Chaldeans." But at the time of Nebuchadrezzar, "Chaldean" would have referred to a nationality. It was only centuries later that this word came to mean sorcerer or astrologer.

Modern historians and bible scholars generally agree on the proper interpretation of the dreams in the book of Daniel. Fundamentalists, however, adamantly disagree with them and with each other. Since I am neither fundamentalist nor scholar, I will make no attempt to interpret Daniel's bizarre dreams.
Daniel Highlights:

- Nebuchadnezzar decrees that anyone who says anything against the Hebrew god "shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall become a dunghill." 3.29
- Nebuchadnezzar eats grass, grows hair like eagle feathers, and has nails like bird claws. 4.33
- A detached hand writes upon a wall. 5.5-6
- Nebuchadnezzar orders those who accused Daniel (including their wives and children) to be cast into the lions den. 6.24

DANIEL 1

> 1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

(1.1) "In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it." The third year of the reign of Jehoiakim would be 606 BCE, at which time Nebuchadnezzar was not yet king of Babylon. It was 597 BCE that Nebuchadnezzar invaded Jerusalem for the first time (without actually destroying it). By that time Jehohiakim was dead and his son, Jehoiachin, was ruling.

> 2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand*, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.*

(1.2) “The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his [Nebuchadnezzar’s] hand.”

> 3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king’s seed, and of the princes;
> 4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king’s palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.
> 5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king’s meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.
> 6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:
> 7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.
> 8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king’s meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

(1.8) “Daniel … would not defile himself with … the king’s meat, nor with the wine which he drank.”
≠71 OK to drink alcohol?
≠13 What kind of animals may we eat?

> *9 Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

(1.9) “God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.”

> 10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

(1.11-16) Melzar was worried that he'd get in trouble with the king if Daniel and his companions ate only pulse and water. So Daniel proposed a test: try it and see how they looked compared to the meat eaters. After only ten days, the vegans were way "fairer and fatter."

11 Then said Daniel to Melzar*, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah,*

12 Prove thy servants*, I beseech thee,* ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

(1.11-12) "Then said Daniel to Melzar … Prove thy servants … ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink."

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

(1.13) "Then let our countenances be looked upon."

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

(1.14) "So he … proved them ten days."

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

(1.15) "At the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat."

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

(1.16) “Thus Melzar took away … their meat, and the wine … and gave them pulse.”

(1.17-20) The king found Daniel and his companions ten times wiser than “all the magicians and astrologers in the realm.”

> 17 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams*.*

(1.17) “As for these four children, God gave them knowledge … and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.”

(1.18) “The prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.”

> 19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah*: therefore stood they before the king.*

(1.19) “The king … found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.”

> 20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding*, that* the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

(1.20) “In all matters of wisdom and understanding … the king … found them [Daniel and his friends] ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers in his realm.”

DANIEL 2

(2.1-26) Nebuchadnezzar has a disturbing dream. He commands his astrologers and magicians to interpret it for him, but none of them could do it. So he threatens to cut them to pieces. Then Daniel shows up and interprets the dream.

> 2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

(2.1) "Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him."

> 2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

(2.2) "The king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king."

> 3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.
> 4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.
> 5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

(2.5) "If ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill."

> 6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour*: therefore* shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

(2.6) “But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour.”

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king’s matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

(2.10) “The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king’s matter.”

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

(2.12) “The king was angry … and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.”

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king’s guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king’s captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings*: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:*

(2.20-21) "God … removeth kings, and setteth up kings." Monarchy is God's preferred form of government. God chooses the kings and then removes them when he feels like it.

22 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

(2.24) "Daniel … went and said … bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation."

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

(2.25) “Arioch brought in Daniel before the king … and said … I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.”

> 26 The king answered and said to Daniel*, whose name was Belteshazzar,* Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

(2.26) “The king … said to Daniel … Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?”

> 27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

(2.28-35) Nebuchadnezzar’s dream

He saw a gold headed image with silver chest and arms, brass belly and thighs, and iron legs with feet part iron and part clay. A stone smashed the image, scattering the gold, silver, brass, and iron in the wind. The stone became a great mountain that filled the whole earth.

> 28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

(2.28) “God … maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these.”

> 29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.
> 30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.
> 31 Thou, O king, sawest*, and behold* a great image*. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the* form thereof was terrible.

32 This image’s head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass,

(2.32) “This image’s head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass.”

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay*.*

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces*.*

(2.34) “A stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.”

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

(2.35) “Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces … and the wind carried them away … and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.” The stone became “a great mountain” that “filled the whole earth.” This could only be possible on a flat, disc-shaped earth.

(2.36-44) Daniel’s interpretation

The image’s gold head is Nebuchadnezzar. He will be replaced by another kingdom (silver chest and arms), which will be replaced by a third kingdom (brass belly and thighs), and a fourth kingdom (iron legs). This last kingdom with be both strong and weak (feet of iron and clay). Then

God will raise up one final kingdom, which will destroy the other kingdoms and last forever.

> 36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king*.*

(2.36) "This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king."

> 37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory*.*

(2.37) "Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory." (I didn't know that Nebuchadnezzar was the "king of kings." I always thought that was Jesus!)

> 38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold*.*

(2.38) "Thou art this head of gold."

> 39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

(2.39) "After thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth."

> 40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron*: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.*

(2.40) "The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron."

> 41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

(2.41) “Whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters’ clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.”

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

(2.42) “As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.”

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed*: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but* it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms*, and it shall stand for ever.*

(2.44) “In the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed … it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms.”

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

(2.46-48) King Nebuchadnezzar was so impressed by Daniel’s interpretation that he fell on his face and worships him. He commands everyone else to worship him, too, and makes Daniel the most powerful person in the empire.

46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

(2.46) "King Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him."

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said*, Of a truth it is, that* your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings*, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.*

(2.47) "The king … said … your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings." Nebuchadnezzar became a Jew (a believer in Daniel's God) the moment he heard Daniel's interpretation of his dream.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon*.*

(2.48) "The king made Daniel … ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon."

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

DANIEL 3

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

(3.1) "Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits."

Nebuchadnezzar built a statue of gold sixty cubits high and six cubits wide. Taking a cubit to be 46 cm and assuming the depth to also be six cubits, this would give a total volume of about 120 cubic meters (depending on the shape of the statue)—which is about half as much gold as is in the United States Bullion Depository in Fort Knox, Kentucky.

(3.2-7) Nebuchadnezzar invited all the officials in his kingdom to come to the dedication of the gold statue. Whoever refuses to worship the statue will be thrown into a fiery furnace. So they all came and worshiped the golden image.

> 2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

(3.2) "Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together … all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image."

> 3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

(3.3) "All the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image."

> 4 Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,
> 5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

(3.4-5) "Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people … That at what time ye hear the sound of … all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image."

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

(3.8-23) But some noticed that Daniel's friends (Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego) didn't worship the gold statue. So they told Nebuchadnezzar about it, who commanded that they be thrown into a fiery furnace that was seven times as hot as usual. The furnace was so hot that it burned to death the executioners who threw them in the fire.

8 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

(3.8-12) "Certain Chaldeans … accused the Jews … and said to the king … Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego … serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image."

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

(3.13) “Nebuchadnezzar … commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king.”

> 14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?
> 15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?
> 16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.
> 17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.
> 18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.
> *19 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

(3.19) “Nebuchadnezzar … commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.”

> *20 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

(3.20) “He commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.”

> *21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

(3.21) "Then these men … were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace."

> 22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

(3.22) "Because … the furnace exceeding hot, the flames of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego."

> 23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace*.*

(3.23) "And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace."

(3.24-27) Daniel's three friends were cast into a fiery furnace, but were totally unaffected—not even a hair was singed. And they were joined by the Son of God (Jesus?), himself! At least that's who Nebuchadnezzar thought it looked like.

> 24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire*? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.*

(3.24) "Nebuchadnezzar … was astonished, and … said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?"

> 25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God*.*

(3.25) "He … said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God."

> 26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire.
> 27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

(3.27) "These men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them."

 (3.28-39) Nebuchadnezzar converts again to Judaism (see 2.47 for his first conversion) and decrees that anyone who says anything against the Hebrew god "shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill."

> 28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel*, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies,* that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

(3.28) "Then Nebuchadnezzar … said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel [angel? I thought it was Jesus!] … that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God."

> 29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort*.*

(3.29) “Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.”

> 30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

DANIEL 4

(4.1-18) This part of the Bible was written by Nebuchadnezzar.

> 4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

(4.1) “Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.”

(4.2-3) Nebuchadnezzar expresses his new-found, born-again, Judeo-Christian faith.

> 2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

(4.2) “I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.”

> 3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

(4.3) “How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.”

4 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

(4.10-16) Nebuchadnezzar's second dream Nebuchadnezzar dreams about a tree that was so tall that it could be seen "from the end of the earth." (Only on a flat earth would this be possible.) A "holy watcher" came down from heaven and began screaming, saying that someone should chop down the tree. But he said the stump should be left and a band of iron and brass put around it. Then have the banded stump hang out with the beasts and the grass, change the stump's heart from a man's heart to a beast's heart, and "let seven times pass over him."

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

(4.10) "I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great."

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

(4.11) “The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth.”

> 12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.
> 13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven;

(4.13) “Behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven.”

> 14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

(4.14) “He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree.”

> 15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

(4.15) “Nevertheless leave the stump … with a band of iron and brass … and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth.”

> *16 Let his heart be changed from man’s, and let a beast’s heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

(4.16) “Let his heart be changed from man’s, and let a beast’s heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.”

> 17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.
> 18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

(4.20-25) Daniel's interpretation The tree in Nebuchadnezzar's dream is Nebuchadnezzar himself, who will soon be eating grass and living with animals until seven times passes over him.

20 The tree that thou sawest*, which grew, and was strong,* whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth*;*

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 It is thou*, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.*

(4.20-22) "The tree that thou sawest … whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth … it is thou."

23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

(4.23) "The king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him."

> 24 This is the interpretation*, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:*
> 25 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee*, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.*

(4.24-25) "This is the interpretation … Thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee."

> 26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.
> 27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

(4.28-33) And it all happened just like Daniel said it would. Nebuchadnezzar lived with the animals and ate grass like an ox. His hair was like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

> 28 All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

(4.28) "All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar."

> 29 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.
> 30 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

(4.31-32) While Nebuchadnezzar is busy eating grass, a "voice from heaven" falls from the sky repeating the same shit that Daniel said.

> 31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee*.*

(4.31) "There fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee."

> 32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

(4.32) "They shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will."

> 33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws*.*

(4.33) "The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws."

(4.34-37) After going through a rather bizarre ordeal, inflicted upon him by God, Nebuchadnezzar heaps praise upon him— in whose eyes "all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing."

> 34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven*, and mine understanding returned unto me,* and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

(4.34) "At the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven … and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him."

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

(4.35) "All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?"

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven*, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.*

(4.37) "Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven."

DANIEL 5

(5.1-2,11,18, 22) Apparently, the author of Daniel knew of only two Babylonian kings during the period of the exile: Nebuchadnezzar and Belshazzar, who he wrongly thought was the son of Nebuchadnezzar. But Nebuchadnezzar died in 562 BCE and was succeeded by his son, Awel-Marduk (referred to in the bible as "Evilmerodach" [2 Kg 25.27 and Jer 52.31]). In 560 BCE, Amel-Marduk was assassinated by his brother-in-law, Nergal-shar-usur. The next and last king of Babylon was Nabonidus who reigned from 556 to 539, when Babylon was conquered by Cyrus. It was Nabonidus, and not Belshazzar, who was the last of the Babylonian kings. Belshazzar was the son and viceroy of Nabonidus. But he was not a king, and was not the son (or any other relation) of Nebuchadnezzar.

> 5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

(5.1) "Belshazzar the king"

> 2 Belshazzar*, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which* his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

(5.2) "Belshazzar … his father Nebuchadnezzar"

> 3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.
> 4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

(5.5-6) The handwriting on the wall

Belshazzar was partying with his princes, wives, and concubines when a detached hand starts writing on the wall. When the king sees it "the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against the other."

> 5 In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote*.*

(5.5) "In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote … upon … the wall … and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote."

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

(5.6) "Then the king's countenance was changed … so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another."

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

(5.8-28) Belshazzar asked his wise men to read and interpret the writing, but none of them could. So his wife tells him to ask Daniel to do it. And Daniel does, after insulting Belshazzar and his "father" Nebuchadnezzar. It's a message from God (he's the one who sent the hand down), saying that God hates Belshazzar and will soon take his kingdom away from him and give it to the Medes and Persians.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men*: but they* could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

(5.8) "All the king's wise men … could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof."

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king*. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?*

(5.13) "Then was Daniel brought in before the king."

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

(5.17) "Then Daniel … said … I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation."

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written*.*

(5.24) “Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.”

25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN*.*

(5.25) “And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.”

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

(5.26) “This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.”

27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

(5.27) “TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.”

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

(5.28) “PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.”

(5.29-30) After Daniel gave Belshazzar the bad news, Belshazzar rewarded him by making him the “third ruler in the kindgdom.” Later that night Belshazzar died. (Did God kill him?)

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

(5.29) “Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.”

30 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

(5.30) “In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.”

31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom*, being about threescore and two years old.*

(5.31) “Darius the Median took the kingdom.” Darius the Median is a fictitious character whom the author perhaps confused with Darius I of Persia, who came to the throne in 521 BCE, 17 years after the fall of Babylon. The author of Daniel incorrectly makes him the successor of Belshazzar instead of Cyrus.

DANIEL 6

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

(6.3-9) The king preferred Daniel above everyone else in his kingdom because Daniel was such a perfect (and modest) guy. The other administrators tried to find something wrong with him, but they couldn't. So they came up with another plan: attack his religion. Have the king sign a decree saying that anyone who asked any god or man (other than the king) for anything in the next thirty days will be fed to the lions.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him*; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.*

(6.3) "Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him."

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

(6.4) "The presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel … but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him."

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God*.*

(6.5) "Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

6 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

(6.7) "All … consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions."

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree*.*

(6.9) "Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree."

(6.10-16) When Daniel heard about the new decree, he immediately broke it by going to his room to pray. The conspirators caught him in the act and told the king, who cast Daniel into the lion den saying, "Don't worry. God will deliver you."

10 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed*, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.*

(6.10) "When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed." (Why don't Christians and Jews pray three times a day while facing Jerusalem?)

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

(6.11) “These men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.”

12 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king’s decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

(6.16) “The king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.”

17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him.

(6.19-23) The next morning the king went to see how Daniel and the lions were doing. Daniel told him that God sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths. God saved him because he was such a perfect (and modest) guy and he believed in God. (Nothing bad ever happens to good, religious people.)

> 19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

(6.19) "The king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions."

> 20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

(6.20) "When he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice … and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?"

> 21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

(6.21) "Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever."

> 22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me*; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.*

(6.22) "My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me."

> 23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

(6.23) “So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.”

> 24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

(6.24) “The king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces.” King Darius, after trying to feed Daniel to the lions, orders those who accused Daniel (and their wives and children) to be cast into the lion den. “And the lions … brake all their bones in pieces.”

> 25 Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.
> 26 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel*: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.*

(6.26) “I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel.” Darius makes a decree, “that in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel.”

> 27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.
> 28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

DANIEL 7

(7.1-28) Daniel's dream

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed*: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.*

(7.1) "Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed."

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea*.*

(7.2) "The four winds … strove upon the great sea."

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea*, diverse one from another.*

(7.3) "Four great beasts came up from the sea."

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings*: I beheld till* the wings thereof were plucked*, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man,* and a man's heart was given to it.

(7.4) "The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings … the wings thereof were plucked … and a man's heart was given to it."

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear*, and it raised up itself on one side,* and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

(7.5) "A second, like to a bear … and it had three ribs … between the teeth of it: and they said … Arise, devour much flesh."

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard*, which* had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

(7.6) "Another, like a leopard … had … four wings … [and] four heads; and dominion was given to it."

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast*, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it* had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it*: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it;* and it had ten horns.

(7.7) "A fourth beast … had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it … and it had ten horns."

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things*.*

(7.8) "There came up … another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things."

9 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

(7.10) "A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened."

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame*.*

(7.11) "The beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame."

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time*.*

(7.12) "As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time."

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days*, and they brought him near before him.*

(7.13) "I saw … one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven and came to the Ancient of days."

14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion*, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.*

(7.14) "There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion."

15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me*.*

(7.15) "I Daniel was grieved … and the visions of my head troubled me."

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

(7.16) "I came near unto one of them … and … he told me … the interpretation of the things."

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

(7.17) "These great beasts, which are four, are four kings."

18 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

(7.18) “But the saints … shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever.”

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

(7.19) “The fourth beast … whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet.”

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

(7.20) “The ten horns … even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things.”

21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

(7.21) “I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them.”

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

(7.22) “Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.”

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

(7.23) "The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth … shall devour the whole earth."

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

(7.24) "The ten horns … are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them … and he shall subdue three kings."

25 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

(7.25) "He shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints … and … change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time."

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

(7.26) "But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end."

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

(7.27) "The kingdom … shall be given to the people of the saints … whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him."

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

(7.28) “Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.”

DANIEL 8

(8.1-14) Daniel’s vision

8 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

(8.1) “A vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.”

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

(8.3) “There stood before the rivera ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.”

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him*, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand;* but he did according to his will, and became great*.*

(8.4) “I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him … but he did according to his will, and became great.”

> 5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

(8.5) “Behold, an he goat came from the west … and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.”

> 6 And he came to the ram that had two horns*, which I had seen standing before the river,* and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

(8.6) “He came to the ram that had two horns … and ran unto him in the fury of his power.”

> 7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him*: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.*

(8.7) “He … smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and … he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him.”

> 8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven*.*

(8.8) “The he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

> 9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

(8.9) “Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.”

> 10 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

(8.10) “It cast down some … of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.” To Daniel, the stars are small objects that can fall from the sky and then be “stamped upon.”

> 11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.
> 12 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.
> 13 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

(8.13) “Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision?”

> 14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed*.*

(8.14) “He said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.”

(8.15-27) Daniel didn’t know what to make of his vision. But then a guy that looked like a man dropped by to interpret it for him.

> 15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

(8.15) “When I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.”

> *16 And I heard a man’s voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

(8.16) “I heard a man’s voice … which … said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.”

> *17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

(8.17) “So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.”

> *18 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

(8.18) “Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.”

> *19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

(8.19) “He said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end … for at the time appointed the end shall be.”

> 20 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

(8.20) “The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.”

> *21 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

(8.21) “The rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.”

> 22 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

(8.22) “Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.”

> 23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

(8.23) “In the latter time … a king … shall stand up.”

> 24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people*.*

(8.24) “His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall … destroy the mighty and the holy people.”

> 25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

(8.25) “By peace [he] shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken.”

> 26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.
> 27 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king’s business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

(8.27) “I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days … I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.” (If Daniel couldn’t understand his visions, then how could anyone else?) This is the one true prophecy in the book of Daniel: “none understood it.”

DANIEL 9

9 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

(9.21-27) A man named Gabriel flies by and touches Daniel. After landing, he talks complete gibberish to Daniel about seventy weeks, seven weeks, sixty-two weeks, destroyed cities, wars, floods, and abominations.

> 21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabrie*l, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning,* being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

(9.21) "The man Gabriel … being caused to fly swiftly, touched me."

> 22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

(9.22) "He … said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding."

> 23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

(9.27) "He shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate."

(10.1-21)

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel*, whose name was called Belteshazzar;* and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

(10.1) "A thing was revealed unto Daniel … and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision."

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

(10.2) “In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.”

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled*.*

(10.3) “I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.” What happened to Daniel the teetotaling vegetarian of chapter 1?

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

(10.4) “In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel.”

(10.5-6) Daniel is visited by a man whose loins were girded with gold, face that looked like lightning, eyes of fire, arms and feet made of brass. Jesus! (Rev 1.12-13)

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

(10.5) “Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold.”

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

(10.6) “His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.”

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves*.*

(10.7) "I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves."

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision*, and there remained no strength in me: for* my comeliness was turned in me into corruption*, and I retained no strength.*

(10.8) "I was left alone, and saw this great vision … my comeliness was turned in me into corruption."

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground*.*

(10.9) "Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground."

10 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

(10.10) "An hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands."

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

(10.14) "I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days."

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

(10.15) "And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb."

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips*: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.*

(10.16) "Behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips."

17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man*, and he strengthened me,*

(10.18) "Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man."

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

(10.21) "I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince."

DANIEL 11

11 Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

21 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

30 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all*.*

? (11.37) "Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of omen, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all." Some Christians think this refers to the antichrist (He'll be a homosexual).

38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

HOSEA

Yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb. —Hosea 9.16

Hosea is a book filled with whoredoms, children of whoredoms, adulteries between breasts, buying wives with barley, ripping apart pregnant women, and killing unborn babies. What will surprise most believers is that it is God who does the ripping and killing and who tells Hosea to buy a wife and marry a whore. Biblical family values at its best.

Here are the highlights:

- God told Hosea to commit adultery, saying "take … a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms" because the land has "committed great whoredom." So Hosea did as God commanded and "took" a wife named Gomer. 1.2-3
- God told Hosea to name his baby girl "Loruhamah," which means unloved. 1.6
- Hosea tells his children that their mother is a whore who is not his wife. He asks them to tell their mother to "put away her whoredoms" and "her adulteries from between her breasts" or he'll "strip her naked … and slay her with thirst." 2.2-3
- God will not have mercy upon children if they are the children of whoredoms. 2.4-5
- "Now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand." 2.10
- God tells Hosea to love an adulteress. So Hosea buys (another?) wife for a homer and a half of barley. 3.1-2
- Committing whoredom by going a whoring with the spirit of whoredom. 4.10-12, 5.3-4
- If you misbehave, God will make your daughters "commit whoredom" and your wife "commit adultery." 4.13
- Even more whoredom! "They have committed whoredom continually." 4.14-18
- More lewdness and whoredom. 6.9-10

- “I will send a fire upon his cities.” 8.14
- “Thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor.” 9.1
- “The prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad.” 9.7
- “Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them.” 9.12
- “O Lord: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.” 9.14
- “Yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.” 9.16
- God will punish Israel by “dashing” together mothers and their children. 10.14
- “The LORD … shall roar like a lion.” 11.10
- God will rip humans apart and eat them like a lion. 13.7-8
- “Their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.” 13.16

HOSEA 1

1 The word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

(1.2-3) God tells Hosea to commit adultery, saying “take … a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms” because the land has “committed great whoredom.” So Hosea did as God commanded and “took” a wife named Gomer.
≠110 Is it wrong to commit adultery?

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

(1.2) “The LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD."

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

(1.3) "So he went and took Gomer."

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu*, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.*

(1.4) "I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu."
≠245 Did God commend or condemn Jehu for the killings at Jezreel?

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah*: for* I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel*; but I will utterly take them away.*

(1.6a) "She conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Loruhamah." God told Hosea to name his baby girl "Loruhamah," which means unloved.

(1.6b) "I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel."

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

? (1.9) "Ye are not my people, and I will not be your God." Martin Luther interpreted this verse to mean that God had rejected the Jews and that Christians should do likewise.

10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

HOSEA 2

2 Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

(2.2-3) God (or Hosea?) tells his children that their mother is a whore who is not his wife. He asks them to tell their mother to "put away her whoredoms" and "her adulteries from between her breasts" or he'll "strip her naked … and slay her with thirst."

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

(2.2) "Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts."

3 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born*, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land,* and slay her with thirst.

(2.3) "Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born … and slay her with thirst."

(2.4-5) God "will not have mercy upon … the children of whoredoms. For their mother hath played the harlot."

*4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

(2.4) “I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.”

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

(2.5) “For their mother hath played the harlot.”

6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

*10 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

(2.10) “Now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.”

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

(2.12) “I will destroy … her fig trees.” (God hates figs.)

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

(2.13) “She decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.”

14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.

17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.

23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

HOSEA 3

♀ X M (3.1-2) God tells Hosea to love an adulteress. (I thought he already did that in chapter 1.) In any case, Hosea buys (another?) one for a homer and a half of barley.

> 3 Then said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress*, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.*

(3.1) "Then said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress."
≠110 Is it wrong to commit adultery?

> 2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley:

(3.2) "So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley."

> 3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.
> 4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:
> 5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days*.*

(3.5) "Fear the Lord and his goodness in the latter days."
≠132 Should we fear God?

HOSEA 4

4 Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

(4.3) "Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea." Because of the Israelites' disobedience, the land mourns, and all the animals are dying.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

(4.10-12) Committing whoredom by going a whoring with the spirit of whoredom.

10 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom*, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.*

(4.10) "They shall commit whoredom."

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.

(4.11) “Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.”

12 My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

(4.12) “The spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring.”

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

⚖ ♀ Ⓜ !!! (4.13) “Therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.” If you misbehave, God will make your daughters “commit whoredom” and your wife “commit adultery.”

!!! Ⓧ (4.14-18) Even more whoredom! “They have committed whoredom continually.”

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

(4.14) “I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.”

15 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot*, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.*

(4.15) “Though thou, Israel, play the harlot”

16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

(4.18) “They have committed whoredom continually.”

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

HOSEA 5

5 Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

!!! ♀ (5.3-4) The spirit of whoredom

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

(5.3) “O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom.”

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

(5.4) “The spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them.”

5 And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him*; he hath withdrawn himself from them.*

(5.6) "They shall … seek the LORD; but they shall not find him."
≠176 Does God help in times of need?

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children*: now shall a month devour them with their portions.*

(5.7) "They have begotten strange [illegitimate] children."

8 Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

(5.9-15) God's plans for Ephraim and Judah. (He'll kill them all, of course.)

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke*: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.*

(5.9) "Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke."

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

(5.10) "The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water."

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

*14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

(5.14-15) "I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him … till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face."

HOSEA 6

6 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

*2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

(6.2) "After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." This may be the verse referred to in Luke 18.31-33 and 1 Corinthians 15.3-4. However, Hosea 6.2 refers to the people living at the time (hence "us") and therefore cannot be fulfilled by the death and resurrection of Jesus.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

(6.5) "I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth."

6 For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

(6.6) "I desired mercy, and not sacrifice."
≠120 Is God merciful?
≠20 Does God desire animal sacrifices?

7 But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.
8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

(6.9-10) More lewdness and whoredom

*9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

(6.10) "There is the whoredom of Ephraim."

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

(6.10) "There is the whoredom of Ephraim."
11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

HOSEA 7

7 When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me.

(7.8-16) It's not clear in the KJV, but "people" and "strangers" are translated as "aliens" and "foreigners" in other versions. This would mean part of the reason for Ephraim's bloody fate is association with other races.

8 Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people*; Ephraim is a cake not turned.*

(7.8) "Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people."

9 Strangers have devoured his strength*, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.*

(7.9) "Strangers have devoured his strength."

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

(7.12) "I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven."

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

(7.13) "Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me."

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

(7.16) "They return, but not to the most High … their princes shall fall by the sword."

HOSEA 8

8 Set the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

(8.4) "They have made princes, and I knew it not."
≠18 Does God know everything?

5 Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

*13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

(8.11-13) "Ephraim … shall return to Egypt."
≠323 Will Ephraim return to Egypt?

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

🚀 (8.14) “I will send a fire upon his cities.”

HOSEA 9

> 9 Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor.

!!! ☒ ♀ (9.1) “Thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor.”

> 2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.
> 3 They shall not dwell in the LORD’S land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt*, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.*

(9.3) “Ephraim shall return to Egypt.”
≠323 Will Ephraim return to Egypt?

> 4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.
> 5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?
> 6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.
> 7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad*, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.*

🔳 ☺ (9.7) “The prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad.”

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

(9.12-16) God, the baby killer

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them*, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!*

(9.12) "Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them."

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

(9.14) "O Lord: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts."

15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more*: all their princes are revolters.*

(9.15) "I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more."

≠131 Does God love everyone?

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

(9.16) “Yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.”

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

HOSEA 10

10 Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

*14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

(10.14) "A tumult arise among thy people … the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children." God will punish Israel by "dashing" together mothers and their children.

15 So shall Beth-el do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

HOSEA 11

*11 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

(11.3-5) “Ephraim … shall not return into the land of Egypt.”
≠323 Will Ephraim return to Egypt?

> 6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.
> 7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him.
> 8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.
> 9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.
> *10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.
> 11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.
> 12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

HOSEA 12

> 12 Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

(11.1) “When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.” Matthew (2.15) claims that the flight of Jesus’ family to Egypt is a fulfillment of this verse. But Hosea 11.1 is not a prophecy. It is a reference to the Hebrew exodus from Egypt and has nothing to do with Jesus. Matthew tries to hide this fact by quoting only the last part of the verse (“Out of Egypt I have called my son”).

> 2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.
> 3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God:
> 4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us;
> 5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.
> 6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

(11.6) “The sword shall abide on his cities … and devour them.”

(13.7-8) God will rip humans apart and then eat them like a lion.

> 7 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

(13.7) “I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them.”

> 8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

(13.8) “I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.”

> 9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.
> 10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

(11.10) “The LORD … shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.”

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

(13.14) “I will be thy plagues … I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.”

HOSEA 13

13 When Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them:

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.

10 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues*; O grave,* I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

16 Samaria shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

(13.16) "Their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up." Because the Samaritans chose to worship another deity, God will dash their infants to pieces and their "women with child shall be ripped up."

HOSEA 14

14 O Israel, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

3 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

5 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. From me is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them*: but the transgressors shall fall therein.*

(14.9) “The just shall walk in them.”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

JOEL

I will sell your sons and your daughters … for the LORD hath spoken it. — Joel 3.8

There's not much to report from Joel. God will burn forests and dry up rivers, send locusts and caterpillars to eat crops, darken the sun, turn the moon to blood, and sell sons and daughters into slavery. But if you've read the earlier books in the Old Testament, you're used to all that by now. The only thing new is that it will all happen soon. Really soon. (It was supposed to have happened soon after Joel was written, so it's a bit overdue.)

Here are some highlights:

- "Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth." 1.5
- "The day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand." 1.15, 2.1, 3.14
- The animals are perplexed and cry out to God after he torments them by burning their food and drying up the rivers. 1.18-20
- On "the day of the Lord", everything and everyone will be burned to death. 2.3
- People will try to commit suicide but will not be able to. 2.8
- There will be earthquakes, the sun and the moon will be dark, and the stars will no longer shine. 2.10
- God will repay Israel for the damage the locusts caused—which he sent! And they will "praise the name of the Lord." 2.25-26
- He will show off all his magic tricks. Blood, fire, smoke, eclipses. 2.30-31
- "I will sell your sons and your daughters … for the Lord hath spoken it." 3.8
- "Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruninghooks into spears." 3.10

JOEL 1

1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

(1.5) "Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth."

6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

(1.8) "Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth."

9 The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD'S ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

15 Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

(1.15) "The day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come."

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

(1.18-20) The animals are perplexed and cry out to God after he torments them by burning their food and drying up the rivers.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

(1.18) "How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate."

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

(1.19) "Fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field."

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

(1.20) "The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness."

JOEL 2

2 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

(2.1) "Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand."

2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness*, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.*

(2.2) "A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness" The day of the Lord will be dark and gloomy —like a northern Idaho spring day.

3 A fire devoureth before them*; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and* nothing shall escape them.

(2.3) "A fire devoureth before them … nothing shall escape." On the day of the Lord, everything and everyone will be burned to death.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.

(2.6) “The people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.”

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

(2.8) “When they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.” People will try to commit suicide but will not be able to.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

(2.10) “The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.” On the day of the Lord there will be earthquakes, the sun and the moon will be dark, and the stars will no longer shine.

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness*, and repenteth him of the evil.*

(2.13) “He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness.” ≠120 Is God merciful?

14 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

(2.25-26) God says he will repay Israel for the damage the locusts caused—which he sent! And they will "praise the name of the Lord."

*25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

(2.25) "I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you."

*26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

(2.26) "Praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed."

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

(2.30-31) God will show off all his magic tricks. Blood, fire, smoke, eclipses.

*30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

(2.30) "I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke."

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

(2.31) "The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood." These "signs" were a lot more impressive before the causes of solar and lunar eclipses were understood.

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

(2.32) "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be delivered."
≠321 Will those who call on the Lord be delivered?

JOEL 3

3 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

*2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

? (3.2) “They … parted my land.” On January 5, 2006, Pat Robertson linked Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon’s recent stroke to God’s wrath, saying: “In the book of Joel, the prophet Joel makes it very clear that God has ‘enmity against those who divide my land.’” Although he didn’t quote chapter and verse, Joel 3.2 is probably what he was referring to, though his interpretation of that verse is a bit less than “very clear” to me.

> 3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.
> 4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;
> 5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:
> 6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.
> 7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:
> *8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

(3.8) “I will sell your sons and your daughters … for the Lord hath spoken it.”

> 9 Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:
> *10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

(3.10) “Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.”

> 11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

(3.14-16) The day of the Lord is near. You'll know it's here when you see all the earthquakes and eclipses.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

(3.14) "For the day of the LORD is near."

*15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

(3.15) "The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining."

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

(3.16) "The LORD also shall roar… and the heavens and the earth shall shake."

*17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

(3.17a, 21) "I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain."
≠Where does God live?

(3.17b) "Then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more." Jerusalem will be "holy" when there are no non-Jews (and/or non-Christians) in Jerusalem.

> 18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.
> 19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness*, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.*

(3.19) “Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness.”

> 20 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.
> 21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS

I have sent among you the pestilence … your young men have I slain with the sword … I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils, yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. — Amos 4.10

Most people don't know this, but God is a pyromaniac. In the first two chapters of Amos alone, he sets, or threatens to set, seven cities on fire. He seems quite proud of it too, saying, "shall there be evil in the city, and the Lord hath not done it?" (Amos 3.6)
Highlights:

- The divine pyromaniac threatens to "send fire unto" Hazel, Gaza, Tyrus, Teman, Rabbah, Moab, and Judah. 1.4-2.5
- "A man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my [God's] holy name." 2.7
- God killed the Amorite giants, who were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks. 2.9
- "He that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD." 2.16
- All evil comes from God. 3.6
- God afflicted the Israelites with "cleanness of teeth" (famine), drought, blasting, and mildew. He killed them with pestilence, slaughtered them with the sword, and "made the stink of their camps come up into their noses." And yet they still didn't return to him. What is wrong with people? 4.6-11
- Woe is everyone (especially musicians and wine drinkers). 6.1-6
- God burned up the earth and sea, and then he repented for it. 7.4-6
- He stands on a wall holding a plumb line while he talks to Amos. 7.7
- "Thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword … and thou shalt die in a polluted land." 7.17
- God shows Amos a basket of summer fruit and tells him that the end has come. 8.1-2
- "There shall be many dead bodies in every place." 8.3.

- “I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.” 8.9
- “I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head.” 8.10
- Amos sees God standing on the altar. 9.1
- God will kill “the last of them with the sword,” and any that try to escape by diving to the bottom of the sea will be bitten, at God’s command, by a serpent. God will set his “eyes upon them for evil, not for good.” 9.1-4

AMOS 1

1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

(1:3, 6, 9, 11, 13; 2.1, 4. 6) God says there are three or four reasons for him to punish various people, he just can’t remember which it is.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof*; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:*

(1.3) “Thus saith the Lord, For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof.”

(1.4, 7, 10, 12, 14; 2.2, 5) “I will send a fire unto …” The divine pyromaniac threatens to “send a fire” into Hazael, Gaza, Tyrus, Teman, and Rabbah.

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

(1.4) “I will send a fire into the house of Hazael.”

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

(1.5) “I will … cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven … and the people of Syria shall go into captivity.”

6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

(1.6) “Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof.”

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

(1.7) “I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza.”

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

(1.8) “I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod … and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord.”

9 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

(1.9) “Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof.”

> 10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

(1.10) “I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus.”

> 11 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

(1.11) “Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof.”

> 12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

(1.12) “I will send a fire upon Teman.”

> 13 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border:

(1.13) “Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof.”

> 14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

(1.14) “I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah.”

> 15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

AMOS 2

> 2 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof*; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:*

(2.1) "Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof."

> 2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

(2.2) "I will send a fire upon Moab … and Moab shall die."

> 3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

(2.3) "I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD."

> 4 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof*; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:*

(2.4) "Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof."

> 5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

(2.5) "I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem."

6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof*; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;*

(2.6) “Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof.”

7 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name:

(2.7) “A man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name.”

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks*; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.*

(2.9) “Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks.” God killed the Amorite giants, who were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks. (God’s 28th killing: Dt 2.20-21)

10 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not.

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

(2.16) “He that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.”

AMOS 3

3 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

(3.2) “You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.” God punishes the Israelites because he knows them so well.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

(3.6) “Shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?” (All evil comes from God.)

≠294 Is God the creator of evil?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

9 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

(3.12-15) God's creative ways of killing people and breaking things.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch*.*

(3.12) "Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch."

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

14 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

(3.14) "In the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Bethel: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground."

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

(3.15) "I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD."

AMOS 4

4 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

(4.6-11) God afflicted the Israelites with "cleanness of teeth" (famine,) drought, blasting, and mildew. He killed them with pestilence, slaughtered them with the sword, and "made the stink of their camps come up into their noses." He destroyed them like they were from Sodom and Gomorrah. And yet they still didn't return to him. What is wrong with people?

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

(4.6) “I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.”

> 7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered*.*

(4.7) “I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.”

> 8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD*.*

(4.8) “So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.”

> 9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew*: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them:* yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

(4.9) “I have smitten you with blasting and mildew … yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.”

> 10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

(4.10) “I have sent among you the pestilence … your young men have I slain with the sword … and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD."

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD*.*

(4.11) "I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD."

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

(4.12) "Thus will I do unto thee …Prepare to meet thy God, O Israel."

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

AMOS 5

5 Hear ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

(5.3-6) Seek God or he will kill you. (90% of you anyway)

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten*, to the house of Israel.*

(5.3) “Thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten.”

> 4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live:
> 5 But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.
> 6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

(5.6) “Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it.”

> 7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,
> 8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion*, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:*

(5.8) “Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion.” Other translations have “Pleiades” instead of “seven stars.” The Pleiades is an open star cluster that contains thousands of stars, not just the “seven stars” that are easily visible from earth without a telescope. And the constellation Orion is a collection of stars that happens to form an interesting, but temporary, pattern when viewed from earth. It was not purposefully designed by anyone or anything.

> 9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.
> 10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.
> 11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just*, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.*

(5.12) "They afflict the just."
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

(5.14-15) Do good; avoid evil.

14 Seek good, and not evil*, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.*

(5.14) "Seek good, and not evil."

15 Hate the evil, and love the good*, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.*

(5.15) "Hate the evil, and love the good."

(5.16-17) There will be wailing in the streets when God passes through.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

(5.16) "The LORD, the God of hosts, the LORD, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas!"

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

(5.17) “And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.”

(5.18-20) Many Christians look forward to the “day of the Lord,” but according to these verses, they shouldn’t.

18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

(5.18) “Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.”

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

(5.19) “As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.”

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

(5.20) “Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?”

(5.21-27) God rejects the Israelites’ prayers, songs, and sacrifices because they worshipped other gods and didn’t offer enough sacrifices during the Exodus (many centuries ago). To punish them he’ll make them all slaves.

21 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

(5.21) “I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.”

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

(5.23) “Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.”

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

(5.25) “Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?”

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

(5.26) “But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.”

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

(5.27) “Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.”

AMOS 6

(6.1-6) Woe is everyone (especially musicians and wine drinkers).

6 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

(6.1) “Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria.”

2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?
3 Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

(6.3) “That put far away the evil day.”

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

(6.4) “That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall.”

5 That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David;

(6.5) “That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick.”

6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

(6.6) “That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments.”

7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.
8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

(6.8) “The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself … I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city.” God swears to himself that he hates Jacob’s palaces, so he will deliver up the city (and kill everyone in it).

> 9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

(6.9) “If there remain ten men in one house … they shall die.”

> *10 And a man’s uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

(6.10) “Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.” (If God hears you, he’ll probably kill you, too.)

> *11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

(6.11) “The LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.”

> 12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:
> 13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?
> 14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hemath unto the river of the wilderness.

(6.14) “I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you.”

AMOS 7

(7.1-3) Amos' first vision: God makes grass-eating grasshoppers and then repents.

> 7 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

(7.1) "God … formed grasshoppers."

> 2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

(7.2) "When they had made an end of eating the grass."

> 3 The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

(7.3) The Lord repented for this.
≠32 Does God repent?

> 4 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.
> 5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.
> 6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

(7.7-8) God stands on a wall holding a plumb line while he talks to Amos.

> *7 Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

(7.7) “The LORD stood upon a wall … with a plumbline in his hand.”
≠49 Can God be seen?

> 8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more:

(7.8) “The LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more.”

(7.9-11) God will kill the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

> 9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword*.*

(7.9) “I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.”

> 10 Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.
> 11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

(7.11) “Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.”

> 12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:
> 13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king’s chapel, and it is the king’s court.
> 14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet’s son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit:
> 15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

(7.17) "Thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity."

AMOS 8

(8.1-2) God shows Amos a basket of summer fruit and tells him that the end has come.

8 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

(8.1) "God shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit."

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

(8.2a) "He said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit."

(8.2b) "Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more."

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place*; they* shall cast them forth with silence.

(8.3) “The songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place.”

4 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob*, Surely I will never forget any of their works.*

(8.7) “The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob.”

(8.8-9)

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

(8.8) “Shall not the land tremble for this?” (Earthquakes are a punishment from God.)

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

(8.9) “I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.”

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

(8.10) “I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.”

> 11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:
> 12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

(8.11-12) “The days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD … They shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.” (Someday people will actually want to read the Bible.)

> 13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

(8.13) “In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.”

> 14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

(8.14) “They shall fall, and never rise up again.”

AMOS 9

(9.1-4) Amos sees God standing on the altar. God tells Amos that he will “cut them in the head” and “slay the last of them with the sword." Any that try to escape by diving to the bottom of the sea will be bitten, at God's command, by a sea-serpent. God will set his "eyes upon them for evil, not for good."

> 9 I saw the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said*, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and* cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

(9.1) "I saw the LORD standing upon the altar: and he said … cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered."
≠49 Can God be seen?

> 2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down*:*

(9.2) "Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down."

> 3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

(9.3) "Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them."

> 4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

(9.4) “And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.”

> *5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

(9.5) “GOD … toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.”

> 6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name.
> 7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

 (9.8-10) God will destroy the “the sinful kingdom” and “all the sinners” among his people.

> *8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

(9.8) “The eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.”

> 9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.
> 10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

(9.10) “All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword.”

11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them*, saith the LORD thy God.*

(9.15) “They shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them.” Despite this promise, the Jews have been continually uprooted and their lives disrupted. Even today, their land is far from secure.

OBADIAH

We have heard a rumour from the Lord. — Obadiah 1

It's amazing how much bad stuff can be packed into the Bible. There are only 21 verses in Obadiah, for example, but somehow it manages to include:

- The Israelites hear "a rumor from the Lord" telling them to start a war with the Edomites. 1, 8
- God tells Israelites to "destroy the wise men out of Edom" and to slaughter "everyone of the mount of Esau." 8-9
- "The day of the Lord is near." If so, it must have come and past, unnoticed, long before the birth of Jesus. 15
- God will burn all the heathen to death, "for the LORD hath spoken it." 16-18

OBADIAH

> 1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

(1) "Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD … Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle." The Israelites hear "a rumor from the Lord" telling them to start a war with the Edomites.
≠153 How should the Edomites be treated?

> 2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

(8-9) God tells Israelites to "destroy the wise men out of Edom" and to slaughter "everyone of the mount of Esau."

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

(8) "Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?"

9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

(9) "Every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter."

10 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

(15) "The day of the Lord is near." If so, then it must have come and past, unnoticed, long before the birth of Jesus.

(16-18) God will burn all the heathen to death.

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

(16a) "As ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down."

(16b) "They shall be as though they had not been."
≠157 Does hell exist?

17 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.

(18) “The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.”

19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD’S.

JONAH

Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. — Jonah 1.17

Everyone knows about God's whale of a fish tale. So there's nothing much I need to say about that.

There's not much else of interest in Jonah, except maybe that:

- Jonah fled "from the presence of the Lord." (There are some places where even God can't find you.) 1.3, 10
- God made "a great fish" swallow Jonah, who stayed in the fish's belly for three days and three nights. 1.17
- Jonah prays to God from his fish-belly hell. 2.1-2
- "The LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land." 2.10
- After hearing Jonah preach, everyone in Nineveh turned to God, including all the animals. Jonah must have been one hell of a preacher! 3.5
- All the animals in Ninevah put on sackcloth and cried "mightily unto God." 3.8
- "God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them." 3.10
- God prepared a gourd to shade Jonah's head, a worm to destroy the gourd, and then a drying wind and baking sun that made Jonah wish he was dead. 4.6-8

JONAH 1

1 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

(1.3, 10) Jonah fled "from the presence of the Lord." (There are some places where God can't find you.)
≠18 Does God know and see everything?

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

(1.3) "Jonah rose up to flee … from the presence of the LORD."

4 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

(1.4) "The LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest."

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

*7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

(1.7) "Let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah." The sailors cast lots to see who was causing the storm. And it worked, too (casting lots always does), since the lot fell on Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

(1.10) "The men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them."

11 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.

(1.12-15) Jonah believed that by throwing himself into the sea, the storm would die down. So that's what he did, and it worked!

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

(1.12) "Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you."

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging.

(1.15) "So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging."

≠323 Who cast Jonah into the sea?

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

*17 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

(1.17) "The LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights." God makes "a great fish" to swallow Jonah. And Jonah stayed in the fish's belly for three days and three nights.
≠324 Was Jonah swallowed by a fish or a whale?

JONAH 2

(2.1-2) Jonah prays to God from his fish-belly hell.

2 Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

(2.1) "Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly."

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

(2.2) "Out of the belly of hell cried I."

3 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

(2.3) "Thou hadst cast me into the deep."
≠323 Who cast Jonah into the sea?

4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

*10 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

(2.10) "The LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land."

JONAH 3

3 And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

*3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey.

(3.3) "Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey." That would make it about 60 miles in diameter—larger than Los Angeles!

*4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

(3.4) “Jonah began to enter into the city a day’s journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.” Jonah prophesies that in forty days Nineveh shall be overthrown. But it didn’t happen because God repented (Jonah 3.10).

> *5 So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

(3.5) “The people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.” Everyone in Nineveh turned to God? Jonah must have been one hell of a preacher!

> 6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
> 7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:
> 8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

(3.8) “Let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God.” Even the animals converted when they heard Jonah preach!

> 9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?
> 10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

(3.10) “God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them.”

≠32 Does God repent?

JONAH 4

> 4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

(4.1) “It displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.” Jonah was angry when his preaching converted a city.

> 2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.
> 3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.
> 4 Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?
> 5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

(4.6-8) God prepared a gourd to shade Jonah’s head, a worm to destroy the gourd, and then a drying wind and baking sun that made Jonah wish he was dead.

> 6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head*, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.*

(4.6) “God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head.”

> 7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

(4.7) “God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.”

> 8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die*, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.*

(4.8) “God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die.”

(4.9-11) God asks Jonah why he is angry about the gourd. What about the 120,000 people that God planned to kill (along with their animals)? Shouldn’t he be angry about that, too?

> 9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

(4.9) “God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.”

> 10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:
> 11 And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

(4.11) “Should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more then sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?”

MICAH

Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls. — Micah 1.8

One of the verses that Christians love to quote is from Micah.

What doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? — Micah 6.8

Now that sounds nice, doesn't it? Until you read the rest of the book, that is. Here is a summary:

- God will melt mountains and split valleys. 1.3-4
- He will destroy Samaria with stones. 1.6
- "I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls." 1.8
- "Evil came down from the Lord." 1.12
- "Thus saith the LORD, Behold, against this family do I devise an evil." 2.3
- Plucking off skin, flesh from bones, eating human flesh, flaying off skin, breaking bones, chopping bodies in pieces, making human stew. 3.2
- When they "cry unto the Lord … he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time." 3.4
- Watch out for lying prophets that bite (with their teeth). 3.5
- Like a young lion "the remnant of Jacob" will tear the Gentiles to pieces. 5.8
- God will destroy entire cities, and "execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen such as they have not heard." 5.14-15
- He will make his people sick, hungry, and desolate. Those who survive he will "give up to the sword." 6.13-16
- "Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom." Advice like this is only found in the Bible. 7.5

- The Gentiles will be made deaf, shall lick dust, and will be forced to crawl like worms from fear of God and his people. 7.16-17

MICAH 1

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

(1.3-4) God will come down to melt mountains and split valleys.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

(1.3) "The LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will … tread upon the high places of the earth."

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

(1.4) "The mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft."

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

(1.6-7) God will destroy Samaria with stones, while smashing and burning their shrines and images.

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

(1.6) “I will make Samaria as an heap of the field … and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.”

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

(1.7a) “All the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate.”

!!! (1.7b) “For she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.”

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

(1.8) “I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.”

9 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

(1.10-11) “Roll thyself in the dust … having thy shame naked.”

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

⚖ (1.12) “The inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD.”
≠120 Is God merciful?

> 13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.
> 14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.
> 15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.
> 16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

MICAH 2

☺ ⚖ Ⓜ (2.1-3) Micah says “woe” to those that devise evil in 2.1, but only two verses later, God says he is devising evil against “this family.” Woe is God.

> 2 Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.
> 2 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

(2.1) “Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds!”

> 3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

(2.3) “Thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil.”

4 In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

7 O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

MICAH 3

(3.1-4) God accuses the Israelite leaders of plucking off skin, flesh from bones, eating human flesh, flaying off skin, breaking bones, chopping bodies in pieces, making human stew. To punish them he will ignore them when they call on him.

> 3 And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel*; Is it not for you to know judgment?*
> 2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

(3.1-2) "O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel … who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones."

> 3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

(3.3) "Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron."

> 4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

(3.4) "Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them."
≠321 Will those who call on the Lord be delivered?

> 5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth*, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.*

(3.5) "Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth." Watch out for lying prophets that bite (with their teeth).

6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

(3.9-12) Because the prophets and leaders of the nation were corrupt, God punishes everyone.

9 Hear this*, I pray you,* ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

(3.9) "Hear this … ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity."

10 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money*: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.*

(3.11) "The prophets thereof divine for money." Some things never change.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps*, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.*

(3.12) "Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps."

MICAH 4

*4 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

(4.1) "In the last days … the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it." In the last days God will put "the mountain of the house of the Lord" on "top of the mountains."

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

*3 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

(4.3) "They shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more." Well, it's a nice thought, but Joel 3.10 says just the opposite. But what do you expect from a "God of Peace" (Rom 15.33, Heb 13.20) who calls himself a "man of war"? (Ex 15.3)

4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

(4.5) "All people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God." God approves of religious tolerance?

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

(4.13a) “I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD.” God will strengthen the Israelites so they can “beat in pieces many peoples” and give the booty to God.

(4.13b) “The Lord of the whole earth.”
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

MICAH 5

5 Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

(5.2) "But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting." The gospel of Matthew (2.5-6) claims that Jesus' birth in Bethlehem fulfils this prophecy. But this is unlikely since
"Bethlehem Ephratah" in Micah 5.2 refers not to a town, but to a clan: the clan of Bethlehem, who was the son of Caleb's second wife, Ephrathah (1 Chr 2.18, 2.50-52, 4.4).

The prophecy (if that is what it is) does not refer to the Messiah, but rather to a military leader, as can be seen from verse 5.6. This leader is supposed to defeat the Assyrians, which, of course, Jesus never did.

It should also be noted that Matthew altered the text of Micah 5.2 by saying: "And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda" rather than "Bethlehem Ephratah" as is said in Micah 5.2. He did this, intentionally no doubt, to make the verse appear to refer to the town of Bethlehem rather than the family clan.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

(5.6) "They shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword."

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

(5.8) "The remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion … among the flocks of sheep: who … teareth in pieces." Like a young lion, the Jews will tear the Gentiles to pieces.

*9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

(5.9) "Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off."

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

(5.10) "I will cut off thy horses."

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

*12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:

♀ (5.11-12) “I will cut off the cities … And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers.” God will “cut off” the witches and soothsayers.

> 13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

(5.13) “Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.”

> 14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities*.*
> 15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

(5.14-15) “So will I destroy thy cities. And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.” God will destroy entire cities, and “execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen such as they have not heard.”

MICAH 6

> 6 Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.
> 2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD’S controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth*: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.*

⚛ (6.2) “Ye strong foundations of the earth.” The earth is set upon foundations and does not move.

3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

(6.6-7) "Shall I come before him with burnt offerings … Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams?"

≠20 Does God desire animal sacrifices?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

(6.8) "What is good … but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly?"

9 The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

(6.13-16) God will make his people sick, hungry, and desolate. Those who survive he will "give up to the sword."

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

(6.13) "Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins."

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied*; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver;* and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

(6.14) "Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied … and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword."

15 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing*: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.*

(6.16) "I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing."

MICAH 7

(7.1-5) Woe is you, me, and everyone else. Never trust a friend or lover.

7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

(7.1) "Woe is me!"

2 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

(7.2) "There is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net."

3 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

(7.3) "That they may do evil with both hands."

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend*, put ye not confidence in a guide*: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

(7.5) "Trust ye not in a friend … keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom." Advice like this is only found in the Bible.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

(7.16-17) The Gentiles will be made deaf, shall lick dust and be forced to crawl like worms from fear of God and his people.

16 The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

(7.16) "The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf."

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

(7.17) "They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee."

18 Who is a God like unto thee*, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage?* he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy*.*

(7.18) "Who is a God like unto thee … he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

≠144 How long does God's anger last?

≠120 Is God merciful?

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

NAHUM

I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile. — Nahum 3.6

There's not much new in Nahum. God continues to behave in a way that would be unacceptable for any human. But God can get away with anything.

Here are a few highlights:

- God is jealous and gets furious. He takes vengeance on his adversaries and wrath on his enemies. 1.2
- Whirlwinds, tornadoes, earthquakes, and fires are caused by God and are signs of his anger. He dries up oceans and rivers, melts mountains, and throws stones. "The clouds are the dust of his feet." 1.3-6
- God doesn't just get even. He drowns or burns to death his enemies. 1.8-10
- There is "much pain in all loins." 2.10
- God will "discover thy skirts upon thy face … show the nations thy nakedness … and cast abominable filth upon thee." 3.5-6
- He punished Nineveh by enslaving the people and smashing the little children in the streets. 3.10
- "Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women." I guess this ("You're all just a bunch of women.") was the biggest insult God could think of at the moment. 3.13
- God says that "the fire shall devour thee, the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm." 3.15

≠292 Do the wicked prosper?

(1:3b) "The LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet."

(1:3b-6) Whirlwinds, tornadoes, earthquakes, and fires are caused by God and are signs of his anger. He dries up oceans and rivers, melts mountains, and throws stones. "The clouds are the dust of his feet."

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers*: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.*

(1:4) "He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers."

5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence*, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.*

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

(1:5-6) “The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence … his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.”

> 7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble*; and he knoweth them that trust in him.*

(1:7) “The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble.”
≠176 Does God help in times of need?

(1:8-10) God doesn’t just get even; he drowns or burns to death his enemies.

> 8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies*.*

(1:8) “With an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.”

> 9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.
> 10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

(1:10) “While they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.”

> 11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.
> 12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.
> 13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.
> 14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

NAHUM 2

2 He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold*: for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.*

(2:9) "Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold." God encourages stealing from the people of Nineveh.

≠91 Is it OK to steal?

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

(2:10) “Knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins … and the sword shall devour thy young lions.”

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion’s whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions*: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.*

(2:13) “Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots … and the sword shall devour thy young lions.” God will burn chariots and devour the young lions with a sword.

NAHUM 3

3 Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

(3:1) “Woe to the bloody city!”

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

(3:3) “There is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcasses; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses.”

(3:4-6) God will “discover thy skirts upon thy face, … show the nations thy nakedness, … and cast abominable filth upon thee.”

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

(3:4) “Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well favoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.”

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

(3:5) “Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.”

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock*.*

(3:6) “And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.”

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than populous No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

(3:10) "She went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces … and all her great men were bound in chains." God punished Nineveh by enslaving the people and smashing the little children in the streets.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women*: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.*

(3:13) "Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women." "You're all a bunch of women" was the biggest insult God could think of at the moment.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the morter, make strong the brickkiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm*: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.*

(3:15) "There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm."

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoileth, and flieth away.

17 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK

God … had horns coming out of his hand … Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet. — Habakkuk 3.3-5

Sometimes it's fun to quote the bible at parties. One of my favorites is Habakkuk 2.16: "Drink thou also and let thy foreskin be uncovered." Thank God for Habakkuk.

Highlights:

- "Drink thou also and let thy foreskin be uncovered." 2.16
- "God … had horns coming out of his hand … Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet." 3.3-5
- "The sun and moon stood still in their habitation." 3.11
- Habakkuk praises God for slaughtering "the heathen." 3.12-14
- "Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses." 3.15
- "When I heard, my belly trembled … rottenness entered into my bones." 3.16

HABAKKUK 1

> 1 The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.
> 2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

(1.2) "O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!"
≠176 Does God help in time of need?

> 3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

(1.4) "The wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth."
≠310 Do bad things happen to good people?
≠310 Has there ever been a righteous person?

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.
6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not theirs.

⚖ (1.6) "I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling places that are not theirs." God will have the Chaldeans (Babylonians) devastate Israel.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.
8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves*: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.*

☺ ⚛ (1.8) "Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves." The Chaldeans' horses were faster than leopards and fiercer than wolves.

9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.
10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

*12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

(1.12) "O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction."

*13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

(1.13) "Wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?"

≠310 Do bad things happen to good people?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

HABAKKUK 2

2 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

(2.4) "The just shall live by his faith."
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

⚖ (2.8) "Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee." God will strike down the Chaldeans (Babylonians) for attacking Israel. But, in verse 1.6, God made them do just that!

9 Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

(2.15) "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!"

≠71 Is it OK to drink alcohol?

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD'S right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

!!! X (2.16) "Drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered."

≠250 Is every word of God pure?

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

HABAKKUK 3

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

(3.3-5) “God … had horns coming out of his hand … Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.”
≠49 Can God be seen?
≠17 Does God have a body?

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

*5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

(3.6a) “He stood, and measured the earth … and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow.”

(3.6b) “He … drove asunder the nations.”

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

(3.10) “The mountains saw thee, and they trembled.”

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation*: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.*

(3.11) “The sun and moon stood still in their habitation.” This verse apparently refers to Joshua 10.12-13, where God made the sun stand still.

(3.12-14) Habakkuk praises God for slaughtering “the heathen.”

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

(3.12) “Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.”

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

(3.13) “Thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck.”

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages*: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.*

(3.14) “Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages.”

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses*, through the heap of great waters.*

(3.15) “Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses.”

16 When I heard, my belly trembled*; my lips quivered at the voice:* rottenness entered into my bones*, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.*

(3.16) “When I heard, my belly trembled … rottenness entered into my bones.”

17 Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds’ feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH

I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men … their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. — Zephaniah 1.17

God has great plans for us all. Here are some of the details:

- He plans to kill every living thing. 1.2-3
- He will "cut off" all those who "have not sought the Lord" or who worship another god. 1.4-6
- "The day of the LORD is at hand." 1.7, 14
- He "will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel." 1.8
- He doesn't have night-vision, so he needs candles when he comes to punish the people that say, "The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil." 1.12
- He will "bring distress upon men" so that they "walk like blind men." He will pour out their blood like dust and "their flesh as dung." 1.17
- Hide from God and hope he doesn't find you. 2.1-3
- He will kill all the inhabitants of the sea coast. 2.5
- He will destroy Moab and Ammon just like he did to Sodom and Gomorrah. 2.9
- He will kill the Ethiopians with his own sword. 2.12
- "Every one that passeth by her [Assyria] shall hiss, and wag his hand." 2.15
- God brags about destroying cities and killing all of the inhabitants. 3.6
- "All of the earth shall be devoured with the fire" of God's jealousy. 3.8
- The Singing God: "God will joy over thee with singing." 3.17

ZEPHANIAH 1

1 The word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

(1.2-3) God plans to kill every living thing.

2 I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

(1.2) "I will utterly consume all things from off the land."

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

(1.3) "I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea."

(1.4-6) God will "cut off" all those who "have not sought the Lord" or who worship another god.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests;

(1.4) "I will cut off the remnant of Baal."

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham;

(1.5) "And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops."
≠4 Does the Bible condemn astrology?

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

(1.6) “And them … that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.”

> 7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

(1.7) “The day of the LORD is at hand.”

 (1.8-11) God will punish the princes, the king’s children, the merchant people, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel, leap on the threshold, or bear silver.
≠41 Are we punished for the sins of others?

> 8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD’S sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king’s children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

(1.8) “I will punish the princes, and the king’s children, and all that are clothed with strange apparel.”

> 9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters’ houses with violence and deceit.

(1.9) “In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold.”

> 10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.
> 11 Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

(1.11) “All the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.”

(1.12-13) God doesn't have good night-vision, so he needs candles when he comes to rob people of their houses, goods, and wine.

> 12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

(1.12) "I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men … that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil."

> 13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

(1.13) "Their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof."

> 14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

(1.14) "The great day of the LORD is near."

> 15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,
> 16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

(1.17-18) God will "bring distress upon men" so that they "walk like blind men." He will pour out their blood like dust and "their flesh as dung."

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

(1.17) “I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.”

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD’S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

(1.18) “The whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.”

ZEPHANIAH 2

2 Gather yourselves together*, yea, gather together, O nation not desired;*

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD’S anger come upon you.

(2.1-2) “Gather yourselves together … before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD’s anger come upon you.”

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD’S anger.

(2.3) “It may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD’s anger.”

(2. 4-13) God's hit list: Gaza, Ashkelon, Ekron, the sea coast, Canaan, the Philistines, Moab, the children of Ammon, Ethiopians, Assyrians, and Nineveh.

> 4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

(2.4) "Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up."

> 5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast*, the nation of the Cherethites!* the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

(2.5) "Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast … the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant."

> 6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.
> 7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.
> 8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.
> 9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah*, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation:* the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.
> 10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

(2.9-10) “Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah … the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them … because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD.”

> 11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth*; and* men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

(2.11a) “The LORD will be terrible unto them; for he will famish all the gods of the earth.”
≠9 How many gods are there?

(2.11b) “Men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.”

> 12 Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

(2.12) “Ye Ethiopians … shall be slain by my sword.”

> 13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

> 14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it*; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.*

(2.14) “The cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it.” A prophecy for birdwatchers.

> 15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

(2.15) "Every one that passeth by her [Assyria] shall hiss, and wag his hand."

ZEPHANIAH 3

3 Woe to her that is filthy and polluted*, to the oppressing city!*

(3.1) "Woe to her that her that is filthy and polluted." (Only women are filthy and polluted.)

2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.
3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.
4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.
5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.
6 I have cut off the nations*: their towers are desolate;* I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

(3.6) "I have cut off the nations … I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant."

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

*8 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

(3.8) "I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy."

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

14 Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

15 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack.

*17 The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

(3.17) The Singing God: "God … will joy over thee with singing."

18 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.

19 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

20 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI

If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? — Haggai 2.12

The God of Haggai is an active God. He blows houses down, sends drought and hail, shakes heaven and earth, sea and dry land. Yet for some reason the Israelites still didn't like him too much. Weird, eh?

Here are the highlights:

- God huffs, and he puffs, and he blows the house down! 1.9
- After God blew the houses down, the Israelites repaired their houses while ignoring the temple. So God sent a drought to punish them. 1.9-11
- In "a little while" God "will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land." 2.6, 2.21
- "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts." 2.8
- Be careful not to let any holy flesh touch any food or wine, because if you do your flesh won't be holy any more. 2.12
- God sent blasting, mildew, and hail upon the Israelites, yet they still didn't return to him. 2.17
- He will make the horses and their riders be killed by "the sword of his brother." 2.22

HAGGAI 1

(1.1, 15; 2.1, 10, 18, 20) It sounds so much more prophet-like when we are told the year, month, and day of some prophetic nonsense.

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying,

(1.1a) "In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai."

(1.1b) "Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel."
≠264 Who was Zerubbabel's father?

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD'S house should be built.
3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,
4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?
5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.
6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.
7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.
8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

(1.8) "Build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD." God wanted a nice, fancy house to take pleasure in and be glorified in.

(1.9-11) But the Israelites repaired their own houses while ignoring the temple. So God huffed, and he puffed, and he blew on the land, thereby bringing a drought to punish them.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

(1.9) “Ye looked for much, and, lo it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.”

10 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

(1.10) “The the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.”

11 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

(1.11) “And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.”

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORD’S messenger in the LORD’S message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

15 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

(1.15) “In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.”

HAGGAI 2

2 In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying,

(2.1) “In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai.”

2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

(2.6-8) God will shake the heavens, the earth, sea, and dry land. He’ll shake until “the desire of the nations” comes and his house is filled with glory. But if any gold or silver is shaken lose, it’s all God’s.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

(2.6) “I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.”

7 And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

(2.7) “And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory.”

8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

(2.8) “The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD.”

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

(2.9) “The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former … and in this place will I give peace.” God will have more glory than ever when he is settled into his new house, and he might even give some peace.

10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

(2.10) “In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet.”

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

(2.12-14) God has a conversation with Haggai and the priests about holy flesh, skirts touching bread or wine, the cleanliness of dead bodies, and whatnot. The main thing to remember here is this: Don’t let your holy flesh touch any food or wine, because if you do your flesh won’t be holy any more.

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

(2.12) “If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy?”

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

(2.13) "If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean?"

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

(2.17) "I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail … yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD." God sent blight and hail upon the Israelites, yet they still didn't return to him. What is wrong with people?

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was laid, consider it.

(2.18) Consider this: "Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it."

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

(2.20) “Again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month.”

21 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;

(2.21) “I will shake the heavens and the earth.”

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

(2.22) “I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them … every one by the sword of his brother.”

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH

I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another. — Zechariah 11.9

Zechariah is as bizarre as it is cruel. Here are the highlights:

- Zechariah has a long conversation with an angel, a man in a myrtle tree, some horses of different colors, and God. Chapters 1 - 6
- God has seven eyes that "run to and fro through the whole earth." 4.10
- Zechariah sees a 30 foot flying scroll that burns down the houses of thieves and liars. 5.1-4
- God will "set all men one against his neighbor." 8.10
- "Thus saith the LORD of hosts … ten men … shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew." 8.23
- Someday we'll see God flying over us with his lightning-like arrows. He'll be blowing his trumpet and sending whirlwinds down south. 9.14
- God "will hiss for them." 10.8
- "He shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up." 10.11
- "I will no more pity … saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand … And I will feed the flock of slaughter." 11.6-7
- God will force everyone to eat "the flesh of another." 11.9
- He will open his eyes and smite "every rider with madness … and every horse … with blindness." 12.4
- A prophet must be killed by his own parents by "thrusting him through when he prophesieth." 13.3
- God will "go forth and fight" with "his feet" on the mount of Olives. 14.3
- On the day of the Lord, the mount of Olives will be split in two and half the mountain will be removed. 14.4

- God will smite the people with plagues that will cause their flesh, eyes, and tongues to rot away. 14.12
- He will make everyone fight and kill his or her neighbor. 14.13
- He sends his plagues on animals too. 14.15
- Whoever survives all these plagues and slaughters must worship the God who caused them. 14.16

ZECHARIAH 1

(1.1, 7; 7.1) You need to know the year, month, and day that "the word of the LORD" repeatedly comes "unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet."

> 1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet*, saying,*

(1.1) "In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet."
≠286 Was Zechariah Iddo's son or grandson?

> 2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.
> 3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.
> 4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.
> 5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?
> 6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet*, saying,*

(1.7) "Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet."

(1.8-15) Zechariah sees a man riding on a red horse and carries on an extended, multi-way conversation with an angel, a man in a myrtle tree, some horses of different colors, and God.

8 I saw by night*, and behold* a man riding upon a red horse*, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom;* and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.

(1.8) "I saw by night … a man riding upon a red horse … and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white."

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

(1.9) "Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be."

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

(1.10) "The man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth."

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

(1.11) "They [the multi-colored horses] answered … We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest." According to the horses of different colors, "the earth sitteth still, and is at rest."

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words.

(1.13) "The LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words."

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

(1.14) "So the angel … said … Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy."

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

(1.15) "I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction."

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

(1.18-21) Zechariah sees four horns that are sawed off by four carpenters.

18 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

(1.18) "Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns."

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

(1.19) "I said unto the angel … What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

(1.20) "And the LORD shewed me four carpenters."

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

(1.21) "These are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it."

ZECHARIAH 2

(2.1-5) Next Zechariah sees a man with a measuring line in his hand, who told him he was going to measure Jerusalem. Then an angel stopped by to chat, and finally God shows up and says he'll build a wall of fire around Jerusalem, and he'll be the glory inside.

2 I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand.

(2.1) “Behold a man with a measuring line in his hand.”

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem*, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.*

(2.2) “Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem.”

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

(2.3) “The angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him.”

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

(2.5) “I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.”

6 Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

(2.8-9) God says the Israelites are his favorite people, “the apple of his eye.” If you mess with them, he’ll shake his hand at you.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

(2.8) "He that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye."

9 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them*, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.*

(2.9) "I will shake mine hand upon them."

10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again.

13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

ZECHARIAH 3

(3.1-5) Zechariah sees Joshua in filthy clothes standing next to Satan, hanging out with God and an angel. The angel said to take off Joshua's dirty clothes and Zechariah said to put a mitre on his head. So that's what they did.

3 And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

(3.1) "He shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him."

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

(3.2) “The LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan.”

*3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

(3.3) “Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.”

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

(3.4) “He answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him.”

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

(3.5) “I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments.”

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

*8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH.

(3.7-8) “Thus saith the LORD … I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH.”

9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

(3.9) "For, behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes."

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

ZECHARIAH 4

 (4.1-3) The angel wakes up Zechariah and shows him a candlestick with a bowl on top, seven lamps on top of the bowl, and seven pipes on the top of the lamps, with two olive trees next to the bowls.

4 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me*, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,*

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

(4.1-2) "The angel … waked me … and said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof."

3 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

(4.3) “And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left.”

> 4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?
> 5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.
> 6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.
> 7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

(4.7) “Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.” Someday there will be a great talking mountain that will become a plain that will bring forth a headstone that will scream “Grace, grace unto it.”

> 8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
> 9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.
> 10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

(4.10) “Those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.” God has seven eyes that “run to and fro through the whole earth.”

(4.11-14) Zechariah asks about the two olive trees next to the candlesticks, and about the golden pipes, and the golden oil. The angel says they are they are the anointed ones that stand next to God.

11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

(4.11) "What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side?"

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

(4.12) "What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil?"

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.
14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

(4.14) "These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the LORD of the whole earth."
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

ZECHARIAH 5

(5.1-4) Zechariah sees a 30 foot flying scroll that burns down the houses of thieves and liars.

5 Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

(5.1) "Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll."

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

(5.2) "I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits."

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

(5.4) "It shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall … consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof."

5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

♀ (5.7-8) Evil is personified as a woman.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

(5.7) "Behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah."

8 And he said, This is wickedness*. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.*

(5.8) "He said, This is wickedness."

(5.9-11) Two women with stork-like wings fly off with an ephah to the land of Shinar.

> 9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

(5.9) "There came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork."

> *10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

(5.10-11) "Whither do these bear the ephah? … To build it an house in the land of Shinar."

> 11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

ZECHARIAH 6

(6.1-7) Zechariah sees four horses of different colors running to and fro between mountains of brass. They are the four spirits of the heavens.

> *6 And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

(6.1) "Behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass."

> *2 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

3 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses.

(6.2-3) “In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses; And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses.”

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

(6.5) “These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.”
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

(6.6) “The black horses … go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.”

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

(6.7) “And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.”

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;

(6.12-13) The angel shows Zechariah a man named "BRANCH" who will build the temple of the Lord and bear the glory.

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD:

(6.12) "Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD."

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne*; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.*

(6.13) "He shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne."

14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

ZECHARIAH 7

7 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month*, even in Chisleu;*

(7.1) "And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month."

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the LORD,

(7.3-6) Zechariah asks all the important questions. Should we weep alone in the fifth month, as he has for so many years? How about the seventh month for seventy years? And should we eat and drink for ourselves or for others?

3 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

(7.3) "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?"

4 Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,
5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

(7.5) "When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?"

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

(7.6) "And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?"

7 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

(7.9-10) "Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother: And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart."

≠112 How should strangers be treated?

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

ZECHARIAH 8

8 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

(8.2) “I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.”
≠317 Does God ever get furious?

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

(8.10) “I set all men every one against his neighbor.”

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

(8.16-17) "These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates: And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath."

18 And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts*; therefore love the truth and peace.*

(8.19) "The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be … cheerful feasts."

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew*, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.*

(8.23) "Thus saith the LORD … ten men … shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew."

ZECHARIAH 9

9 The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

(9.1) "The burden of the word of the LORD … shall be the rest thereof."

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise.

3 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

(9.4) "The LORD will cast her out … and she shall be devoured with fire." God will cast out Tyrus and devour it with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

(9.6-9) Some strange prophecies

6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod*, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.*

(9.6) "And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod."

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth*: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.*

(9.7) "I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth."

8 And I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more*: for now have I seen with mine eyes.*

(9.8) "No oppressor shall pass through them any more." Israel shall never again be oppressed. Another obviously false prophecy; Israel has been occupied many times since the time of Zechariah.

9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

(9.9) "Thy King cometh … riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass." The gospels (especially Mt 21.4-5 and Jn 12.14-15) claim that Jesus fulfils the prophecy of Zech 9.9. But the next few verses (9.10-13) show that the person referred to in this verse is a military king that would rule "from sea to sea". Since Jesus had neither an army nor a kingdom, he could not have fulfilled this prophecy.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

*14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

(9.14) "The LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the LORD God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south." Someday we'll see God flying over us with his lightning-like arrows. He'll be blowing his trumpet and sending whirlwinds down south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

(9.15) "The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour … they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine."

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

*17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

(9.17) "How great is his goodness … corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids."

≠71 Is it OK to drink alcohol?

ZECHARIAH 10

10 Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats*: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.*

(10.3) “Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats.”

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

(10.5) “They shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them.”

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them*, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.*

(10.8) "I will hiss for them."

9 And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up*: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.*

(10.11) "He shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up."

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

ZECHARIAH 11

(11.1-2) God is strangely preoccupied with burning cedar, fir, and oak trees. "Howl, fir tree … Howl, ye oaks!"

11 Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars*.*

(11.1) "Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars."

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

(11.2) “Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.”

3 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

(11.4) “Feed the flock of the slaughter.”

5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

(11.6-7) “I will no more pity … saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour’s hand … And I will feed the flock the slaughter.”

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour’s hand*, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.*

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter*, even you, O poor of the flock. And* I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands*; and I fed the flock.*

(11.7b) “I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands.” God named two sticks: “Beauty” and “Bands”.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

(11.8) “Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.” God “cut off” three shepherds in one month. God’s soul and the soul of the shepherds loath one another.

> 9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

(11.9) “That that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.”

> 10 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder*, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.*

(11.10) “I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder.” God cut his stick named “Beauty” into two pieces.

> 11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.
> 12 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

(11.12) “So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.” Matthew (27.9) quotes this verse, but incorrectly attributes it to Jeremiah.

> 13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.
> 14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands*, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.*

(11.14) “Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands.” Then God cut his other stick (the one he named “Bands”) into two pieces.

> 15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

(11.17) "Woe to the idle shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened." Woe to the shepherd. He will be mutilated and blinded.

ZECHARIAH 12

12 The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth*, and formeth the spirit of man within him.*

(12.1) "The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth." God set the earth on firm foundations. (So it doesn't move.)

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

(12.4) “I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I … will smite every horse of the people with blindness.”

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

(12.6) “I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire … and they shall devour all the people round about.”

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

(12.9) “I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.”

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

ZECHARIAH 13

13 In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

(13.2) "I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land." God plans to expel the prophets and unclean spirits. Sounds like a good plan to me.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

(13.3) "When any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth." Someday prophets will be killed by their own parents by "thrusting him through when he prophesieth."

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:

(13.4) “The prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision.”

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

ZECHARIAH 14

14 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

(14.1-2) “Behold, the day of the LORD cometh … [when] the women [will be] ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity." God will make "all nations" fight against Jerusalem. The women will be "ravished" and half its people enslaved.

> 3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.
> 4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

(14.3-4a) "Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight … And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives." God will "go forth and fight" with his feet on the mount of Olives.

(14.4b) "The mount of Olives shall cleave … and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south." On the day of the Lord, the mount of Olives will be split in two and the mountain will be removed.

> 5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.
> 6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

(14.7-8) Some strange things to look forward to.

> 7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.

(14.7) "One day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light." Someday (God knows when) there will be a day that will have neither day nor night, but a bright sunny evening.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

(14.8) “Living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.”

9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin’s gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king’s winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

(14.12-18) God’s cruel and evil plan to torment and kill every living thing on earth (except for true believers).

12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

(14.12) “Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.” God will smite the people with plagues that will cause their flesh, eyes, and tongues to rot away.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

(14.13) “They shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.” God will make everyone fight and kill his neighbor.

> 14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

(14.15) “So shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts.” God sends his plagues on animals too.

> 15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

(14.16) “Every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts.” Whoever survives all these plagues and slaughters must worship God.

> 16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.
> 17 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.
> *18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(14.18) “There shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.” God will “smite the heathen” with a plague.

> 19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

(14.20-21)

> 20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD*; and the pots in the LORD'S house shall be like the bowls before the altar.*

(14.20) "In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD."

> 21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

(14.21a) "Every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD."

(14.21b) "There shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD."

MALACHI

Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces. — Malachi 2.3

The book of Malachi is anonymous; Malachi is just a transliteration of the Hebrew words for “my messenger.”

Here are some highlights:

- God, for some strange reason, “hated Esau.” 1.3
- He also hates the Edomites, and his hatred will last forever. 1.4
- He continues to demand animal sacrifices. And not just any animals will do. He is insulted when blind, lame, or sick animals are killed for him. 1.8, 13-14
- Give glory to God or he will curse you. 2.2
- “Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces.” 2.3
- When God spreads dung upon your face, you’ll know where it came from. 2.4
- God will curse you if you don’t give him money and meat. 3.8
- He will burn “the wicked” and the “righteous” will walk around on their ashes. 4.1-3
- The Old Testament ends fittingly with these words: “lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.” 4.6

MALACHI 1

1 The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

(1.1) “The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.” The book of Malachi is anonymous; Malachi is just a transliteration of the Hebrew words for “my messenger.”

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob,

(1.2) "Ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob." Malachi was addressing the skeptics of his day who questioned God's love for them. He explains that God must love them since he loved Jacob, hated Esau, and will be angry with the Edomites forever.

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

(1.3) "I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness." God hated Esau and gave his inheritance to the dragons.
≠131 Does God love everyone?

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

(1.4) "Edom … The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever." God hates the Edomites, and his hatred will last forever. Whenever the Edomites build something, God will tear it down.
≠144 How long does God's anger last?

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

(1.7-14) God continues to demand animal sacrifices. And not just any animals will do. He is insulted when blind, lame, or sick animals are killed for him.

> 7 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar*; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.*

(1.7) "Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar."

> 8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

(1.8) "If ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil?"

> 9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.
> 10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.
> 11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.
> 12 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

(1.12) "The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible."

> 13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering*: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.*

(1.13) "Ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering."

*14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

(1.14a) "Cursed be the deceiver, which … sacrificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing."

(1.14b) "My name is dreadful among the heathen."

MALACHI 2

2 And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

(2.2) "If ye will not … give glory unto my name … I will even send a curse upon you." Give glory to God or he will curse you.

3 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

(2.3) "Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces."
[250 Is every word of God pure?]

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you*, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.*

😊 (2.4) "And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you." When God spreads dung upon your face, you'll know where it came from.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

(2.5) "He feared me, and was afraid before my name."
≠132 Should we fear God?

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.
7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.
8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.
9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people*, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.*

⚖ (2.9) "I also made you contemptible and base before all the people."

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?
11 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

♀🔥 (2.11) "Judah … hath married the daughter of a strange god."

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

(2.15) “Let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.”

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words*. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?*

(2.17) “Ye have wearied the LORD with your words.”

3 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me*: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.*

(3.1, 4.5) “Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me.” The gospel of Mark claims that John the Baptist fulfilled the prophecy given in Malachi. But the Malachi prophecy says that God will send Elijah before “the great and dreadful day of the LORD” in which the world will be consumed by fire. Yet John the Baptist flatly denied that he was Elijah (Elias) in John 1.21 and the earth was not destroyed after John’s appearance.

> 2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner’s fire, and like fullers’ sope:
> 3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.
> 4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.
> 5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

(3.5) “I will be a swift witness against … false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right.” God disapproves of adultery, lying, oppressing workers, and mistreating widows, orphans, and strangers. Does this mean that he also disapprove of slavery?

≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

> 6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

(3.6) “I am the Lord, I change not.”

≠32 Does God repent?

7 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

(3.8-10) God will curse you if you don't give him money and meat.

8 Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

(3.8) "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings." God is robbed by those who don't pay the full tithe.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me*, even this whole nation.*

(3.9) "Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me." God curses the Israelites for "robbing" him by not paying the proper amount of money in tithes.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house*, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.*

(3.10) "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house."

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

16 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked*, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.*

(3.18) "Discern between the righteous and the wicked."
≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

MALACHI 4

4 For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven*; and* all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up*, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.*

2 But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

(4.1a) "The day cometh, that shall burn as an oven."

(4.1b-3) "All the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up … And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet." God will burn “the wicked” and the “righteous” will walk around on their ashes.

> 4 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

(4.4) “Remember ye the law of Moses.”
≠56 Must we obey the Old Testament laws?
≠117 Where did Moses receive the ten commandments?

> 5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD*:*

(4.5) “I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.” (See note for 3.1)

> 6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

(4.6) “Lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.” The Old Testament ends fittingly with these words: “Lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.”
≠40 Will God curse the earth (again)?

THE NEW TESTAMENT

MATTHEW

For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household. — Matthew 10.35-36

The New Testament gets off to a slow start with the gospel of Matthew, whose first words are: "The book of the generation of Jesus Christ." It then lists 39 straight begats, such as "And Naasson begat Salmon; And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab." Believers must be bored silly by chapter one, but skeptics shouldn't be, because the genealogy of Jesus in Matthew 1 directly and completely contradicts the one given in Luke 3. The two don't agree on anything, not even the name of Joseph's father.

But then Matthew is a very contentious book. If you have an opinion about anything, Mathew is likely to disagree with you. The SAB lists 136 contradictions in Matthew, more than any other book of the Bible.

There's more than just contradictions in Matthew, though. In it you'll also find that:

- Jesus strongly approved of the law and the prophets. He had no objection to the cruelties of the Old Testament and said that its laws will be binding forever. 5.17
- To avoid sin, Jesus told his followers to cut off their hands and pluck out their eyes. This advice was given immediately after he said that anyone who looks with lust at a women commits adultery. 5.29, 18.8
- Jesus told his disciples not to pray in public. 6.5-6
- He said that most people are going to hell. 7.13-14
- He sent devils into a herd of pigs, causing them to run off a cliff and drown. 8.32
- Families will be torn apart because of Jesus. 10.21
- Jesus came to destroy families by making family members hate each other. He came "not to send peace, but a sword." 10.34-37

- He condemned entire cities to dreadful deaths and to the eternal torment of hell because they didn't care for his preaching. 11.20-24
- He spoke in parables so that no one would understand him, “lest … they … should understand … and should be converted, and I should heal them.” 13.10-15
- “For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.” 13.12, 25.29
- Jesus was rejected by those who knew him best—the people of his home town of Nazareth. 13.55-57
- Jesus told his followers that he will return and establish his kingdom within their lifetime. 16.28, 23.36, 24.34
- Abandon your wife and children for Jesus and he'll give your a big reward. 19.29
- Matthew’s Jesus rode into Jerusalem sitting on both an ass and a colt (must have taken some practice!). 21.2-7
- “His blood be on us, and on our children.” 27.25

MATTHEW 1

1 The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

(1.1) “The book of the generation of Jesus Christ” The gospel of Matthew begins with a boring genealogy like that we are told to avoid in 1 Tim 1.4 (“Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies”) and Titus 3.9 (“Avoid foolish questions and genealogies”).

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

(1.3) “Judas begat Phares … of Thamar.” Judah “went in unto” his daughter-in-law, Tamar, who was disguised as a prostitute. She conceived and bore Pharez, an ancestor of Jesus. (Gen 38.2-29) It's a good thing it was more than ten generations ago. Otherwise Jesus could not “enter into the congregation of the Lord.” (Dt 23.2)

> 4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;
> 5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;
> 6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

(1.6) “David the king begat Solomon.” There are 28 generations listed from David to Jesus in Matthew's genealogy, while Luke's (3.23-31) has 43. Except for David at one end and Jesus at the other, only three names in the two lists are the same.
≠326 The genealogy of Jesus, Matthew vs Luke?
≠327 From which of David's sons was Jesus descended?

> 7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;
> 8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;
> 9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

(1.9) “Ozias begat Joatham.” 1 Chr 3.11-12 lists three generations between Osiah and Jotham (Joash, Amaziah, and Azariah), but Matthew omits all three.
≠261 Generations from David to the Babylonian Captivity

> 10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;
> 11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

(1.11) “Josias begat Jechonias.”
≠262 Was Jeconiah the son or the grandson of Josiah?

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

(1.12) “Jechonias begat Salathiel and Salathiel begat Zorobabel.”
≠263 Did Jeconiah have any children?
≠264 Who was Zerubbabel's father?

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;
14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;
15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;
16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

(1.16) “Jacob begat Joseph.”
≠326 Matthew vs Luke genealogies of Jesus
≠328 Who was Jesus' paternal grandfather?

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

(1.17) “From David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations.”
≠261 Matthew vs 1 Chronicles genealogies of Jesus
≠325 How many generations from Jesus to Abraham?

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

(1.18) “When … Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.” After listing the genealogy of Jesus, Matthew tells us that Joseph was not Jesus' father after all, which of course makes the entire genealogy meaningless. The Holy Ghost, not Joseph, was the one who impregnated Mary, contradicting many scriptures which clearly state that Joseph was the father of Jesus.
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

(1.19) “Joseph … being a just man.”
≠33 Has there ever been a just person?

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.
21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.
22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,
23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

(1.23) “A virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel” The prophecy given in Is 7.14 referred not to a virgin but to a young woman, living at the time of the prophecy. And Jesus, of course, was called Jesus—and is not called Emmanuel in any other verse in the New Testament.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:
25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

? X (1.24-25) “Joseph … knew her not till” Many Christians believe that Mary was always a virgin, but these verses imply that she and Joseph “came together” after the birth of Jesus, their “firstborn son.”

MATTHEW 2

> 2 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

(2.1) “Jesus was born in Bethlehem … in the days of Herod the king.”
≠330 When was Jesus born?

> 2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

(2.2) “We have seen his star in the east.”
≠4 Is astrology condemned by the bible?

> 3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
> 4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.
> 5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

(2.5) “In Bethlehem of Judaea” Matthew claims that Jesus' birth in Bethlehem fulfils this prophecy. But this is unlikely since:
1) “Bethlehem Ephratah” in Micah 5.2 refers not to a town, but to a clan: the clan of Bethlehem, who was the son of Caleb's second wife, Ephrathah (1 Chr 2.18, 2.50-52, 4.4), and
2) The prophecy (if that is what it is) does not refer to the Messiah, but rather to a military leader, as can be seen from Micah 5.6. This leader is supposed to defeat the Assyrians, which, of course, Jesus never did.

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

(2.9) "The star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was." If the star "went before them," leading them to Bethlehem, then it couldn't have been a star or any other astronomical object or event. But Matthew couldn't have known that. Everyone at the time thought that stars were just little points of light a short distance above the earth. It'd be no problem to have one hover above a particular place for a while.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

(2.11) "When they were come into the house"

≠331 Where did Joseph and Mary live before the birth of Jesus?

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

(2.14) “He took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt.”
≠332 Did Jesus, Mary, and Joseph go to Egypt or Nazareth?

> 15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

(2.15) “Out of Egypt I have called my son.” Matthew claims that the flight of Jesus' family to Egypt is a fulfillment of Hosea 11.1. But Hosea 11.1 is not a prophecy, as is clear when the entire verse is quoted (“When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.”). It is a reference to the Hebrew exodus from Egypt and has nothing to do with Jesus. Matthew tries to hide this fact by quoting only the last part of the verse.

> 16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

(2.16) “Herod … slew all the children that were in Bethlehem … from two years old and under.” Herod kills all boys in and around Bethlehem that are two years old and under. Such a massacre would certainly have been noted by contemporary historians. Yet not even Josephus, who documented Herod's life in detail, mentioned this event.

> 17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying,

(2.17) “Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet” Matthew quotes Jeremiah 31.15, claiming that it was a prophecy of King Herod's alleged slaughter of the children in and around Bethlehem after the birth of Jesus. But this verse refers to the Babylonian captivity, as is clear by reading the next two verses (16 and 17), and, thus, has nothing to do with Herod's massacre.

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt,

20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

(2.23) "He shall be called a Nazarene." Matthew claims this was a fulfillment of prophecy, yet such a prophecy is not found anywhere in the Old Testament.

MATTHEW 3

3 In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

(3.6) “Were baptized of him in Jordan”
≠333 Where did John baptize?

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

(3.7a-11) “When he saw many of the Pharisees … come to his baptism he said unto them … I indeed baptize you with water.”
≠334 Were the Pharisees baptized by John?

(3.7b) “O generation of vipers.” While insulting the Pharisees and Sadducees, John the Baptist calls an entire generation a “generation of vipers.” (Jesus also liked to use this term. See 12.34)

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:
9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

 (3.10-12) Those who bear bad fruit will be cut down and burned “with unquenchable fire.”

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

(3.10) “Every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.”

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:
12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

(3.12) “He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

> 13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

(3.14-15) John has a good point in v.14. If Jesus is the sinless Son of God, then shouldn't Jesus be baptizing John instead of the reverse? Isn't baptism supposed to forgive sins and be a sign of repentance? If so, then why would Jesus need to be baptized? And what the heck is “it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness” supposed to mean?

> 14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

(3.14) “John forbad him, saying … comest thou to me?”

> 15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

(3.15) “Jesus … said … it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness.”

> 16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:
> 17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

(3.17) “This is my beloved son”
≠335 How did God address Jesus at his baptism?

MATTHEW 4

> 4 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

(4.1) “Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.” Jesus is led by the Spirit of God to be tempted by the devil. Which, at least according to James 1.13 (“God cannot be tempted with evil.”), means that Jesus is not God.

> 2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.
> 3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.
> 4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

(4.5-10) The devil correctly quotes scripture (Psalm 91.11-12), while Jesus misquotes Deuteronomy by adding “only” to Deuteronomy 6.13.

> 5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,
> 6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

(4.5-6) “The devil … saith unto him … it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.” (Accurate quote of Psalm 91.11-12)

> 7 Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

(4.7) “Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.”
≠103 Can God be tempted?
≠148 Is it OK to test (or tempt) God?

> 8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

(4.8) “The devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world.” The devil kidnaps Jesus and takes him up to the top of the temple, and then to the top of “an exceeding high mountain,” high enough to see “all the kingdoms of the world.” I guess the earth was flat in those days.

> 9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

(4.9) “All these things will I give thee.”
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?
≠51 Who owns the earth?

> 10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

(4.10) “Then saith Jesus … it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.” (Misquote of Deuteronomy 6.13)
≠336 Should we serve God alone?

> 11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

(4.12-19) After John the Baptist was imprisoned, Jesus asked Peter and and Andrew to be his disciples.
≠337 Which came first: the calling of Peter and Andrew or the imprisonment of John the Baptist?

> 12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

(4.12) “When Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee.”

> 13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

(4.18-19) "Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea … And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

20 And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan.

MATTHEW 5

5 And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

(5.1) "Seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain."
≠338 Did Jesus preach his first sermon on a mountain or a plain?

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,
3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

(5.5-9) Some nice sayings of Jesus.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

(5.5) "Blessed are the meek."

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

(5.7) "Blessed are the merciful."

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

(5.9) "Blessed are the peacemakers."

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.
11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

(5.16) “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works.”

≠339 Should we let others see our good works?

17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

(5.17) “Think not that I am come to destroy the law.” Jesus strongly approves of the law and the prophets. He hasn't the slightest objection to the cruelties of the Old Testament.

(5.18-19) Jesus says that the Old Testament laws are binding on everyone forever.

≠56 Must Christians obey Old Testament laws?

≠147 Will the earth last forever?

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

(5.18) “Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.”

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

(5.19) “Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven.”

> 20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

(5.20) “Except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.”

≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

> 21 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:
> 22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

(5.22) “Whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.” Jesus says that “Whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.” Yet he often calls his critics and disciples fools. Paul is also in danger of going to hell since he liked to call people fools.

≠297 Is it OK to call someone a fool?

> 23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;
> 24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
> 25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.
> 26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.
> 27 Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

? (5.28) “Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.” If a man who looks at a woman with lust commits adultery, and the penalty for adultery is death (Lev 20.10), then shouldn't the man (and the woman?) be put to death?

X (5.29-30) “Pluck it out … Cut it off.” Jesus recommends that to avoid sin we cut off our hands and pluck out our eyes. This advice is given immediately after he says that anyone who looks with lust at any women commits adultery.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

(5.29) “If thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.”

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

(5.30) “If thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.”

31 It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:
32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

♀ (5.32) “Whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery." In Mark (10.11) and Luke (16.18), Jesus condemns all divorces without exception. But in this verse, Jesus says that divorce is permissible when the wife is guilty of fornication. But what if the husband is unfaithful? Jesus doesn't seem to care about that.

≠154 Is divorce ever permissible?

> 33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

(5.34-37) Jesus forbids the taking of any kind of oath. Yet Christians in courtrooms throughout the United States place their right hand on the Bible swear to tell the truth.
≠63 Is it OK to take oaths?

> 34 But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

(5.34) "Swear not at all."

> 35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.
> 36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.
> 37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

(5.37) "Let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil."

> 38 Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:
> 39 But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.
> 40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

(5.40) “If any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.” Don't defend yourself in court.

> 41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.
> 42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.
> 43 Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.
> 44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

(5.44) “Love your enemies.” Well, it's a nice thought. But it seems strange coming from someone who damns his enemies to hell.
≠114 How should enemies be treated?
≠128 How should nonbelievers be treated?

> 45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

(5.45) “He maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.”
≠318 Is anyone good?
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

> 46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?
> 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?
> 48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

MATTHEW 6

(6.1-3) Don't brag about the good things that you do.
≠339 Should we let others see our good works?

> 6 Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

(6.1) "Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them."

> 2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

(6.2) "When thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee."

> 3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

(6.3) "When thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth."

> 4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

(6.5-6) Jesus tells his disciples not to pray in public. Those who favor school prayer, National Day of Prayer, etc. should take his advice.

> 5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

(6.5) "When thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men."

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

(6.6) “When thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray.”

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.
8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.
9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

(6.9) “After this manner therefore pray.”
≠341 Do Christians know how to pray?

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

(6.10) “Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.”
≠342 Is God's will always done in heaven?

11 Give us this day our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

(6.13a) “Lead us not into temptation.”
≠65 Does God tempt people?

? (6.13b) “For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.” These words (used in the Protestant version of “the Lord's Prayer”) were probably not in the original gospel, since they are not found in Luke's version (Luke 11.2-4) or in the oldest manuscripts of Matthew's gospel.

14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

(6.15) “If ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.” Fair is fair!

16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

(6.23) “If thine eye be evil …” There's nothing worse than an evil eye.

24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

(6.26) “Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them.” Jesus says that God feeds them. But, if so, he does one hell of a lousy job at it. Most birds die before leaving the nest, and the few who manage to fly soon die painful deaths of thirst, starvation, predation, disease, or exposure. If God is caring for them, pray that he stays away from you.

Speaking of birds, Jesus asks: “Are ye not much better than they?” This is meant as a rhetorical question, but the answer is far from obvious to me. I guess to Jesus, though, birds are not worth much compared to humans. So you can do whatever the hell you want with (and to) them.

> 27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?
> 28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

(6.28) “Why take ye thought for rainment? Consider the lilies of the field.” A nice analogy, good advice (unless you live in cold climates), and a great movie.

> 29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

> 30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

(6.31-34) Jesus says that we should not concern ourselves with material things, But 1 Timothy 5.8 says that anyone who behaves that way has “denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.”
≠343 Should Christians be concerned with material things?

> 31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

(6.31) “Take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?”

> 32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.
> 33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

(6.33) “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” If you seek God, then he'll take care of all of your needs. No need to work or worry.

> 34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

(6.34) “Take therefore no thought for the morrow.”

MATTHEW 7

> 7 Judge not, that ye be not judged.

👍 (7.1) “Judge not, that ye be not judged.”
≠126 To judge or not to judge

> 2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

👍 (7.3-4) Avoid hypocrisy. Consider your own faults rather than criticizing others.

> 3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

(7.3) “Why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?”

> 4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

(7.4) “How wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?”

> 5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother’s eye.
> 6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

 (7.6) “Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.” Jehovah's Witnesses are told that it is OK to be hide the truth when speaking to those who are not entitled to it (all nonJWs). They call this the Theocratic Warfare Stategy. This verse is used to justify their deceit.

 (7.7-8) “Ask, and it shall be given you … For every one that asketh receiveth.” Mark Twain said there are “upwards of a thousand lies” in the Bible. This is probably the biggest. How many desperate, frightened, broken-hearted parents have watched their children die while begging God to help?

> 7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:
> 8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

(7.7-8) “Seek, and ye shall find … he that seeketh findeth.”
[300 Can God be found?]

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

(7.12a) "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

≠128 How should nonbelievers be treated?

(7.12b) "This is the law and the prophets." If, as Jesus said, the golden rule summarizes the Old Testament's law and prophets, then why are more than 1000 cruel and unjust passages found in it?

(7.13-14) Jesus says that most people will go to hell. He seems to be OK with that.

13 Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

(7.13) "Wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat."

14 Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

(7.14) "Narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

(7.19) "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire." Those who fail to bear "good fruit" will be "hewn down, and cast into the fire."

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

(7.21) "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven." According to Jesus, calling on his name is not enough to get you into heaven. Both Peter and Paul disagree, saying, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Acts 2.21, Romans 10.13).

≠321 Will those who call on the Lord be delivered?

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

MATTHEW 8

8 When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

(8.5-6) "There came unto him a centurion … saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick." Jesus is approached by a centurion who asks him to heal his servant (slave). But when the same story is told in Luke (7.1-7), the centurion doesn't come himself but sends some "elders of the Jews." ≠345 Did the Centurion ask Jesus directly to help his servant?

5 And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

*7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

⚖ (8.7) "Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him." Here was the perfect opportunity for Jesus to condemn slavery. All he'd have to do is say, "OK, I'll heal him. But then you must set your slave free, because slavery is an abomination to God."

≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

> 8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.
> 9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.
> 10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

(8.10) "When Jesus heard it, he marvelled."
≠346 Did Jesus know everything?

> 11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.
> 12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(8.12) "The children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
≠347 What will happen to Jews when they die?

> 13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

? (8.14-15) Peter's mother-in-law was sick with a fever. Jesus healed her by touching her hand, so she could get back to serving them. (Peter's mother-in-law? The first pope was married?)

> 14 And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

(8.14) “When Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.”

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

(8.15) “He touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.”

16 When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

(8.16) “They brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick.”

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

(8.21-22) Jesus tells a man who had just lost his father: “Let the dead bury the dead.”

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

(8.21) “Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.”

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

(8.22) “Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.”

23 And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

(8.24-26) Jesus and his disciples were crossing a lake in a boat when a storm came. Jesus was asleep, so his disciples woke him up. Jesus rebuked them for having little faith and then calmed the winds and the waves. All of which was to show, what? That weather is sent by God and can be controlled by faith?

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

(8.24) “There arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.”

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

(8.25) “His disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.”

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

(8.26) “He saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.”

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

(8.28) “There met him two possessed with devils.”
≠348 How many men were possessed with devils?

> 29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

(8.29) “They cried out … Jesus, thou Son of God.” The devils confess that Jesus is the Son of God. So according to 1 John 4.15, God dwells in the devils and the devils in God.

> 30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.
> 31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.
> 32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

(8.32) “The whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.” The devils ask Jesus to cast them into a herd of pigs. He does, and the poor pigs run off into the sea and drown.

> 33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.
> 34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

(8.34) “The whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.” After Jesus killed the herd of pigs by sending devils into them, the “whole city” asked him to leave. Who could blame them?

MATTHEW 9

9 And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

(9.2-6) Jesus heals a paralytic man by forgiving his sins. (Paralysis is caused by sinful behavior.) Notice that Jesus didn't just heal him, he forgave his sins, which is something only God is supposed to be able to do. ≠349 Is Jesus God?

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

(9.2) "They brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus … said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee."

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

(9.3) "Certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth."

4 And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

(9.6) "That ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house."

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

(9.13) “I will have mercy, and not sacrifice.”
≠20 Does God desire animal sacrifices?

14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

(9.18) “My daughter is even now dead.”
≠350 Was Jairus' daughter alive when Jesus was approached?

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

(9.22) "Thy faith hath made thee whole." If you have enough faith, you will never get sick. (Illness is caused by sin and lack of faith. Medical science is unnecessary.)

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

(9.24-25) "The maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But … he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose."
≠196 Was Jesus the first to rise from the dead?
≠167 Is death final?

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

(9.27-29) Jesus heals two blind men. (Or was it their blind faith that healed them?)

27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou Son of David, have mercy on us.

(9.27) "When Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou son of David, have mercy on us."

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

(9.28) "Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord."

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

(9.29) "Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you."

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.
31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

(9.32-33) Jesus heals a "dumb man possessed by a devil." (Those who cannot speak are possessed by a devil.)

32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

(9.32) "They brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil."

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

(9.33) "And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake,"

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

? (9.34) "But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils." An interesting hypothesis, if you believe in devils, that is.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

(9.35) “Jesus went about all the cities and villages … healing every sickness and every disease.”

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.
37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;
38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

MATTHEW 10

10 And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

(10.1) “He gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.”

(10.2-3) “The names of the twelve apostles are these … Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus.”
≠351 What were the names of the apostles?

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;
3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.
5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:
6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

(10.5-6) “Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.
8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

(10.8) “Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils.”

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,
10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat.

(10.10) “Neither shoes, nor yet staves”
≠353 Did Jesus tell his apostles to go barefoot and without a staff?

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.
12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.
13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.
14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.
15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

(10.14-15) “Whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words … It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city." Cities that neither "receive" the disciples nor "hear" their words will be destroyed by God. It will be worse for them than for Sodom and Gomorrah. And you know what God supposedly did to those poor folks (see Genesis 19.24).

> 16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.
> 17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;
>
> 18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.
> 19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
>
> 20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
> 21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

(10.21) "Brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents." Families will be torn apart because of Jesus. (This is one of the few prophecies in the Bible that has actually come true.)

> 22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.
> 23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

(10.23) "Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come." Jesus tells his disciples that he will return before they can "go over the cities of Israel." Later (24.14) he says he will not come until the gospel is preached throughout the world. Well, his disciples went over the cities of Israel and then died waiting for the "return of the Lord." Now, nearly 2000 years later, and long after the gospel had been preached throughout the world, his followers still wait.

≠354 When will the end of the world come?

> 24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.
> 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?
> 26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.
> 27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.
> 28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

 (10.28) “Fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” Notice that Jesus makes a clear distinction between the soul and the body in this verse. Why would he do that if, as the Governing Body of the Jehovah's Witnesses teaches, the soul is the body?
≠132 Should we fear God?
≠157 Does Hell exist?

(10.29-31) God is involved in the death of every sparrow. He sees to it that they each die painful deaths of starvation, predation, or disease. But don't worry. God will do the same for you. (He thinks that humans are worth much more than sparrows.)

> 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

(10.29) “Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.”

> 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
> 31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

(10.31) “Ye are of more value than many sparrows.”

> 32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.
> 33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

(10.33) “Whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father.” Peter denied Jesus three times before men. Therefore Jesus must have denied Peter before God.

> 34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

(10.34) “Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.”
≠355 Is Jesus peaceful?

(10.35-37) Jesus warns us not to love our parents or children too much. We have to make sure that we always love him more than our family.

> 35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
> 36 And a man’s foes shall be they of his own household.

(10.35-36) “I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.”

> 37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

(10.37) “He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me."

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

(10.41) "He that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward."
≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

MATTHEW 11

11 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

(11.3) "Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?" John the Baptist is still not sure about Jesus. (He's in prison and is soon to die.) He sends his disciples to ask, "Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?" Well, if he isn't sure after seeing and hearing the events at Jesus' baptism, then how can anyone else be?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

(11.11) "There hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." John the Baptist was the greatest man ever to live (even greater than Jesus), but "he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

≠217 Who was the greatest: Jesus, Solomon, or John the Baptist?

12 And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

(11.12) "From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force." Until when? (John the Baptist was still alive when Jesus supposedly said these words.) Jesus continues to bewilder his poor disciples by saying, "The kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force."

13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come.

(11.13-14) “John … is Elias.”
≠356 Was John the Baptist Elijah?

> 15 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
> 16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,
> 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.
> 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.
> 19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.
> 20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

(11.21-24) Woe unto thee
Jesus condemns entire cities to dreadful deaths and the eternal torment of hell because they didn't care for his preaching.

> 21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

(11.21) “Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida!”

> 22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.
> 23 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.
> 24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

(11.23-24) “And thou, Capernaum … shalt be brought down to hell … it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.”

25 At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

(11.25) “Jesus … said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.” Wise and prudent people have always rejected Jesus. They still do today.
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.
27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.
28 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.
30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

MATTHEW 12

(12.1-5) When Jesus and his disciples are accused of breaking the sabbath, he excuses himself by referring to a scripture in which priests who “profaned the sabbath” were blameless. But there is no such passage in the Old Testament.
≠101 Is it necessary to keep the Sabbath?
≠193 Was David alone when he asked for the holy bread at Nob?

12 At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

(12.1) “Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn and to eat.”

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

(12.2) “When the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.”

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

(12.3) “He said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;”

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

(12.4) “How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?”

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

(12.5) “Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?”

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

(12.7) “I will have mercy, and not sacrifice.”
≠20 Does God desire animal sacrifices?

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

(12.10-13) Jesus heals a withered hand.

10 And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

(12.10) “There was a man which had his hand withered.”

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

(12.13) “Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.”

14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

(12.15) “Great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all.”

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

(12.22) "Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him." Jesus casts out a devil from a man who was blind and dumb. (Those who are unable to see or hear are possessed by devils.)

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

? (12.24) "When the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils." This would be a good strategy for Beelzebub. Help Jesus (a false prophet/Messiah) cast out devils, so that the people will (mistakenly) believe in him.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

(12.30) “He that is not with me is against me.”
≠357 Who is for or against Jesus?

(12.31-32) The unforgivable sin: blasphemy against the Holy Spirit
≠358 Is there an unforgivable sin?

> 31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

(12.31) “Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven.”

> 32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

(12.32) “Whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him.”

> 33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.
> 34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

!!! (12.34) “O generation of vipers” Jesus often called people names. One of his favorites was to call his adversaries a “generation of vipers.”

> 35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.
> 36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

(12.36) “Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.”

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

(12.37) “By thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.”
≠359 How are people judged by God?
≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?
≠307 Is anyone justified?

38 Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.
39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas:

(12.39) “An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign.”
≠360 Did Jesus perform signs and wonders?

40 For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale’s belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

(12.40) “Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly.” Jesus believed in the literal truth of the fish story in Jonah. He predicts that he will be “in the heart of the earth” for three days and three nights. If by this he meant that he would be in the tomb for three days and three nights, then either he was mistaken or the gospels are in error. Because according to the gospels (this is one of the few things they all seem to agree on), Jesus was in the tomb for only one day and two nights.
≠324 Was Jonah swallowed by a fish or a whale?

41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.
42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

(12.42) “Behold, a greater than Solomon is here.”
≠217 Who was greater: Jesus or Solomon?

(12.43-45) When an unclean spirit (whatever that may be) leaves a person's body, he goes out to find another. Not finding any, he comes back with seven other spirits more wicked than himself and repossesses the person.

> 43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

(12.43) “When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.”

(12.44) “Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.”

> 45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

(12.45) “Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.”

> 46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

♂♀? (12.47-48) When Jesus' mother and brothers want to see him, Jesus asks, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” So much for Jesus' family values.
≠107 How should parents be treated?

The fact that Jesus had brothers, though, shows that Mary, contrary to Catholic teaching, was not always a virgin.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

(12:47) “Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.”

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

(12:48) “Who is my mother?”

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!
50 For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

MATTHEW 13

13 The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.
2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.
3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;
4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:
5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:
6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.
7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.
9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

⚖ (13.10-15) Jesus explains that the reason he speaks in parables is so that no one will understand him, "lest … they … should understand … and should be converted, and I should heal them."
≠361 Did Jesus have secret teachings?

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

(13.10) "The disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?"

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

(13.11) "Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given."

12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

(13.12) "Whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath." Isn't this from the Republican Party platform?

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

(13.13) "Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand."

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

(13.14) “In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive.”

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

(13.15) “Lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.”

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.
17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

(13.17) “Many … righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see.”
≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

18 Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.
19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.
20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;
21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.
22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

(13.28) "An enemy hath done this." Some Christians believe that the natural evil in the world (predators, parasites, pain, death) is due to Satan, not God.

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

(13.31-32) The least of all seeds "A … mustard seed … is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof." Jesus is incorrect when he says that the mustard seed is the smallest seed. (The epiphytic orchids have the smallest seeds.) And since there are no trees in the mustard family, mustard seeds do not grow into trees large enough to support bird nests.

> 33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.
> 34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:
> 35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

(13.35) "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world." Misquote of Ps 78.2-3 which says: "I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old: Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us."

> 36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.
> 37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;
> 38 The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;
> 39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.
> 40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

(13.41-50) The furnace of fire
Jesus will send his angels to gather up "all that offend" and they "shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth."
≠157 Does Hell exist?

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

(13.41) “The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity.”

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

(13.42) “And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

? (13.46) “Pearl of great price” This phrase was adopted by the Mormon (LDS) church as the title of one of its standard works.The Pearl of Great Price is a part of Mormon scripture.

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

(13.48) “Gathered the good into vessels”
≠318 Is anyone good?

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

(13.49-50) “At the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

☺ ? (13.55-57) Jesus is rejected by those who know him the best—the people of his home town of Nazareth. His brothers and sisters are mentioned, so apparently, contrary to Catholic belief, Mary was not always a virgin.

55 Is not this the carpenter’s son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

(13.55) “Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?”

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

(13.56) “His sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?”

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

(13.57) “And they were offended in him.”

58 And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

MATTHEW 14

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

(14.1-2) “Herod … said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead.” Herod thought Jesus was a resurrected John the Baptist. Apparently, it was a common opinion at the time (See Mt 16.13-14, Mk 6.14-15, 8.27-28, Lk 9.7-8, 18-19). If so many of Jesus' contemporaries could be so easily fooled regarding John the Baptist, what does this do to the credibility of the resurrection of Jesus?
≠362 Did Herod think Jesus was John the Baptist?

3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias’ sake, his brother Philip’s wife.

4 For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod’s birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

(14.6) “When Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.”
≠100 Is dancing a sin?

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist’s head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath’s sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

(14.14) "Jesus … saw a great multitude … and he healed their sick."

(14.15-21) Jesus fed 5000 men (plus women and children) with five loaves and two fishes (with 12 baskets left over).

15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

(14.15) "When it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place … send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals."

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

(14.16) "But Jesus said … They need not depart; give ye them to eat."

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

(14.17) "We have here but five loaves, and two fishes."

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

(14.19) “He … took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and … gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.”

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

(14.20) “They did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.”

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

(14.21) “They that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.”

22 And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

(14.25-31) Jesus and Peter walk on water. You can too, if you have more than a little faith.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

(14.25) “Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.”

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

(14.26) “When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.”

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

(14.27) “Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.”

28 And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

(14.28) “Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.”

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

(14.29) “And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.”

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

(14.30) “But … he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.”

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

(14.31) “Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?”

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

(14.35-36) "They sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole."

MATTHEW 15

(15.1-7) Jesus is criticized by the Pharisees for not washing his hands before eating. He defends himself by attacking them for not killing disobedient children according to the commandment: "He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death." (See Ex 21.15, Lev 20.9, Dt 21.18-21)

So, does Jesus think that children who curse their parents should be killed? It sure sounds like it. But maybe he was just making excuses for not washing his hands before eating. (My kids used to do that when it was time to eat.)

15 Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

(15.1) "Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,"

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

(15.2) "Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread."

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

(15.3) “But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?”

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

(15.4) “God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.”

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;
6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

(15.5-6) “But ye say, Whosoever … honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.”

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

(15.7) “Ye hypocrites.”

8 This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.
9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
10 And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:
11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.
12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?
13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

(15.21) “Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre.” Jesus visits Tyre which according to Ezekiel (26.14, 21; 27.36, 28.19) was not supposed to exist anymore.

(15.22-26) Jesus refuses to heal the Canaanite woman's possessed daughter, saying “it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs.”

≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

22 And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

(15.22) “A woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.”

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

(15.23) “But he answered her not a word.”

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

(15.24) “I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

(15.25) “Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.”

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children’s bread, and to cast it to dogs.

(15.26) “He answered … It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs.”

(15.27-28) After the Canaanite woman grovels a bit more at Jesus' feet and admits to being “a dog,” Jesus cast out her daughter's devil.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.

(15.27) “She said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.”

28 Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

(15.28) “Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.”

(15.29-30) Jesus went up on a mountain and healed “a great multitude” of lame, blind, dumb, and maimed people.

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

(15.29) “Jesus … went up into a mountain, and sat down there.”

> 30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus’ feet; and he healed them:

(15.30) “And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them.”

> 31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

(15.32-38) A “great multitude” had been following Jesus for three days, and were getting hungry. So Jesus told his disciples to feed them. His disciples wondered where they would get the food. But they should have known by now, since Jesus just did the same trick in 14.14-21. These stories are probably the result of two oral versions of the same fictitious story.

> 32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

(15.32) “Jesus … said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat.”

> 33 And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

(15.33) “His disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?”

> 34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

(15.34) “Jesus saith … How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.”

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.
36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

(15.36) “He took the seven loaves and the fishes … gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.”

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

(15.37) “And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.”

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

(15.38) “They that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.”

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

MATTHEW 16

16 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.
2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.
3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

!!! (16.3-4a) “O ye hypocrites … A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign.” The ever-so-kind Jesus calls an entire generation wicked, adulterous, hypocrites. Why? For asking for some evidence that Jesus is who he claims to be.

(16.4b) “There shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas.”
≠360 Did Jesus perform many signs and wonders?

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.
6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.
7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.
8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?
9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?
12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

(16.13-14) Opinions varied regarding the identity of Jesus, but many thought that he was the risen John the Baptist. The fact that people could be so easily fooled regarding the Baptist's “resurrection” casts doubt on the resurrection of Jesus.

13 When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

(16.13) "Jesus … asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?"

14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

(16.14) "They said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets."

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?
16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.
17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

(16.16-17) "Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered … Flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father."
≠363 How did Peter find out that Jesus was the Messiah?

? (16.18-19) Jesus founds the Catholic church, makes Peter the pope, and gives him the keys to the kingdom of heaven. (Protestants hate these verses.)

Of course, the gates of hell have pretty much had their way with the Catholic church since then, as the crusades, inquisition, reformation, and priestly pedophilia testify.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

(16.18) "Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

(16.19) “I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

(16.23) “He … said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan.” When Peter expressed his dismay about Jesus' coming death, Jesus said to him “Get thee behind me, Satan”—a fine way to address his holiness, the first pope!

24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

(16.25) “Whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.” If you want to stay alive, you must lose your life (kill yourself?) for Jesus' sake.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

(16.27) “He shall reward every man according to his works.”
≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

(16.28) “There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.”

MATTHEW 17

(17.1-6) The Transfiguration Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up to a high mountain top, where his face began shining like the sun. Moses and Elijah show up, a cloud came over them, and a voice came from the sky saying, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.” When the disciples saw this, they did what any good Bible character would do: they fell on their faces.

17 And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

(17.1) “After six days, Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain.”
≠420 When did the transfiguration occur?

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

(17.2) “And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.”

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

(17.3) "And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him."

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.
5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

(17.5) "Behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud … said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him."

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

(17.6) "When the disciples heard it, they fell on their face."

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.
8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.
9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.
10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

(17.11-13) Jesus says that John the Baptist was Elijah. But if so, then why did John the Baptist deny it in John 1.21? And what did John the Baptist restore?
≠356 Was John the Baptist Elijah?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

(17.11) “Jesus … said … Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.”

12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

(17.12) “Elias is come already.”

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

(17.13) “The disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.”

(17.14-21) A man brings his epileptic (“lunatic”) son to Jesus to cure, saying that Jesus' disciples tried but couldn't cast out the devil. Jesus rails against his disciples and their “faithless and perverse generation” and asks how long he will have to be around them. He then cures the “lunatic” by casting out the devil and explains to his “faithless and perverse” disciples that some devils require prayer and fasting. He assures them, however, that they can do anything with faith, including move mountains around.

14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,
15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

(17.14-15) “There came … a … man … saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick … for ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.”

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

(17.16) “I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.”

> 17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

(17.17) “Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.”

> 18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

(17.18) “Jesus rebuked the devil … and the child was cured from that very hour.”

> 19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

(17.19) “Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?”

> 20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

(17.20) “ Jesus said … Because of your unbelief … If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.”

> 21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

(17.21) “This kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.”

> 22 And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

(17.27) "Go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee." Jesus tells Peter to pay his taxes with a coin that he'll find in the mouth of the first fish that he catches from the sea.

MATTHEW 18

18 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

(18.3) "Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven." But Paul (1 Cor 13.11) said that we should “put away childish things.” I guess poor Paul didn't make it to heaven.

≠365 Is it good to be childish?

> 4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
> 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.
> 6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
> 7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

⚖ (18.7) “Woe to the world because of offences!” Jesus condemns the whole world.

✒ ⚖ (18.8-9) Jesus advises his followers to mutilate themselves by cutting off their hands and plucking out their eyes. He says it's better to be “maimed” than to suffer the “everlasting fire.” of hell.
≠157 Does Hell exist?

> 8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

(18.8) “If thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.”

> 9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

(18.9) “If thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire."

> 10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

(18.10) "Angels do always behold the face of my Father."
≠49 Can God be seen?

> 11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.
> 12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?
> 13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.
> 14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

? (18.15-17) Jehovah's Witnesses use these verses (along with Dt 19.15 and 1 Tim 5.19) to justify their refusal to report or investigate incidents of child molestation unless two or three JWs have witnessed the event. If witnesses do not come forward (and they are discouraged from doing so since it would embarrass the organization), then the victim is told to be quiet about it.

> 15 Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

(18.15) "If thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother."

> 16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

(18.16) “But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.”

> 17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

(18.17) “If he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.”

> 18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
> 19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

(18.19) “If two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father.” If you can get two other believers to agree with you, and the three of you ask God for something, he will give it to you.

> 20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

(18.21-22) Forgive those who repeatedly offend you.

> 21 Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?

(18.21) “Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?”

> 22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

(18.22) “Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.” Hilary Clinton referenced this verse, saying: “In the Bible it says they asked Jesus how many times you should forgive, and he said 70 times 7. Well, I want you all to know that I’m keeping a chart.”

(18.23-35) In the parable of the unforgiving servant, the king threatens to enslave a man and his entire family to pay for a debt. The servant begs for the king's mercy, and the king forgives his entire debt. But then the same servant found a fellow servant that owed him some money, and he demanded payment. The servant begged for mercy but was thrown in prison instead. Other servants heard about it, and they told the king, who had the unforgiving servant tortured. The parable ends with this: “So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you.” If you are cruel to others, God will be cruel to you.

> 23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

(18.23) “The kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.”

> 24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents.
> 25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

(18.25) “As he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.” (This is the king speaking, who is likened to “the kingdom of heaven” by Jesus.)

> 26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
> 27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

(18.34) "His lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him."

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

(18.35) "So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses."

MATTHEW 19

19 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judaea beyond Jordan;

2 And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

(19.2) "Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them."

3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

? (19.5) “For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife.” Is Jesus praising marriage and condemning polygamy here?

≠15 Is marriage a good thing?

≠16 Is polygamy OK?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

(19.6) “What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.”

≠154 Is divorce ever permissible?

7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

♀ (19.9) “Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.” In Mark (10.11) and Luke (16.18), Jesus categorically condemns all divorces. But Matthew's Jesus (see also Mt 5.31) makes an exception when the wife is guilty of fornication.

≠154 Is divorce ever permissible?

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

(19.10) “It is not good to marry.” After Jesus denounces divorce, his disciples say that if divorce isn't allowed, then “it is good not to marry.” Jesus agrees by saying that it is better to make yourself a eunuch “for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.” Many have castrated themselves attempting to follow Jesus' advice in this verse.
≠15 Is marriage a good thing?

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.
12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother’s womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven’s sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

♂? (19.12a) “There are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb.” Is Jesus talking about homosexuals here?

X (19.12b) “There be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.” Dangerous words from a guy who recommends cutting of body parts if they cause you to sin (Mt 5.29-30, 18.8-9, Mk 9.43-48). It might make someone castrate himself so that he could be one of the 144,000 male virgins, who alone will make it to heaven (Rev 14.3-4).

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.
14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

(19.14) “Suffer little children … to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.”
≠365 Is it good to be childish?

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

(19.17a) "Why callest … me good? there is none good but … God." Apparently Jesus thought he was neither good nor God.
≠349 Is Jesus God?

(19.17b) "If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments."
≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

(19.18-19) "Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." Jesus lists the "ten commandments," but his list has only six, and the sixth is not one of the ten. The commandments given by Jesus are secular, not religious, in nature.
≠366 What was Jesus' sixth commandment?
≠109 To kill or not to kill
≠91 Is it OK to steal?

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

(19.23-24) “A rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven … It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.”
≠301 Is it OK to be rich?

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.

(19.26) “With God all things are possible.”
≠59 Can God do anything?

27 Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name’s sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

(19.29) “Every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.” Abandon your wife and children for Jesus and he'll give you a big reward.

30 But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

MATTHEW 20

? ⚖ (20.1-15) The parable of the unfair, lying employer The kingdom of heaven is like a business that hires workers, paying each the same wage (one penny). Some work 12 hours for the penny; others 9, 6, or 3 hours; and others for only one hour. If one of the 12-hour workers complains about it, his boss says, “Hey, didn't you agree to work all day for a penny? What are you complaining about? From this parable, David Barton (and the Religious Right) claim that Jesus was against the minimum wage.

But the employer said he'd pay the workers “whatsoever is right” (vv.4,7). Is it right for one employee to be paid twelve times as much as another when both are doing the same type of work?

> 20 For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

(20.1) “The kingdom of heaven is like unto a man … which went out early in the morning to hire labourers.”

> 2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

(20.2) “He … agreed with the labourers for a penny a day.”

> 3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,
> 4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

(20.3-4) “He went out about the third hour, and saw others … And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you.”

> 5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

(20.5) “He went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.”

> 6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
> 7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

(20.6-7) “About the eleventh hour he went out, and found others … and saith unto them … Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.”

> 8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.
> 9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

(20.9) “When they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.”

> 10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

(20.10) “But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.”

> 11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,

(20.11) “When they had received it, they murmured.”

> 12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
> 13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

(20.13) “But he answered … didst not thou agree with me for a penny?”

> 14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
> 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

(20.15a) “Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own?”

(20.15b) “Is thine eye evil, because I am good?”

> 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.
> 17 And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,
> 18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,
> 19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

(20.18-19) “We go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.”
≠367 Were the apostles told about Jesus' death and resurrection?

> 20 Then came to him the mother of Zebedee’s children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.
> 21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

(20.20-21) “Then came to him the mother of Zebedee’s children … and … She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.”
≠368 Who asked Jesus for the best seats in heaven?

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

(20.23) "To sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give."
≠369 How much power did Jesus have?

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

(20.28) "The Son of man came … to give his life a ransom for many."
≠370 Was Jesus a ransom for many or for all?

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

(20.29-30) "As they departed from Jericho … two blind men"
≠371 How many blind men were healed?
≠372 When was the man (or men) healed?

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

(20.34) "Jesus … touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight."

MATTHEW 21

21 And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

(21.1a) "When they drew nigh unto Jerusalem"
≠373 When did Jesus' temple tantrum occur?

(21.1b-7) Matthew has Jesus ride into Jerusalem sitting on both an ass and a colt (must have taken some practice!).
≠374 On what did Jesus ride into Jerusalem?

(21.1b-2) "Then sent Jesus two disciples, Saying … Go into the village … and … ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt … loose them, and bring them unto me."

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

(21.4-5) “This was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying … thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.” These verses claim that Jesus fulfilled the prophecy in Zechariah 9.9. But this cannot be since the person referred to in Zechariah (see verses 10-13) was both a military leader and the king of an earthly kingdom. (Matthew had Jesus riding on two donkeys at once since he misunderstood the form of Hebrew poetry used in Zechariah 9.9.)

> 6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,
> 7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

(21.6-7) “The disciples went … And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.”

> 8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.
> 9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.
> 10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?
> 11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.
> 12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves,
> 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.
> 14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

(21.14) “The blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.”

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

(21.19-20) Jesus curses a fig tree and the tree dies immediately (showing the world how much God hates figs). But in Mark's gospel (11.14, 20-21) the cursed fig tree doesn't die until the next morning.
≠375 When did the fig tree die?

19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

(21.19) “When he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.”

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

(21.20) “When the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!”

(21.21-22) If your faith is great enough, you can not only kill fig trees but move mountains around, too. Whatever you ask for you will receive. (O Lord, won't ya buy me a Mercedes-Benz?)

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

(21.21) “Jesus … said … If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.”

22 And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

(21.22) “All things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.”

23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

(21.33-41) God is like a rich man who owns a vineyard and rents it to poor farmers. When he sends servants to collect the rent, the tenants beat or kill them. So he sent his son to collect the rent, and they kill him too. Then the owner comes and kills the farmers and rents the vineyard to others.

33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

(21.33) “There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard … and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.”

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

(21.34) “When the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.”

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

(21.35) “The husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.”

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

(21.36) “He sent other servants … and they did unto them likewise.”

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

(21.37) “Last of all he sent unto them his son.”

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

(21.38-39) “But when the husbandmen saw the son … they caught him … and slew him.”

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

(21.40-41) “The lord … of the vineyard … will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.”

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord’s doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

(21.44) “Whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.” Whoever falls on “this stone” (Jesus) will be broken, and whomever the stone falls on will be ground into powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

MATTHEW 22

(22.1-14) The parable of the wedding feast
The kingdom of heaven is, according to Jesus, like the king in this parable. If so, I'd stay away from there if I were you.

The parable begins with the king sending servants to invite everyone to come to his son's wedding feast. But they all made excuses for not coming, and some even killed the king's messengers. So the king sent an army to kill the people that killed his messengers, burning down the city, as well. The king sent out more servants, telling them to invite everyone, good or bad. At the banquet the king noticed that one guest didn't have on a wedding garment, so the king tied him up and "cast him into the outer darkness" where "there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

> 22 And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,
> 2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

(22.1-2) "Jesus … said, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son."

> 3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

(22.3) "And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come."

> 4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.
> 5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

(22.4-5) "Again, he sent forth other servants, saying … come unto the marriage. But they made light of it, and went their ways."

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

(22.6) "And the remnant took his servants … and slew them."

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

(22.7) "The king … sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city."

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.
9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.
10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

(22.8-10) "Then saith he to his servants … as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage … both bad and good."
≠318 Is anyone good?"

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

(22.11-12) "When the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless."

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.
13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(22.13) “Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot … and cast him into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”
≠157 Does Hell exist?

14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

(22.14) “For many are called, but few are chosen.”

15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.
16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

(22.17-21) Pay your taxes. Keep state and church separate.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not?

(22.17) “What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar?”

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?
19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

(22.18-19) “Jesus … said … Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.”

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

(22.20) “He saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?”

21 They say unto him, Caesar’s. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar’s; and unto God the things that are God’s.

(22.21) “They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.”

> 22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

(22.23-30) There is no sex or marriage in heaven. (Married people either don't go to heaven or they get divorced after arriving. Marriages aren't made in heaven; they die there.)

> 23 The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

(22.23) “The Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection … asked him,”

> 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

(22.24) “Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.”

> 25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

(22.25) “Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother.”

> 26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.
> 27 And last of all the woman died also.

(22.26-27) “Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh. And last of all the woman died also.”

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

(22.28) “In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.”

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.
30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

(22.29-30) “Jesus answered … in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels.”

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,
32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.
33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.
34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.
35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,
36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?
37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.
38 This is the first and great commandment.
39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

👍 (22.39) “Love they neighbor as thyself.” Jesus quotes Leviticus 19.18, by far the best verse in Leviticus, and one of the best in the entire bible.
≠128 How should nonbelievers be treated?

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

(22.41-45) Jesus claims to be the Christ, but not the son of David.
≠376 Was Jesus the son of David?

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

(22.41) "While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,"

42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The Son of David.

(22.42) "What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David."

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying,
44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?
45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

(22.45) "If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?"

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

MATTHEW 23

23 Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,
2 Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:
3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.
4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

(23.3-5) “Do not ye after their works … all their works they do for to be seen of men.”
≠339 Should we let others see our good works?

6 And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,
7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.
8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.
9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

(23.9) “Call no man your father upon the earth.” Not even dear old dad? Was it OK for Elisha to cry out “father, father” as Elijah ascended into heaven? (2 Kg.2.12)
≠107 How should parents be treated?
≠108 Is it OK to call anyone “Father”?

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

(23.10) “Neither be ye called masters.” But elsewhere slaves are told to faithfully serve their masters, and women are told to serve and obey their husbands.
≠42 Does God approve of slavery?
≠336 Should we serve God alone?

11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.
12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

(23.13-36) Jesus calls his critics fools (among other things like hypocrites and vipers), thus making himself eligible for “hell fire.” (Mt

5.22)
≠297 Is it OK to call someone a fool?

13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

(23.13) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!”

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows’ houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

(23.14) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! … Ye shall receive the greater damnation.”

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

(23.15) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.”

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

(23.16) “Woe unto you, ye blind guides.”

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

(23.17) “Ye fools and blind”

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.
19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

(23.19) “Ye fools and blind”

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

(23.23) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!”

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

(23.24) “Ye blind guides”

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

(23.25) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!”

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

(23.26) “Thou blind Pharisee”

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men’s bones, and of all uncleanness.

(23.27) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!”

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

(23.29) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!”

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

(23.31) “Ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.”

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.
33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

(23.33) “Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?”

34 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:
35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

(23.35) “Upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias.” Jesus blames the Jews (who were then living) for “all the righteous blood” from Abel to Zecharias, whom he mistakenly calls “the son of Barachias” (see 2 Chr 24.20)
≠266 Who was Zechariah's father?
≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

(23.36) “All these things shall come upon this generation.” Jesus predicts the end of the world within the lifetime of his listeners.

> 37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!
> 38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.
> 39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

MATTHEW 24

> 24 And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.
> 2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

(24.3-51) The end of the world will be signaled by wars, famines, disease, and earthquakes (6-7). And that's just “the beginning of sorrows” (8). Next believers will be hated and killed by unbelievers (9), believers will hate and betray each other (10), false prophets will fool people (11), iniquity will abound and love wax cold (12). But hey, if you make through all that, you'll be saved (13).

Only one more thing will happen before the end comes: the gospel will be preached throughout the world (14). Well, that and the abomination of desolations will stand in the holy place (15), many false Christs and false prophets will show great signs and wonders (24), the sun and moon will be darkened and the stars will fall (29), the sign of the son of Man will appear in the sky, everyone on earth will mourn, and then, finally, the great and powerful son of Man will come in all his glory (30).

Oh, and all these things will happen within the lifespan of Jesus' contemporaries (34).

Or maybe not. Jesus was talking about things he knew nothing about (36). (See Mark 13.32.)

> 3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

(24.3) “Tell us … what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?”

> 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.
> 5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.
> 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

(24.6) “Wars and rumours of wars”

> 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

(24.7) “Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes.”

> 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

(24.8) “These are the beginning of sorrows.”

> 9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake.

(24.9) “Then shall they … kill you: and ye shall be hated.”

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

(24.10) “Then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.”

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

(24.11) “Many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.”

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

(24.12) “Iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.”

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

(24.13) “He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.”

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

(24.14) “This gospel … shall be preached in all the world … and then shall the end come.” Jesus says the gospel will be preached to all nations “and then shall the end come.” But in Matthew 10.23, he said the end would come before the gospel was preached to all the cities of Israel.

In any case, this is a false prophecy since the gospel has been preached throughout the world (as Paul says in Romans 10.18) yet the world hasn't ended.

≠354 When will the world end?

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

(24.15) “When ye … see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)” If you see the abomination of desolation in the holy place, try to understand. God is trying to say something.

16 Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains:

(24.16) “Let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains.” Why? Can't God find and kill them there, too?

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:
18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.
19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

(24.19) “Woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days.” Why? Does God especially hate pregnant and nursing women?

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:
21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.
22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.
23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.
24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

(24.24) “There shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders.” Jesus himself, according to Acts 2.22, fits this description.

25 Behold, I have told you before.
26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

(24.29) “The sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven.”

30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

(24.30) “Then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all … the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.”

≠377 Will Jesus' second coming be visible to all?

31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

(24.31) “He shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect.”

32 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

? (24.32-33) “Learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.” Based on these verses, Hal Linsey's The Late, Great Planet Earth predicted that the end of the world would occur before 1988. The fig tree represents Israel, Israel came back to life in 1948, and Jesus said the end would come within one generation (40 years).

> 34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

? (24.34) “This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.” Jesus was a false prophet, since he predicted that the end of the world will come within the lifetimes of his disciples. The world didn't end then, and according to Ec 1.4 it never will.

Speaking of false prophets, the Jehovah's Witnesses used to interpret this verse to mean that some of those who witnessed Jesus' return in 1914 would still be alive when Armageddon happened. Now that those alive in 1914 are now pretty much dead, the JWs have given up on this prediction.

> 35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

(24.35) “Heaven and earth shall pass away.”
≠147 Will the earth last forever?

> 36 But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

(24.36) “But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.”

> 37 But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

(24.37) “As the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.” Jesus believed that Noah's flood actually happened and he had no problem with drowning everyone on earth. It'll be just like that when he returns.

> 38 For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,
> 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
> 40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
> 41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
> 42 Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.
> 43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.
> 44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

(24.44) “In such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.”

> 45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

? (24.45) “Who then is a faithful and wise servant?” For Jehovah’s Witnessess, this is the most important verse in the Bible. It is the basis of their central dogma, that the governing body of the Jehovah's Witnesses is the “faithful and wise servant,” or as the NWT puts it “the faithful and discrete slave.” As such, the governing body must be obeyed in all matters and all of their teachings must be accepted. Those who do so will survive Armageddon; those who do not, will not.

> 46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.
> 47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(24.48-51) “That evil servant … The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him … And shall cut him asunder, and … there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” God will come when people least expect him. Then he'll “cut [them] asunder.” And “there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

MATTHEW 25

♀ M X ☺ (25.1-13) The parable of the five well-oiled virgins

The kingdom of heaven is like ten virgins who went to meet their bridegroom. Five had oil for their lamps and five didn't. When the bridegroom was ready for them, only the five well-oiled virgins got to have sex with him on their wedding night. He shunned the other five, saying “Get lost, ladies. I don't even know you.” The moral to the story is this: watch out and keep your oil handy. You never know when Jesus will come.

≠16 Is polygamy OK?

25 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

(25.1) “Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.”

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

(25.2) “Five of them were wise, and five were foolish.”

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

(25.3) “They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them.”

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

(25.4) “But the wise took oil in their vessels.”

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.
6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

(25.6) “At midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.”

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.
8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.
9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.
10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

(25.10) “The bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.”

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

(25.11) “Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.”

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

(25.12) “He answered … I know you not.”

> 13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

(25.13) “Ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.”

(25.14-30) The parable of the cruel and unjust master
The kingdom of heaven is like a rich man who distributed his wealth to his servants while he traveled. He gave five talents to one servant, two to another, and one to a third. When he returned, the servant with five talents had made five more, the servant with two made two more, but the servant with one talent only had the talent his master entrusted to him. The master rewarded the servants that invested his money (without his permission—what would have happened if the stock market went down during their master's travels?) and took the talent from the single-talent servant and gave it to the one with ten talents. “For unto every one that hath shall be given … but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.” Then the cruel and unjust master cast the servant who carefully protected his master's talent into the “outer darkness: [where] there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

> 14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

(25.14) “The kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling … who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.”

> 15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

(25.15) “Unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one.”

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

(25.16-18) "He that had received the five talents … made … five talents. He that had received two … gained … two. But he that had received one … hid his lord's money."

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

(25.19) "After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them."

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

(25.20-21) "He that had received five talents … [said] I have gained … five talents more. His lord said … Well done … enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

(25.22-23) "He … that had received two talents … said … I have gained two other talents … His lord said unto him, Well done … enter thou into the joy of thy lord."

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

(25.24-25) "Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord … there thou hast that is thine."

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

(25.26-28) "His lord … said … Thou wicked and slothful servant … Take … the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten."

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

(25.29) "For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath." Jesus will give to those who already have and take from those who have nothing. He must've been a Republican.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

(25.30) "Cast … the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

 (25.31-46) Jesus judges the nations.

31 When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

(25.31) “When the Son of man shall come in his glory … then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.”

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

(25.32) “Before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them … as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats.”

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

(25.33) “He shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.”

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

(25.40) “And the King shall answer … Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.”

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

MATTHEW 26

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

(26.1-2) “Jesus … said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.”
≠367 Did Jesus forewarn his disciples about his coming death?

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

⚖ (26.6-11) Ointment for Jesus' head is more important than helping the poor.

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

(26.6-7) “When Jesus was in Bethany … there came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head.”

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

(26.8) “When his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?”

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

(26.9) “For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.”

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

(26.10) “Jesus … said … she hath wrought a good work upon me.”

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.

(26.11) “For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.”

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

(26.26-28) Jesus tells his disciples to eat his body and drink his blood. Did he mean this literally or figuratively? The question has divided Christians since the Reformation, but it's impossible to tell from the passage itself. If God inspired the Bible, shouldn't he have made its interpretation clear?

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

(26.26) “Jesus took bread … and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.”

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

(26.27-28) “And he took the cup … and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it. For this is my blood.”

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom.

(26.29) “I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.” Woohoo! There will be wine to drink in heaven.
≠71 Is it OK to drink alcohol?

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.
31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.
32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

(26.31-32) “Then saith Jesus … it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.”
≠367 Did Jesus forewarn his disciples about his coming death?

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.
34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

(26.33-34) “Peter … said … Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended. Jesus said … this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.”
≠379 Did Jesus say before the cock crow or before the cock crow twice?
≠380 Did the cock crow before or after Peter's denial?

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face*, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible,* let this cup pass from me*: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.*

(26.39a) "And he went a little farther, and fell on his face."

(26.39b) "Let this cup pass from me."

≠381 Did Jesus ask God to save him from crucifixion?

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas*, one of the twelve,* came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he*: hold him fast.*

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.

(26.47-49) “Judas … came, and … gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he … And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him.”
≠382 Did Judas identify Jesus with a kiss?

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.
51 And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest’s, and smote off his ear.
52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

(26.51-52) “One of them … drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear. Then said Jesus … Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.”
≠355 Did Jesus come to bring peace?

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?
54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?
55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.
56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

(26.56) “All this was done, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.” What scriptures? What prophets? There is no such prophecy in the Old Testament.

57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

(26.57) “And they … led him away to Caiaphas.”
≠383 Was Jesus taken to Caiaphas or Annas first?

> 58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest’s palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.
> 59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;
> 60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,
> 61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

(26.59-61) “The chief priests … sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; But found none … At the last came two false witnesses, And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.”
≠384 Did Jesus say, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up”?

> 62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

(26.63-64) When the high priest asks Jesus if he is “the Christ, the Son of God,” Jesus hedges by saying, “Thou hast said.” In Mark (14.62), Jesus answered directly by saying, “I am.” In both gospels he falsely prophesies that the high priest would see his second coming.
≠385 How did Jesus respond to the high priest?

> 63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

(26.63) “The high priest … said … I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.”

> 64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

(26.64) “Jesus saith … Thou hast said … Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.”

> 65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.
> 66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.
> 67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands,
> 68 Saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

(26.69-74) ≠386 To whom did Peter deny knowing Jesus?

> 69 Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

(26.69) “Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus.”

> 70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

(26.70) “But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.”

> 71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

(26.71) “Another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus.”

> 72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

(26.72) “Again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.”

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

(26.73) “After a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.”

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

(26.74) “Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man.”

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

MATTHEW 27

27 When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

(27.3-5) “Judas … went and hanged himself.”
≠387 How did Judas die?

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

(27.6-7) "The chief priests took the silver pieces … and bought with them the potter's field."
≠388 Who bought the Potter's field?
≠389 What did Judas do with the silver?

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

(27.8) "Unto this day" The phrase "unto this day" shows that the gospel of Matthew was written long after the events it describes.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

(27.9-10) "Spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value; And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me." This is not a quote from Jeremiah, but a misquote of Zechariah (11.12-13).

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

(27.12-14) ≠390 Was Jesus silent during his trial?

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

(27.12) "When he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing."

13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

(27.13) “Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?”

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

(27.14) “He answered him to never a word.”

15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

(27.25) “His blood be on us, and on our children.” This verse blames the Jews for the death of Jesus and has been used to justify their persecution for twenty centuries.

> 26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.
> 27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.
> 28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

(27.27-28) “Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus … and they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.”
≠391 Who put the robe on Jesus?
≠392 What color was Jesus' robe?

> 29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!
> 30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.
> 31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.
> 32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

(27.32) “They found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.”
393 Who carried Jesus' cross?

> 33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,
> 34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

(27.34) “They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall.”
≠394 What did the soldiers give Jesus to drink?

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

(27.37) "This is Jesus the King of the Jews." None of the gospels agree on the wording of the sign placed over Jesus' head.
≠395 What did the sign say?

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

(27.44) "The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth."
≠396 Did both thieves revile Jesus?

(27.45-53) When Jesus was crucified, there was three hours of complete darkness "over all the land." And when he died, there was a great earthquake with many corpses walking the streets of Jerusalem. It is strange that there is no record of any of these extraordinary events outside of the gospels.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

(27.45) “From the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.”

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

(27.46) “My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?”
≠397 What were the last words of Jesus?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.
48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a spunge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.
49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.
50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

(27.51) “The veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent.”
≠398 When did the Temple curtain rip?

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,
53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

(27.52-53) “The graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.”
≠196 Was Jesus the first to rise from the dead?
≠167 Is death final?

54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

(27.54) "Truly this was the Son of God."
≠399 What did the centurion call Jesus?

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him:

(27.55) "Many women were there beholding afar off."
≠400 From where did the women watch?

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children.

(27.57-60) ≠401 Who buried Jesus?

57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple:
58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

(27.57-58) "A rich man of Arimathaea, named Joseph … went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered."

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,
60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

(27.59-60) "When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock."

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

MATTHEW 28

28 In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

(28.1) "As it began to dawn … came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre."

≠402 How many women went to the sepulchre?

≠403 When did they arrive?

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

(28.2a) "There was a great earthquake."

(28.2b) "The angel of the Lord … rolled back the stone … and sat upon it."

≠404 Whom did they see at the tomb?

≠405 Was the tomb open or closed?
≠406 Were the men or angels inside or outside the tomb when first seen?

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow:
4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

(28.3-4) "His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men."

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.
6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

(28.6) "He is risen." Jesus came back to life after being dead for a while.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.
8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

(28.8) "They departed quickly … and did run to bring his disciples word."
≠407 Did they immediately tell the disciples?

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

(28.9) "As they went to tell his disciples … Jesus met them…. And they came and held him by the feet."
≠408 To whom did Jesus first appear?
≠409 Did Mary Magdalene recognize Jesus?

≠410 Was it OK to touch the risen Jesus?
≠411 Was Mary Magdalene happy or sad when she saw the risen Jesus?

> 10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

(28.10) "Go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me."
≠412 Where did Jesus tell his disciples to meet him?

> 11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.
> 12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers,
> 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.
> 14 And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you.
> 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

(28.15) "Until this day" Once again (see also 27.8), the phrase "until this day" implies that the gospel of Matthew was not written until long after the events supposedly occurred.

> 16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

(28.16) "The eleven disciples went away into Galilee."
≠413 How many disciples did Jesus appear to in his first post resurrection appearance?

> 17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

(28.17) "When they saw him … some doubted." Even some of Jesus' apostles doubted that the allegedly risen Christ was really Jesus. Well if they weren't sure, how could we ever be?

> 18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

(28.18) “All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.”
≠369 How much power did Jesus have?

> 19 Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

(28.19) “Teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.”
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?
≠414 In whose name is baptism to be performed?

> 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

MARK

And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. — Mark 3.21

Mark is the shortest gospel and was the first to be written. It served as source material for the other synoptic gospels (Matthew and Luke). As with the others, no one knows who the author was, but that didn't stop believers from claiming its author was Mark, the companion of Peter. The original gospel ended without anyone seeing the resurrected Jesus or any of the cool stuff about the signs of true believers (snake handling, casting out devils, drinking poison, etc.) and the unconditional consequence of non-belief ("He who believeth not is damned.")—which was added later (16.9-20). Believers have been embarrassed by it ever since.

Highlights:

- Jesus healed "all that were diseased" by casting out devils. The devils knew Jesus was the Son of God, but Jesus told them to shut up about it. 1.32-34, 3.11-12
- His friends and neighbors are offended by him and/or think he is insane. 3.21, 6.2-5
- He gets angry at those who said that he had an unclean spirit, so he announces the unforgivable sin: blasphemy against the Holy Ghost. 3.29
- He shows disrespect for his mother and family by asking, "Who is my mother, or my brethren?" 3.31-34
- He explains why he speaks in parables: to confuse people so they will go to hell. 4.10-12
- He says that those who have been less fortunate in this life will have it even worse in the life to come. 4.25
- He sends the devils into 2000 pigs, causing them to drown in the sea. 5.11-17
- Any city that doesn't "receive" the followers of Jesus will be destroyed in a manner even more savage than that of Sodom and

Gomorrah. 6.11

- Jesus criticizes the Jews for not killing their disobedient children according to Old Testament law. 7.9-10
- He refused to cast out a devil from a Greek woman's daughter, calling her a "dog". After much pleading, he finally agrees to cast out her daughter's devil. 7.25-30
- He put his fingers in a deaf man's ears, then spit and touched his tongue, and cured a blind man by spitting in his eyes. 7.32-35, 8.22-23
- He falsely prophesied that the end of the world would come within his listeners' lifetimes. 9.1, 13.30
- He said that John the Baptist was Elijah, but John the Baptist explicitly denied it in John 1.21. 9.13
- He tells us to cut off our hands and feet, and pluck out our eyes to avoid going to hell. 9.43-49
- He will reward men who abandon their wives and families. 10.29-30
- He kills a fig tree for not bearing figs, even though it was out of season. 11.13-14
- The risen Jesus transformed himself into a different form, appearing as a completely different person. 16.12-13
- "He that believeth not shall be damned." 16.16
- True followers of Christ routinely perform the following tricks: cast out devils, speak in tongues, handle poisonous snakes, drink poisons without harm, and cure the sick by touching them. 16.17-18

MARK 1

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God;
2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

(1.2) "As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee." This verse claims that John the Baptist fulfilled the prophecy given in Malachi (3.1, 4.1, 5). But the Malachi prophecy says that God will send Elijah before "the great and dreadful day of the LORD" in which the world will be consumed by fire. John the Baptist flatly denied that he was Elijah (Elias) in John 1.21 and the earth was not destroyed after John's appearance.

> 3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
> 4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.
> 5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.
> 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;
> 7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.
> 8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.
> *9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

(1.9) "Jesus … was baptized of John in Jordan.
≠333 Where did John baptize?

> *10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:
> 11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

(1.10-11a) And … the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: And there came a voice from heaven."

(1.11b) "Thou art my beloved son."
≠335 How did God address Jesus at his baptism?

> 12 And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan*; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.*

(1.12-13) “Immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness. And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan.”
≠415 What did Jesus do after his baptism?

(1.14-17) ≠337 Which came first: the calling of Peter and Andrew or the imprisonment of John the Baptist?

14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee*, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,*

(1.14) “After that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee.”

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.
16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea*: for they were fishers.*

(1.16) “As he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea.”

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

(1.17) “Jesus said … Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.”

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.
19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.
20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

(1.21, 29) ≠416 Where did Peter and Andrew live?

21 And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

(1.21) "They went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue."

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

(1.23-26) Jesus casts out a godly "unclean spirit."

*23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,
*24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

(1.23-24) "There was … a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, Saying … I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God."
≠417 Are those who believe that Jesus is the Christ "of God"?

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

(1.25) "Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace."

*26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

(1.26) "When the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him."

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.
28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew*, with James and John.*

(1.29) "When they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew."

(1.30-31) Peter's mother-in-law was sick with a fever. Jesus healed her by touching her hand, so she could get back to serving them. (Peter's mother-in-law? The first pope was married?)

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever*, and anon they tell him of her.*

(1.30) "Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever."

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

(1.31) "He came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them."

(1.32-34) Jesus heals "all that were diseased" by casting out devils. The devils knew Jesus, but Jesus told them to shut up about it.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

(1.32) "They brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils."

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.
34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him.

(1.34) "He healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not the devils to speak, because they knew him."

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

(1.39) "And he … cast out devils."

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

2 And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door:

and he preached the word unto them.

(2.3-12) Jesus heals a paralytic man by forgiving his sins. (Paralysis is caused by sinful behavior.) Notice that Jesus didn't just heal him, he forgave his sins, which is something only God is supposed to be able to do.
≠349 Is Jesus God?

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

(2.3) "They come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy."

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.
*5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

(2.5) "When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee."

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,
*7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

(2.6-7) "The scribes [said] why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?"

8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?
9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?
*10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

(2.10-11) “That ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) … Arise, and take up thy bed, and go.”

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

(2.12) “And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went.”

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

(2.25-26) ≠193 Was David alone when he asked for the holy bread at Nob?
≠192 When David fled to Nob, what was the priest's name?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

(2.25) "Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?"

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

(2.26) "How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?"

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

(3.1-5) Jesus heals a man with a "withered hand."

3 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

(3.1) “There was a man there which had a withered hand.”

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

(3.5) “He saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.”

6 And the Pharisees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

(3.11-12) Although the disciples weren’t sure about Jesus, even after his alleged resurrection, the “unclean spirits” knew that he was “the son of God.” But Jesus told them not to tell anyone.

≠417 Are those who believe that Jesus is the Christ “of God”?

*11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

(3.11) "Unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God."

*12 And he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

(3.12) "He straitly charged them that they should not make him known."

13 And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.
14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,
15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

(3.14-15) "He ordained twelve, that they should … have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils."

16 And Simon he surnamed Peter;
17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, The sons of thunder:
18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite,

(3.18) "Thaddeus"
Mark says that Thaddeus was one of the twelve apostles, but his name is not included in the lists given in Luke (6.14-16) or Acts (1.13), which list Judas the brother of James instead.
≠351 Who were the apostles?

19 And Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him: and they went into an house.
20 And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.

21 And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.

(3.21) "His friends … went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself." Jesus' friends thought he was insane.

22 And the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

(3.22) "He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils." The scribes think that Jesus casts out devils by the power of the prince of devils, Beelzebub.

23 And he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?
24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.
26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.
27 No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.
28 Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:
29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

(3.29) "He that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation." Jesus is angry at those who said that he had an unclean spirit, so he announces the unforgivable sin: blasphemy against the Holy Ghost.
≠358 Is there an unforgivable sin?

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

♂ ♀ (3.31-34) Jesus shows disrespect for his mother and family by asking, “Who is my mother, or my brethren?” when he is told that his family wants to speak with him.

MARK 4

> 4 And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

(4.10-12) Jesus explains why he speaks in parables: to confuse people so they will go to hell.

10 And when he was alone*, they that were about him with* the twelve asked of him the parable.

(4.10) "When he was alone … the twelve asked of him the parable."

(4.25) “For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.” —The US Republican Party motto.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

(4.31) "A … mustard seed, which … is less than all the seeds that be in the earth." Jesus is incorrect when he says that the mustard seed is the smallest seed. (The smallest seeds are those of the epiphytic orchids.)

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

(4.39) “He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.”

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

MARK 5

5 And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

(5.2) “When he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit.”
≠348 How many men were possessed with devils?

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God*? I adjure thee by God, that thou* torment me not.

(5.13) “Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.”

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

*17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

(5.17) “They began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.”

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

(5.23) “My little daughter lieth at the point of death.”

≠350 Was Jairus’ daughter alive when Jesus was approached?

24 And Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

(5.25-42) So this is where all those phony faith-healing stories came from! Notice that the doctors made her condition worse, but she was instantly cured by faith.

25 And a certain woman*, which* had an issue of blood twelve years,

(5.25) "A certain woman … had an issue of blood twelve years."

30 And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

(5.30) “Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned … and said, Who touched my clothes?” Jesus loses some virtue whenever sick women touch him.
≠346 Did Jesus know everything?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?
32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.
33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.
34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

(5.34) “Thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.” If you have enough faith, you will never get sick. (Illness is caused by sin and lack of faith. Medical science is unnecessary.)

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue’s house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?
36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.
37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.
38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.
39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

(5.39) “When he was come in, he saith unto them, Why … weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.”

40 And they laughed him to scorn*. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.*

(5.40) “And they laughed him to scorn.”

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

(5.41) “He took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her … arise.”

42 And straightway the damsel arose*, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.*

(5.42) “And straightway the damsel arose.”
≠167 Is death final?

43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

MARK 6

6 And he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work*, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.*

? (6.3a) “Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary?” This is the only verse in the New Testament where Jesus is referred to as a carpenter. And in the earliest manuscript of Mark, the verse says, “Is not this the son of the carpenter?” Apparently it wasn’t in any of the Gospels at the time of Origen, who said that “in none of the Gospels current in the Churches is Jesus himself ever described as being a carpenter.”

? (6.3b) “The brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us?” Jesus had at least six siblings, four brothers and at least two sisters. Yet it is a doctrine of the Catholic church that Mary was always a virgin.

☺ (6.3c-5) “They were offended at him … and he could do there no mighty work.” Jesus is rejected by those who knew him the best, the people from his home town of Nazareth.
≠369 How much power did Jesus have?
≠59 Can God do anything?

> 6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.
> 7 And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

☺ (6.7) “He called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits.” Jesus sends out his apostles, two by two, to cast out unclean spirits.

> 8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only*; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:*
> 9 But be shod with sandals*; and not put on two coats.*

(6.8-9) “And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only … But be shod with sandals.”
≠353 Did Jesus tell his apostles to go barefoot and without a staff?

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

*11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

(6.11) "Whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you … It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city." Any city that doesn't receive the followers of Jesus will be destroyed in a manner even more savage than that of Sodom and Gomorrah.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

*13 And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

(6.13) "They cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them."

14 And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

(6.14) "King Herod heard of him [Jesus] … and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead."

15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

(6.15) "Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets."

*16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

(6.16) "When Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead."

≠362 Did Herod think Jesus was John the Baptist?

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

(6.20) "Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man."
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

(6.34-44) Jesus fed 5000 men (plus women and children) with five loaves and two fishes (with 12 baskets left over).

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

(6.34-37) "Jesus … saw much people, and was moved with compassion … and said unto them, Give ye them to eat."

*38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

(6.38) "He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? … they say, Five, and two fishes."

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

*41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

(6.41) "When he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he … brake the loaves … and the two fishes divided he among them all."

*42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

(6.42) "They did all eat, and were filled."

*43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

(6.43) "And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes."

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

(6.44) "They that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men."

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

(6.48-51) Jesus walks on water and calms the sea.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.*

(6.48) “He saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and … he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea.”

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

(6.49) “When they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out.”

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

(6.50) “He … saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.”

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered*.*

(6.51) “He went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed … and wondered.”

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole*.*

(6.56) “Whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.”

MARK 7

7 Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables.

(7.5-10) Jesus is criticized by the Pharisees for not washing his hands before eating. He defends himself by attacking them for not killing disobedient children according to the commandment: “He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.” (See Ex 21.15, Lev 20.9, Dt 21.18-21)

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

(7.5) “The Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?”

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

*10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

(7.9-10) "He [Jesus] said … Ye reject the commandment of God … For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death."

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

*18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

(7.18) "Whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him."

≠13 What should we eat?

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

(7.22-23) "An evil eye … defile the man."

24 And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

(7.24) "From thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre." Ezekiel (26.14, 21, 27.36) prophesied that Tyre would be completely destroyed, never to be built again. But it wasn't destroyed and continued to exist, as shown by this verse in which Jesus visits Tyre.

(7.25-30) Jesus initially refused to cast out a devil from a Greek woman's daughter, calling the woman a "dog". After much pleading, he finally agrees to cast out her daughter's devil.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

(7.25) "A certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet."

26 The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

(7.26) "The woman was a Greek … and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter."

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

(7.27) "But Jesus said … it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs."

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

(7.28) "She … said … Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs."

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

(7.29) "He said … For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter."

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out*, and her daughter laid upon the bed.*

(7.30) "When she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out."

31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

(7.32-35) Jesus puts his fingers in a deaf man's ears, then spits and touches his tongue. This treatment immediately cured his deafness.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech*; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.*

(7.32) "They bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech."

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue*;*

(7.33) “He … put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue.”

> 34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.
> 35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed*, and he spake plain.*

(7.35) “And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed.”

> 36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;
> 37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

MARK 8

(8.1-9) The disciples wonder where they’ll get food for thousands of people. But they ought to know by now, since Jesus did that trick in Mark 6.34-44. This “doublet” was probably the result of two oral traditions of the same story.

> 8 In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them*,*
> 2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat*:*

(8.1-2) “Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat.”

> 3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

*4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

(8.4) “His disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?”

*5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

(8.5) “He asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.”

*6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

(8.6) “He took the seven loaves … and they did set them before the people.”

*7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

(8.7) “They had a few small fishes: and … set them also before them.”

*8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

(8.8) “So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.”

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

(8.9) “They that had eaten were about four thousand.”

10 And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith*, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you,* There shall no sign be given unto this generation*.*

(8.11-12) "The Pharisees … began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven … And he … saith … There shall no sign be given unto this generation."

≠360 Did Jesus perform any signs and wonders?

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

(8.22-25) Jesus cures a blind man by spitting in his eyes.

22 And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him*, and besought him to touch him.*

(8.22) "He cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him."

≠429 Where did Jesus cure the blind man?

*23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

(8.23) "He … spit on his eyes, and … asked him if he saw ought."
≠419 How did Jesus cure the blind man?

(8.24-25) Jesus' spit did not completely cure the blind man. So Jesus tried again. He put his hands on the man's eyes and, this time, the blind man "saw every man clearly."

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

(8.24) "He looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking."

*25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

(8.25) "After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly."

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

(8.27-28) There were various opinions about the identity of Jesus. Some thought he was Elijah or one of the prophets. And many thought he was a risen John the Baptist. With credulity like that just about anyone could later be passed off as the risen Christ.

*27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

(8.27) "Whom do men say that I am?"

*28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

(8.28) “They answered, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.”

> 29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.
> 30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.
> *31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

(8.31) “He began to teach them, that the Son of man must … be killed, and after three days rise again.”
≠367 Did Jesus forewarn the apostles of his death and resurrection?

!!! ☺ (8.32-33) When Peter expressed his dismay about Jesus’ coming death, Jesus said to him “Get thee behind me, Satan.”—a fine way to address his holiness, the first pope!

> *32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

(8.32) “Peter … began to rebuke him.”

> 33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

(8.33) “He rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan.”

> 34 And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
> 35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s, the same shall save it.
> 36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
> 37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed*, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.*

(8.38) "Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed." If you're ashamed of Jesus, he'll be ashamed of you.

MARK 9

9 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

(9.1) "There be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power." Jesus falsely prophesies that the end of the world will come within his listeners' lifetimes.

2 And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

(9.2) "After six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them."
≠420 When was the transfiguration?

(9.3-7) During the transfiguration, Jesus' clothes became whiter than white, while he chatted with Moses and Elijah. Then a voice came out of a cloud saying, "This is my beloved Son: hear him."

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

(9.3) "His raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them."

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

(9.4) "There appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus."

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

(9.7) "A voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him."

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

(9.9-10) Jesus told the disciples not to tell anyone about his mountain-top meeting with Moses and Elijah until after he rose from the dead. But the disciples didn't know what he meant by "rising from the dead."

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

(9.9) "As they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead."

*10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

(9.10) "They kept … questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean."

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

(9.13) "Elias is indeed come." Jesus says that John the Baptist was Elijah, but John the Baptist explicitly denied it in Jn 1.21.
≠356 Was John the Baptist Elijah?

14 And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

⚖ !!! (9.17-19) Jesus gets mad at his disciples for failing to cast out a devil from a boy with a "dumb spirit" and says, "O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you?"

*17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

(9.17) "One of the multitude … said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit."

*18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

(9.18) “He foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth … and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.”

> 19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

(9.19) “He answereth … O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.”

> 20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.
> 21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.
> 22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.
> 23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

(9.23) “All things are possible to him that believeth.”

> 24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

(9.25-26) Jesus heals the boy with “a dumb spirit” by saying, “Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him and enter no more into him.” (Sounds like a script from Monty Python, doesn’t it?) But how could a deaf spirit hear the words spoken to it? And how could a dumb spirit cry out?

≠94 Who makes people deaf and blind?

> 25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him*, and enter no more into him.*

(9.25) “Jesus … rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him.”

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him*: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.*

(9.26) "And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him."

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.
28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?
29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.
30 And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

(9.31-32) Jesus keeps telling his disciples that he is going to be killed and then rise from the dead a few days later. But somehow the disciples just don't get it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

(9.31) "He … said … The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day."

32 But they understood not that saying*, and were afraid to ask him.*

(9.32) "But they understood not that saying."

33 And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?
34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.
35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

(9.35) “If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.”

> 36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,
> 37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.
> 38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

(9.38) “Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name.” The disciples saw some others that they didn’t know “casting out devils” in Jesus’ name. (It was a popular sport back in those days.)
≠344 Who can cast out devils in the name of Jesus?
≠421 Is casting out devils a sign of a true Christian?

> 39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.
> *40 For he that is not against us is on our part.

(9.40) “He that is not against us is on our part.”
≠357 Who is for or against Jesus?

> 41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.
> 42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

(9.43-48) Jesus tells us to cut off our hands and feet, and pluck out our eyes to avoid going to hell.
≠157 Does Hell exist?

43 And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched*:*
44 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

(9.43-44) “If thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.”

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

(9.45-46) “If thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.”

47 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:
48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

(9.47-48) “And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.”

(9.44, 46, 48) Immortal worms: “Where their worm dieth not”

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.
50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

MARK 10

10 And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judaea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

(10.6) "From the beginning of the creation God made them male and female." Jesus believed that Adam and Eve were created "from the beginning." But the universe is 13.7 billion years old, the earth 4.6 billion, and humans (depending on how you define "human") have been around a couple million years.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

(10.9-12) If divorced people are adulterers, and the punishment for adultery is death (Leviticus 20.10), should we kill those who get a divorce?

≠154 Is divorce ever permissible?

≠16 Is Polygamy OK?

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

(10.9) “What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.”

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

(10.11) “Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery.”

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery*.*

(10.12) “And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.”

13 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

(10.15) “Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.”

≠365 Is it good to be childish?

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

(10.18) “Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.” Jesus says that no one is good except for God. He also seems to be saying he is neither good nor God.
≠318 Is anyone good?
≠349 Is Jesus God?

> 19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

(10.19) “Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.” When Jesus lists the Ten Commandments, he only mentions five—the humanistic ones that make no mention of God. He also gives one that is not included in the so-called Ten Commandments: “defraud not.”
≠366 What was Jesus’ sixth commandment?
≠109 To kill or not to kill
≠91 Is it OK to steal?

> 20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.
> 21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.
> 22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

(10.23-25) Rich people don’t go to heaven.

> 23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

(10.23) “How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!”

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

(10.25) “It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.”

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

(10.27) “With God all things are possible.”
≠59 Can God do anything?

28 Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

♂ ♀ ♎ (10.29-30) Abandon your wife and family and Jesus will give you a big reward.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel’s,

(10.29) “There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel’s,”

30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands*, with persecutions;* and in the world to come eternal life*.*

(10.30) “He shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands … and in the world to come eternal life.”

31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

(10.33-34) Jesus explains again (see 8.31) to his disciples about his death and resurrection. Yet John (20.9) claims that the disciples "knew not … that he must rise again from the dead."

≠367 Did Jesus tell the disciples about his death and resurrection?

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles*:*

(10.33) "We go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles."

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

(10.34) "And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again."

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying*, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.*

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

(10.35-37) "James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying … Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory."

≠368 Who asked Jesus for the best seats in heaven?

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them*.*

43 But so shall it not be among you*: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:*

(10.42-43) "Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. But so shall it not be among you."

≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

(10.45) "The Son of man came … to give his life a ransom for many."

≠370 Was Jesus a ransom for many or for all?

46 And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus*, the son of Timaeus,* sat by the highway side begging.

(10.46) "As he went out of Jericho … blind Bartimaeus … sat by the highway side begging."

≠371 How many blind men were healed near Jericho?

≠372 When was the man (or men) healed?

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

(10.52) "Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight."

MARK 11

11 And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

*7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

(11.7) "They brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him."
≠374 On what did Jesus ride into Jerusalem?

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.
9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:
10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.
11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.
12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was hungry:

(11.12) "And on the morrow"
≠422 When did Jesus curse the fig tree?

(11.13-14) Jesus kills a fig tree for not bearing figs, even though it was out of season. He did this to show the world just how much God hates figs.

*13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

(11.13) "Seeing a fig tree … he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet."

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

(11.14) "Jesus … said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever."

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves*;*

(11.15) "Jesus went into the temple and began to cast out them that sold and bought … and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves."
≠373 When did Jesus' temple tantrum occur?

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.
17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.
18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine.
19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.
20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

(11.20) "In the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots." The fig tree immediately dies in Matthew (21.19-20), but it doesn't die until the next morning in Mark's account.
≠375 When did the cursed fig tree die?

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.
22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

(11.23-24) If you do "not doubt in your heart" you can cast a mountain into the sea (or kill a fig tree, or whatever).

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

(11.23) “Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.”

24 Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

(11.24) “What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.”

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed.

33 And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

MARK 12

(12.1-9) God is like a rich man who owns a vineyard and rents it to poor farmers. When he sends servants to collect the rent, the tenants beat or kill them. So he sent his son to collect the rent, and they kill him too. Then the owner comes and kills the farmers and gives the vineyard to others.

> *12 And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

(12.1) "A certain man planted a vineyard … and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country."

> 2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

(12.2) "He sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard."

> *3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

(12.3) "And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty."

> *4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

(12.4) "He sent unto them another servant; and … they … sent him away shamefully handled."

8 And they took him, and killed him*, and cast him out of the vineyard.*

(12.8) “And they took him, and killed him.”

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

(12.9) “The lord of the vineyard … will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.”

10 And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord’s doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.

(12.14-17) Pay your taxes. Keep state and church separate.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord*:*

(12.29) "The Lord our God is one Lord."
≠9 How many gods are there?

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

(12.31) "Love thy neighbour as thyself."
≠128 How should nonbelievers be treated?

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

(12.35-37) Jesus claims to be the Christ, but not the son of David.

13 And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately,

(13.4-32)

The end of the world will be signaled by many false Christs that will deceive many (6), wars and rumors of wars (7), earthquakes, famines, and “troubles.” And that’s just “the beginning of sorrows” (8).

Believers will be beaten (9), the gospel will be published in every nation (10), family members will betray each other (12), and believers will be hated by everyone. But don’t worry. If you make through all that, you will be saved (13).

When you see “the abomination of desolations,” go to the mountains (14). Don’t’ bother with clothes. (15-16) And God help you if you’re pregnant or nursing (17) or if the abomination shows up in winter (18). Trust me, it’s going to be hell out there (19).

There will be false Christs with signs and wonders trying to seduce you (22). But just remember, Jesus told you so (23). The sun and moon will be darkened (24) and the stars will fall to the ground (25). Then Jesus in all his glory will come down from the clouds (26).

Oh, and all these things will happen within the lifespan of Jesus’ contemporaries (30).

Or maybe not. Jesus was talking about things he knew nothing about (32).

> 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

(13.4) “Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?”

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

(13.10) “The gospel must first be published among all nations.”

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

(13.12) “Brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.”

MARK 14

14 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

(14.3-7) Ointment for Jesus' head is more important than helping the poor.

*3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

(14.3) "In Bethany … there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head."

*4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

(14.4) "Some … said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?"

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

(14.5) "It might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor."

*6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

(14.6) "Jesus said, Let her alone … she hath wrought a good work on me."

7 For ye have the poor with you always*, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good:* but me ye have not always.

(14.7) “For ye have the poor with you always … but me ye have not always.”

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

(14.12) “The first day of unleavened bread, When they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?”

≠423 Was Jesus crucified the day before or the day after the Passover meal?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

(14.22-24) Jesus tells his disciples to eat his body and drink his blood.

*22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

(14.22) "As they did eat, Jesus took bread … and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body."

*23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

(14.23) "He took the cup, and … he gave it to them: and they all drank of it."

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

(14.24) "And He said … this is my blood."

*25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

(14.25) "I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Woohoo! There will be wine in heaven!

26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

(14.28) "After that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee."
≠367 Did Jesus forewarn the apostles about his death and resurrection?

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

(14.30) "Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice."
≠379 Did Jesus say before the cock crow or before the cock crow twice?

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

(14.35-36) ≠381 Did Jesus ask God to save him from crucifixion?

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that*, if it were possible,* the hour might pass from him.

(14.35) "He … prayed that … the hour might pass from him."

36 And he said, Abba, Father*, all things are possible unto thee;* take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

(14.36) "He said, Abba, Father … take away this cup from me."

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

(14.43-45) ≠382 Did Judas identify Jesus with a kiss?

43 And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

(14.43) "While he yet spake, cometh Judas."

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

(14.44) "Saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he."

*45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

(14.45) "He … saith, Master, master; and kissed him."

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

☒ ♂ ☺ (14.51-52) One of the followers of Jesus was a young, nearly naked man who dropped his linen cloth and "fled from them naked" when the priests came to arrest Jesus.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

(14.51) "There followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him."

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

(14.52) "And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked."

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest*: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.*

(14.53) "They led Jesus away to the high priest."
≠383 Was Jesus taken to Caiaphas or Annas first?

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.
55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.
56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

☺ (14.57-58) Mark says that those who quoted Jesus were "false witnesses," yet according to John 2.19, Jesus said what these witnesses said that he said. So how are they false witnesses?
≠384 Did Jesus say, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up"?

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

(14.57) “There arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,”

> 58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

(14.58) “We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.”

> 59 But neither so did their witness agree together.
> 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

(14.61-62) Jesus, when asked by the high priest if he is the Christ, answers “I am” in this gospel. But in Matthew (26.64) he equivocates by saying, “Thou hast said it.” In both gospels he falsely prophesies that the high priest would see his second coming.
≠385 How did Jesus respond when questioned by the high priest?

> 61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

(14.61) “The high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?”

> 62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

(14.62) “Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.”

> 63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

(14.66-72) ≠386 To whom did Peter deny knowing Jesus?
≠380 Did the cock crow before or after Peter's denial?

66 And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest*:*

(14.66) "As Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest."

67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

(14.67) "When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth."

68 But he denied*, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch;* and the cock crew*.*

(14.68) "But he denied … and the cock crew."

69 And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

(14.69) "A maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them."

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them*: for thou art a Galilaean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.*

(14.70) "He denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them."

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

(14.71) “He began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.”

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

(14.72) “And the second time the cock crew.”

MARK 15

15 And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

(15.3-5) ≠390 Was Jesus silent during his trial?

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

(15.3) “The chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.”

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

(15.4) “Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing?”

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing*; so that Pilate marvelled.*

(15.5) “But Jesus yet answered nothing.”

6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

(15.15-17) ≠391 Who put the robe on Jesus?
≠392 What color was Jesus' robe?

*15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

(15.15) "Pilate … delivered Jesus … to be crucified."

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

(15.16-17) "The soldiers … clothed him with purple."

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

(15.21) "They compel one Simon a Cyrenian … to bear his cross."
≠393 Who carried Jesus' cross?

22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

*23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

(15.23) "They gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not."
≠394 What did the soldiers give Jesus to drink?
≠424 Did Jesus drink from the cross?

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

*25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

(15.25) "It was the third hour, and they crucified him."
≠425 When (at what hour) was Jesus crucified?
≠423 Was Jesus crucified the day before or the day after the Passover meal?

*26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

(15.26) "The superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS." All of the gospels give the exact words that were written over the cross, but none of them agree about the words that were used.
≠395 What did the sign over Jesus say?

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him*.*

(15.32) "They that were crucified with him reviled him."
≠396 Did both thieves revile Jesus?

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

(15.33) "When the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour." When Jesus was crucified, there was three hours of complete darkness "over the whole land." It is strange that there is no record of this extraordinary event outside of the gospels.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

(15.34) "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"
≠349 Is Jesus God?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran and filled a spunge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

(15.37-38) "Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the veil of the temple was rent."
≠398 When did the Temple curtain rip?

39 And when the centurion*, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he* said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

(15.39) "The centurion … said, Truly this man was the Son of God."
≠399 What did the Centurion call Jesus when he died?

40 There were also women looking on afar off*: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;*

(15.40) "There were also women looking on afar off."
≠400 From where were the women watching?

41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.
42 And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

(15.43-46) "Joseph of Arimathaea … took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre."
≠401 Who buried Jesus?

43 Joseph of Arimathaea*, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.*
44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead*: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.*

? (15.44) "Pilate marvelled if he were already dead." Maybe he wasn't!

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

MARK 16

16 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome*, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.*

(16.1) "Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome"
≠402 How many women came to the sepulchre?

2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun*.*

(16.2) "They came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun."
≠403 When did the women (or woman) arrive?

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away*: for it was very great.*

(16.4) "When they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away."
≠405 Was the tomb opened or closed when the women arrived?

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

(16.5) “Entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting … clothed in … white.”
≠406 Was the young man (men or angels) inside or outside?
≠426 Was the man (men, angel or angels) sitting or standing?
≠404 Whom did the women see?

☺ (16:6-8) The young man in white told the women that Jesus had risen. The women ran away, telling no one, because they were afraid. (The orignal ending of the gospel of Mark.)

> 6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

(16.6) “He is risen.”

> 7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

(16.7) “Tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee.”
≠412 Where did Jesus tell his disciples to go?

> *8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

☺ (16.8) “They … fled from the sepulchre … neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.”
≠407 Did the women immediately tell the disciples?

? (16.9-20) These verses are not found in the earlier manuscripts and are therefore considered later additions. So the gospel of Mark ended without anyone seeing the resurrected Jesus or any of the cool stuff about snake handling, drinking poison, or God-damned non-believers.

(16:9-16) Jesus appeared first to Mary Magdalene (So he was the young man in white in v.5!), but when she told the disciples, they didn't believe her. So Jesus tried again. This time "he appeared in another form" to two other guys. But nobody believed that story either. Shucks! Finally, he appeared to the eleven apostles and gave them hell for not believing, saying "he that believeth not shall be damned." And that did it. They believed after that.
≠408 To whom did Jesus first appear?

> 9 Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.
> 10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.
> *11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

(16.9-11) "Jesus … appeared first to Mary Magdalene … She went and told them that had been with him … And they … believed not."

> 12 After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.
> *13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

(16.12-13) "He appeared in another form unto two of them … And they went and told it unto the residue: Neither believed they them."
≠427 Did the eleven disciples believe the two men?

> 14 Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

(16.14) "He appeared unto the eleven."
≠413 How many disciples did Jesus appear to in his first post resurrection appearance?

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

(16.15) “Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.”
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

16 He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

(16.16) “He that believeth not shall be damned.”
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?
≠359 How are people judged by God?

(16.17-18) The signs of true believers

17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

(16.17) “These signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; “
≠344 Who can cast out devils in the name of Jesus?
≠421 Is casting out devils a sign of a true Christian?

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

(16:18) They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.”

19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven*, and* sat on the right hand of God.

(16.19a) “After the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven.”
≠428 When did Jesus ascend into heaven?

(16.19b) “He … sat on the right hand of God.”
≠349 Is Jesus God?

> 20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

(16.20) “The Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.”
≠360 Did Jesus perform any signs?

LUKE

If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. — Luke 14.26

Highlights:

- God strikes Zacharias dumb for doubting the angel Gabriel's words. 1.20
- John the Baptist says that Christ will burn the damned "with fire unquenchable." 3.17
- The genealogy of Jesus given here is entirely different than that in Mt 1.6-16. 3.23-31
- The people of Jesus' hometown (Nazareth) tried to kill him by pushing him off a cliff. But Jesus got away. 4.28-30
- Peter and his partners (James and John) abandon their wives and children to follow Jesus. 5.11
- People who are rich, well-fed, happy, or respected are going to hell. 6.24-26
- John the Baptist, who is about to die, is still unsure about Jesus. 7.19
- Jesus speaks in parables so "that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand." 8.10
- He falsely predicts that some of his listeners would live to see him return and establish the kingdom of God. 9.27
- Entire cities will be violently destroyed and the inhabitants "thrust down to hell" for not "receiving" his disciples. 10.10-15
- The disciples are thrilled that "even the devils are subject" to them. To this Jesus replies, "I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions … and nothing shall by any means hurt you." 10.17-19
- Jesus thanks God that only the ignorant and foolish will listen to him. 10.21
- He insults his mother (the Most Holy Blessed Virgin Mary). 11.27-28
- He calls his critics fools, thus making himself, by his own standards (Mt 5.22), worthy of "hell fire." 11.40

- He blames all the deaths of the prophets (from Abel to Zacharias) on his generation. 11.47-52
- He says that we should fear God since he has the power to kill us and then torture us forever in hell. 12.5
- The unforgivable sin: blasphemy against the Holy Ghost. 12.10
- God is like a slave-owner who tortures and chops his slaves in pieces. 12.46-47
- Jesus says that his disciples must hate their families (mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, husbands, wives, children) and themselves. 14.26
- If you want to be a disciple of Jesus, you must abandon everything, including your family. 14.33
- "That which is highly esteemed among men [love, wisdom, honesty, courage, etc.] is an abomination in the sight of God." 16.15
- Abandon your wife and family for Jesus and he'll give you a big reward. 18.29-30
- God is like an unjust king who takes what is not rightly his, reaps what he didn't sow, and has those who don't want to be ruled by him slaughtered in front of him.19.12-27
- Jesus says that everyone will hate Christians, and some Christians will be killed, yet no Christian will be harmed in any way. 21.16-18
- He says that all that he describes (his return, signs in the sun, moon, and stars, etc.) will occur within the lifetime of his listeners. 21.32

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

*6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

(1.5-6) "Zacharias … and his wife … Elisabeth … were both righteous before God walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless."

≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

≠430 Does righteousness come from following the Law?

(1.7-15) Zacharias and Elizabeth were both getting old, too old to have kids. But Zach prayed, so an angel appeared to tell him that God would take care of things for him. God would somehow get Liz pregnant and she'd have a son named John, who would be filled with the Holy Ghost from the moment God, the angel, the Holy Ghost, or Zach (or maybe all of them working together) got his mom pregnant.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

(1.7) "They had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren." Oh God, another barren woman! It's always the woman's fault in the Bible.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

(1.11) "There appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar."

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

(1.13) "The angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John." Whoopie! Another miraculous birth! Did old Zach have sex with Elizabeth or did the angel take care of things for him?

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink*; and* he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

(1.15a) "He shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink."
≠71 Is it OK to drink alcohol?

(1.15b) "He shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb." John the Baptist was "filled with the Holy Ghost" even as a fetus!
≠431 When was the Holy Ghost given?

16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just*; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.*

(1.17) "The wisdom of the just"
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

(1.18-20) Zechariah asks the angel Gabriel how his wife could become pregnant, since she is "stricken with years." Gabriel makes him "dumb" just for asking.

*18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

(1.18) "Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years."

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

(1.19-20) "The angel … said … I am Gabriel … Thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak … because thou believest not my words."

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

(1.28-31) The angel Gabriel stopped by Nazareth to visit the Most Blessed Virgin Mary and say the rosary with her. OK, not really. He stopped by to tell her that the Holy Ghost would soon be getting her pregnant the way he did her aunt Elizabeth. During his visit he composed the first part of the "Hail Mary."

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

(1.28) "Hail [Mary], highly faoroured [full of grace], the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women."

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.
30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.
31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

(1.30-31) "The angel said … thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS."

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:
33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.
34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

(1.34) "Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?" Just a few verses earlier (1.17-20), Zacharias is struck dumb for doubting his wife's angel-assisted pregnancy. Why wasn't Mary punished for her disbelief?
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

(1.35) "The angel … said … The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God." Gabriel tells Mary that the Holy Ghost will come on her and she'll be covered by the power of God, so "the holy thing" that she delivers will be the Son of God.

> 36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.
> *37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

(1.37) "With God nothing shall be impossible."
≠59 Can God do anything?

> 38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.
> 39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda;
> 40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.
> 41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

(1.41a) "When Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb." John the Baptist, while still a fetus, leaped for joy when he heard the voice of Mary.

(1.41b) "Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost."
≠431 When was the Holy Ghost given?

> *42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

(1.42) "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb [Jesus]." When Elisabeth saw Mary, she completed the first half of the "Hail Mary" that the angel Gabriel started in verse 28.

> 43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

(1.50) “His mercy is on them that fear him.”

≠[132 Should we fear God?]

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

55 As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth’s full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judaea.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

(1.67) “Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost.”
≠[431 When was the Holy Ghost given?]

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear,

75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us,

79 To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

You saw "Charlie Brown Christmas."

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

(2.13) "Suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying…." Likely story.

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

(2.14) “On earth peace, good will toward men.”

> 15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.
> 16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.
> 17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
> 18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
> 19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.
> 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.
> 21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
> 22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

♀ (2.22) “When the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished….” Even Mary had to be “purified” after giving birth to Jesus. Was she defiled by giving birth to the Son of God?

> 23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

♀ (2.23) “Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord.” Males are holy to God, not females.
≠113 Is only God holy?

> 24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

*25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

(2.25-26) "Simeon … was just … and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost." Simeon was not only a just man, but he was also filled with the Holy Ghost.

≠33 Has there ever been a just person?

≠431 When was the Holy Ghost given?

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

(2.39) "When they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth."
≠332 Did Jesus, Mary, and Joseph go to Egypt or Nazareth?

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.
41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.
42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

(2.43-49) When Jesus' parents begin the long trip back to Nazareth, the twelve year old Jesus stays behind, without asking their permission. Mary and Joseph search for him for three days and when they finally find him, Jesus doesn't apologize. Rather, he blames them for not knowing that he was doing his father's business.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

(2.43) "When they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it."

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.
45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.
46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

(2.46) "After three days they found him."

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him*, they were amazed: and* his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing*.*

(2.48) "When they saw him … his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing."

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

(2.49) "And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?"

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

(2.52) "Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God." How could an omniscient being "increase in wisdom?" And how could God increase "in favour with God?"

LUKE 3

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

(3.7) "O generation of vipers" John the Baptist calls all of his contemporaries "a generation of vipers."

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

*9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

(3.9) "Every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire."

(3.10-11) The people asked John the Baptist what they need to do to avoid hell. He told them to give their excess food and clothes to the poor.

*10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

(3.10) "The people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?"

*11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

(3.11) “He answereth … He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.”

> 12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?
> 13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.
> 14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

👍 😊 (3.14a) “The soldiers … demanded of him, saying,what shall we do? And he said … Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely.” Good advice, except maybe to soldiers. Soldiers are trained to “do violence” to people.
≠86 Is it wrong to lie?

⚖ (3.14b) “Be content with your wages”—no matter how unjust they may be.

> 15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;
> 16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:
> *17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

⚖ 🔪 🔥 (3.17) “The chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.” John the Baptist says that Christ will burn the damned “with fire unquenchable.”

> 18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,

20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

*22 And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

(3.22) "The Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased."

LUKE 4

(4.1-2) Jesus was full of the Holy Ghost and was led by “the Spirit” (the Holy Ghost?) into the desert to be tempted by the devil for forty days.

*4 And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

(4.1) “Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,”

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

(4.2) “Being forty days tempted of the devil.”

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.
4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

(4.5) “The devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world.” (The earth was flat in those days.)

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

(4.6) "All this power will I give thee."
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.
*8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

(4.8) "Him only shalt thou serve." Jesus misquotes Deuteronomy by adding "only" to Deuteronomy 6.13.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:
10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:
11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.
*12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

(4.12) "Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God."
≠103 Can God be tempted?
≠148 Is it OK to test (or tempt) God?

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.
14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.
15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.
16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me*, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,*

(4.18) "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me." These words were spoken by Isaiah and referred to Isaiah. They were not a prophecy about a future prophet, as Jesus claims here, where he supposedly read these verses in the synagogue while applying them to himself. (See Isaiah 61.1-2)

But the verses that Jesus read are not the same as those in Isaiah 61.1-2, which reads: "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn."

Did Jesus add the part about the blind and bruised to the verses he read from Isaiah? Or were they added later?

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months*, when great famine was throughout all the land;*

(4.25) "In the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months."

≠237 How long was Elijah's drought?

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

(4.28-30) The people of Jesus' hometown (Nazareth) were so upset at him that they tried to kill him by pushing him off a cliff. But Jesus ran away.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath*,*

(4.28) "All they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath."

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

(4.29) "And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong."

30 But he passing through the midst of them went his way*,*

(4.30) "But he passing through the midst of them went his way."

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

(4.33-36) Jesus shows his power over unclean devils, who recognize him as "the Holy One of God."

33 And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

(4.33) "There was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,"

34 Saying, Let us alone*; what have we to do with thee, thou* Jesus of Nazareth*?* art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

(4.34) "Let us alone … Jesus of Nazareth … art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God."

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him*, and hurt him not.*

(4.35) "Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And … the devil … came out of him."

36 And they were all amazed*, and spake among themselves,* saying*, What a word is this! for* with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

(4.36) "They were all amazed … saying … with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out."

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

? (4.38) "Simon's wife" Peter (he was called Simon back then), whom Catholics consider the first pope, was married. [Though he later abandoned his wife and family to follow Jesus (5.11) who gave him a big reward for doing so (18.29-30).]

(4.38-39) Jesus cured Peter's mother-in-law (by "rebuking" her fever) so she could get back to work serving them.

*39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

(4.38) "Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her."

(4.39) "He … rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them."

*40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

(4.40) "All they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them." The people brought all their sick people to Jesus, and he cured every one of them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

(4.41) "Devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God." Devils come out of people proclaiming that Jesus is “Christ the Son of God.” According to 1 John 4.2, 15, these devils were “of God.”

> 42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.
> 43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.
> 44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

LUKE 5

> 5 And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,
> 2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.
> 3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon’s, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

(5.4-7) Jesus, the master fisherman
Jesus got on Simon Peter’s boat and told him to put down his nets. Simon told him that he’d been fishing all night and caught nothing. But he did as Jesus said. And they caught so many fish that it ripped the net and nearly sunk two boats.

> 4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught*.*

(5.4) “He said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.”

(5.7) “They beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship … And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.”

> 8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.
> 9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:
> 10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.
> 11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

(5.11) “When they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.” Peter, James, and John leave everything (including their wives and children) to follow Jesus. (See 4.38 for reference to Peter’s wife.)

(5.12-13) Jesus cures a man with leprosy.

> 12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

(5.12) “A man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.”

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

(5.13) “He put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.”

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

(5.18-25) Jesus cures a paralytic by forgiving his sins, thereby proving that he is God (since only God can forgive sins) and paralysis is caused by sin.

18 And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy*: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.*

(5.18) “Men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy.”

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

(5.20) “When he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.”

> 21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

(5.21) “The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?”

> 22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?
> 23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

(5.22-23) “Jesus … said … Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?”

> 24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins*, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,)* I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

(5.25) “And immediately he … took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house.”

> 26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.
> 27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

(6.1a) "And it came to pass on the second Sabbath after the first…." Huh?

(6.1b-5) Jesus and his disciples break the Sabbath, and then make excuses for it. David ate stuff he wasn't supposed to, too, and besides Jesus is "the Lord of the Sabbath."

(6.1b) "He went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat."

> 5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

(6.5) "The Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath."

(6.6-10) Jesus heals a man with a withered hand.

> 6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

(6.6) “There was a man whose right hand was withered.”

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for your’s is the kingdom of God.
21 Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.
22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man’s sake.
23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

32 For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.
34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

43 For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

LUKE 7

7 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

(7.2-10) Luke says that the centurion sent some Jewish elders to ask Jesus to come and heal his slave. ("Servant" in the KJV means slave). But in Matthew (8.5), the centurion himself asks Jesus for help.
≠345 Did the Centurion ask Jesus directly to heal his slave?

Here was the perfect opportunity for Jesus to condemn slavery. All he'd have to do is say, "OK, I'll heal your slave. But then you must set him free, because slavery is wrong."

≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

> 2 And a certain centurion's servant*, who was dear unto him,* was sick, and ready to die.

> 7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.
> 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.
> 9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him*, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.*

(7.10) “And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.”

11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

(7.12-15) Jesus brings a dead man back to life.
≠167 Is death final?
≠196 Was Jesus the first to rise from the dead?

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

(7.12) “When he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man.”

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier*: and they that bare him stood still.* And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

(7.14) “He came and touched the bier … And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.”

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak*. And he delivered him to his mother.*

(7.15) “And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak.”

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

(7.19) "John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?" John the Baptist, who is about to die, is still unsure about Jesus. He sends his disciples to Jesus asking: "Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?" Well, if he's not sure, how can anyone else be?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

(7.21) "In that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight." Within a single hour, Jesus cured people of various plagues, evil spirits, and blindness.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist*: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.*

(7.28) "Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist."
≠160 Who was the greatest prophet?

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him*.*

(7.30) "The Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him."
≠334 Were the Pharisees baptized by John?

31 And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

8 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils*,*

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

(8.10) "Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: But to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand." Jesus speaks in parables so that people won't understand him.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

(8.18) "Whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have." Jesus was the first Republican.

19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

(8.20-21) Jesus, when told that his mother and brothers want to see him, ignores and insults them by saying that his mother and brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

(8.27-37) Jesus heals a naked man possessed by many devils by sending the devils into a herd of pigs, causing them to run off a cliff and drown in the sea. This messy, cruel, and expensive (for the owners of the pigs) treatment did not favorably impress the local residents, and Jesus was asked to leave.

(8.41-42) ≠350 Was Jairus' daughter alive when Jesus was approached?

> 41 And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house*:*

(8.41) “There came a man named Jairus, and he … besought him that he would come into his house.”

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

(8.42) “For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying.”

(8.43-44) Jesus heals a woman “having an issue of blood.” It’s the usual story: none of the doctors could cure her, but the faith healer (Jesus, in this case) could.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any*,*

(8.43) “A woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,”

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

(8.44) “Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.”

(8.45-47) Jesus felt virtue leave him when the woman with the issue of blood touched him.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

(8.45) “Jesus said, Who touched me?”

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

(8.46) “Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.”

> 47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

(8.47) “The woman … came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared … she had touched him.”

> 48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

(8.48) “Thy faith hath made thee whole.” If you have enough faith, you will never get sick. (Illness is caused by sin and lack of faith. Medical science is unnecessary.)

(8.49-55) Jesus brings Jarius’ dead daughter back to life.

> *49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue’s house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

(8.49) “While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue’s house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.”

> *50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

(8.50) “But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.”

> 51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

(8.52) "He said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth."

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.
54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

(8.54) "He put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise."

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway*: and he commanded to give her meat.*

(8.55) "And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway."

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

LUKE 9

(9.1-2) Jesus gave his disciples authority of all devils and to cure diseases.

9 Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

(9.1) "He … gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases."

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

(9.2) "He sent them … to heal the sick."

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves*, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.*

(9.3) "Take nothing for your journey, neither staves."
≠353 Did Jesus tell his apostles to go barefoot and without a staff?

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.
5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.
6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

☺ (9.7-8) There were various opinions about the identity of Jesus. Some thought he was Elijah or one of the prophets, others that he was the risen John the Baptist. With such a credulous populace, is it surprising that some people would later claim, and probably even believe, that they had seen the risen Christ?

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead*;*

(9.7) "Herod … was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead."

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

(9.8) "And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again."

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this*, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.*

(9.9) "John have I beheaded: but who is this?"
≠362 Did Herod think Jesus was John the Baptist?

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

(9.11) "He … healed them that had need of healing."

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

(9.13-17) Jesus fed 5000 men (plus women and children) with five loaves and two fishes (with 12 baskets left over).

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

(9.13) "He said … Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes."

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

(9.14) "They were about five thousand men."

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

*16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

(9.16) "Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes … and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude."

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

(9.17) "And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets."

(9.18-19) Jesus wonders who people think he is. His disciples say that some think he's John the Baptist, others Elijah or one of the other prophets.

18 And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

(9.18) "As he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?" (How was Jesus "alone" if "his disciples were with him?")

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

(9.19) "They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again."

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.
21 And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;
22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.
23 And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.
24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.
25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

(9.27) "There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God."

(9.28-35) The Transfiguration

Jesus takes Peter, James, and John up to a mountain top, where his clothes start shining. Moses and Elijah (Elias) show up and begin talking to Jesus, a cloud covers them and a voice came out of the cloud saying, "This is my beloved son, hear him."

28 And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

(9.28) "Eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray."

≠420 When was the transfiguration?

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias*:*

(9.30) "There talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias."

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

(9.34) "While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud."

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

(9.35) "And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him."

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

(9.39) "Lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him." Epilepsy is caused by devils.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

(9.41) "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you?" Jesus speaks harshly to his disciples because they couldn't cure epilepsy by casting out devils.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child*, and delivered him again to his father.*

(9.42) "The devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child." Jesus cures an epiletic child by rebuking an unclean spirit.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,

44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

(9.49) "We saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us."

≠421 Is casting out devils a sign of a true Christian?

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

≠357 Who is for or against Jesus?

51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,

52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans*, to make ready for him.*

53 And they did not receive him*, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.*

(9.52-53) "They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans … And they did not receive him."
≠432 Did the Samaritans receive Jesus?

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?

(9.54) "Wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did?" James and John ask Jesus if they can call down fire from heaven to consume the Samaritans who didn't much care for Jesus' teaching. They'd like to kill people the way Elijah did. But shucks, Jesus wouldn't let them.

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

(9.59-62) Jesus won't even let his followers bury their dead parents or say farewell to their families before abandoning them.
≠107 How should parents be treated?

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

(9.59) “He said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.”

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead*: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.*

(9.60) “Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead.”

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

(9.61) “Another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.”

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God*.*

(9.62) “Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.”

LUKE 10

10 After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

(10.4-9) Jesus’ instructions to his disciples: Take no money or shoes and don’t say hello to anyone that you pass by. Enter each house and eat whatever they feed you. Stay there; don’t go from house to house. Heal the sick and say the kingdom of heaven is here.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way*.*

(10.4) "Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way."

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.
6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.
7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give*: for the labourer is worthy of his hire.* Go not from house to house.

(10.7) "In the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give … Go not from house to house."

(10.9) "Heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you."

(10.10-15) Entire cities will be violently destroyed and the inhabitants "thrust down to hell" for not "receiving" Jesus and his disciples.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not*, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,*

16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

(10.16) “He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.” If you don’t like what Pat Robertson says (or any other Christian), then you don’t like Jesus, and if you don’t like Jesus, you don’t like God.

(10.17-23) The disciples return and report back to Jesus. They brag about having power over devils. Jesus sees Satan fall from heaven and gives them complete power over him, along with the power over serpents and scorpions, and tells them that nothing will ever hurt them in any way whatsoever. He thanked God that only the ignorant and foolish will listen to him, and told his disciples how lucky they were to be able to see him.

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

(10.25-28) Jesus tells the lawyer that those who love God and their neighbor will be saved.

29 But he*, willing to justify himself,* said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

(10.29) "He … said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?"

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

(10.33-37) The story of the good Samaritan gets my vote for the best Bible story. We should all "go and do likewise."

*33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

(10.33) "A certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him."

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

*36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

*37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

(10.37) "He said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise."

38 Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

LUKE 11

11 And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find*; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.*

10 For every one that asketh receiveth*; and* he that seeketh findeth*; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.*

(11.9-10) "Ask, and it shall be given you … For every one that asketh receiveth."

(11.9-10) "Seek, and ye shall find … For … he that seeketh findeth."
≠300 Can God be found?

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake*; and the people wondered.*

(11.14) "He was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And … when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake." People who cannot speak are possessed by devils.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others*, tempting him,* sought of him a sign from heaven.

(11.15-16) "Some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils. And others … sought of him a sign from heaven." A reasonable hypothesis (assuming devils exist) and a fair request (assuming a god exists).

17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

(11.19) "If I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out?" Jesus believed the Pharisees could cast out demons, too!

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me*: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.*

(11.23) "He that is not with me is against me."
≠357 Who is for or against Jesus?

(11.24-26) Jesus says it is impossible to get rid of unclean spirits. If you manage to evict one, he'll soon return with seven others "more wicked than himself" and you'll be worse off than you were before. So just learn to live with whatever unclean spirits that are currently possessing you.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

(11.24) "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out."

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished*.*

(11.25) "And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished."

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

(11.26) "Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first."

(11.27-28) Jesus insults his mother (the Most Holy Blessed Virgin Mary).

27 And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

(11.27) "A certain woman … lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked."

28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

(11.28) "But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it."

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation*: they seek a sign; and* there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

(11.29a) "This is an evil generation."

(11.29b) "There shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas."
≠360 Did Jesus perform any signs and wonders?

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

(11.31) “A greater than Solomon is here.”
≠217 Who was the greatest: Jesus or Solomon?

32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil*, thy body also is full of darkness.*

(11.34) “When thine eye is evil” Jesus believed in the evil eye.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

!!! (11.40-46) Jesus is criticized for not washing his hands before eating, so he calls his critics fools, thus making himself, by his own standards (Matthew 5.22), worthy of “hell fire.”
≠297 Is it OK to call someone a fool?

40 Ye fools*, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?*

(11.40) “Ye fools.”

41 But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 But woe unto you, Pharisees*! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.*

(11.42) “Woe unto you, Pharisees!”

43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

(11.43) “Woe unto you, Pharisees!”

44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

(11.44) “Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!”

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

(11.46) “Woe unto you also, ye lawyers!”

(11.47-52) Jesus blames all the deaths of the prophets (from Abel to Zacharias) on his generation.

47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

(11.47) “Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.”

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

(11.48) “Ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.”

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:
50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

(11.50) “The blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation.”

51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

(11.51) “From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias … It shall be required of this generation.”

52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

(11.52) “Woe unto you, lawyers!”

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:
54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

LUKE 12

12 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

(12.5) "I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him." Jesus says that we should fear God since he has the power to kill us and then torture us forever in hell.
≠132 Should we fear God?

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

(12.7) "Ye are of more value than many sparrows."

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

⚖ (12.9) “He that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.”

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

⚖ 🔥 (12.10) “Unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.”
≠358 Is there an unforgivable sin?

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:
12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.
13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.
14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?
15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man’s life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.
16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:
17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?
18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.
19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

(12.22) "Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on."

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

(12.29-31) Don't worry about food, God will take care of you.

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink*, neither be ye of doubtful mind.*

(12.29) "Seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink."

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

(12.30) "For … your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things."

31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

(12.31) "Seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you."

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye have, and give alms*; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.*

(12.33) "Sell that ye have, and give alms." Jesus tells his followers to sell everything they own and give the money to the poor.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

(12.46-47) God is like a slave-owner who tortures and chops his slaves in pieces.
≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

(12.46) "The lord of that servant … will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers."

47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

(12.47) "That servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes."

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!

51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

(12.51) "Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

≠355 Is Jesus peaceful?

(12.52-53) Jesus prophesies that families will be divided because of him and his teachings. Sadly, this is one prophecy that has been fulfilled.

> 52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

(12.52) “For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.”

> 53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

(12.53) “The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.”

> 54 And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.
> 55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.
> *56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

(12.56) “Ye hypocrites … how is it that ye do not discern this time?” Jesus calls the people hypocrites because they cannot “discern this time.”

> 57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?
> 58 When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

13 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

(13.3, 5) “Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

(13.11-16) Jesus heals a woman with “a spirit of infirmity” by casting out a devil. (All illness is caused by devils.)

11 And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

(13.11) "There was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself."

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

(13.12) "When Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity."

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight*, and glorified God.*

(13.13) "He laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight."

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

(13.16) "This woman … whom Satan hath bound … eighteen years."

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

(13.23-28) In Mathew 7.7-8 and Luke 11.9-10 Jesus says that "he who seeketh findeth." But here he says that "many … will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." Only a few will be saved; the vast majority will suffer eternally in hell where "there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

≠300 Will those who seek God find him?

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

(13.23) "Lord, are there few that be saved?"

24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

(13.24) "Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many … will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth*, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.*

(13.28) “There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

> 29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.
> 30 And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

(13.31-33) When the Pharisees warn Jesus that Herod would try to kill him, Jesus tells them to tell Herod that he casts out devils, will be perfected on the third day, and will walk around Jerusalem for another couple days or so.

(13.32) “Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.”

> 33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

(13.33) “Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.”

> 34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
> 35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say,

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

LUKE 14

14 And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

(14.14) “The resurrection of the just.”

≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

≠167 Is death final?

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

(14.26) “If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.” Jesus says that his disciples must hate their families (mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, husbands, wives, children) and themselves.
≠107 How should parents be treated?
≠127 Should we love or hate others?

27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,

30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

(14.33) “Whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.” If you want to be a disciple of Jesus, you must abandon everything, including your family.

34 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

8 Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

*25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

(15.25) "He heard musick and dancing."
≠100 Is dancing a sin?

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

LUKE 16

16 And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

(16.9-14) Make friends with the mammon of unrighteousness.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness*; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.*

(16.9) "Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness."

10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

(16.11) "If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?"

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

LUKE 17

17 Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

(17.6) “If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.”
With a little faith can pluck up trees by their roots and cast them into the sea.

? (17.7-9) Slaves should do what their told. ≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

(17.7) “Which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?”

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

(17.9) “Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.”

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

(17.12-14) Jesus heals ten lepers.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off:

(17.12) “As he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers.”

> 24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

(17.24) “As the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.” There will be nothing subtle about Jesus’ return. It will be like lightning that flashes from one end of the heaven to the other. Like the Wicked Witch of the West writing “Surrender Dorothy” in the sky. Like that.

> 25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

(17.27) “Until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.” Jesus believed the story of Noah’s ark. He thought it really happened and had no problem with the idea of God drowning everything and everybody.

> 28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

(17.29-32) Jesus also believes the story about Sodom’s destruction. He says, “even thus shall it be in the day the son of man is revealed.” This tells us about Jesus’ knowledge of science and history, and his sense of justice.

> 29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

(17.29) “The same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.”

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

LUKE 18

(18.1-6) The parable of the avenging, lazy, unjust judge (God).

18 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge*, which feared not God, neither regarded man:*

(18.1-2) "He spake a parable … Saying, There was … a judge."

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

(18.3) “There was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.”

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;
5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

(18.4-5) “And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.”

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

(18.6) “The Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.”

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?
8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?
9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:
10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.
11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.
12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.
13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.
14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

(18.17) "Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein."
≠365 Is it good to be childish?

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

(18.19) "Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God." Apparently Jesus thought he was neither good nor God.
≠349 Is Jesus God?

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

(18.20a) "Thou knowest the commandments." But apparently Jesus didn't, since he only named five of the Ten Commandments. (Notice that the five on Jesus' list are the secular ones that make no mention of God.)

(18.20b) "Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother."
≠366 What was Jesus' sixth commandment?
≠109 To kill or not to kill
≠91 Is it OK to steal?

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

⚖ ☺ (18.25) "It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." Rich people don't go to heaven.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

(18.27) "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

≠59 Can God do anything?

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

♂ ♀ (18.29-30) "There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting." Abandon your wife and family for Jesus and he'll give you a big reward.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

(18.33) "They shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again."
≠367 Did Jesus forewarn the apostles of his death and resurrection?

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

(18.35-43) Jesus heals a blind man.
≠371 How many blind men were healed near Jericho?
≠372 When was the blind man (or men) healed?

35 And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:
36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.
37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.
38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

(18.35-38) "As he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man … cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me."

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.
40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him,
41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.
42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

(18.42) "Jesus said … Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee."

LUKE 19

19 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zacchaeus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

(19.12-27) Jesus says that God is like an unjust king who takes what is not rightly his, reaps what he didn’t sow, and has those who don’t want to be ruled by him slaughtered in front of him.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

(19.35) “They brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.”

(19.36-46) ≠373 When did Jesus’ temple tantrum occur?

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

(19.36) “As he went, they spread their clothes in the way.”

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

(19.37) “When he was … at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude … began to rejoice … with a loud voice.”

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

(19.38) “Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.”

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side,

44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

(19.45) “He went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought.”

46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.

(19.46) “Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves.”

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,

48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

LUKE 20

20 And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

(20.9-16) God is like a man who owns a vineyard and rents it to poor farmers. When he sends servants to collect the rent, the tenants beat or kill them. So he sent his son to collect the rent, and they kill him too. Then the owner comes and kills the farmers and rents the vineyard to others.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

(20.9) “A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country.”

> 10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and

(20.10) “He sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.”
sent him away empty.

> 11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

(20.11) “Again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.”

> 12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

(20.12) “He sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.”

> 13 Then said the lord of the vineyard*, What shall I do?* I will send my beloved son*: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.*

(20.13) “Then said the lord of the vineyard … I will send my beloved son.” (Yeah, that sounds like a good idea.)

> 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

(20.14) “But … the husbandmen … reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.”

> 15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

(20.15) “So they … killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?”

> 16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

(20.16) “He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others.”

> 17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?
> 18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
> 19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.
> 20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.
> 21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:

(20.22-25) Pay your taxes. Keep state and church separate.

> 22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no?

(20.22) “Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar?”

> 23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?
> 24 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Caesar’s.

(20.23-24) “He .. said … Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Caesar’s.”

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

(20.25) "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and unto God the things which be God's."

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

 (20.27-35) Jesus says that everyone in heaven is single. Does that mean that married people can't go there, that they must get a divorce once they arrive, or what?

27 Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

(20.27) "Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,"

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

(20.28) "Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother."

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

(20.29) "There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children."

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

(20.30) "The second took her to wife, and he died childless."

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

(20.31) “The third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.”

32 Last of all the woman died also.

(20.32) “Last of all the woman died also.”

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

(20.33) “In the resurrection whose wife of them is she?”

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

(20.34) “Jesus … said … The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage.”

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage*:*

(20.35) “They which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.”

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised*, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.*

(20.37) “Now that the dead are raised”
≠167 Is death final?

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.
41 And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son?

(20.41) "How say they that Christ is David's son?"

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,
43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

(20.42-43) "David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies thy footstool."

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

(20.44) "David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?"
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

45 Then in the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples,
46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;
47 Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

LUKE 21

(21.1-3) From his comments on the widow's mites, it appears that Jesus favored progressive taxation.

21 And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury*.*
2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

(21.1-2) “He … saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. And … a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.”

> 3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

(21.3) “This poor widow hath cast in more than they.”

> 4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.
> 5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,
> 6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

(21.7-27)

Before the end of the world there will be many false Christs that claim the end of the world is near (Don’t believe them) (8), there will be “wars and commotions” (but ignore that) (9), along with earthquakes, famines, pestilences, and “fearful sights” and “great signs from heaven” (11).

Believers will be arrested and persecuted by Jews, who will throw them in prison (12); friends and family will betray each other, some will be put to death (16); and believers will be hated by everyone (17). But don’t worry. Not a single hair on your head will be hurt (even if you are killed) (18).

When you see armies around Jerusalem, then you’ll know desolation is near (20). It’s time to head for the hills. Unless you’re a pregnant or nursing women, that is (23). Then you’re just fucked. Too bad for you.

God’s wrath will be on everyone with dead bodies all over the place and Jerusalem will be trodden on by Gentiles until “the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled” (24). There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars, with lots of waves in the sea (25).

Everyone will be afraid of everything (26) and then they'll see the Son of Man coming in all his glory. (27)

Oh, and all these things will happen within the lifespan of Jesus' contemporaries (32).

> 7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

(21.7) "Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?"

> 8 And he said*, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for* many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

(21.8) "He said … many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them."

> 9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions*, be not terrified: for* these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

(21.9) "When ye shall hear of wars and commotions … these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by."

> 10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
> 11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

(21.11) "Great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven."

≠320 Should we look for signs in the heavens?

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

(21.12) "They shall … persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake."

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.
14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:
15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.
16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

(21.16) "Ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death."

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

(21.17) "Ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake."

18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

(21.18) "But there shall not an hair of your head perish."

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.
20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

(21.20) "When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh."

21 Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

(21.23) "Woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!"

*24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

(21.24) "They shall fall by the edge of the sword … and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled."

25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

(21.25) "There shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars … the sea and the waves roaring."
≠4 Does the bible condemn astrology?

*26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

(21.26) "Men's hearts failing them for fear … for the powers of heaven shall be shaken."

*27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

(21.27) "And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory."
≠377 Will Jesus' second coming be visible to all?

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

(21.32) "This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled." Jesus says that all that he describes (in verses 8-27) will occur within the lifetime of his listeners.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away*: but my words shall not pass away.*

(21.33) "Heaven and earth shall pass away."
≠147 Will the earth last forever?

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

(22.3-7) ≠433 Did Satan enter Judas before or after the last supper?

3 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

(22.3) "Then entered Satan into Judas."

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

(22.7) "Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed."

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

(22.19-20) Jesus tells his disciples to eat his body and drink his blood.

19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

(22.19) “He took bread … and gave unto them, saying, This is my body.”

*20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

(22.20) “This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.”

21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

(22.30) "That ye may … sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel." Which tribe will Judas judge?

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

(22.34) "I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me."

≠379 Did Jesus say "before the cock crow" or "before the cock crows twice?"

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

(22.36) “He that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.” (Have you bought your Jesus sword yet?)

> 37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.
> 38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.
> 39 And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.
> 40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.
> 41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone’s cast, and kneeled down, and prayed,
> 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

(22.42) “Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me.”
≠381 Did Jesus ask God to save him from crucifixion?

> 43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.
> 44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
> 45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,
> 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

(22.47-48) ≠382 Did Judas identify Jesus with a kiss?

> *47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

(22.47) “Judas … drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.”

*48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

(22.48) "Jesus said unto him, Betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?"

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

(22.50-51) When one of the disciples cuts off the ear of the high priest's slave, Jesus just puts the ear back. No problem.

*50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

(22.50) "One of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear."

*51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

(22.51) "And Jesus … touched his ear, and healed him."

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?
53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.
54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

(22.54) "They … brought him into the high priest's house."
≠383 Was Jesus taken to Caiaphas or Annas first?

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

(22.56-60) ≠386 To whom did Peter deny knowing Jesus?
≠380 Did the cock crow before or after Peter's denial?

*56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

(22.56) “A certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire … and said, This man was also with him.”

*57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

(22.57) “And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.”

*58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

(22.58) “Another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.”

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilaean.

(22.59) “One hour after another confidently affirmed, saying … this fellow also was with him.”

*60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

(22.60) “And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.”

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

(22.70) "Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am."

≠385 How did Jesus respond when questioned by the high priest?

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

LUKE 23

23 And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

(23.11) "Herod with his men of war … arrayed him in a gorgeous robe."

≠391 "Who put the robe on Jesus?

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

*26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

(23.26) "They laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian … and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus."

≠393 Who carried Jesus' cross?

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

(23.43) “To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.” Jesus tells the “good thief” that they will both be in heaven “today.” But how can that be since it’s only Friday and , according to the gospels, Jesus lay dead in the tomb Friday night and all day Saturday.
≠434 Can thieves go to heaven?

> 44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

(23.44-45a) When Jesus was crucified, there was three hours of complete darkness “over all the earth.” It is strange that there is no record of this extraordinary event outside of the gospels.

≠407 Did the women immediately tell the disciples?

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

(24.10) "It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women."
≠402 How many women came?

*11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

(24.11) "Their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not." When Mary Magdalene and the other women gave their account of the resurrection to the apostles didn't believe them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

(24.13-16) Two of Jesus' disciples failed to recognize him after his supposed resurrection. Maybe that was because the person they saw wasn't really Jesus.
≠408 To whom did Jesus first appear?

13 And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

(24.13) "Two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus."

≠413 Did Mary Magdalene recognize Jesus?

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.
25 Then he said unto them, O fools*, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:*

!!! (24.25) “He said unto them, O fools.” The man (whoever he was) who talked with the two unnamed apostles on the way to Emmaus calls them “fools,” thereby making himself a candidate for “hell fire.” (Matthew 5.22)
≠297 Is it OK to call someone a fool?

≠410 Was it OK to touch the risen Jesus?
≠17 Does God have a body?

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.
41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?
42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

(24.44-46) Jesus claims that his suffering and death were a fulfillment of prophecy. But there is no such prophecy in the Old Testament.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

(24.44) "All things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me."

47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
48 And ye are witnesses of these things.
49 And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem*, until ye be endued with power from on high.*

(24.49) "Tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem."
≠412 Where did Jesus tell his disciples to go after his resurrection?

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.
51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

(24.51) "He was … carried up into heaven."
≠428 When did Jesus ascend into heaven?

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

JOHN

He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. — John 3.18

The best known verse from the Bible, by far, is John 3.16.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

And it sounds nice, until you think about it. God had his own son tortured to death to prevent himself from torturing everyone else forever. Believe and you have everlasting life. Disbelieve and you are damned to hell. That is the message of the gospel of John.

Here are some highlights.

- Jesus told Nathaniel that he would see heaven open and angels descend upon Jesus. Nathaniel never saw it; neither has anyone else. 1.51
- Jesus believed the stupid and vicious story from Numbers 21. (God sent snakes to bite the people for complaining about the lack of food and water. Then God told Moses to make a brass snake to cure them from the bites.) 3.14
- Those who, for whatever reason, do not believe in Jesus are tormented forever in hell. 3.18, 8.24, 15.6
- The wrath of God is on all unbelievers. 3.36
- Jesus magically perceived that a Samaritan woman had been married and divorced five times previously. (He could spot a divorced woman a mile away.) 4.7-18
- The people of Nazareth, who knew Jesus well, (his family, friends, and neighbors) didn't believe in him. 6.42, 7.5
- Jesus says we must eat his flesh and drink his blood if we want to have eternal life. 6.53

- A man was born blind so that Jesus could show off his powers by curing him of his blindness. 9.1-3
- Jesus spits on the ground, mixes his spit with the dirt, and rubs the muddy spit in a blind man's eyes. 9.6
- Everyone that ever lived before Jesus was a thief and a robber. 10.8
- Many of those who saw Jesus firsthand thought he was mad and possessed by a devil. 10.20
- Lazarus suffered and died (or pretend to die) so that Jesus could be "be glorified" by raising him from the dead. 11.4
- Mary wastes expensive ointment on Jesus' feet, rather than selling the ointment and giving the money to the poor. But Jesus thinks his feet are more important, saying that poor people will always be around, but he and his precious feet won't be. 12.3-8
- You must hate your life in order to keep it. (If you love your life, you'll go to hell after you die.) 12.25
- God hardened the hearts of the Jews to prevent them from believing in Jesus. 12.40
- Those who believe in Jesus will be able to perform even greater miracles than he did! 14.12
- If you don't like Jesus, then you don't like God. (You're a damned God hater.) 15.23
- Christians always get whatever they ask for in prayer. 15.7, 16; 16.23
- The Jews are blamed for the death of Jesus. 19.7-15
- Jesus implied that he would return to earth during the lifetime of John. 21.22-23

JOHN 1

> 1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

(1.1) "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."
≠349 Is Jesus God?
≠2 Who created heaven and earth?

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

(1.12) “To them gave he the power to become the sons of God.”
≠28 How many sons does God have?

13 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

(1.14) “The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.”
≠349 Is Jesus God?

15 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

(1.18) “No man hath seen God at any time.”
≠49 Can God be seen?

> 19 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?
> 20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.
> 21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not*. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.*

(1.21) “Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not.”
≠356 Was John the Baptist Elijah?

> 22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?
> 23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.
> 24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.
> 25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?
> 26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;
> 27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe’s latchet I am not worthy to unloose.
> 28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

(1.28) “These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.” But no such site is known in history. Some translations ASV, NAB, NIV, RSV, NRSV) rename Bethabara as Bethany, but Bethany is a suburb of Jerusalem and, therefore, not “beyond the Jordan.”
≠333 Where did John baptize?

(1.29-34) John baptizes Jesus and declares him to be "the Son of God." But later, as he is about to be beheaded, he is no longer sure what to think about Jesus. So he sends his own disciples to ask, "Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?" (Mt 11.3) Well, if he isn't sure after seeing and hearing the events at Jesus' baptism, then how can anyone else be?

> 29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

(1.29) "Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

> 30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
> 31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.
> 32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

(1.32) "John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him."

> 33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water*, the same* said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending*, and remaining on him, the same* is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

(1.33) "He that sent me to baptize with water … said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending … is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost."

> 34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

(1.34) "I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God."

> 35 Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

(1.35) “Again the next day after….”
≠415 What did Jesus do after his baptism?

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!
37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.
38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?
39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.
40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother.

(1.40) “One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother.”
≠337 Which came first: the calling of Peter and Andrew or the imprisonment of John the Baptist?

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

(1.41) “We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.”
≠363 How did Peter find out that Jesus was the Messiah?

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.
43 The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.
44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

(1.44) “Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.”
≠416 Where was the home of Peter and Andrew?

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

(1.48-50) Jesus had remote viewing skills.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

(1.51) "Ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man." Jesus falsely prophesied that Nathaniel would see heaven open and angels descend upon Jesus. Nathaniel never saw it; neither has anyone else.

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.
17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.
18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?
19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.
20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

≠384 Did Jesus say, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up"?

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.
23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.
24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,
25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

JOHN 3

3 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth*: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.*

(3.8) "The wind bloeth where it listeth, and thou … canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth." Jesus says that no one knows which way the wind is blowing. But he was wrong about that. The direction and speed of the wind are easily measured.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

(3.12) "If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?" He was wrong about creation, wrong about the flood, and wrong about the smallest seed. So why would anyone believe him when he talks about heaven?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven*, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.*

(3.13) "No man hath ascended up to heaven." Not even Enoch or Elijah? ≠26 Has anyone ever ascended into heaven?

14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness*, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:*

(3.14) "Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness." Jesus believed the stupid and vicious story from Numbers 21. (God sent snakes to bite the people for complaining about the lack of food and water. Then God told Moses to make a brass snake to cure them from the bites.)

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

3 He left Judaea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob’s well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

☺♀⚖ (4.7-18) Jesus magically perceived that a Samaritan woman had been married and divorced five times previously. (He could spot a divorced woman a mile away.) Since women weren’t allowed to get a divorce, it was always the woman’s fault and divorced women were considered outcasts. This was a great opportunity for Jesus to explain why the Mosaic marriage laws were unjust and correct them —if he thought they were wrong, that is, which apparently he didn’t.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

(4.7) “There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water.”

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit*: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.*

> 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did*: is not this the Christ?*

(4.29) “Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did.” Jesus didn’t tell the Samaritan woman everything that had ever happened to her. He just used the same trick that successful palm readers, astrologers, and fortune tellers use to make gullible people say to themselves, “How could he have knownthat about me?”

> 30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.
> 31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

(4.39) "Many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him."
≠432 Did the Samaritans receive Jesus?

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.
41 And many more believed because of his own word;
42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.
43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.
44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.
45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

(4.46-51) Jesus heals a nobleman's son.

(4.47) "He … besought him that he would come … and heal his son: for he was at the point of death."

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

(4.50) “Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth.”

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

(4.51) “As he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.”

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

JOHN 5

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

(5.4) “An angel went down … into the pool, and troubled the water: Whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had." Whoever enters a pool after it is stirred up by angels will be cured of "whatsoever disease he had."

> 5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

(5.5) "A certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years."

(5.9) "And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked."

> 10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.
> 11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.
> 12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

> 14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

(5.14) "Sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee." Jesus believed people are crippled by God as a punishment for sin. He told a crippled man, after healing him, to “sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.”

> 15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

(5.16-18) John, with his usual anti-Semitism, says that the Jews persecuted Jesus and “sought to slay him.”

> 16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

(5.16) “Therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.”

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

*21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

(5.21) "As the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will." Jesus can make any dead body live just like his dad can.

*22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

(5.22) "The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son."
≠440 Does Jesus judge people?

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

(5.24) "He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life."

*25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

(5.25) "The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live."

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

(5.26-27) “The Father … hath given him authority to execute judgment.”

≠157 Does Hell exist?
≠298 Does anyone ever do anything good?

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

(5.31) “If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.”
≠441 Did Jesus bears witness of himself?

32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 Search the scriptures*; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.*

(5.39) "Search the scriptures." Good advice. Because those that search the scriptures are sure to reject them.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses*, ye would have believed me: for he* wrote of me.

(5.46) "Moses … wrote of me." Where? It's a shame he didn't give us chapter and verse.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

JOHN 6

6 After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

(6.5-13) Jesus fed 5000 men (plus women and children) with five loaves and two fishes (with 12 baskets left over).

*5 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

(6.5) "Jesus … saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?"

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

*8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

(6.8-9) "Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes."

*10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

(6.10) "Jesus said, Make the men sit down … So the men sat down, in number about five thousand."

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

(6.11) "Jesus took the loaves; and … distributed … to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes."

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

(6.12-13) "When they were filled … they … filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves."

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

(6.19) "They see Jesus walking on the sea."

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.
52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

(6.53-66) Jesus says we must eat his flesh and drink his blood if we want to have eternal life. This idea was just too gross for "many of his disciples" and "walked no more with him." (They are called Protestants nowadays.)

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

(6.60) "Many … of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?"

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

(6.64-66) Jesus knew who could stomach the idea of eating his flesh and drinking his blood (the Catholics, who are going to heaven) and who couldn't (the Protestants, who are going to hell). It's all a part of God's plan.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not*, and who should betray him.*

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.
69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.
70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

(6.70) "Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?" Jesus chose "a devil" for an apostle. Oh well, everyone makes mistakes.

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

JOHN 7

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

(7.1) “He would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.”

2 Now the Jews’ feast of tabernacles was at hand.
3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.
4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.
5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

(7.5) “Neither did his brethren believe in him.” Jesus’ family didn’t believe in him. (You shouldn’t either.)

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.
7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

(7.8-10) Jesus tells his family that he wasn’t going to the feast, but later goes “in secret.” ≠86 Is it OK to lie?

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast*; for my time is not yet full come.*

(7.8) “Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast.”

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.
10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast*, not openly, but as it were in secret.*

(7.10) “But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast.”

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

(7.13) “No man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.”

14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

(7.19-20) Jesus accuses people of trying to kill him. But they say to him, “Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?”

19 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

(7.19) “Why go ye about to kill me?”

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

(7.20) “The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?”

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

(7.24) "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

≠126 To judge or not to judge?

25 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

(7.38) "He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water." Jesus says that those who believe in him will, as the scripture says, have living waters flowing out of their bellies. Well that sounds like fun, but there is no such scripture in the Bible.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

JOHN 8

(7.53-8.11) The woman taken in adultery
This is one of the best-known and most-loved of all Bible stories, but it shouldn't be in the Bible, for although some manuscripts put it here, others after John 7.36, 21.35, or Luke 21.38, it is not found anywhere in the oldest manuscripts.

8 Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.
3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,
4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.
7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

(8.7) "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her." Jesus tells those who'd like to stone to death an adulteress that whoever among them that is without sin should "cast the first stone." Good advice —but it directly contradicts the teachings of the Old Testament (Lev 20.10). If that wasn't a good law then, why did God make it? Has he since changed his mind? If so, shouldn't it then be removed (along with most of the OT) from the Bible?

≠129 How should adulterers be punished?
≠23 Does God approve of capital punishment?

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true*: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.*

(8.14) “Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true.”

15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man*.*

(8.15) “I judge no man.”
≠440 Does Jesus judge people?

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself*, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.*

(8.18) “I am one that bear witness of myself.”
≠441 Did Jesus bears witness of himself?

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

*24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

(8.24) "If ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." If you don't believe in Jesus, you will "die in your sins" (and then go to hell).

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

*32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

(8.32) "The truth shall make you free."

33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

(9.6-7) Jesus spits on the ground, mixes his spit with the dirt, and rubs the muddy spit on (or in?) a blind man’s eyes. Then he told him to wash in the pool of Siloam. After that, the blind man could see again. The Bible doesn’t say whether it was the holy spit, holy mud, or holy water that did the trick.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

*39 And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

(9.39a) "For judgment I am come into this world."
≠[440 Did Jesus come to judge people?]

(9.39b) "That they which see might be made blind." Jesus came to make people blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

JOHN 10

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers*: but the sheep did not hear them.*

(10.8) "All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers." Everyone that ever lived before Jesus was a thief and a robber.

9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved*, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.*

(10.9) "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved." Enter through the Jesus door.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

(10.16) "There shall be one fold, and one shepherd." Jesus falsely prophesies that "there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." This will never happen as long as Christian beliefs are based on the Bible.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life*, that I might take it again.*

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

 (10.17-18) "I lay down my life … No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself." Did Jesus commit suicide?

19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

(10.20) "Many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?" Many of those who saw Jesus firsthand thought he was mad and possessed by a devil.

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

*28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

(10.28) "I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand."
≠442 Is it possible to fall from grace?

29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

*30 I and my Father are one.

(10.30) "I and my Father are one."
≠349 Is Jesus God?

*31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

(10.31) "Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him." (Those pesky Jews are always tring to kill Jesus.)

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

(10.33-34) The Jews threatened to execute Jesus for blasphemy, since he claimed be God. Jesus defended himself by quoting Ps 82.6: "Ye are gods."
≠9 How many gods are there?

*33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

(10.33) “The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.”

> 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

(10.34) “Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?”

> 35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;
> 36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?
> 37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
> 38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

(10.38) “The Father is in me, and I in him.”
≠349 Is Jesus God?

> 39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,
> 40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.
> 41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.
> 42 And many believed on him there.

JOHN 11

11 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

*4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

(11.4) “Jesus … said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.” Lararus must suffer and die (or pretend to die) so that Jesus can “be glorified” by raising him from the dead.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

(11.8) “His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee.”

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

(11.26) “Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.”
≠24 Must everyone die?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

(11.39-44) ≠167 Is death final?

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

(11.39) “Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.”

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

(11.41-43) "Then they took away the stone … And Jesus … cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth."

≠196 Was Jesus the first to rise from the dead?

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

(11.44) "And he that was dead came forth."

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

JOHN 12

12 Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

(12.3-8) Mary wastes expensive ointment on Jesus' feet, rather than selling the ointment and giving the money to the poor. But Jesus thinks his feet are more important, saying that poor people will always be around, but he and his precious feet won't be. (According to the New Oxford Annotated Bible, 300 denarii would be nearly a year's wage for a laborer.)

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair*: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.*

(12.3) "Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair."

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot*, Simon's son, which should betray him,*

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

(12.4-5) “Then saith … Judas Iscariot … Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?”

> 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.
> 7 Then said Jesus*, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.*
> 8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

(12.7-8) “Then said Jesus … the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.”

> 9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus’ sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
> 10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;
> 11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.
> 12 On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,
> 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.
> 14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon*;* as it is written,
> 15 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass’s colt.

(12.14a) “Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon.”
≠374 On what did Jesus ride into Jerusalem?

(12.14b-15) “As it is written … thy King cometh, sitting on an ass’s colt.” This verse claims that Jesus fulfils the prophecy in Zechariah 9.9. But this can’t be since the person referred to in Zechariah (see verses 10-13) was both a military leader and the king of an earthly kingdom.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

(12.24) "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." Jesus was wrong about seeds. If a seed dies, it dies. It only produces a new plant if it stays alive (in a dormant stage) until it germinates. A dead seed bringeth forth no fruit.

25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

(12.25) "He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it." You must hate your life in order to keep it. (If you love your life, you'll go to hell after you die.)

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

(12.27) "What shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour."
≠381 Did Jesus ask God to save him from crucifixion?

(12.28-29) While Jesus was praying, a loud noise came from the sky. Some said it was thunder, others said it was an angel talking to Jesus.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

(12.28) "Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

(12.29) "The people … heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him."

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.
31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

(12.31) "Now shall the prince of this world be cast out."
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.
33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.
34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?
35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

⚖ (12.39-40) God hardened the hearts of the Jews to prevent them from believing in Jesus.

≠311 Does God want some people to go to hell?

≠443 Who forces non-believers to disbelieve?

(12.39-40) "They could not believe, because … He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them."

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

(12.47) "I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world."
≠440 Does Jesus judge people?

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him*: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.*

(12.48) "He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him." Jesus says if you reject him, his dad (God) will judge you. But Jesus isn't judging, he's just saying.

49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.
50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

JOHN 13

13 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.
2 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot*, Simon's son,* to betray him*;*

(13.2) "The devil … put into the heart of Judas Iscariot … to betray him." God put the devil in Judas' heart so that he could have his son (or himself, or whatever) killed.

(13.3-5) Jesus takes off all his clothes, wraps a towel around himself, and washes the feet of his disciples using the same towel. Does that mean Jesus was naked while washing their feet?

> 3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

> 13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
> 14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

(13.25) "He … lying on Jesus' breast."

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

(13.27) “After the sop Satan entered into him.”
≠433 When did Satan enter Judas?

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.
30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.
31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.
33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.
34 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

(13.34) “Love one another.”

*35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

(13.35) “By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.” Love has hardly been a diagnostic feature of Christians.

36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

(13.36) “Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou?”
≠444 Did Peter ask Jesus where he was going?

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

(13.38) “The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.”
≠379 Did Jesus say before the cock crow or before the cock crows twice?

JOHN 14

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

(14.2) “I go to prepare a place for you.”
≠378 When was heaven created?

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

(14.6) “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” Jesus is the only way to heaven. All other religions lead to hell.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the

Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?*

(14.9) “He that hath seen me hath seen the Father.”
≠49 Can God be seen?
≠349 Is Jesus God?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.
11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works’ sake.
12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

(14.12) “He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do.” Those who believe in Jesus will be able to perform even greater miracles than he did!

(14.13-14) The greatest lie ever told.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

(14.13) “Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do.”

*14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

(14.14) “If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.”

15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.
16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;
17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.
18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more*; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.*

(14.19) “Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more.”
≠377 Will Jesus’ second coming be visible to all?

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.
21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father*, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.*

(14.21) “He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father.” If you follow Jesus’ teachings, God will love you — otherwise… well, you know.

22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.
24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father’s which sent me.
25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.
26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

(14.26) “The Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send.”
≠445 Who sent the Holy Ghost?

27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you*: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.*

(14.27) “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you.”
≠355 Is Jesus peaceful?

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

(14.28) "My Father is greater than I."
≠349 Is Jesus God?

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

(14.30) "The prince of this world"
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

JOHN 15

15 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

⚖ 🪶 🔥 (15.6) “If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.” Those who do not believe in Jesus will be cast into a fire to be burned.

> 7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

😊 (15.7) “Ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.”

> 8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.
> 9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
> 10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father’s commandments, and abide in his love.
> 11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.
> 12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another*, as I have loved you.*

👍 (15.12, 17) “This is my commandment, That ye love one another.” If this is what it takes to be a Christian, then count me in. Unfortunately, Christians often take Jesus’ commandment to mean that Christians should love other, like-minded Christians, and to hell with everyone else.

> 13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
> 14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
> 15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

(15.15) “All things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.”

≠446 Did Jesus tell his disciples everything?

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

(15.16) "Whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you."

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

(15.18-19) If Christians are hated by anyone, it proves that they are the true followers of Christ.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

(15.18) "If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you."

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world*, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore* the world hateth you.

(15.19) "If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world … the world hateth you."

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.
21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.
22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

(15.22) "If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: But now they have no cloak for their sin." Now that Jesus has come, non-believers have no excuse for not believing in him.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

(15.23) “He that hateth me hateth my Father also.” Oh, that’s a good one. If you don’t like Jesus, then you don’t like God. (You’re a damned God hater.)
Martin Luther used this verse to justify the mistreatment of the Jews. On the Jews and Their Lies (Part 12)

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

(15.26) “The Comforter … whom I will send unto you”
≠445 Who sent the Holy Ghost?

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

JOHN 16

16 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

(16.5) “None of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?”
≠444 Did Peter ask Jesus where he was going?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.
8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;
10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;
11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

(16.11) “The prince of this world”
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now*.*

(16.12) “I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.”
≠446 Did Jesus tell his disciples everything?

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.
14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

(16.23) “Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.” O Lord, won’t you buy me a Mercedes Benz?

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

(16.30) "Thou knowest all things."
≠346 Did Jesus know everything?

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

(16.33) "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace."
≠355 Is Jesus peaceful?

JOHN 17

17 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

(17.3) "The only true God"
≠9 How many gods are there?

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one*; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.*

(17.21) "That they all may be one" Jesus prays that believers might all be one, thereby proving, once and for all, that nothing fails like prayer.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:
23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.
24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.
25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.
26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

JOHN 18

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.
2 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

> 15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

(18.17-27)
≠386 To whom did Peter deny knowing Jesus?
≠380 Did the cock crow before or after Peter's denial?

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

(18.17) "Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not."

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

(18.20) "In secret have I said nothing."
≠361 Did Jesus have secret teachings?

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

(18.28) “Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.”
≠423 When was Jesus crucified?

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?
30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.
31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:
32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

(18.33-37) In Matthew (27.14), Jesus "answered to him never a word" when questioned by Pilate. But here, in the same situation, Jesus responds in some detail.

> 5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

(19.7-15) The Jews are blamed for the death of Jesus.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die*, because he made himself the Son of God.*

(19.7) "The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die."

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;
9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.
10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?
11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.
12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.

(19.12) "Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar."

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

> 32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

(19.33-36) The soldiers didn't break Jesus' legs because he was already dead. Verse 36 claims that this fulfilled a prophecy: "Not a bone of him shall be broken." But there is no such prophecy in the Old Testament.
It is sometimes said that the prophecy appears in Ex 12.46, Num 9.12 and Ps 34.20. But Exodus 12.46 and Numbers 9.12 are not prophecies, they are commandments. The Israelites are told not to break the bones of the Passover lamb, and this is all it is about. And Psalm 34.20 seems to refer to righteous people in general (see verse 19, where a plural is used), not to make a prophecy about a specific person.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.
4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.
5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.
6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,
7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.
8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

≠409 Did Mary Magdalene recognize Jesus?

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

*17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

♀ (20.17a) "Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father." Jesus tells Mary Magdalene not to touch him because he hasn't yet ascended—as if the touch of a woman would defile him and somehow prevent him from ascending into heaven. One wonders why he insisted that Thomas touch him (Jn 20.27), and why he permitted his apostles to touch him and hold him by the feet before his ascension (Mt 28.9).

31 But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

JOHN 21

21 After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

(21.3-13) One night Peter and the apostles decided to go fishing. They fished all night but caught nothing. The next morning a man on shore asked if they'd caught anything. When they told him they hadn't, the man told them to cast their net on the right side of the boat. So they did that and caught so many fish they couldn't haul in the net (153 in all).

One of the apostles (the one that Jesus loved) decided that the guy on shore was really Jesus. When Peter, who was naked at the time, heard it was Jesus, he put his coat on and jumped into the water. Some other apostles came out in another boat and helped tow the net to shore. When they got in, Jesus was busy cooking fish over a fire. He told them to eat some of the fish and bread he'd been cooking. None of the disciples dared to ask Jesus who he was, but they all figured it was Jesus, anyway.

*3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

(21.3) "Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth … and that night they caught nothing."

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

(21.4) “When the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.”

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

(21.5) “Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.”

6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

(21.6) “He said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.”

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher’s coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

(21.7) “That disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher’s coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.”

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship*; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,)* dragging the net with fishes.

(21.11) “Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three.”

> 12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

(21.12) “Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.”

> 13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

(21.13) “Jesus … taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.”

> 14 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

(21.15-17) Jesus keeps asking Peter the same question: Do you love me more than all the others? Peter keeps telling him that he does.

> 15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter*, Simon, son of Jonas,* lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

(21.15) “Jesus saith to Simon Peter … lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee.”

> 16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon*, son of Jonas,* lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

(21.16) “He saith to him again the second time, Simon … lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee.”

> 17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon*, son of Jonas,* lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

(21.17) “He saith unto him the third time, Simon … lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee.”

≠346 Did Jesus know everything?

> 18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.
> 19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.
> 20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper*, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?*

⚥? (21.20) “The disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper”

> 21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

≡ (21.22-23) Jesus implies that he will return to earth during the lifetime of John.

> 22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

(21.22) "If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?"

> 23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

(21.23) "Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?" Either way, Jesus was wrong. John died nearly 2000 years ago and Jesus didn't return.

> 24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.
> 25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did*, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even* the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

(21.25) "There are also many other things which Jesus did … [that] the world itself could not contain the books that should be written." John says that a single book couldn't contain all the things that Jesus did. Yet the author of Acts claims that he included everything that Jesus did in his "former treatise" (the gospel of Luke).

≠447 Did Luke include everything that Jesus did?

ACTS

Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost. — Acts 5.9-10

There are lots of firsts in the Book of Acts: the first transporter operations (1.10-11, 8.39-40), the first speaking in tongues (2.4, 10.45-46, 19.6), the first communists (2.44-45), the first prayer-caused earthquake (4.31), the first Christian couple scared to death by God (5.5, 10), the first holy prison breaks (5.19, 12.7, 16.26), the first shadow healing (5.15-16), the first handkerchief healing (19.12), the first person blinded by Jesus (9.8-9), the first person blinded by a Christian (13.8-11), the first talking ghost (13.2), the first vow-induced shaved head (18.18), the first (and only) school mentioned in the Bible (19.9), The first naked Jewish exorcists (19.13-16), the first Christian book burning (19.19), the first boring sermon casualty (20.9), the first Holy Ghost-delivered girdle message (21.10-11), The first dust-throwing, naked, murderous Jewish mob (22.22-23), the first hunger strike (23.12), and the first (and only) poisonous snake on the island of Malta (28.3-6).

Highlights:

- While Jesus went up to heaven, two angels (men in white) tell the disciples that Jesus will return in the same way he just left them (by beaming up/down via transporter). 1.10-11
- Whoopie! It’s Pentecost: A mighty wind comes, cloven tongues of fire sit on top of heads, everyone acts drunk and talks in languages they don’t understand. 2.2-13
- Peter says that their strange behavior (speaking in tongues, etc.) was to be expected since they were living in "the last days." 2.17
- Imagine no possessions: The early Christians were the first communists. 2.44-45, 4.32-35
- Peter and God scare Ananias and his wife Sapphira to death. 5.1-10

- The sick were healed just by touching the shadow of Peter. 5.15-16
- Holy prison breaks. 5.19, 12.7, 16.26
- The Spirit caught Philip and transported him to a city miles away. 8.39-40
- The road to Damascus (three different versions) 9.3-6, 22.6-10, 26.13-15
- Jesus blinds Paul. 9.8-9
- Peter has a dream in which God shows him "wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls." A voice says, "Rise, Peter: kill and eat." 10.10-13, 11.5-10
- More speaking in tongues. 10.45-46, 19.1-6,
- If a husband believes, his whole family is automatically saved. 11.13-14, 16.31
- The "angel of the Lord" killed Herod by having him "eaten of worms" 12.23
- Paul and the Holy Ghost make Elymas (the sorcerer) blind. 13.8-11
- The blasphemous, envious, murderous Jews. 5.30; 7.51-52; 9.17-18; 10.39; 12.1-3; 13.45-46, 50; 14.2-5; 17.5, 13; 18.5-6, 12; 20.19; 21.17-40; 23.12, 27; 26.21
- The Holy Ghost forbids Paul to preach in Asia. 16.6-7
- Sick people were cured by touching the handkerchief or apron of Paul. 19.12
- The first Christian book burning. 19.19
- Eutychus was the first casualty of many long boring sermons. 20.9
- After listening to Paul’s speech, everyone took off their clothes, threw dust in the air, and told the soldiers to kill him. 22.22-23
- The first hunger strike: "The Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul." 23.12
- Paul’s Malta snakebite story. (There are no poisonous snakes on Malta.) 28.3-6

1 The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up*, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:*

(1.1-2) "The former treatise have I made [the gospel of Luke], O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, Until the day in which he was taken up."

≠447 Did Luke include everything that Jesus did?

(1.3, 9) Jesus ascended into heaven 40 days after his resurrection.

≠428 When did Jesus ascend into heaven?

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days*, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:*

(1.3) "He shewed himself alive … forty days."

4 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem*, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.*

(1.4) "[Jesus] commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem."

≠412 Where did Jesus tell his disciples to go after his resurrection?

5 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

(1.8) "Ye shall be witnesses … in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

9 And when he had spoken these things*, while they beheld,* he was taken up*; and a cloud received him out of their sight.*

(1.9) "When he had spoken these things … he was taken up."
(1.10-11) While Jesus went up to heaven, two angels (men in white) stop by to tell the disciples that Jesus will return in the same way he just left them (by beaming up/down via transporter).

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel*;*

(1.10) "While they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel."

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

(1.11a) "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven?" This verse was used by a Dominican friar to discourage the use of Galileo's telescope. (Notice the pun on Galileo's name in "men of Galilee".)

(1.11b) "Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven."

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.
13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

(1.13) "Judas the brother of James"
≠351 Who were the apostles?

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.
*15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)*

(1.15) "The number of names together were about an hundred and twenty."
≠448 How many believers were there at the time of the ascension?

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

(1.16) "The Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake."
≠431 When was the Holy Ghost given?

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.
18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

(1.18) "This man purchased a field … and falling headlong, he burst asunder … and all his bowels gushed out."
≠388 Who bought the potter's field?
≠387 How did Judas die?
≠389 What did Judas do with the silver?

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

(1.24) "Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men"
≠18 Does God know everything?
≠149 Does God know what is in everyone's heart?

25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

(1.26) "The lot fell upon Matthias." Judas' replacement is selected by lottery.
≠141 Is gambling condemned by the bible?

ACTS 2

2 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

(2.2-13) Whoopie! It's Pentecost: A mighty wind comes, cloven tongues of fire sit on top of heads, everyone starts speaking in languages they don't understand and act like they're drunk.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

(2.2) "Suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house."

*3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

(2.3) "There appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them."

*4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

(2.4) "They were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."
≠431 When was the Holy Ghost given?

*5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

(2.5) "There were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven." (Polynesians, Native Americans, Australian Aborigines, Japanese, you name it.)

*6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

(2.6) "Every man heard them speak in his own language."

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?
8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?
9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes,

11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

(2.13) "These men are full of new wine." Those who heard the apostles speaking in tongues thought they were drunk.

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

(2.17-19) Peter says that strange behavior (speaking in tongues, etc.), along with great signs and wonders ("blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke"), was to be expected since they were living in "the last days."

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams*:*

(2.17) "In the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams."

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke*:*

(2.19) “I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.”

> 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood*, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:*

(2.20) “The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood.” It happens with every solar or lunar eclipse.

> 21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

(2.21) “Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”
≠321 Will those who call on the Lord be saved?

> 22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs*, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:*

(2.22) “Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs”
≠360 Did Jesus perform many signs?

> 23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
> 24 Whom God hath raised up*, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.*

(2.24) “Whom God hath raised up”
≠437 Who raised Jesus from the dead?

> 25 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
> 26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:
> 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh*, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;*

(2.30) "The fruit of his loins, according to the flesh"
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell*, neither his flesh did see corruption.*

(2.31) "His soul was not left in hell." Jesus did a little time in hell. I'm not sure what for.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up*, whereof we all are witnesses.*

(2.32) "This Jesus hath God raised up."
≠437 Who raised Jesus from the dead?

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

(2.38) “Be baptized … in the name of Jesus.”
≠414 In whose name is baptism to be performed?

> 39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.
> 40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.
> *41 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

(2.41) “The same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.” The number of believers went from 120 (verse 1.15) to 3120 in a single day.

> 42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
> *43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

(2.43) “Fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.”

(2.44-45) The early Christians were the first communists.

> 44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

(2.44) “All … had all things common.”

> *45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

(2.45) “And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.”

> 46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart,

47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

ACTS 3

3 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

(3.2-7) Peter heals a lame man.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

(3.2) "A certain man lame from his mother's womb"

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.
4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.
5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.
*6 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

(3.6) "Peter said … In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk."

*7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

(3.7) "And immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength."

8 And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

(3.14-15) "Ye … killed the Prince of life." Peter blames the Jews for the death of Jesus.

16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

? (3.22) "A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me." Is the prophesied prophet Jesus, Muhammad, or Joseph Smith?

*23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

(3.23) "Every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people." Peter claims that Dt 18.18-19 refers to Jesus, saying that those who refuse to follow him (all non-Christians) must be killed.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

ACTS 4

4 And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them,

2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

(4.10) “Jesus … whom God raised from the dead.”
≠437 Who raised Jesus from the dead?

11 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

*12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

(4.12) “Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.” God will torture forever those who don’t know the password to heaven.

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

? (4.13) “Peter and John … were unlearned and ignorant men.” Then they didn’t write the New Testament books that are attributed to them.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together,

28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

(4.31) The first prayer-caused earthquake
“When they had prayed, the place was shaken.”

? (4.32-35) Imagine no possessions: The early Christians were communists.

*32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

(4.32) “The multitude … were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.”

33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

*35 And laid them down at the apostles’ feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

(4.34-35) “Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them … and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.”

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus,

37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

ACTS 5

(5.1-11) The dark side of Christian communism
God killed Ananias and Sapphira for not giving Peter all of the money that they made when selling their land. (They kept some for themselves.)
God's 133rd Killing

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it*, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.*

(5.1-2) "Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it."

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

(5.3) "Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?"

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

(5.4) "Why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God."

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost*: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.*

(5.5) “And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost.”

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

(5.7) “Three hours after … his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.”

*8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

(5.8) “Peter answered … Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.”

*9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

(5.9) “Peter said … How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.”

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

(5.10) “Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost.”

*11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

(5.11) “And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.”

12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

(5.12) "By the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people."

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.
14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

(5.15-16) The sick were healed just by touching the shadow of Peter.

*15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

(5.15) "They brought forth the sick into the streets … that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them."

*16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

(5.16) "There came also a multitude … bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one."

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation,
18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.
19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

(5.19) The first holy prison break
"The angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth."

> 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.
> 21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
> 22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,
> 23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.
> 24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.
> 25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.
> 26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.
> 27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,
> 28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.
> 29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

(5.29) "We ought to obey God rather than men."
≠[449 Should we obey human or divine law?]

> 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

(5.30) “The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.” Once again, Peter accuses the Jews of murdering Jesus.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

ACTS 6

6 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

*8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

(6.8) "Stephen … did great wonders and miracles among the people."

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

*15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

(6.15) "All … saw his face as it had been the face of an angel."

ACTS 7

7 Then said the high priest, Are these things so?

(7.2-53) Stephen, filled with the Holy Ghost, delivers a long, boring, anti-Semitic speech in a synagogue.

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

(7.4) "When his father was dead" Abraham's father, Terah, was 70 when Abraham was born (Genesis11.26), and died at 205 years of age (11.32). According to this verse, Abraham didn't leave home until after Terah died. If so, then Abraham must have been at least 135 years old when he left Haran. Yet according to Genesis12.4, Abraham was 75 years old when he left home.

≠47 How old was Abraham when he left Haran?
≠48 How old was Abraham when Ishmael was born?

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

(7.6) "Four hundred years"
≠52 How long was the Egyptian captivity?

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

(7.14) "Jacob … and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls."
≠83 How many were in Jacob's family when they came into Egypt?

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died*, he, and our fathers,*

(7.15) “Jacob went down into Egypt, and died.”
≠85 Where was Jacob buried?

> 16 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

(7.16) “And were carried over into Shechem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought”
≠169 Who bought the sepulcher?

> 17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,
> 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.
> 19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.
> 20 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father’s house three months:
> 21 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh’s daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.
> 22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

(7.22) “Moses … was mighty in words.”
≠93 Was Moses a good speaker?

> 23 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.
> 24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:
> 25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.
> 26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?
> 27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him,

32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

(7.35) “The angel which appeared to him in the bush”
≠89 Who appeared to Moses in the burning bush?

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

47 But Solomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

(7.48) “The most High dwelleth not in temples.”
≠228 Does God dwell in temples?

49 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

⚽ ⚖ !!! (7.51-52) Stephen blames the Jews for persecuting the prophets and murdering Jesus.

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

(7.51) “Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.”

52 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

(7.52) "Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers.

53 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things*, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.*

(7.54) "When they heard these things … they gnashed on him with their teeth."

(7.55-56) You can see lots of cool things when you're filled with the Holy Ghost.

55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,

(7.55) "He, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God."

56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

(7.56) "I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God."

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

ACTS 8

8 And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

(8.5-7) Philip made "unclean spirits" scream as they left the bodies of the people they possessed.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

(8.5) "Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them."

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

(8.6) "The people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did."

7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

(8.7) “For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.”

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

(8.16) “They were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.”
≠414 In whose name is baptism to be performed?

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles’ hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

(8.25) "They … preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans."
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship,

28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

(8.39-40) The Spirit caught Philip and transported him to a city miles away.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

(8.39) "The Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip."

40 But Philip was found at Azotus*: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.*

(8.40) "But Philip was found at Azotus."

ACTS 9

9 And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

(9.3-6) On the way to Damascus, Paul sees a light and hears the voice of Jesus.

> 3 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

(9.3) "As he … came near Damascus … there shined … a light from heaven."

> *4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

(9.4) "He … heard a voice saying … Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?"

> 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

(9.5) "I am Jesus whom thou persecutest."

> *6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

(9.6) "Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do."

> *7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

(9.7) "The men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man."

≠450 Did the men with Paul hear a voice?

≠455 Were the men with Paul knocked to the ground?

(9.8-9) Jesus blinds Saul.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

(9.8) "Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man."
≠463 Did Paul see Jesus?

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

(9.9) "And he was three days without sight."

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.
11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth,

(9.10-11) "Said the Lord in a vision, Ananias … Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus." Ananias gets a secret message from God about where to meet Paul.

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

(9.13-16) Jesus and Ananias carry on a remote (cell phone-like) conversation about Saul.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

(9.13) "Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem."

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

(9.14) "And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name."

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:

(9.15) "But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel."

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

(9.16) "For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake."

(9.17-18) Ananias meets Saul and magically restores his sight.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

(9.17) "Ananias … said, Brother Saul … Jesus … hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight."

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

(9.18) "And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight."

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

(9.22-23) Saul increased in strength, and confounded the Jews, so "the Jews took counsel to kill him."

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

(9.22) "Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews."

23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

(9.23) "The Jews took counsel to kill him."

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

(9.26) "And when Saul was come to Jerusalem…."
≠451 Did Paul go to Jerusalem from Damascus immediately after his conversion?

(9.27-28)
≠452 Did Paul visit all of the disciples when he went to Jerusalem after his conversion?

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

(9.27) “Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles.”

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

(9.28) “And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.”

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

(9.33-34) Peter heals a man with palsy.

33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

(9.33) “He found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.”

34 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

(9.34) “And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.”

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

(9.36-40) Peter raises Tabitha from the dead.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

(9.36-37) "Tabitha … was sick, and died."

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

*40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

(9.40) "Peter … said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up."

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

ACTS 10

(10.1-6) Cornelius gets a message from God: Go find Peter. He'll tell you what to do.

10 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

*3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

(10.1-5) "Cornelius … saw in a vision … an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius … send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter."

*6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

(10.6) "Simon … shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do."

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

(10.9-17) Peter has a dream in which God shows him "wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls." The voice (God's?) says, "Rise, Peter: kill and eat." Peter didn't know what the heck to make of it.
≠13 What should we eat?

9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

(10.9) "Peter went up upon the housetop to pray."

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

(10.10) “He became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance.”

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

(10.11) “And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending upon him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth.”

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

(10.12) “Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.”

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

(10.13) “And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.”

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

(10.14) “But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.”

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

(10.15) “The voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.”

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

(10.16) “This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.”

> 17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean*, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon’s house, and stood before the gate,*

(10.17) “Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean.”

> 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

(10.19-20) The Spirit interrupts Peter’s previous vision with an urgent message: “Three guys are looking for you. Believe whatever they tell you.”

> 19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

(10.19) “While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.”

> 20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

(10.20) “Go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.”

> 21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?
> 22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man*, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.*

(10.22) “Cornelius the centurion, a just man”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

(10.30) “Behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing.” If you see a man in bright clothing, it’s an angel.

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

(10.34) “God is no respecter of persons.”
≠21 Does God respect anyone?

> 35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.
> 36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

(10.36) “Preaching peace by Jesus Christ”
≠355 Is Jesus peaceful?

> 37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;
> 38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devi*l; for God was with him.*

(10.38) “Healing all that were oppressed of the devil” (Sick people are oppressed by the devil.)

> 39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree*:*

(10.39) “We are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; Whom they slew and hanged on a tree.” The Jews are again blamed for the death of Jesus.

> 40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;
> 41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.
> 42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

(10.44) "The Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word."

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter,

(10.45-46) "They of the circumcision which believed were astonished … for they heard them speak with tongues."

47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

(10.48) "He commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord."
≠414 In whose name is baptism to be performed?

ACTS 11

11 And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

(11.5-10) Peter describes the vision that he had in the last chapter (10.10-13). All kinds of beasts, creeping things, and fowls drop down from the sky in a big sheet, and a voice (God's, Satan's?) tells him to "Arise, Peter; slay and eat."

> 5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision*, A certain vessel descend, as it had been* a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners*; and it came even to me:*

(11.5) "In a trance I saw a vision … a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners."

> 6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air*.*

(11.6) "I … saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air."

> 7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

(11.7) "I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat."

> 8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

(11.8) "I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth."

> 9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

(11.9) "But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common."

> 10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

(11.10) “This was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.”

> 11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me.

(11.12-15) A bunch of strangers came to get Peter, who was told by the (holy?) spirit to go with them and do whatever they said. So he went with them to another guy’s house who had seen an angel who told him to believe whatever Peter said so that he and his family would be saved. When they arrived, Peter started talking, the Holy Ghost fell on everyone, and they all lived happily ever after. (Or something like that.)

> 12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man’s house:

(11.12) “The Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man’s house.”

> 13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

(11.13) “He shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.”

> *14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

(11.14) “Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.”

> 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

(11.15) “As I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them.”

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

ACTS 12

(12.1-3) Herod killed James the brother of John and imprisoned Peter "because he saw it pleased the Jews."

12 Now about that time Herod the king stretch-ed forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

(12.1) "Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church."

2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

(12.2-3) "He killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also."

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

(12.7-10) Open Sesame: An angel magically breaks Peter out of prison

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side*, and raised him up,* saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

(12.7) "The angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side … saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands."

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself*, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee,* and follow me.

(12.8) "The angel said unto him, Gird thyself … and follow me."

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord*: and they went out, and passed on through one street;* and forthwith the angel departed from him.

(12.10) "They came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord … and forthwith the angel departed from him."

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad*. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they,* It is his angel.

(12.15) “Thou art mad … It is his angel.” When Peter shows up after the angel breaks him out of prison, the other believers don’t believe it. They think it’s “his angel” instead. (Peter had an angel that looked just like him.)

> 16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.
> 17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.
> 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.
> 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to Caesarea, and there abode.
> 20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king’s chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king’s country.

(12.20) “Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon.” Ezekiel (26.14, 21; 27.36) prophesied that Tyre would be completely destroyed by Nebuchadrezzar, never to be built again. Yet it wasn’t destroyed, as is evident from this verse.

> 21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.
> *22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

(12.22) “The people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.” When Herod gave his speech the people shouted, “It is the voice of God, and not a man.”

> 23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

 (12.23) "The angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms." The "angel of the Lord" killed Herod by having him "eaten of worms" because "he gave not God the glory."
God's 134th Killing

> 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.
> 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

ACTS 13

> 13 Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
> 2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

(13.2) "The Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them." The Holy Ghost is quite the talker sometimes.

> 3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
> 4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.
> 5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

(13.8-11) Paul and the Holy Ghost conspire together to make Elymas (the sorcerer) blind.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

(13.8) "Elymas the sorcerer … withstood them."

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

(13.9-10) "Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost … said … thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness."

*11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

(13.11) "The hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand."

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

(13.12) "Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed." When the deputy saw that God could (through Paul) make people blind, he believed. (Who else shows off their power by blinding people?)

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan*, he divided their land to them by lot.*

(13.19) "He … destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan."

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years*, until Samuel the prophet.*

(13.20) "He gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years."

≠222 When did Solomon's reign begin?

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin*, by the space of forty years.*

(13.21) "They desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin." Gen 49.10 says that all of Israel's kings will be from the tribe of Judah, yet we see in this verse that Israel's first king was from the tribe of Benjamin.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

(13.22) "I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart." Paul quotes God as saying, "I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will." But no such quote can be found in the Old Testament. (Although 1 Sam 13.14 does refer to David as "a man after his [God's] own heart." And it makes some sense, too, since David was nearly as cruel as the biblical God.)

23 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus*:*

(13.23) "Of this man's seed hath God … raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus."
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.
25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.
26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.
27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers*, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.*
28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.
29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre*.*

(13.27-29) "They that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers … laid him in a sepulchre."

≠401 Who buried Jesus?

30 But God raised him from the dead:

(13.30) “God raised him from the dead.”
≠437 Who raised Jesus from the dead?

31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

(13.31) “He was seen many days.”
≠428 When did Jesus ascend into heaven?

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,
33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

(13.34) “The sure mercies of David.” David was anything but merciful. For an example of his behavior see 2 Sam 12.31 and 1 Chr 20.3, where he saws, hacks, and burns to death the inhabitants of several cities.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:
39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

(13.39) “All that believe are justified from all things.”
≠358 Is there an unforgivable sin?

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

(13.45-46) The Jews of Antioch, after seeing Paul's success in preaching, were envious and blasphemed God. Paul then declares them to be "unworthy of everlasting life."

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

(13.45) "When the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming."

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life*, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.*

(13.46) "The word of God should first have been spoken to you: but … ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life."

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

*48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

(13.48) “As many as were ordained to eternal life believed.” God chooses those who will believe [the right things], and only they will go to heaven.

[158 Do humans have free will?]

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

(13.50) “The Jews … raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas.”

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

ACTS 14

14 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

(14.2-5) "The unbelieving Jews" stir up trouble again for Paul and incite the people to try to stone him to death.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

(14.2) "The unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren."

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

(14.5) "When there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them."

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

(14.8-10) Paul heals a crippled man.

8 And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

(14.8) "There sat a certain man … a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked."

*9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,
*10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

(14.9-10) "Paul … perceiving that he had faith to be healed, Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked."

(14.11-12) The people of Lystra thought Paul and Barnabas were the gods, Jupiter and Mercury.

*11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

(14.11) "When the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying … The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men."

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

(14.12) "They called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius."

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.
14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

(14.14) "When the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes."

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead*.*

(14.19) "Jews … persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead." Some Jews convince the people (who think Paul is a god) to stone Paul. So they stone Paul and throw his body out of town, thinking he was dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

ACTS 15

(15.1-2) Can you get into heaven without a circumcised penis? Paul and Barnabas are sent to Jerusalem to meet with the apostles to settle the matter once and for all.

15 And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

(15.1) "Certain men… said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved."

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

(15.2) "They determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question."

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles*: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.*

(15.3) "They passed through … Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles."

≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

(15.7) "God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe."

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God*, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?*

(15.10) "Why tempt ye God?"
≠103 Can God be tempted?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

? (15.20, 29) "Abstain … from blood." Many Jehovah's Witnesses have needlessly died because the WatchTower Society teaches that abstaining from blood, as required by these verses, prohibits blood transfusions.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

(15.28) "It seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us."

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

(15.30-31) When they read the no-need- to-get-circumcised epistle, everyone rejoiced. I bet.

*30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

(15.30) "When they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle."

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

(15.31) "Which when they had read, they rejoiced."

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.
33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.
34 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.
35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

(15.36-41) Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go visit all the places we've preached at before and see how they're doing." Barnabas said, "OK, but let's take John called Mark with us." Paul said that he wouldn't go anywhere with that John called Mark guy. So they split up. Paul went with Silas and Barnabas with John called Mark.

*36 And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

(15.36) "Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do."

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

(15.37) "Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark."

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them*, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.*

(15.38) "But Paul thought not good to take him with them."

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

(15.39) "The contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus."

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed*, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.*

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia*, confirming the churches.*

(15.40-41) "Paul chose Silas, and departed … through Syria and Cilicia."

ACTS 16

(16.1-3) Paul circumcised Timothy, thereby making it impossible for him to be saved, according to his own words in Galatians 5.2.
≠54 Is circumcision required?

> 16 Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess*, and believed;* but his father was a Greek*:*

(16.1) "Timotheus, the son of … a Jewess … but his father was a Greek."

> 2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.
> 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

(16.3) "Paul … circumcised him."

> 4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.
> 5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

(16.6-7) Paul and the newly circumcised Timothy were forbidden by the Holy Ghost to preach in Asia. (God just doesn't like Asians, I guess.) Then they tried to go to Bithynia, but the Spirit wouldn't let them do that either. Shucks!

> 6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia*,*

(16.6) "They …. were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia."
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

*7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

(16.7) "They assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not."

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.

(16.9-12) A man appears to Paul in a dream telling him to go to Macedonia. So Paul, who was a big believer in dreams, did as the dream-man requested.

*9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

(16.9) "A vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia … saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us."

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

(16.10) "After he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia."

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;
12 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

(16.11-12) "Therefore … we came … to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia."

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

(16.16-18) Paul expels a soothsaying spirit of divination. (God I hate those!)

16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying*:*

(16.16) "A certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying."

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul*, being grieved, turned and* said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

(16.18) "Paul … said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour."

19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes*, and commanded to beat them.*

(16.22) “The magistrates rent off their clothes.”

> 23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:
> 24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.
> 25 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.
> 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one’s bands were loosed.

(16.26) Another holy prison break!
“Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one’s bands were loosed.” Paul and Silas were rescued by an earthquake that opened all the doors of the prison.

> 27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.
> 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.
> 29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,
> 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?
> 31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house*.*

(16.31) “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” If a husband believes, his whole family is automatically saved; otherwise, God will send them all to hell.
≠453 If a husband believes, is his wife saved also?
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

*33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

? ♀ Ⓜ (16.33) "He … was baptized, he and all his, straightway." The jailer was so impressed with the holy jailbreak that he converted on the spot. He and his entire family were baptized that night. It didn't matter to Paul (or God) what the jailer's wife and kids thought about it. His family belonged to him, so he could do whatever he wanted with (or to) them. (This stupid story supports the idea of infant baptism, which has divided Christians for centuries.)

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

ACTS 17

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

(17.5) "The Jews which believed not, moved with envy."

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

*13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

(17.13) “The Jews of Thessalonica … stirred up the people.”

> 14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.
>
> 15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.
> 16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.
>
> 17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.
> 18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods*: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.*

(17.18) “Philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods.” The philosophers in Athens considered Paul a “babbler” who worshipped strange gods.

> 19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?
> 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.
>
> 21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)
> 22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars’ hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

(17.22) “Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars’ hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.” Paul, a guy who converted to Christianity because he heard voices, calls the Greeks too darned superstitious. Talk about the pot calling the kettle black!

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

(17.24) "He is Lord of heaven and earth."
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

(17.31) "He will judge the world … by that man."
≠349 Is Jesus God?

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

ACTS 18

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

(18.5-6) Paul gives up on the Jews. To hell with them all. Let their blood be upon them.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

(18.5) "Paul … testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ."

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

(18.6) "When they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean; from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles."

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

(18.12) "The Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul."

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

(18.18) "Paul … having shorn his head … for he had a vow" The first vow-induced shaved head.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

(18.26) "Priscilla … expounded unto him the way of God."
≠454 Can women be church leaders?

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

ACTS 19

(19.1-6) Paul introduces the Corinthians to the Holy Ghost and immediately they begin to speak in tongues and prophesy.

19 And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

(19.1-2) “Paul … said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.”

> 3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John’s baptism.
> 4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.
> *5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

(19.5) “They were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.”
≠414 In whose name is baptism to be performed?

> *6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

(19.6) “When Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.”

> 7 And all the men were about twelve.
> 8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.
> *9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

(19.9) “The school of one Tyrannus” The first (and only) school mentioned in the Bible.

> 10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

(19.10) “By the space of two years … all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus.” After only two years of preaching, everyone in Asia had heard the word of the Lord!

> 11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:
> 12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

(19.12) “From his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.” Sick people were cured by touching the handkerchief or apron of Paul. “And the evil spirits went out of them.”

(19.13-16) Jewish exorcists were so impressed by Paul’s ability to cast out evil spirits that they decided to give it a try, saying to a evil spirit in a possessed person, “We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.” But the evil spirit said, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who the heck are you?” Then the possessed person jumped on the Jewish exorcists, and stripped off all their clothes.

> 13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

(19.13) “The vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the LORD Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.”

> 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.
> 15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

(19.15) “The evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?”

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

(19.16) "And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded."

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

(19.19-20) The first Christian book burning occurs when Paul's converts at Ephesus burn 50,000 silver pieces' worth of books. (A piece of silver was worth about a day's wage.)

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

(19.19) "Many of them … brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver."

20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

(19.20) "So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed."

21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

(19.34) "All with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians." A great multitude cry out "all with one voice" for two hours saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians."

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

ACTS 20

20 And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

(20.7-12) Eutychus was the first casualty of many long boring sermons. Paul had preached from dinner until midnight, by which time Eutychus had fallen asleep and out the third floor window. Paul fell on and embraced the dead body, bringing it back to life. Then Paul had a little snack and went back to preaching again until the sun came up the next day.

> 7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

(20.7) "Paul preached … and continued his speech until midnight."

> 8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.
> 9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

(20.9) "There sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead."

> 10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

(20.10) "Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him."

> 11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day*, so he departed.*

(20.11) "When he … had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day."

> 12 And they brought the young man alive*, and were not a little comforted.*

(20.12) “And they brought the young man alive.”

13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews*:*

 (20.19) “By the lying in wait of the Jews” Poor Paul complains, once again, of being mistreated by “the Jews.”

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood*.*

(20.28) "The church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood"
≠349 Is Jesus God?

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive*.*

(20.35) "Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive." In one of the few times that Paul quotes Jesus, he attributes to him words that are not found in the gospels. (But it's a nice thought, anyway.)

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

ACTS 21

21 And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus*.*

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

(21.10-11) "Agabus … took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles." The Holy Ghost delivers a girdle message.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

 (21.27-40) The Jews, once again, incite the people to kill poor old Paul. But he escapes and delivers another long, boring speech.

*27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

(21.27) "The Jews … stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him."

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

(21.30) "The people … took Paul, and drew him out of the temple."

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

*32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

(21.31-32) "As they went about to kill him … when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul."

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

(21.40) "And … Paul stood on the stairs, and … spake."

ACTS 22

22 Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

(22.6-10) Paul repeats the same stupid story that was told in chapter 9. (Well, not quite the same. Some of the details were changed to make it more interesting.)

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

(22.6) "As I … was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light."

*7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

(22.7) "And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?"

*8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

(22.8) "I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest."

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

(22.9) "They that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me."
≠450 Did the men with Paul hear a voice?

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

(22.10) "I said, What shall I do, LORD? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do."

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.
12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there,
13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.
14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.
15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.
16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.
17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;
18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.
19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:
20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

*21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

(22.21) "I will send thee … unto the Gentiles."
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

(22.22-23) The people heard Paul's speech, but didn't like it very much. After listening to it, they took off their clothes, threw dust in the air, and told the soldiers to kill him.

*22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

(22.22) "They gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live."

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

(22.23) "They cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air."

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.
25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?
26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.
27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.
28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.
29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

ACTS 23

23 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall*: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?*

!!! (23.3) "Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall." (Paul has kind words for everyone.)

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

(23.11) "The night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul." The Lord (Jesus?) stopped by to chat with Paul.

(23.12-15) The Jews form a grand conspiracy to kill Paul. They vow not to eat or drink until the job is done. (The first hunger strike?)

*12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

(23.12) "The Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul."

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

*14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

(23.14) "They came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul."

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

(23.15) "We … are ready to kill him."

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

(23.27) "This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then … I … rescued him." Claudius saves Paul from being killed by the Jews.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

ACTS 24

24 And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

(24.15) "There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust."

≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

ACTS 25

25 Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

ACTS 26

26 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, (26.13-15) Oh boy, we get to hear the Damascus road story for the third time!

13 At midday*, O king,* I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

(26.13) "At midday … I saw … a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me."

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

(26.14) “When we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice … saying … Saul, why persecutest thou me?”
≠455 Were the men knocked to the ground?

*15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

(26.15) “I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.”

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;
17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,
18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.
19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:
20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.
*21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

(26.21) “The Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.”

(26.22-23) These verses claim that Moses and the prophets prophesied that Jesus would suffer and rise from the dead. But in what scripture is such a prophecy made?

> 22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

(26.22) "Saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come."

> 23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead*, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.*

(26.23) "That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead."

≠167 Is death final?

≠196 Was Jesus the first to rise from the dead?

> 24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.
>
> 25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.
>
> 26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.
> 27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.
>
> 28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.
>
> 29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.
> 30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar.

ACTS 27

27 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

(27.22-24) Paul tells his sailing companions not to fear. He has an angel onboard that will protect them.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

(27.22) "I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you."

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

(27.23) “For there stood by me this night the angel.”

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

(27.24) “Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.”

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

ACTS 28

28 And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

(28.3-6) Paul is bitten by a poisonous snake and yet lives. The "barbarians" who were shipwrecked with him thought he must be a murderer since he was bitten; but then they changed their minds and thought him to be a god since he didn't die. (The snake story is especially interesting since there are no poisonous snakes on Malta, and there is no evidence of their existence in the past.)

> 3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

(28.3) "When Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand."

> 4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

(28.4) "The barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live."

> 5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

(28.5) "He shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm."

> 6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

(28.6) "He should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they … saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god."

> 7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

(28.8-9) By praying and touching the sick people of Malta, Paul cures them of their diseases.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

(28.8) "The father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him."

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed*:*

(28.9) "When this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed."

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

*22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

(28.22) "Concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against." The Jews of Rome refer to Paul's new religion as a sect.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

(28.28) "The salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles."
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to everyone?

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him,

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

ROMANS

Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind. — Romans 14.5

Paul was a bad influence on Christianity. Nowhere is this more evident than in his epistle to the Romans. Here Paul fully exposes his nastiest belief: that salvation is a completely arbitrary decision on the part of God; none of us has anything to do with it. The only free will that exists in the universe is God's.

Highlights:

- The existence and nature of God are self-evident; thus, unbelievers are "without excuse." 1.20
- God abandons those who don't know him to "uncleanness and vile affections." 1.24-26
- God will make you gay! 1.26-27
- Paul condemns homosexuals (including lesbians). This is the only clear reference to lesbians in the Bible. 1.26-27
- "The natural use" of women is to act as sexual objects for the pleasure of men. 1.27
- "God gave them over to a reprobate mind." 1.28
- Homosexuals (those without natural affection) and their supporters (those that have pleasure in them) are "worthy of death." 1.31-32
- Those who slander (or criticize?) Paul are damned by God. 3.8
- The guilty are "justified" and "saved from wrath" by the blood of an innocent victim. 5.9-12
- God punishes everyone for someone else's sin; then he saves them by killing an innocent victim. 5.18-19
- God gave the law so "that the offence might abound." 5.20
- If you have a living body, you can't please God, and Christ isn't in you. 8.8-10
- Everyone is predestined by God to be either saved or damned. 8.2, 9.11-22
- No one can oppose Christians since God is on their side. 8.31

- “He that spared not his own Son” shouldn’t be trusted by anyone. 8.32
- A Christian cannot be accused of any wrongdoing. 8.33
- If you are a child of the flesh, you are not the seed of God. Whatever that might be. 9.8
- God hated Esau. No one knows why. 9.13
- He blinded the Jews so they wouldn’t recognize Jesus as the Messiah. 11.7-10
- Gentiles used to be unbelievers, but now the Jews are the unbelievers and God saves gentiles through Jewish unbelief. 11.30
- Non-believing Jews will obtain mercy through the mercy of believers. 11.31
- “The powers that be are ordained of God.” Whoever resists them will be damned. 13.1-4
- Paul couldn’t list the Ten Commandments. 13.9
- Only wimps are vegetarians. 14.2
- “Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.” 14.5
- “He that doubteth is damned … Whatsoever is not of faith is sin.” 14.23
- Shun those who disagree with your religious views. 16.17

ROMANS 1

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,

2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

(1.3) “Jesus … was made of the seed of David according to the flesh.” ≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth*; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.*

(1.16) “Salvation to every one that believeth”
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

17 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

(1.17) “The just shall live by faith.”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse*:*

(1.20) "The invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; that they are without excuse." Those who see no evidence for God's existence are "without excuse."
≠290 Can God be found from reason alone?

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools*,*

(1.21-22) "Their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools."
≠297 Is it OK to call someone a fool?

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

(1.24) "Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness."

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator*, who is blessed for ever. Amen.*

(1.25) "Served the creature more than the Creator" The Religious Right often uses Romans 1.21-25 to condemn environmentalists.

♂🔥 (1:26-28)God will make you gay! With his usual intolerance, Paul condemns homosexuals (including lesbians). This is the only clear reference to lesbians in the Bible.
Notice, though, that it is God who makes gay people gay, by giving "them up to vile affections." So according to the Bible, gay people don't choose to be gay; they are gay because God made them that way (to punish them for God knows what).

♀ ☒ (1.26-28)The natural use of the woman Paul explains that "the natural use" of women is to act as sexual objects for the pleasure of men.

> 26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature*:*

(1.26) "God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature."

> 27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another*; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.*

(1.27) "Also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another."

> 28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind*, to do those things which are not convenient;*

(1.28) "God gave them over to a reprobate mind."

!!! (1.29-31) I'm not sure who Paul is talking about here, but they're all a bunch of proud, wicked, malicious, deceitful, murderous backbiters and God-haters.

> 29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit,

malignity; whisperers,

(1.29) “Filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,”

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

(1.30) “Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,”

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful*:*

(1.31) “Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful.”

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death*, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.*

(1.32) “They which commit such things are worthy of death.” Homosexuals (those “without natural affection”) and their supporters (those “that have pleasure in them”) are “worthy of death.”

2 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself*; for thou that judgest doest the same things.*

(2.1) “Wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself.”
≠126 Should we judge others?

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God*;*

6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds*:*

(2.5-6) "God … will render to every man according to his deeds."
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For there is no respect of persons with God*.*

(2.11) "There is no respect of persons with God."
≠21 Does God respect anyone?

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

(2.13) "The doers of the law shall be justified."
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

(2.21a) "Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself?" Practice what you preach.

(2.21b) "Thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?"
≠91 Is it OK to steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

(2.25) “If thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.” If you are circumcised and you break the law, your foreskin will grow back.

26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

ROMANS 3

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

(3.5) “Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)” Paul asks the very good question: “Is there unrighteousness who taketh vengeance [upon innocent people]” The obvious answer to the question is, yes. Paul then quickly adds, “I speak as a man.” What else could he speak as? A donkey or a god, perhaps?

> 6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?
> 7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
> 8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

(3.8) “Whose damnation is just.” Those who slander (or criticize?) Paul are damned by God.

> 9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;
> *10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

(3.10) “There is none righteous, no, not one.”
≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

> 11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
> *12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

(3.12) “There is none that doeth good, no, not one.”
≠298 Does anyone ever do anything good?

> 13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:
> 14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
> 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:
> 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
> 17 And the way of peace have they not known:
> *18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

(3.18) “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”
≠132 Should we fear God?

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

(3.20) “By the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified.”
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God*;*

(3.23) “All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.”
≠229 Do Christians sin?

24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law*.*

(3.28) “A man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.”
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

ROMANS 4

4 What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory*; but not before God.*

(4.2) "If Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory."
≠456 Was Abraham justified by faith or by works?
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

(4.5-6, 13) Paul claims that people are justified by their faith alone—without regard to, or even in spite of, their works. But James (2.14, 17, 24-26) clearly denies this by saying: "By works a man is justified, and not by faith only."
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

(4.5) "To him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

(4.6) "God imputeth righteousness without works."

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise*, that he should be the heir of the world,* was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

(4.13) “For the promise … was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.”

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sara's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

*21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

(4.19-21) "When he was about an hundred years old … he was able also to perform." Abraham needed God's help to father Isaac when he was 100 years old. But Abraham, when he was even older, managed to father six more children with a new wife without any divine assistance (Genesis 21.2, 25.1-2)

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

ROMANS 5

5 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

(5.1) "Being justified by faith"
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

(5.9-10) The guilty are "justified" and "saved from wrath" by the blood of an innocent victim.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

(5.9) "Justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath."

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

(5.10) "If … we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son," then God is truly a monster.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

(5.12) "By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin." Death didn't enter the world a few thousand years ago because of Adam's sin. Death has been a part of life since life first arose (on this planet anyway) a few billion years ago.

≠457 Who was to blame for original sin?

≠24 Must everyone die?

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

(5.14) "Death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned."

≠229 Has everyone sinned?

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

(5.18-20) God punishes everyone for someone else's sin; then he saves them by killing an innocent victim.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

*19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

(5.18-19) "By the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation."

(5.19) "By one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous." It's difficult to imagine a more unjust system.

20 Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound*. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:*

(5.20) "The law entered, that the offence might abound."

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

ROMANS 6

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection*:*

(6.4-5) "We are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead … we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection."

≠472 Have Christians been raised with Christ?

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

*14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

(6.14) "Ye are not under the law, but under grace."
≠56 Must Christians obey Old Testament laws?

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

*21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

(6.21) "The end of those things is death."
≠157 Does hell exist?

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(6.23) "The wages of sin is death."
≠157 Does hell exist?

ROMANS 7

7 Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

(7.4-6) ≠56 Must Christians obey Old Testament laws?

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

(7.4) "Ye … are become dead to the law."

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

(7.6) “We are delivered from the law, that being dead.”

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

(7.18) “In me …. dwelleth no good thing.”

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

ROMANS 8

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

(8.8-10) If you have a living body, you can't please God and Christ isn't in you.

*8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

(8.8) "They that are in the flesh cannot please God."

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

(8.10) "If Christ be in you, the body is dead."

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope,

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

*22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

? (8.22) "The whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now." Some Christians use this verse to show that we live in a sin-cursed world.

> 23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.
> 24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?
> 25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.
> 26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

(8.26) "We know not what we should pray for as we ought."
≠341 Do Christians know how to pray?

> *27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

(8.27) "The Spirit … maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God." God intercedes with God by talking to, and sometimes even arguing with, himself.

> 28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

(8.28) "All things work together for good to them that love God." One of the greatest and most absurd lies in all of scripture.

> 29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

(8.29) "Whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate." Everyone is predestined by God to be either saved or damned.
≠158 Do humans have free will?

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

(8.31) "If God be for us, who can be against us?" No one can oppose Christians since God is on their side.

32 He that spared not his own Son*, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?*

(8.32) "He that spared not his own Son" Shouldn't be trusted by anyone.
God's 135th Killing

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

(8.33) "Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect?" A Christian cannot be accused of any wrongdoing.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

(8.38-39)
≠442 Is it possible to fall from grace?

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

(8.38) “Neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,”

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(8.39) “Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

ROMANS 9

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh*, these* are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

(9.8) “The children of the flesh … are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.” If you are a child of the flesh, you are not the seed of God. Whatever that might be.

> 9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have a son.
> 10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

(9.11-22) God makes some people that are destined to go to heaven and others that will go to hell. There is nothing they can do to change the will of God. Paul says that this is how it should be, saying: “What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known” damns most of mankind to eternal torments of hell for things they either didn’t do or couldn’t avoid doing?
≠158 Do humans have free will?

> 11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

(9.11) “For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth.”

> 12 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.
> *13 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

(9.13) “Esau have I hated.”
≠131 Does God love everyone?

> 14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

(9.14) “Is there unrighteousness with God?” It sure looks like it!

> *15 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

(9.15) “I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.”

> 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.
> 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
> 18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

(9.18) “Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.”
≠311 Does God want some to go to hell?

> 19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?
> 20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

(9.20) “Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?”

> 21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

(9.21) “Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?”

> 22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction*:*

(9.22) “What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction?”

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

(9.33) “I lay in Sion a stumblingstone.” Misquote of Is 28.16, which says: “Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.”

ROMANS 10

10 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

(10.4) "Christ is the end of the law."
≠56 Must Christians obey Old Testament laws?

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

(10.9) "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

(10.13) “Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” ≠321 Will those who call on the Lord be delivered?

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

(10.18) “Their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.” Paul says that everyone, even in his day, had the gospel preached to them. Even the Native Americans, Asians, Pacific Islanders? In any case, if Paul is right about that, then Jesus is a false prophet, since he said he would return before the gospel was preached to everyone. (Mt 10.23)

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

(11.1-5) God arbitrarily saves a few Jews.

> 11 I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

(11.1) "Hath God cast away his people?"

> 2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,
> 3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.
> 4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.
> 5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

(11.5) "At this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace."

> 6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

(11.7-10) God blinded the Jews so they wouldn't recognize Jesus as the Messiah.

> 7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded

(11.7) "The rest were blinded."

> 8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

(11.8) “God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear.”

9 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block*, and a recompence unto them:*

(11.9) “Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block.”

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see*, and bow down their back alway.*

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy*.*

(11.11) “Salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them [the Jews] to jealousy.”

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

(11.25) "Blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in." God blinded the Jews to prevent them from believing in Jesus. God wants all the Gentiles to believe first, then maybe he'll let a few Jews believe, too.

(11.26-32) Fun facts about Jews.

(11.26) "All Israel shall be saved." Move to Israel and your salvation is assured!

≠347 What will happen to Jews when they die?

26 And so all Israel shall be saved*: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:*

27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

(11.27) "This is my covenant unto them, [the Jews] when I shall take away their sins." Someday God will take away all Jewish sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

(11.28) "As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the father's sakes." God is a bit conflicted about Jews. They are his enemies, but he loves them for their ancestors' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

(11.30) "For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their [Jewish] unbelief." Gentiles used to be unbelievers, but now the Jews are the unbelievers and God saves gentiles through Jewish unbelief. It's all a part of God's plan.

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

(11.32) "God hath concluded them [the Jews] all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all."

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

(12.3-21) Some of the best advice in the Bible

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly*, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.*

(12.3) "To every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly."

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

(12.8) "He that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness."

9 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.
21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

(14.21) “It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.”
≠71 Is it OK to drink alcohol?
≠13 What should we eat?

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.
23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

(14.23) “He that doubteth is damned … Whatsoever is not of faith is sin.”

ROMANS 15

15 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

(15.2) “Let every one of us please his neighbour.”
≠459 Should we try to please everyone?

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

(15.33) "The God of peace"
≠99 Is God warlike or peaceful?

ROMANS 16

16 I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:

? (16.1) "Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church." The Revised Standard Version calls Phoebe a "deaconess", which would make would make her a church leader. If the RSV translation is correct, this verse contradicts the requirement that women not be permitted to teach and that they must be silent in church. (1 Cor 14.34-35, 1 Tim 2.11-12).
≠454 Can women be church leaders?

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

≠454 Can women be church leaders?

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.
9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.
10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' household.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.
15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.
16 Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

1 CORINTHIANS

I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all. — 1 Corinthians 14.18

Paul has an important message in First Corinthians: time is running out. There's no time for learning; no time for sex, marriage or families. Jesus is coming soon. In the meantime, slaves should obey their masters, women should obey their husbands, and everyone should speak in tongues. Just not as much as Paul.

Highlights:

- Paul expected Jesus to return within the lifetime of his followers. 1.7-8, 7.29, 10.11, 15.51-52
- Christians started out divided (into followers of Paul, Apollos, Cephas, Christ, etc.), and it has remained so ever since. 1.12, 3.4
- Poor Paul is confused. First he says that he baptized no one. Well, except for Crispus and Gaius. And maybe Stephanus and his household. He can't remember if he did it to anyone else. 1.14-16
- God: the destroyer of wisdom. 1.19-20
- "It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." 1.21
- To be a good Christian you must try to know nothing (except for Jesus, of course). Become an ignorant fool for Christ. 2.2, 3.18-20, 4.10, 8.2, 14.38
- Christians can judge everything and everybody (including angels!), but no non-Christian can judge them. 2.15, 6.3
- Get saved by burning your work. 3.15
- Forget Jesus. Follow Paul! 4.16, 11.1
- Delivering people to Satan for the destruction of the flesh so that Jesus can save their spirits. 5.5
- Paul lists ten things that will keep you out of heaven, including homosexuality and being "effeminate." 6.9-11
- Everything is lawful to Paul and he submits to no law. 6.12, 10.23
- "It is good for a man not to touch a woman." 7.1

- “I would that all men were even as I myself.” 7.7
- Slaves should not desire their freedom. 7.21
- Those who are unmarried should never marry. 7.27
- There’s no time for sex or marriage since the world will be ending soon. 7.29
- Gentiles sacrifice to devils. If you have gentile friends, then you are friends with devils. 10.20
- “The head of the woman is the man.” 11.3
- If a woman refuses to cover her head in church, then her head must be shaved. 11.5-6
- Men are made in the image of God; women in the image of men. Women were created from and for men. 11.7-9
- God likes short hair on men and long hair on women. 11.13-15
- “I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all.” 14.18
- “Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience. And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home.” 14.34-35
- “If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema.” 16.22

1 CORINTHIANS 1

(1.7-8) Paul expected Jesus to return within the lifetime of his followers.

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their’s and our’s:

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ*:*

(1.7) "Waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ*.*

(1.8) "Be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ."

9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ*.*

(1.12) "I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ." Christians started out divided (into followers of Paul, Apollos, Cephas, or Christ), and it has remained so ever since.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

(1.14-16) Poor Paul is confused. First he says that he baptized no one. Well, except for Crispus and Gaius. And maybe Stephanus and his household. He can't remember if he did it to anyone else.

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;

(1.14) "I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius."

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

(1.15) "Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name."

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

(1.16) "And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other."

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.
18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

(1.19-20) God: the destroyer of wisdom
≠293 Is wisdom a good thing?

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

(1.19) "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent."

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

(1.20) "Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?"

21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

☺ (1.21) "It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." God saves fools and is pleased with their foolishness.
≠295 Is it good to be foolish?

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:
23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;
24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.
25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise*; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;*

☺ (1.27) "God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise."
≠45 Is God the author of confusion?

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:
29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.
30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:
31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

1 CORINTHIANS 2

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

(2.2) "I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ." If you are to be a good Christian you must try to know nothing (except for Jesus, of course).

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

(2.15) "He that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man." Christians can judge everything and everybody, but no non-Christian can judge them.
≠126 To judge or not to judge

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

1 CORINTHIANS 3

3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

(3.4) "One saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?" Or confused, maybe? (See 1.12 for more evidence of divisions among Paul's followers.)

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

(3.15) "If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved;" Get saved by burning your work!

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy*; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.*

(3.17) "If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy."
≠157 Does hell exist?

(3.18-20) Christians who want to be wise must become fools. But then they'll have a problem since fools shall not stand in the sight of God (Ps 5.5)
≠295 Is it good to be foolish?

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

(3.18) "If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise."

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

(3.19) "For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God."

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

(3.20) "The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain."

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are your's;
22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;
23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

1 CORINTHIANS 4

4 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake*, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.*

(4.10) "We are fools for Christ's sake." Christians are "fools for Christ's sake" and therefore shall not stand in the sight of God (Ps 5.5).
≠295 Is it good to be foolish?

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

(4.16) "Be ye followers of me." Paul establishes his own cult (Christianity) by telling others to follow him.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

1 CORINTHIANS 5

(5.1-5) Paul, judging from rumors alone, complains that there are fornicators among his followers in Corinth; he is even worried that some have had sex with their fathers' wives. He says that those who have done these things should be "delivered to Satan for the destruction of the flesh" so that their soul can be saved.

5 It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

(5.1) "It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife."

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

(5.3) "I … have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed."

≠126 To judge or not to judge

> 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
> 5 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

(5.5) "To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus."

> 6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?
> 7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:
> 8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
> 9 I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:

? (5.9a) "I wrote unto you in an epistle." Despite its title, First Corinthians wasn't the first epistle that Paul wrote the Corinthians. There was another (Zeroth Corinthians?) that was either lost or considered not worthy of including in the Bible.

(5.9b-13) Stay away from fornicators, idolaters, and drunkards. Do not associate, speak to, or eat dinner with such "wicked" people.

(5.9b-10) "Not to company with fornicators … or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters."

> 10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters*; for then must ye needs go out of the world.*
> 11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

(5.11) “If any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.”

> 12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?
> 13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

(5.13) “Put away from among yourselves that wicked person.”

1 CORINTHIANS 6

(6.1-3) A believer should not sue another believer in court. Believers are supposed to judge everyone else (non-believers). Heck, some day believers will even judge angels!

(7.27) “Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.” Those who are unmarried should never marry.
15 Is marriage a good thing?

> 28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
> 29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none*;*

(7.29) “The time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none.” Paul, like Jesus and the other New Testament writers, expected the end to come soon. “The time is short.” So there’s no time for sex and marriage since the world will be ending soon.

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

*8 Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

(8.1a) "Knowldedge puffeth up." Knowledge is bad.

2 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

(8.2) "If any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing."

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

(8.4-8) "As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols…." The short answer (that you'll find scattered around in this chapter) is this: Go ahead and eat animals that were sacrificed to other gods. Try not to do it, though, when weaker Christians are watching. You don't want to scandalize the weaklings, do you?
≠460 Is it OK to eat meat sacrificed to other gods?

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

1 CORINTHIANS 9

> 9 Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

(9.1) "Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord?" In an apparent reference to his supposed encounter with Jesus on the road to Damascus, Paul asks, "Have I not seen Jesus?" Well, if we can believe Acts, he didn't. That account says he was blinded and saw no one (Acts 9.8).
≠463 Did Paul see Jesus?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

(9.9-10) Paul quotes Dt 25.4, "Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn." That sounds like a nice humane law. Until Paul explains it, that is. He asks, "Does God care about oxen?", and then answers his own rhetorical question by saying, "Hell no. The law is for our sakes." According to Paul, God doesn't give a damn about animals.

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

(9.9) "Doth God take care for oxen?"

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt*, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.*

(9.10) "Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt."

11 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

(9.21-22) Paul says he'll do whatever it takes to make people believe in order to save them from a God who will torture them forever for their honest disbelief.

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

(9.21) "To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law."

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

(9.22) "To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some."

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

? (10.16) "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?" It depends on whom you ask. A Catholic will say yes. A Protestant, no. If you ask me, it's just bread and wine.

17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

(11.14-15) God likes short hair on men and long hair on women.
≠133 Is it OK for men to have long hair?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

(11.14) “If a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him.”

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her*: for her hair is given her for a covering.*

(11.15) “But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her.”

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord’s supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

(11.27-29) Those that "eateth and drinketh unworthily" will go to hell.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

(11.27) "Whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord."

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself*, not discerning the Lord's body.*

(11.29) "He that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself."

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

(11.30) "For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep." Those who eat and drink unworthily often get sick and die. (And then go to hell.)

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

1 CORINTHIANS 12

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

(12.31) “Covet earnestly the best gifts.”
≠111 Is it OK to covet?

1 CORINTHIANS 13

13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.
*4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

(13.4-6) Some nice thoughts about love (or charity as in the KJV).

*5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

(13.5) “Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil.”

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

(13.6) “Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth.”

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

(13.7) “Believeth all things”
≠308 Should we believe everything?

> 8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

(13.8) “Prophecies … shall fail.” Except for this one.

> 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
> 10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
> *11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

(13.11) “When I became a man, I put away childish things.” (Like believing in the Bible?)
≠365 Is it good to be childish?

> 12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
> 13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

1 CORINTHIANS 14

> 14 Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

(14.2-5) Paul thinks everyone should speak in tongues.
≠465 Should you speak in tongues?

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him*; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.*

(14.2) "He that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him."

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself*; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.*

(14.4) "He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself."

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues*, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.*

(14.5) "I would that ye all spake with tongues."

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

(14.8-9) Speak clearly. (Don't speak in tongues.)
≠465 Should you speak in tongues?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

(14.8) "For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?"

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

(14.9) “Except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.”

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

(14.18) “I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all.”

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding*: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.*

(14.20) “Be not children in under- standing.”

≠[365 Is it good to be childish?]

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

(14.22-28) Speaking in tongues is getting embarrassing!

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

(14.22) "Tongues are … a sign … to them that believe not." (That believers are bat-shit crazy.)

*23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

(14.23) "If therefore the whole church … speak with tongues, and there come in those that are … unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?"

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:
25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.
26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.
*27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

(14.27) "If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret."

*28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

(14.28) “If there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.” (If you don’t have an “interpreter”, STFU.)

> 29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.
> 30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.
> 31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
> 32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
> 33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

(14.33) “God is not the author of confusion, but of peace.”
≠99 Is God warlike or peaceful?
≠45 Is God the author of confusion?

♀ ⚖ (14.34-35) Women are commanded by Paul to be silent in church and to be obedient to men. “If they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home.”
≠454 Can women be church leaders?
≠464 Should women have the same rights as men?
≠466 May a woman speak in church?

> 34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

(14.34) “Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience.”

> *35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

(14.35) “If they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.”

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

*38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

(14.38) “If any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.”

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

(14.39) “Covet to prophesy.”
≠111 Is it OK to covet?

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

1 CORINTHIANS 15

15 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

*3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

*4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

(15.3-4) “That Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.” These verses claim that the scriptures prophesied that Jesus would suffer, die, and be resurrected from the dead. But where are the prophecies that are referred to here? Hosea 6.2 perhaps? But this verse refers to the people living at the time (hence “us”) and therefore cannot be fulfilled by the death and resurrection of Jesus.

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

(15.5) “He was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.” But Judas hanged himself (Matthew 27.3-5) and Matthias was not elected (Acts 1.9-26) until after the ascension.
≠413 How many disciples did Jesus appear to in his first post resurrection appearance?
≠408 To whom did Jesus make his first post-resurrection appearance?

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

(15.6) “He was seen of above five hundred brethren at once.”
≠448 How many believers were there at the time of the ascension?

7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.
8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

(15.8) “He was seen of me.” In an apparent reference to his encounter on the road to Damascus, Paul says, “And last of all he was seen by me.” But Acts (9.5) says he saw no one because he was blinded.
≠463 Did Paul see Jesus?

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised*:*

(15.16) “If the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.”
≠167 Is death final?

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

(15.20) “But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.”
≠196 Was Jesus the first to rise from the dead?

(15.21-22) Nothing died before Adam sinned. In Christ all will have eternal life. (Christ died for the animals.)
≠157 Does hell exist?

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

(15.21) “For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.”

> 22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

(15.22) “For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.”

> 23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ’s at his coming.
> 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
> 25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
> 26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
> 27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.
> 28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

(15.28) “Then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him.”
≠349 Is Jesus God?

> 29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

? (15.29) “Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, If the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?” This is the verse that the Mormons use to justify their belief in the baptism of the dead.

> 30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
> 31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

(15.36a) "Thou fool."
≠297 Is it OK to call someone a fool?

(15.36b) "That which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die." Paul also shows his (and God's) ignorance of biology by saying that only dead seeds will germinate. Actually, a seed must be alive to germinate.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

(15.45) “The first man Adam” Young Earth Creationists use this verse to support a literal reading of Genesis.

> 46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

? (15.46) “And afterword that which is spiritual.” Asa Gray, the foremost American botanist in the 19th century and close friend of Charles Darwin, used this verse to support the idea that the Bible is not inconsistent with human evolution.

> 47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.
> 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.
> 49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
> 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

(15.51-52) Paul expected the end of the world to come before he and his followers died.

> 51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

(15.51) “We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.”

> 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

(15.52) “In the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.”

≠167 Is death final?
≠472 Have Christians been raised with Christ?

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

1 CORINTHIANS 16

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

(16.14) "Let all your things be done with charity." Do all things with love.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and your's: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

(16.22) "If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema." In this verse Paul curses those who don't love Jesus and says that they are to be "anathema" (damned).

≠114 How should we treat our enemies?

≠458 Is it OK to curse people?

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers … what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? — 2 Corinthians 6:14-15

In Second Corinthians we learn that God (3.14-15) and Satan (4.4) work together to keep people from seeing the truth by blinding them, and there is a simple test to see if you have been blinded by either of them (13.5). Do you know for sure that Jesus is in you? If not, you're a blinded reprobate. Sorry about that.

Here are some highlights

- Paul expected to see Jesus return in his lifetime. 1.14
- Saved people smell good to God. 2.15
- God blinds people to prevent them from seeing the truth. 3.14-15
- "The god of this world" has blinded the minds of nonbelievers. 4.3-4
- "Walk by faith, not by sight." (Don't look where you're going.) 5.7
- "The terror of the Lord" 5.11
- Jesus, who was without sin, was made into sin. This made the real sinners sinless. 5.21

2 CORINTHIANS 1

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

(1.3) “God … the Father of mercies.”
≠120 Is God merciful?

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

(1.14) "We are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus." Paul expected to see Jesus return in his lifetime.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

2 CORINTHIANS 2

2 But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

(2.15a) "We are unto God a sweet savour." Saved people smell good to God.

(2.15b) "In them that perish"
≠157 Does hell exist?

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?
17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

2 CORINTHIANS 3

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?
2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:
3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.
4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.
7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

(3.14-15) "Their minds were blinded … the veil is upon their heart." God blinds people to prevent them from seeing the truth.

*15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

2 CORINTHIANS 4

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

⚖ (4.3-4) The god of this world (Satan?) has blinded the eyes of non-believers (lost people), who will be sent to hell by God after they die.
≠161 Who is the Lord of the earth?
≠443 Who forces non-believers to disbelieve?

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

(4.3) "If our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost."

*4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

(4.4) "The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ … should shine unto them."

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.
8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;
9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;
10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.
11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.
12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

2 CORINTHIANS 5

5 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

(5.7) "Walk by faith, not by sight." (Don't look where you're going.)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

*10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

(5.10) "We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ … according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

≠440 Does Jesus judge people?

≠298 Does anyone ever do anything good?

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

(5.11) "The terror of the Lord"

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

(5.13) "For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause." If Paul is crazy, it's God's fault; if he's sane, it's yours.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new*.*

(5.17) "All things are become new."
≠314 What's new?

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

(5.21) "He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." Jesus, who was without sin, was made into sin. This made the real sinners sinless.

2 CORINTHIANS 6

6 We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

(6.14-17) Keep away from unbelievers. Neither marry nor be friends with them.

≠128 How should nonbelievers be treated?

≠462 Is it OK to marry unbelievers?

14 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

(6.14) “Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?”

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

(6.15) “And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?”

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

(6.17) "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you."

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

2 CORINTHIANS 7

7 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

(7.1) "Let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God."
≠132 Should we fear God?

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.
3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.
4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.
5 For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.
6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;
7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

2 CORINTHIANS 8

8 Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

2 CORINTHIANS 9

9 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

(9.7) "Give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver." The televangelist's favorite verse!

8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

? (9.13-15) "For your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men … Thanks be unto God." God loves liberals!

2 CORINTHIANS 10

10 Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ*;*

(10.5) "Bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." Christians cannot be freethinkers, since all their thoughts and imaginings must be brought into captivity in obedience to Christ.

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

2 CORINTHIANS 11

11 Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly*: and indeed bear with me.*

(11.1) "Bear with me a little in my folly."

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty*, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.*

(11.3) "As the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty" Paul believed the silly talking snake story in Genesis 3.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches*, taking wages of them, to do you service.*

(11.8) "I robbed other churches" Paul set an example for televangelists by robbing (taking wages from) churches.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

(11.15) "Whose end shall be according to their works."
≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

2 CORINTHIANS 12

12 It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

(12.2-4) There were these guys that Paul once knew, but he just can't remember whether it was in or out of the body. It was sort of an out of body experience. Anyway, one of these guys was way up in the third heaven and the other guy was in paradise. He heard stuff, too, but it's illegal to talk about it.

> 2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

(12.2) "I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven."

> 3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

(12.3) "And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)"

> 4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

(12.4) "He was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter."

> 5 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.
> 6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.
> 7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
> 8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me*: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.*

(12.11) "I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me."

12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

(12.16) "Being crafty, I caught you with guile."

17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

2 CORINTHIANS 13

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare*:*

(13.2) "To them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare." Paul says he "will not spare" when he comes back to punish those who have sinned.

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

(13.5) "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?" Are you a reprobate? Here's the test: if you know for sure that Jesus is in you, you're not a reprobate. Otherwise you are.

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace*; and* the God of love and peace shall be with you.

(13.11a) “Live in peace.”

(13.11b) “The God of love and peace”
≠[99 Is the Biblical God a God of peace?]

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

(13.12) “Greet one another with an holy kiss.”

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

GALATIANS

I would they were even cut off which trouble you. — Galatians 5.12

There's a lot of cursing going on in Galatians. First Paul curses all those who disagree with him (1.8-9). Then he curses the Jews (3.10). Not even Jesus escapes Paul's curse (3.13). But the part I like best is where he wishes his opponents would castrate themselves (5.12). Fun stuff.

Galatians Highlights:

- If anyone dares to disagree with Paul on religious matters, "let him be accursed." 1.8-9
- Those who try to follow the law are cursed 3.10
- Jesus was cursed by God. 3.13
- "If ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing." 5.2
- "I would they were even cut off which trouble you." (The New Revised Standard Version translates this verse as: "I wish those who unsettle you would castrate themselves!") 5.12
- Witches, idol worshippers, and heretics will not go to heaven. (Guess where they'll be going.) 5.20-21
- "See how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand." 6.11
- "Many … desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh." 6.12-13

GALATIANS 1

> 1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

(1.1) "God the Father, who raised him from the dead"
≠437 Who raised Jesus from the dead?

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

!!! (1.8-9) If anyone dares to disagree with Paul on religious matters, "let him be accursed."
≠458 Is it OK to curse people?

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

(1.8) "Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

(1.9) "If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

(1.10) "If I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ." If you do what other people want, you're not a good Christian.
≠459 Should we try to please everyone?

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

(1.15-18)
≠451 Did Paul go to Jerusalem from Damascus immediately after his conversion?

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

(1.15) "When … God … called me,"

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

(1.16) "To reveal his Son … immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood."

*17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

(1.17) "Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus."

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

(1.18) "Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter."

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

(1.19) "But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother."
≠452 Did Paul visit all of the disciples when he went to Jerusalem after his conversion?

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.
21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;
22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ:
23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.
24 And they glorified God in me.

GALATIANS 2

2 Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.
2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles*, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.*

(2.2) "I preach among the Gentiles."
≠352 Should the gospel be preached to the Gentiles?

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

(2.6) "God accepteth no man's person."
≠21 Does God respect anyone?

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

(2.10) "Remember the poor." (And help them if you can.)

11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

(2.16) “A man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ … for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.”
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.
18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.
19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.
20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.
21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

(2.21) “If righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.”
≠430 Does righteousness come from following the Law?

GALATIANS 3

3 O foolish Galatians*, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?*

!!! (3.1) “O foolish Galatians”
≠297 Is it OK to call someone a fool?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse*: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.*

(3.10) "As many as are of the works of the law are under the curse."
≠156 Are those who obey the law cursed?

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith*.*

12 And the law is not of faith*: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.*

(3.11-12) "The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith."
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

(3.13a) "Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law."
≠56 Must Christians obey the Old Testament's laws?

(3.13b) "Christ …, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree." Jesus was cursed by God.

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

*16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

(3.16) "Abraham … and to thy seed, which is Christ"
≠329 Was Jesus a descendent of Abraham?

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

*19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

(3.19) "The law … was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator."
≠105 Who gave the law to Moses?

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

*25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

(3.24-25) “The law was our schoolmaster … We are no longer under a schoolmaster.”

≠56 Must Christians obey the Old Testament’s laws?

> 26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
> 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
> *28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

(3.28) “There is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.”

≠42 Is slavery OK

≠464 Should women have the same rights as men?

> 29 And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

GALATIANS 4

> 4 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;
> 2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.
> 3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:
> 4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,
> 5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
> 6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.
> 7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.

(4.22) “Abraham had two sons.”

≠53 How many sons did Abraham have?

23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

GALATIANS 5

5 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

(5.2) "If ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing." You can't be saved if you're circumcised.
≠54 Is circumcision required?

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

(5.4) "Ye are fallen from grace."
≠442 Is it possible to fall from grace?

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you*.*

!!! (5.12) "I would they were even cut off which trouble you." Gosh, that doesn't sound very nice. But I wonder what Paul meant by "cut off". The New Revised Standard Version translates this verse as: "I wish those who unsettle you would castrate themselves!"

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

(5.13) "By love serve one another."

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

(5.14) "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."
≠128 How should nonbelievers be treated?

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

(5.18) “If ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.”
≠56 Must Christians follow the OT laws?

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

⚖ 🔥 (5.20-21) “Idolatry, witchcraft … heresies … drunkenness, revellings, and such like … They which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.”
≠71 Is it OK to drink alcohol?

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

👍 (5.22-23) “Love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, … meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.”

24 And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

👍 (5.26) “Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.”

GALATIANS 6

6 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

(6.1) "If a man be overtaken in a fault … restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted." Forgive others. Someday you might make a mistake, too.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

(6.2) "Bear ye one another's burdens."
≠467 Should we bear each other's burdens?

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.
5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

(6.5) "For every man shall bear his own burden."
≠467 Should we bear each other's burdens?

6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.
7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

(6.8) "He that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption."
≠157 Does hell exist?

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

(6.10) “Do good unto all men.”

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

(6.11) “See how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.” Paul was proud of his large handwriting.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

(6.12-13) “Many … desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.” Seems like a strange thing to glory in. But OK.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

EPHESIANS

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. — Ephesians 5.22

Although Ephesians claims to have been written by Paul to the church in Ephesus (1.1), most scholars think it was written after his death by one of his followers to no one in particular. The writing style, vocabulary, and theological views differ from those of Paul's undisputed letters (1 Thessalonians, Galatians, 1 and 2 Corinthians, Romans, Philippians, and Philemon). But whoever the author was, the letter itself is pretty boring.

Here are the highlights, such as they are.

- We are predestined by God to go to either heaven or hell. None of our thoughts, words, or actions can affect the final outcome. 1.4-5, 11
- God had his son murdered to keep himself from hurting others for things they didn't do. 1.7
- Satan is the "prince of the power of the air." 2.2
- We are all "by nature the children of wrath." 2.3
- "Be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine." (Reject the Bible and all religious belief.) 4.14
- "Christ … hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour." The bloody death of Jesus smelled good to God. 5.2
- No "unclean person" or "idolater" will inherit the kingdom of God. The wrath of God is on them. Don't associate with them. 5.5-7
- Wives must submit to their husbands "in every thing" as though they were gods. "For the husband is the head of the wife." 5.22-24
- Slaves must obey their masters "as unto Christ." 6.5

EPHESIANS 1

1 Paul*, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,* to the saints which are at Ephesus*, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:*

? (1.1) "Paul … to the saints which are at Ephesus" Although Ephesians claims to have been written by Paul, most scholars think it was written after his death by one of his followers.

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

(1.4-5) We are predestined by God to go to either heaven or hell. None of our thoughts, words, or actions can affect the final outcome.
≠158 Do humans have free will?

4 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world*, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:*

(1.4) "He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world."

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

(1.5) "Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself according to the good pleasure of his will."

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.
7 In whom we have redemption through his blood*, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;*

(1.7) "We have redemption through his blood." God had his son murdered to keep himself from hurting others for things they didn't do.

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

(1.11) “We have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated.”

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

EPHESIANS 2

2 And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air*, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:*

(2.2) "The prince of the power of the air" Satan is the "prince of the power of the air."

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath*, even as others.*

(2.3) "By nature the children of wrath"

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves*: it is the gift of God:*

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

(2.8-9) "By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves … Not of works, lest any man should boast."

≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

(2.15) “Having abolished in his flesh … the law of commandments”
≠56 Must Christians obey Old Testament laws?

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

EPHESIANS 3

3 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words,

? (3.3) "As I wrote afore in few words" The author claims to have written another epistle to the Ephesians. If so, it has since been lost.

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

EPHESIANS 4

4 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

(4.8) Misquote of Ps 68.18, which says: “Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men.” The words and meaning of the psalm were changed from “received gifts” to “gave gifts.”

> 9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
> 10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)
> 11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
> 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
> 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:
> 14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine*, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;*

(4.14) “Be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine.”
≠365 Is it good to be childish?

> 15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
> 16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.
> 17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,
> 18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:
> 19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

(4.25-32)

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour*: for we are members one of another.*

(4.25) "Putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour."
≠86 Is it wrong to lie?

26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath*:*

(4.26) "Let not the sun go down upon your wrath."

27 Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

(4.28) "Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth."
≠91 Is it wrong to steal?

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying*, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.*

(4.29) "Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying."

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice*:*

(4.31) "Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice."

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another*, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.*

(4.32) "And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another."

EPHESIANS 5

5 Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour.

(5.2) "Christ … hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour." The bloody death of Jesus smelled good to God.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you*, as becometh saints;*

(5.3) "But … covetousness, let it not be once named among you."
≠111 Is it OK to covet?

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting*, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.*

(5.4) "Nor foolish talking, nor jesting"

(5.5-7) No “unclean person” or “idolater” will inherit the kingdom of God. The wrath of God is on them. Don’t associate with them.

> 5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

(5.5) “No whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.”

> 6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

(5.6) “Because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.”

> 7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

(5.7) “Be not ye therefore partakers with them.”

> 8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:
> 9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)
> 10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.
> 11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness*, but rather reprove them.*

? (5.11 Jehovah’s Witnesses)
“Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness.” To Jehovah’s Witnesses, everything outside of the Watchtower Organization is controlled by Satan. This is one of the verses that the the Governing Body uses to condemn all holidays, civic activities, and association with non-JWs.

> 12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

*15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

(5.15-17) "Walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise … be ye not unwise, but understanding."
≠295 Is it good to be foolish?

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

(5.18) "Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess."
≠71 Is it OK to drink alcohol?

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

*21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

(5.21) "Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God."
≠132 Should we fear God?

♀ ♂ (5.22-24) Wives must submit to their husbands "in every thing" as though they were Christ. "For the husband is the head of the wife."
≠464 Should women have the same rights as men?

*22 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

(5.22) "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord."

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church*: and he is the saviour of the body.*

(5.23) "For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church."

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

(5.24) "As the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing."

(5.25-28) Husbands should try to love their wives.

25 Husbands, love your wives*, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;*

(5.25) "Husbands, love your wives."

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

(5.28) "So ought men to love their wives."

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself*; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.*

👍♀ (5.33) “Let every one of you … love his wife even as himself.”

EPHESIANS 6

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 Honour thy father and mother*; (which is the first commandment with promise;)*

👍 (6.2) “Honour thy father and mother.”
≠107 How should parents be treated?

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ*;*

⚖ (6.5) “Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ.” Slaves must obey their masters “as unto Christ.”
≠336 Should we serve God alone?
≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.
9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him*.*

(6.9) “Neither is there respect of persons with him.”
≠21 Does God respect anyone?

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

PHILIPPIANS

The Lord is at hand. — Philippians 4.5

Philippians was probably created by patching together several of Paul's letters to the church at Philippi.

Here are the highlights:

- Paul tells the Philippians to be good "till the day of Christ." For "the Lord is at hand." 1.10, 4.5
- Someday everyone will have to worship Jesus—whether they want to or not. 2.10-11
- "Beware of dogs … beware of the concision." I'm not sure who Paul is calling "dogs" here, but it's probably the Jews—those of "the circumcision," as opposed to Christians, who are of the "true circumcision." 3.2
- Forget Jesus. Paul says you should follow him and people that follow him. Believe whatever he tells you to believe, think whatever he tells you to think, and do whatever he tells you to do. 3.17, 4.9
- "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." 4.8
- Christians are superhuman and omnipotent. They can do whatever they want. 4.13
- Paul's God will give you everything you need. 4.19

1 Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

(1.10) "That ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ." Paul tells the Philippians to be good "till the day of Christ." So he must have expected Jesus to return within their lifetimes.

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better*:*

? (1.21-23) "To me to live is Christ, and to die is gain … what I shall choose I wot not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better." Is Paul contemplating suicide here?

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

(2.12) “Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.”
≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;
16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.
17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.
19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ’s.
22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.
26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

3 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of dogs*, beware of evil workers,* beware of the concision.

(3.2) "Beware of dogs … beware of the concision." I'm not sure who Paul is calling "dogs" here, but it's probably the Jews —those of "the circumcision," as opposed to Christians, who are of the "true circumcision."

3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

*17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

(3.17) "Be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample." Forget Jesus. Paul says you should follow him and people that follow him.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

(3.19) "Whose end is destruction"
≠157 Does hell exist?

20 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

4 Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

(4.5) "The Lord is at hand."

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

(4.8) "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do*: and the God of peace shall be with you.*

 (4.9) "Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do." Believe whatever Paul tells you to believe, think whatever he tells you to think, and do whatever he tells you to do.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me*.*

(4.13) "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Christians are superhuman and omnipotent. They can do whatever they want.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

(4.19) "My God shall supply all your need."

20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy. — Colossians 2.8

This is one of Paul's disputed letters. Some scholars believe that Paul wrote it; others think it was forged by one of his followers. But whoever wrote it, it's not of much interest to skeptics, except to note that wives must submit to their husbands, slaves must obey their masters, and everyone needs to beware of philosophy.

Here are the highlights:

- "The gospel … was preached to every creature … under heaven." 1.23
- "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy." 2.8
- "Ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands ... the circumcision of Christ." 2.11
- "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord." 3.18
- "Servants [slaves], obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God." 3.22
- "Read the epistle from Laodicea." 4.16

1 Paul*, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,*

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse*: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.*

? (1.1-2) “Paul … to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse” Although Colossians claims to have been written by Paul, most scholars think it was written later by one of his followers.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,
5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:
7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;
8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.
9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;
12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:
14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

(1.24) “Rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh.” The suffering Jesus was not sufficient to satisfy God’s wrath, so Paul (or whoever wrote Colossians) had to make up for what was lacking with his own sufferings.

16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

? (4.16) “Read the epistle from Laodicea.” Apparently God intended to include the epistle from Laodicea in the Bible, but it was lost somewhere along the way. There were several letters that claimed to be the lost epistle (and one of these was often included in Latin medieval Bibles), but they are considered forgeries today (as is Colossians, itself, by many scholars).

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. — 1 Thessalonians 5.21

First Thessalonians, written by Paul around 49 CE, is probably the first Christian writing that we have today. In it we learn that Jesus will come soon. Until then we need to hold on to our vessels (wives or penises, depending on translation) in a holy way (4.4).

Here are some highlights:

- Paul, with his usual modesty, proclaims that he is holy, just, and blameless. 2.10
- He accuses the Jews of killing Jesus, persecuting the prophets, displeasing God, and being "contrary to all men." The wrath of God will "come upon them to the uttermost." 2.14-16
- Paul would have come to visit the Thessalonians but Satan stopped him. 2.18
- He expected Jesus to return within his lifetime and those of his followers. 3.13, 4.15-17, 5.23
- "Every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour." 4.4
- "We which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air." Christians get the idea of the rapture from this verse. 4.17
- "Prove all things; hold fast that which is good." 5.21
- "Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss." 5.26

1 THESSALONIANS 1

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus

Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing*, brethren beloved,* your election of God.

(1.4) "Knowing … your election of God" The elect and the damned are predestined by God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead*, even Jesus, which delivered us from* the wrath to come*.*

(1.10a) "His Son … whom he raised from the dead."
≠437 Who raised Jesus from the dead?

(1.10b) "The wrath to come" God is planning a messy mass murder in "the wrath to come" and only Jesus can save you from it.

1 THESSALONIANS 2

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

(2.10) “Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you.” Paul, with his usual modesty, proclaims that he is holy, just, and blameless.

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

(2.14-16) Paul accuses the Jews of killing Jesus, along with their own prophets, displeasing God, and being "contrary to all men." He concludes that the wrath of God will "come upon them to the uttermost."

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews*:*
15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men*:*

(2.14-15) "The Jews … killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men."

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

(2.16) "The wrath is come upon them to the uttermost."

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

(2.18) "We would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us."

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

(2.19) “Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?” Paul believed that those alive in 49 CE would live to see Jesus come.

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

1 THESSALONIANS 3

3 Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

(3.4, 13) Paul thought that the tribulation that he believed would precede Jesus’ coming had already passed, and that Jesus would come within his lifetime.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass*, and ye know.*

(3.4) “We told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass.”

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

(3.13) "He may stablish your hearts … at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

1 THESSALONIANS 4

4 Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

(4.4) "Every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour." Every man should know how to possess his penis or his wife (depending on the translation) in a holy way.

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter*: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.*

(4.6) “That no man … defraud his brother in any matter”
≠91 Is it wrong to steal?

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.
8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.
9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.
10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;
11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;
12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.
13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope*.*

(4.13) “Concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.” Christians shouldn’t mourn the death of their fellow believers. They’ll be OK and you’ll see them later in heaven. The people you should mourn are dead nonbelievers. They have no hope; they will be tortured forever in hell.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

(4:15) “We which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.” 1 Thessalonians was one of the first Christian writings, yet already (ca.50 CE) believers were getting impatient about Jesus' supposed return. Their fellow believers were dying and yet Jesus still hadn't come. What the hell is taking him? And what happens to dead believers? Will they get to see Jesus return? Paul had a lot of 'splainin to do.

> 16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel*, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:*

? (4.16) "For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel." From this verse and Jude 9, the Jehovah's Witnesses figure that Jesus is really the archangel Michael.

> 17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air*: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.*

(4.17) "We which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air." Christians get the idea of the rapture from this verse. (Paul thought he'd live to see it.)

> 18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

1 THESSALONIANS 5

> 5 But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.
> 2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.
> 3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

(5.14) "Comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men."

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

(5.15) "See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men."

16 Rejoice evermore.

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

≠469 Is the day of the Lord at hand?

24 Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.
25 Brethren, pray for us.
26 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

(5.26) “Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.”

27 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.
28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned. — 2 Thessalonians 2.11-12

Although this epistle (1.1, 3.17) claims to have been written by Paul, many scholars think it was a later forgery. If Paul did write it, though, he completely changed his mind (since writing 1 Thessalonians) about the timing of Christ's return. The day of the Lord is no longer at hand. In fact, it's nowhere near. Many things must happen first: there will be a great "falling away," a "man of sin" will be reveled, and Satan will show off his power by doing all kinds of signs and wonders. (2.2-9)

Every skeptic should know one passage from Second Thessalonians: 2.11-12. ("God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned.")

Here are the highlights:

- "Jesus … in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God … who shall be punished with everlasting destruction." 1.7-9
- "Be not soon shaken in mind … by letter as from us." What letter is being referred to here? Is it 1 Thessalonians? If so, then should Christians not read it to avoid being "skaken in mind?" 2.2
- Jesus will "consume" the wicked "with the spirit of his mouth." 2.8
- Satan, not God, is all-powerful. 2.9
- "God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned." 2.11-12
- "God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation." (If you're among the chosen, that is. If not, you're going to hell.) 2.13
- Those who disagree with the views expressed in this epistle are to be shunned. 3.6, 14
- Those who will not or cannot work should starve to death. 3.10

1 TIMOTHY

Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. — 1 Timothy 2.11-12

First Timothy is one of the post-Pauline Pastoral Epistles (the others are 2 Timothy and Titus). Though all three claim to have been written by Paul, they weren't. They were written in the second century, long after Paul had died.

Still, First Timothy has important information for women, slaves, and dieters. Women are not allowed to have authority over men, must dress modestly and be silent in church (2.11-12). They can't teach, braid their hair, or wear expensive clothes or jewelry (2.9). Every woman is inferior to every man in every way. But there is a bright side: they are saved in childbearing! (2.13-15)

Slaves must obey their masters; otherwise God is somehow blasphemed (6.1).

And for all you health freaks out there: Eat meat (4.1-4), don't exercise (4.8), and stop drinking water. Drink wine instead. (5.23)

Here are the highlights:

- Ignore "fables and endless genealogies." (Like Gen 10, 1 Chr 1-9, Mt 1, and Lk 3) 1.4
- Homosexuals are lawless, disobedient, unholy, and profane. 1.10
- "Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme." 1.20
- Women are to dress modestly, "with shamefacedness"—"not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array." 2.9
- "Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence." 2.11-12

- Men are superior to women since Adam was made before, and sinned after, Eve. But even though women are inferior to men, they shouldn't be discouraged because they shall "be saved in childbearing." 2.13-15
- "In the latter times some shall depart from the faith" by becoming vegetarians. 4.1-4
- "Bodily exercise profiteth little." 4.8
- Real widows are "desolate" and pray "night and day." But those widows that experience pleasure are "dead while [they] live." 5.5-6
- You should help a widow only if she: is over 60 years old, had only one husband, has raised children, has lodged strangers, has "washed the saints' feet," has relieved the afflicted, and has "diligently followed very good work." Otherwise, let them starve. "But the younger widows refuse [to help]: for … they will marry; having damnation." Besides the young widows are always idle tattlers —"busybodies, spreading things which they ought not … Some are already turned aside after Satan." 5.9-15
- Publicly humiliate those who sin by announcing their sins in front of God and everybody so "that others may also fear." 5.20
- Stop drinking water. Drink wine for your stomach's sake. 5.23
- "Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed." 6.1
- "Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be … ready to distribute." 6.17-18
- Avoid science, especially that which disagrees with the Bible ("science falsely called"). 6.20

1 TIMOTHY 1

1 Paul*, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;*

2 Unto Timothy*, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.*

? (1.1-2) "Paul … Unto Timothy" Although First Timothy claims to have been written by Paul, most scholars believe that it was written after his death.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies*, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.*

👎 😊 (1.4) "Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies." If we follow this advice we would ignore most of the Bible—especially the genealogies found in Gen 10, 1 Chr 1-9, Mt 1, and Lk 3.

5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind*, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;*

⚥ (1.10) "Them that defile themselves with mankind" Homosexuals (those "that defile themselves with mankind") are included on the list of lawless, disobedient, unholy, and profane people.

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(1.17) "The … invisible … God."
≠49 Can God be seen?

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

*20 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

(1.20) "Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme." Apparently (see 2 Timothy 2.16-18 and 4.14-15) their "blasphemy" was disagreeing with Paul.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array*;*

♀ (2.9) "Women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array."

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

♀ (2.11-12) “Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.”
≠454 Can women be church leaders?
≠464 Should women have the same rights as men?

♀ 😊 (2.13-15) Men are superior to women since Adam was made before, and sinned after, Eve. But even though women are inferior to men, they shouldn’t be discouraged because they shall “be saved in childbearing.”

13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

⚛ (2.13) “For Adam was first formed, then Eve.” Young Earth Creationists use this verse to show that Paul believed the creation story in Genesis 2.18-22.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression*.*

(2.14) And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. ≠457 Who was to blame for original sin?

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing*, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.*

(2.15) Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing.”
≠11 Is childbearing sinful?

1 TIMOTHY 3

3 This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife*, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;*

♀ Ⓜ (3.2) “A bishop … must be … the husband of one wife.” Apparently, it’s OK for laymen to have several.
≠16 Is polygamy OK?

3 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

(3.16) "God was manifest in the flesh." ≠349 Is Jesus God?

1 TIMOTHY 4

☺ (4.1-3) "In the latter times" people won't get married or eat meat.
≠13 What should we eat?
≠15 Is marriage a good thing?

4 Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

(4.1) "In the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils."

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;
3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

(4.3) "Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats."

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

(4.4) "Every creature of God is good [to eat], and nothing to be refused."

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

(4.7) "Refuse … old wives' fables." What about old husbands' fables? Old Bible fables?

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

(4.8) "Bodily exercise profiteth little."

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

*10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

(4.10) "The living God, who is The Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." "The living God" is the saviour of "all men"—especially (but not exclusively) of those that believe. So even nonbelievers will be saved.

[157 Does hell exist?]

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

1 TIMOTHY 5

5 Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

♀ ⚖ ☺ (5.3-10)Honoring widows indeed
You should help a widow only if she: has no children or nephews; is desolate, trusts in God, and prays all the time; is not living in pleasure (a widow living in pleasure is the living dead); is over 60 years old; had only one husband; has raised children; has lodged strangers; has washed the saints' feet; has relieved the afflicted; and has diligently followed every good work.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

(5.3) "Honour widows that are widows indeed."

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents*: for that is good and acceptable before God.*

(5.4) "But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents."

(5.10) "Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work."

♀ ⚖ ☺ (5.11-15) Never help a young widow (one under 60 years old). When they wax wanton against Christ, they'll get married, and be damned to hell for rejecting their faith. Besides, young widows are idle busybodies, wandering around from house to house saying things they shouldn't say. They should get married and have children (though they'll be damned to hell for it). Heck, some of them have already turned aside after Satan.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

(5.11) “But the younger widows refuse [to help]: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;”

(5.13) “They learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.”

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children*, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.*

(5.14) “I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children.”

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

(5.15) “For some are already turned aside after Satan.”

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

1 TIMOTHY 6

(6.1-4) Slaves (“servants” in the KJV) should treat their masters “worthy of all honor, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.” This is especially true when both slave and owner are Christians. Anyone that teaches otherwise is a proud know-nothing.
≠336 Should we serve God alone?

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

2 TIMOTHY

In the last days … shall be … silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. — 2 Timothy 3.1-7

Like the other Pastoral Epistles (1 Timothy and Titus), 2 Timothy was written by someone who claimed to be Paul, but wasn't. It was written by an unknown author long after the real Paul had died.

There's nothing very exciting in this one, but here are a few things of that might be of interest:

- "If we deny him, he also will deny us." (Fair is fair!) 2.12
- The devil can take us captive any time he pleases. 2.26
- In the last days, people will become evil, "without natural affection," and "silly women" who are "ever learning" will be "led away with divers lusts." 3.1-7
- "All scripture is given by the inspiration of God." 3.16 Even Leviticus 20.13, Judges 19.22-30 and Ezekiel 23.20?

2 TIMOTHY 1

> 1 Paul*, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,*
> 2 To Timothy*, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.*

? (1.1-2) "Paul … to Timothy" Although Second Timothy claims to have been written by Paul, most scholars believe that it was written by someone else long after his death.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

(1.7) "God hath not given us the spirit of fear."
≠132 Should we fear God?

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,

(1.9) "Who hath saved us … according to his own purpose and grace." God selected us to be either saved or damned, and there isn't a damned thing we can do about it.
≠158 Do humans have free will?

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

2 TIMOTHY 2

2 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

(2.8) “Jesus Christ of the seed of David”
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

> 9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.
> 10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect’s sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
> 11 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

> 12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us*:*

(2.12) “If we deny him, he also will deny us.” (Fair is fair!)

> 13 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.
> 14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.
> 15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
> 16 But shun profane and vain babblings*: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.*

(2.16) “Shun profane and vain babblings.” Shun non-believers and other profane babblers.
≠468 Should believers discuss their faith with non-believers?

(2.17-18) Hymenaeus and Philetus are condemned for disagreeing with “Paul” about the timing of the resurrection. (See 1 Tim 1.20 and 2 Tim 4.14-15)

> 17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus*;*

(2.18) “Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.”

> 19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

 (2.19) “The Lord knoweth them that are his.” This verse was used by the Catholic Church during the inquisition to justify killing those suspected of heresy. (“Kill them all, for `the Lord knows them that are His’.”)

> 20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

> 22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
> 23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.
>
> 24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

 (2.24) “Be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient.”

> 25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
>
> 26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will*.*

⚖ 😊 (2.26) “The devil, who are taken captive by him at his will” The devil can take us captive any time he pleases.

2 TIMOTHY 3

3 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.
2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

⚥ (3.1-3) “In the last days … men shall be … without natural affection.” In the last days people will become evil, “without natural affection.” Fundamentalist say that this refers to homosexuals.

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;
5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.
*6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,
7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

♀ (3.6-7) “Silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth” In the last days, “silly women” who are “ever learning” will be “led away with divers lusts.”

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their’s also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

2 TIMOTHY 4

4 I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

(4.15) “Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.”

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

TITUS

Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things. — Titus 2.9

Although Titus claims to have been written by Paul, most scholars believe that it, along with the other Pastoral Epistles (1 and 2 Timothy), was written by someone else long after Paul's death.

There's not much of interest here. But we do learn about liars (God can't tell a lie, Jews and Cretans can't tell the truth), Jewish fables and genealogies (disregard them), wives and slaves (must be obedient), and heretics (are condemned by God and should be avoided)

Here are the highlights:

- God, like George Washington (but unlike the author of Titus who falsely claims to be Paul), cannot tell a lie. 1.2
- Jews are unruly liars "whose mouths must be stopped." 1.10-11
- The people of Crete are "always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies." 1.12
- Disregard "Jewish fables and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." Like most of the Bible, maybe? 1.14
- "Teach the young women to be … obedient to their own husbands." 2.4-5
- Slaves must obey their masters and "please them well in all things … showing all good fidelity." 2.9-10
- "Avoid foolish … genealogies." Like Gen 10, 1 Chr 1-9, and Lk 3? 3.9
- Heretics are to be rejected since they are subverted sinners who are condemned by God. 3.10-11

TITUS 1

? (1.1-4) "Paul … to Titus" Although this epistle claims to have been written by Paul, most scholars believe that it was written pseudonymously after his death.

> 1 Paul*, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;*
> 2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie*, promised before the world began;*

☺ (1.2) "God, that cannot lie" God, like George Washington (but unlike the author of Titus who falsely claims to be Paul), cannot tell a lie.
≠139 Does God lie?

> 3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;
> 4 To Titus*, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.*
> 5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:
> 6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife*, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.*

♀ (1.6) "The husband of one wife" A bishop should have only one wife. I guess it's OK for laymen to have several.
≠15 Did "Paul" change his mind about marriage?
≠16 Is polygamy OK?

> 7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;
> 8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just*, holy, temperate;*

(1.7-8) “A bishop must be … just.”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

> 9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.
> 10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:
> 11 Whose mouths must be stopped*, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake.*

(1.10-11) “There are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped.” Jews are unruly liars “whose mouths must be stopped.”

> 12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

!!! (1.12) “The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.”

> 13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;
> 14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

(1.14) “Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments” Disregard “Jewish fables and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.” Like most of the Bible, maybe?

> 15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.
> 16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

TITUS 2

2 But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

*5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

♀ (2.4-5) "Teach the young women to be … obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed."

*6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

👍 (2.6) "Young men … be sober minded." I suppose it's good for young men to be "sober minded." But is it OK to have some fun now and then?

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

👍 (2.7) "In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works … sincerity."

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

⚖ (2.9-10) "Exhort servants [slaves] to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity."
≠336 Should we serve God alone?
≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

> *11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

(2.11) "The grace of God … hath appeared to all men." At the time this statement was written, only a very small minority had seen or heard about Jesus. And still today there are those who have never heard his name.

> 12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;
> 13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

(2.13) "The great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ"
≠349 Is Jesus God?

> 14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.
> 15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

TITUS 3

(3.1-2) Do good works; be gentle toward others; avoid fighting or speaking unkindly about others.

> 3 Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

(3.1) "Be ready to every good work."

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

(3.2) “To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.”

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,
5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost*;*

⚖ 😊 (3.5) “Not by works … but … by the washing … of the Holy Ghost.” People aren’t saved by doing good things, but by the arbitrary decision of God. He decides who gets washed by the Holy Ghost and who doesn’t. Hasa diga eebowai.
≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

6 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;
7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies*, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.*

👍 😊 (3.9) “Avoid foolish … genealogies.” Like Gen 10, 1 Chr 1-9, and Lk 3?

⚖ 🔥 (3.10-11) Heretics are to be rejected since they are subverted, sinners, and condemned by God.

10 A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

(3.10) “A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject.”

11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

(3.11) “Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.”

12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

14 And let our’s also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

(3.14) “Maintain good works.”

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

PHILEMON

The bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother. — Philemon 7

This short letter was written by Paul to his slave-owner friend and fellow believer, Philemon. Paul was writing about Onesimus, whom he had recently converted, and who happened to also be a runaway slave belonging to Philemon. Since Paul was in a position of authority among believers, this would have been a great opportunity for him (and God) to condemn slavery—if he (and God) had anything against it, that is. But apparently he didn't. Instead he returned the slave to his owner without so much as a word against the institution of slavery.

The only other thing of interest in this letter is the rather strange expression, "refresh my bowels in the Lord." Okay, I know that Paul's bowel trouble is just an artifact of the King James translation. But it sounds too funny to pass up.

PHILEMON 1

1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer, 2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

!!! ☺ (7, 12, 20) Refreshing the bowels of the saints in the Lord

> 7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

(7) "The bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother."

> 8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,
> 9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.
> 10 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus*, whom I have begotten in my bonds:*
> 11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:
> 12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels*:*

⚖ (10-12a) "I beseech thee for my son Onesimus … Whom I have sent." Paul returned the runaway slave, Onesimus, to his "rightful owner," Philemon, asking him to receive him just as though he were Paul's very "own bowels." This was, of course, a great opportunity for Paul (and God) to condemn slavery—if he had anything against it, that is. But he didn't. So he returned the slave to his owner without a word against the institution of slavery.
≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

(12b) "Receive him, that is, mine own bowels."

> 13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:
> 14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.
> 15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;
> 16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

(20) "Refresh my bowels in the Lord."

21 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

HEBREWS

For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. — Hebrews 10.37

Although the author of Hebrews never claims to be Paul (and wasn't), he wanted people to think that he was (13.23). And it worked, which is why Hebrews is now part of the New Testament.

I find the book tiresome to read, though there is some fun stuff in chapter 11. The author praises the most atrocious acts in the Hebrew Bible and credits them all to faith. If that's what faith can do, it's a good thing to stay away from.

Here are the highlights:

- The author of Hebrews believed that he was living in the "last days." 1.2, 9.26, 10.25, 10.37
- Every skeptic and nonbeliever has "an evil heart of unbelief." 3.12
- It is impossible for fallen-away Christians to be saved. (Didn't the author know about confession or the finality of being saved?) 6.4-6
- Apostates will burn in hell with all the other non-believers. 6.8
- Melchisedec had no father or mother. He was never born (he just appeared ready-made by God) and he never died. He's still around somewhere. 7.3
- God will not forgive us unless we shed the blood of some innocent creature. 9.13-22
- Those who disobeyed the Hebrew Bible's laws were killed without mercy. It will be much worse for those who displease Jesus. 10.28-29
- "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." 10.31
- Faith is believing without evidence things that you wish were true (but aren't). 11.1
- If you're not a Christian, it's impossible to please God. 11.6
- "By faith Noah … condemned the world." 11.7

- “Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed.” 11.11
- “Abraham … offered up Isaac … his only begotten son.” (To the author of Hebrews this was a good thing.) 11.17
- Moses “kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.” 11.28
- “By faith the walls of Jericho fell down.” 11.30
- “By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not.” 11.31
- The heroes of faith (Samson, Jephthah, David, and Samuel). It would be hard to find a more monstrous group than these guys. 11.32
- “Others were tortured … that they might obtain a better resurrection.” 11.35
- God always hurts the ones he loves. If he doesn’t hurt you, you’re a bastard, not a son. 12.6-8
- God ordered animals to be “stoned, or thrust through with a dart” if they “so much as … touch the mountain.” 12.20
- Avoid “strange doctrines.” Those who do so will avoid nearly everything in the Bible. 13.9

HEBREWS 1

1 God*, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,*

2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son*, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;*

(1.1-2) “God … hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son.” The author of Hebrews believed that he was living in the “last days.”

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

(1.8) "Unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever."
≠349 Is Jesus God?

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

(1.10) "Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth." God set the earth on a foundation; therefore, it does not move.

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

(1.11) "They [the earth and its foundations] shall perish."
≠147 Will the earth last forever?

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

HEBREWS 2

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

(2.16) "He took on him the seed of Abraham."
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

HEBREWS 3

3 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus*;*

(3.1-3) "Christ Jesus … was counted worthy of more glory than Moses."
≠160 Who was the greatest prophet?

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses*, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.*

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief*, in departing from the living God.*

(3.12) "Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief." Every skeptic and nonbeliever has "an evil heart of unbelief."

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

HEBREWS 4

4 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

HEBREWS 5

5 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

HEBREWS 6

6 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

(6.4-6) It is impossible for fallen-away Christians to be saved. (Didn't the author know about confession or the finality of being saved?)
≠442 Is it possible to fall from grace?

4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

(6.4) "It is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,"

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

(6.5) "And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,"

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance*; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.*

(6.6) "If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance."

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned*.*

(6.8) “That which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.” Apostates will burn in hell with the other non-believers.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

(6.13) “God … sware by himself.” God swears by himself to himself.
≠63 Is it OK to swear?

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie*, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:*

(6.18) “It was impossible for God to lie.”
≠59 Can God do anything?
≠139 Does God lie?

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

HEBREWS 7

(7.1-4) "Melchisedec … to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all … Consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils." Abraham gave Melchisedec one-tenth of all of the booty from "the slaughter of the kings," setting a fine example for religious hucksters everywhere.

*7 For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

(7.1) "Melchisedec … met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him." God showed his approval of "the slaughter of the kings" with Melchisedec's blessing of Abraham. (Genesis 14.17-18) God's 2nd killing

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

*3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

(7.3) "Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually." Melchisedec had no father or mother. He was never born (he just appeared ready-made by God) and he never died. He's still around somewhere.

≠19 Is everyone descended from Adam?
≠24 Must everyone die?

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest,

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

HEBREWS 8

8 Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

(8.6-7) ≠299 Is the law of God perfect?

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

(8.6) "He is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises."

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

(8.7) "For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second."

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

HEBREWS 9

9 Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

(9.4) "The ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant." According to this verse, the ark of the covenant had a lot more in it that was reported in 1 Kings 8.9 and 2 Chronicles 5.10, both of which say that the ark had only Moses' tablets. From the dimensions of the ark in Exodus 25.10, Aaron's staff could hardly have fit anyway, since the ark was a box only 2.5 x 1.5 x 1.5 cubits. But, hey, maybe Aaron was a little short guy, or they broke his rod into pieces, or they just crammed it all in somehow. Who knows?

≠226 What was in the Ark of the Covenant?

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

(9.13-22) God will not forgive anyone unless something is killed for him in a bloody manner.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

(9.13) "For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh."

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ*, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?*

(9.14) "How much more shall the blood of Christ."

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death*, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament,* they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

(9.15) "By means of death … they which are called … receive the promise of eternal inheritance."

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

(9.16) “Where a testament is, there must also … be … death.”

> 17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.
> 18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

(9.18) “Neither … testament was dedicated without blood.”

> 19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats*, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop,* and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

(9.19) “Moses … took the blood of calves and of goats … and sprinkled both the book, and all the people.”

> 20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

(9.20) “This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.”

> 21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

(9.21) “Sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.”

> 22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

(9.22) “All things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.”

> 23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

(9.26) "In the end of the world hath he appeared." Jesus appeared when the world was about to end. (It ended nearly two thousand years ago.)

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die*, but after this the judgment:*

(9.27) "It is appointed unto men once to die."
≠24 Must everyone die?

28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

HEBREWS 10

10 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

(10.4-11) ≠20 Does God desire animal sacrifices?

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

(10.4) "It is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins."

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not*, but a body hast thou prepared me:*

(10.5) "Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not."

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

(10.6) "In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure."

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not*, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;*

(10.8) "Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not."

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices*, which* can never take away sins*:*

(10.11) "Sacrifices … can never take away sins."

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

(10.24) "Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works."

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

(10.25) "As ye see the day approaching." The approaching day was the return of Christ.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

*27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

(10.27) “A certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.” God will soon destroy non-believers in a fiery hell.

(10.28-31) Those who disobeyed the Old Testament law were killed without mercy. It will be much worse for those who displease Jesus.

> 28 He that despised Moses’ law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

(10.28) “He that despised Moses’ law died without mercy.”

> 29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God*, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?*

(10.29) “How much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God.”

> 30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord*. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.*

(10.30) “Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord.”

> 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

(10.31) “It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.”
≠[132 Should we fear God?]

> 32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;
> 33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

(10.37) “For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.”

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

(10.38) “The just shall live by faith.”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

HEBREWS 11

11 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

(11.1) “Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” Faith is believing without evidence things that you wish were true (but aren’t).

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

(11.4) "Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous."
≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

5 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

(11.5) "Enoch was translated that he should not see death."
≠26 Has anyone ever ascended into heaven?
≠24 Must everyone die?
≠25 Did Enoch die?

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

(11.6) "Without faith it is impossible to please him."

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

(11.7) "By faith Noah … condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith."
God's first killing

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.
9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

(11.11) "Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed."
≠58 Did Sarah have faith that she would conceive?

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

(11.12) "Therefore sprang … so many as the stars … and as the sand … innumerable." (OK, so maybe that's a bit of an exaggeration.)

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham*, when he was tried,* offered up Isaac*: and he that had received the promises offered up* his only begotten son*,*

(11.17) "By faith Abraham … offered up Isaac … his only begotten son." (And this was a good thing? How messed up is that?)
≠53 How many sons did Abraham have?

18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

(11.24-27) "Moses … not fearing the wrath of the king"
≠87 Did Moses fear the king?

*28 Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

(11.28) "He kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them." The Israelites kept the passover and sprinkled blood on doorposts so that God wouldn't kill their firstborn children (like he did the Egyptians in Exodus 12.29).

*29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

(11.29a) "By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land."

(11.29b) “The Egyptians … were drowned.” (Exodus 14.27-28)

(11.32) “Time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets.” The heroes of faith: Gideon, Samson, Jephthah, David, and Samuel. It would be hard to find a more monstrous group than these guys.

> 33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,
> 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
> 35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured*, not accepting deliverance;* that they might obtain a better resurrection*:*

(11.35) “Others were tortured … that they might obtain a better resurrection.”

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

HEBREWS 12

12 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

*6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

(12.6) “Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.”

≠310 Do bad things happen to good people?

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

(12.7) "What son is he whom the father chasteneth not?" What kind of father doesn't beat his sons now and then?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards*, and not sons.*

(12.8) "If ye be without chastisement … then are ye bastards." God always hurts the ones he loves. And if God doesn't hurt you, you are a bastard, not a son.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men*, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:*

(12.14) "Follow peace with all men."

15 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

(12.20) “If so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart.”

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

(12.23) “The spirits of just men”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

*24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying*, Yet once more* I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

(12.26) “Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying … I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.” When God speaks there are earthquakes (and heavenquakes).

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

HEBREWS 13

13 Let brotherly love continue.

 (13.1) “Let brotherly love continue.”

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

(13.2) “Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.” Be hospitable to strangers. (Offer your virgin daughters to a sex-crazed mob to protect your angel guests from being raped, as Lot supposedly did in Genesis 19.)

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity*, as being yourselves also in the body.*

(13.3) “Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity.”

[42 Does God approve of slavery?]

4 Marriage is honourable in all*, and the bed undefiled:* but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

!!! (13.4) “Marriage is honourable in all … but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.”
≠15 Is marriage a good thing?
≠110 Is it wrong to commit adultery?

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have*: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.*

(13.5) “Be content with such things as ye have.”

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.
7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.
8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.
9 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines*. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.*

(13.9) “Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines.” Avoid “strange doctrines.” Those who do so will avoid nearly everything that the Bible teaches.

10 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.
11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.
12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.
13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.
14 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,

(13.20) "The God of peace"
≠99 Is God warlike or peaceful?

21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

? (13.23) "Our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you." The author of Hebrews never claims to be (and wasn't) Paul, but he wanted people to think that he was. And it worked. That's why Hebrews is in the Bible.

24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

JAMES

The coming of the Lord draweth nigh. — James 5.8

James is one of my favorite books in the Bible. I don't know, maybe it's just the ex-Catholic in me, but James doesn't contain much that is objectionable, and has some really good stuff. Evangelical Protestants, of course, don't much like the book of James, though few will admit it as openly as did their hero, Martin Luther. He despised it, calling it an "epistle of straw" since it so clearly contradicted his perverted belief that salvation comes from faith alone, independent of one's actions.

Verses seldom quoted by born-again Christians or Teabagging Republicans:

- "Be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath." 1.19
- "Pure religion … is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." 1.27
- The rich should not be treated better than the poor. 2.2-4
- "What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?" 2.14
- Help others that are in need; don't just wish them well. 2.15-16
- "Faith without works is dead." 2.17, 20, 26
- "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble." 2.19
- "By works a man is justified, and not by faith only." 2.24
- "The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace." 3.18
- "Ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." (All we are is dust in the wind.) 4.14
- "Ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you." 5.1

Of course, James also has some silly stuff. For example:

- If you are merciless to others, God will be merciless to you. (Two wrongs make a right.) 2.13
- James says that, even in his day, all beasts, birds, serpents, and sea creatures had been tamed by humans. 3.7
- If your prayers are not answered, it's your own damned fault. 4.3
- Whoever is a friend of the world is an enemy of God. 4.4
- "The coming of the Lord draweth nigh." 5.8
- If you are sick, rely on the power of prayer. It works every time. 5.14-15

JAMES 1

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom*, let him* ask of God*, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not;* and it shall be given him*.*

(1.5) "If any of you lack wisdom … ask of God … and it shall be given him." This is the verse that set the 14-year-old Joseph Smith off to found the Mormon Church. That is just an example of the type of wisdom God can give you.
≠293 Is wisdom a good thing?

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man*:*

(1.13) “God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.”
≠103 Can God be tempted?
≠65 Has God ever tempted anyone?

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin*, when it is finished,* bringeth forth death.

(1.15) “Sin … bringeth forth death.”
≠157 Does hell exist?

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

(1.17) “The Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning”
≠32 Does God repent?

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

(1.19) “Be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.”

> 20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
> 21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.
> 22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.
> 23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:
> 24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.
> 25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.
> 26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man’s religion is vain.
> 27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

(1.27) “Pure religion … is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.” If this is pure religion, I am all for it.

JAMES 2

> 2 My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

(2.2-4) The rich should not be treated better than the poor.

> 2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

(2.2) “If there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;”

> 3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

(2.3) “And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:”

> 4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

(2.4) “Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?”

> 5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?
> 6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?
> 7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?
> 8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself*, ye do well:*

(2.8) “Love thy neighbour as thyself.”
≠128 How should nonbelievers be treated?

> 9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.
> 10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

(2.10) “Whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.”

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

(2.13) "He shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy."

*14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

(2.14) "Though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?"

≠304 Is Salvation by faith alone?

(2.15-16) Help others that are in need; don't just wish them well. This is good advice, though it's unfortunate that James restricted this help to "brothers". Did he mean by this that you only need to help fellow believers?

*15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

(2.15) "If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,"

*16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

(2.16) "And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?"

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

(2.19) "The devils also believe." James ridicules those who say salvation is by faith alone. He says the devils believe in God. Will their faith save them?
≠417 Are those who believe Jesus is the Christ of God?

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?
*21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

(2.21) "Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?" James says Abraham was justified by works (for being willing to kill his son for God); Paul (Rom 4.2-3) says he was justified by faith (for believing that god ordered him to do such an evil act). They were both wrong: Abraham wasn't justified by anything. Only an evil god would ask a father to do such a thing; only an evil father would be willing to do it.
≠456 Was Abraham justified by faith or by works?

22 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?
23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.
24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.
25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

(2.25) "Was not Rahab the harlot justified by works?" (By her works as a prostitute or by lying?)
≠471 Was Rahab saved by faith or works?
≠86 Is it wrong to lie?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

JAMES 3

3 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

(3.2) "If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man." There are many smooth talking crooks out there—especially politicians!

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

*7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

(3.7) "Every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind." James says that, even in his day, all beasts, birds, serpents, and sea creatures had been tamed by humans.

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

(3.13) "Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom."

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

(3.14) "If ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth."
≠86 Is it OK to lie?

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

(3.18) "The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace."

JAMES 4

4 From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?
2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.
3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss*, that ye may* consume it upon your lusts.

(4.3) "Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss." If your prayers are not answered, it's your own damned fault.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses*, know ye not that the friendship of* the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

(4.4) "Ye adulterers and adulteresses … Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God."

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

(4.5) "Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?" James quotes a scripture that says, "The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy." But there is no such verse in the Bible.

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.
7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

(4.7) "Resist the devil, and he will flee from you."
≠470 Can the devil capture us at will?

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another*, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.*

(4.11) “Speak not evil one of another.”

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy*:* who art thou that judgest another?

(4.12a) “There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy.”
≠157 Does hell exist?

(4.12b) “Who art thou that judgest another?”
≠126 To judge or not to judge

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

(4.14) “Ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.” (All we are is dust in the wind.)

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

JAMES 5

> 5 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

(5.1) “Ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.”
≠301 Is it good to be wealthy?

> 2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten.
> 3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.
> 4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.
> 5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.
> 6 Ye have condemned and killed the just*; and he doth not resist you.*

(5.6) “Ye have condemned and killed the just.”
≠33 Has the ever been a just person?

> 7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.
> 8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh*.*

(5.8) “The coming of the Lord draweth nigh.”

> 9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

(5.11) "The Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy."
≠120 Is God merciful?

12 But above all things*, my brethren,* swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

(5.12) "Above all things … swear not."
≠63 Is it okay to take oaths?

(5.13-16) If you are sick, rely on the power of prayer. It works every time.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray*. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.*

(5.13) "Is any among you afflicted? let him pray."

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

(5.14) "Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord."

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick*, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.*

(5.15) "The prayer of faith shall save the sick."

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed*. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

(5.16a) “Pray one for another, that ye may be healed.”

(5.16b) “The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.”
≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

17 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

(5.17) “Elias … prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.”
≠237 How long was Elijah’s drought?
God’s 92nd Killing

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death*, and shall hide a multitude of sins.*

(5.20) “He which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death.”
≠157 Does hell exist?

1 PETER

Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. — 1 Peter 2.18

The author claims to be the apostle Peter (1:1), but most scholars think it was forged. Illiterate (Acts 4.13), Aramaic-speaking, first century, Palestinian Jews didn't write letters in Greek.

There are a few things in First Peter that should be of interest to skeptics. Slavery is approved in 2:18, women are insulted in 3.1-7, and believers are told not to run away from skeptics in 3.15.

Here are the highlights.

- We are all predestined to be saved or damned. We have no say in the matter. It was all determined by "the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ." 1.2
- The author believed that he was living in the "last times." 1.5, 1.7, 1.20, 4.7
- "Gird up the loins of your mind." 1.13
- "The precious blood of Christ … was foreordained before the foundation of the world." 1.19-20
- "All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away." 1.24
- "Submit yourselves … to the king." 2.13, 17
- Slaves should "be subject to [their] masters with all fear," to the bad and cruel as well as the good and gentle. 2.18
- "Wives, be in subjection to your own husbands." 3.1
- Women are to use "chaste conversation, coupled with fear." 3.2
- They are not to braid their hair, wear gold, or put on any "apparel." 3.3
- A wife should call her husband "Lord" as Sarah did. 3.6
- In relation to her husband, the wife is "the weaker vessel." 3.7

- “Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you.” 3.15
- God drowned everyone on earth except for Noah and his family. 3.20
- Things may get rough for Christians, but it will really be hell for nonbelievers. 4.17-18
- “The devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.” 5.8

1 PETER 1

> 1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ*, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,*

(1.1) “Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ”
The author of 1 Peter claims to be the apostle Peter. Most Bible scholars, however, believe it was forged. (According to Acts 4.13, Peter was illiterate.)

> 2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ*: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.*

(1.2) “Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through … the … sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ.” We are all, according to Peter, predestined to be saved or damned. We have no say in the matter. It was all determined by “the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ.”

> 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
> 4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,
> 5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

(1.5) “Salvation … revealed in the last time”

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

(1.7) “Your faith … might be found … at the appearing of Jesus Christ.”

8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

(1.13) “Gird up the loins of your mind.”

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man’s work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:

> 19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:
> 20 Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

(1.19-20a) “The precious blood of Christ … was foreordained before the foundation of the world.” God planned to kill Jesus from the get-go.
God’s 135th Killing

(1.20b) “In these last times”

> 21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.
> 22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:
> 23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.
> 24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

(1.24) “All flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.” Life is ephemeral. Enjoy it while you can.

> 25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

1 PETER 2

2 Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

(2.1) "Laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings" Avoid evil, malice, hypocrisy, and envy. Don't speak badly about others.

2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that*, whereas they speak against you as evildoers,* they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

(2.12) “That … they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God.”
≠339 Should we let others see our good works?

> 13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord’s sake: whether it be to the king*, as supreme;*
> 14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

⚖ (2.13a) “Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man.” Even unjust laws and dictators?
≠449 Should we obey human or divine law?

⚖ ? (2.13b-14) “Submit yourselves … to the king … for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.” Monarchy is the Biblically-approved form of government whose purpose is to punish evildoers and praise do-gooders.

> 15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:
> 16 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.
> 17 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

⚖ (2.17) “Fear God. Honour the king.”
≠132 Should we fear God?

> 18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

⚖ (2.18) “Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.” Slaves should “be subject to [their] masters with all fear,” to the bad and cruel as well as the good and gentle.
≠336 Should we serve God alone?
≠42 Does God approve of slavery?

19 For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

1 PETER 3

3 Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

♀ (3.1) “Wives, be in subjection to your own husbands.”
≠464 Should women have the same rights as men?

♀ (3.2-6) Wives are to use “chaste conversation, coupled with fear.” They are not to braid their hair, wear gold, or put on any “apparel.” They are to do these things in imitation of the “holy” women of the Old Testament who were “in subjection to their own husbands: even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord.”

*2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

(3.2) “While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.”

3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel*;*

(3.3) “Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel.”

4 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

(3.5) “For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands.”

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord*: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.*

(3.6) “Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord.”

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife*, as unto* the weaker vessel*, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.*

♀ (3.7) “The wife … the weaker vessel”

(3.8-11) Be compassionate and courteous. Don’t seek revenge when you are harmed by another. Speak kindly of others. Do good and avoid evil.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous*:*

(3.8) “Having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous.”

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing*: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.*

(3.9) "Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing"

10 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile*:*

(3.10) "Let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile."

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

(3.11) "Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it."

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

(3.13) "Who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?"

≠310 Do bad things happen to good people?

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

(3.15) "Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you." Christians should be ready to explain why they believe what they do. This is a good verse to remember when they refuse to debate you.

≠468 Should believers discuss their faith with non-believers?

> 16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.
> 17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.
> 18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:
> 19 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;
> 20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

(3.20) "Eight souls were saved by water." God drowned everyone on earth except for Noah and his family. This verse is used by young-earth Creationists to show that New Testament writers believed the Old Testament stories.

1 PETER 4

> 4 Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

(4.7) “The end of all things is at hand.”

*8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

(4.8) “Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.”

*9 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

(4.9) “Use hospitality one to another without grudging.”

10 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

*15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

(4.15) "Let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters."

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

(4.17-18) Things may get rough for Christians, but it will really be hell for nonbelievers.

*17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

(4.17) "Judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?"

*18 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

(4.18) "And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?."

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

1 PETER 5

5 The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

(5.8) "The devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour."
≠287 Is the devil free to roam?

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 PETER

Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. — 2 Peter 3.4

Although this epistle claims to have been written by Peter, he was almost certainly not its author. It was written around 90-100 CE, long after Peter's death. The late date (probably the last of the New Testament books to be written) is suspected because: verses 3.3-4 make excuses for the failure of the expected second coming of Christ; the author refers to "all of the letters of Paul" in a way that indicates that Paul's epistles were already considered equal to "the other scriptures;" and the epistle depends upon the letter of Jude, which is thought to have been written around 80-100 CE.

There's some embarrassing stuff in Second Peter. Noah is a "preacher of righteousness" (2.5), Lot is "a just and righteous man" (2.7-8), God plans to burn up the entire earth (3.10), and believers were already making excuses for Jesus' non-return 1900 years ago (3.4-8).

Here are the highlights.

- "No prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation." That's just your interpretation. 1.20
- "There shall be false teachers among you, who … shall bring in damnable heresies … and bring upon themselves swift destruction … Their damnation slumbereth not." 2.1-3
- "God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness." 2.4
- "Noah … a preacher of righteousness." God drowned everyone on earth except for Noah [the first drunken "preacher of righteousness" (see Gen 9.20)] and his family. 2.5, 3.6
- Lot, who in Gen 19.8 offers his two virgin daughters to a crowd of angel rapers and later gets drunk and impregnates them (19.30-38), is a "just" and "righteous man." 2.7-8

- God knows how to punish those that lust or “despise government.” (Watch out Teabaggers!) 2.9-14
- The author believes the story in Numbers (22.28-30) about the talking ass. 2.16
- Those who lose their faith are like dogs that eat their own vomit. 2.22
- The author of 2 Peter is aware of the failed expectations of early believers. He knows that Jesus, who was supposed to come soon, didn’t come at all. Many have begun to ask, “Where is the promise of his coming?” So he makes up the “one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.” Believers have been using it ever since. 3.4-8
- God will set the entire earth on fire so that he can burn non-believers to death. 3.7
- When Jesus finally comes, the heavens will “pass away with a great noise” and the earth will “be burnt up.” 3.10
- Paul’s epistles are hard to understand; those who try to understand them, as with the other scriptures, do so “unto their own destruction.” 3.16

2 PETER 1

1 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

? (1.1, 3.1) “Simon Peter”
Although this epistle claims to have been written by Peter, he was almost certainly not its author. It is thought to have been written around 90-100 CE, long after Peter’s death. The late date is suspected because: 1) verses 3:3-4 make excuses for the failure of the expected second coming of Christ, 2) the author refers to “all of the letters of Paul” in a way that indicates that Paul’s epistles were already considered equal to “the other scriptures”, and 3) the epistle depends upon the letter of Jude, which is thought to have been written around 80-100 CE.

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

? (1.20) "No prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation." That's just your interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

2 PETER 2

(2.1-3) The basic message of Christianity is "believe or be damned" and from this flows intolerance toward all non-Christians. But, as these verses show, Christian intolerance is often directed toward believers as well. Each group of Christians accuses the others of being "false teachers" of "damnable heresies" who will soon be damned to hell.

2 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

(2.1) "There shall be false teachers among you, who … shall bring in damnable heresies … and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

2 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not,

and their damnation slumbereth not.

(2.3) “Their damnation slumbereth not.”

4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

(2.4) “God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness.”

7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:
8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

(2.7-8) “Just Lot … that righteous man” Lot [who in Gen 19.8 offers his two virgin daughters to a crowd of angel rapers and later

2 PETER 3

3 This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

? (3.1) "This second epistle … I now write unto you." See note for 1.1.

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

(3.3-8) The author of 2 Peter is aware of the failed expectations of early believers. Jesus, who was to come soon, didn't come at all. Many "scoffers" have begun to ask, "Where is the promise of his coming?" He tries to cover for Jesus by claiming that "one day with the Lord is as a thousand years." It has been used by believers ever since.

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

(3.3) "There shall come in the last days scoffers."

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

(3.4) "Saying, where is the promise of his coming?"

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

(3.6) "The world … being overflowed with water, perished." God drowned everyone on earth except for Noah and his family.
God's first killing

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

(3.7) "The heavens and the earth … are … reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men." God will set the entire earth on fire so that he can burn non-believers to death.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

(3.8) "One day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day."

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

(3.9) "The Lord is … not willing that any should perish."
≠311 Does God want some people to go to hell?

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

(3.10) "The earth … shall be burned up." When Jesus finally comes, the heavens will "pass away with a great noise" and the earth will "be burnt up."
≠147 Will the earth last forever?

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,
12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?
13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

(3.13) “We … look for new heavens and a new earth.”
≠147 Will the earth last forever?
≠314 What’s new?

> 14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
>
> 15 And account that the long suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;
> 16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

(3.16) “In all his epistles … are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.” Paul’s epistles are hard to understand. And that those who try to understand them, as with the other scriptures, do so “unto their own destruction.”

> 17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.
> 18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

1 JOHN

It is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.
— 1 John 2.18

The three Johannine epistles are all anonymously written, as was the gospel of John. No one knows who any of these "Johns" were, but none of them was who believers have always believed him to be: the apostle John, "the beloved disciple." The three epistles and the Gospel of John share enough features, however, that they are thought to have been written by members of the same community, and the three Johannine epistles may have been written by the same non-John.

Here are some things you should know from First John:

Whoever says she is without sin is a liar (1.8) and Christians don't sin (3.6). So a Christian lies if he says he doesn't sin (since everyone sins) and he lies if he says that he sins (since Christians don't sin). Which means, I guess, that all true Christians are liars.

The "John" of First John knew he was living in the last days since there were so many antichrists around at that time (2.18). But since antichrists are people that don't believe that Jesus is the Christ (2.22), all non-Christians are antichrists. So there must be somewhere around five billion antichrists alive today (depending on whether you count Catholics or not), which is a heck of a lot more than there were in "John's" day. Which means we are living in the latter day last days. Or something like that.

Here are some more highlights:

- Whoever says he is without sin is a liar. 1.8
- Christians don't sin; whoever sins is of the devil. 3.6-10
- Those who love others are in the light; those who hate are in darkness. 2.9-11

- Don’t love the world or anything in it. 2.15
- The author knows he is living in the last days because there are so many antichrists around. 2.18
- Antichrists are people who don’t believe Jesus is the Christ. 2.22, 4.3
- Get ready because Jesus is coming soon. 2.28
- When Jesus returns, he’ll be just like “John”. 3.2
- Whatever you ask Jesus for, Jesus will give you. 3.22
- “God is love.” 4.8, 4.16
- You’re not living unless you’ve got Jesus. 5.12
- There is a sin unto death.” (But no one knows what it is.) 5.16-17
- Christians are of God; everyone else is wicked. 5.19

1 JOHN 1

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

(1.7) “The blood of Jesus Christ … cleanseth us from all sin.”

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us*.*

(1.8, 10) “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us … If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.”
≠229 Do Christians sin?

9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(1.9) “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins.”
≠168 Does God forgive sins?

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1 JOHN 2

2 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
2 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

(2.2) “He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.”
≠157 Does hell exist?

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.
4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

(2.9-11) Those who love others are "in the light"; those who hate are "in darkness".

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

(2.9) "He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness."

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light*, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.*

(2.10) "He that loveth his brother abideth in the light."

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness*, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.*

(2.11) "But he that hateth his brother is in darkness."

12 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

(2.13) “I write unto you, fathers.”
≠108 Is it OK to call someone father?

> 14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.
> 15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

(2.15) “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world.” But according to John 3.16, God loves the world. If he does, then shouldn’t we?

> 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
> 17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.
> 18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

(2.18) “It is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.” It is the last time. Even now there are many antichrists. (That’s how you can be sure it’s the last time.)

> 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

(2.19) “They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us.” Many Christians interpret this verse to mean that it is impossible for a true believer to become an unbeliever. (They become antichrists instead.)

20 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

(2.22) “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.” Non-Christians are liars and antichrists. (There are about five billion of us now living.)

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

(2.25) “This is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.” ≠167 Is death final?

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

(2.28) “And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.” The author warns his followers to get ready because Jesus is coming soon.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

1 JOHN 3

3 Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

(3.2) "We know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." The author expects to live to see Jesus return.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

(3.6-10) ≠229 Do Christians sin?

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

(3.6) "Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him."

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

(3.8) “He that committeth sin is of the devil.”

> 9 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
> 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

(3.9-10) “Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil.”

> 11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

(3.11) “We should love one another.”

> 12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother’s righteous.
> 13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.
> 14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.
> 15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

(3.15) “Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.”
≠127 Should we love or hate our brother?

> 16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
> 17 But whoso hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?
> 18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

(3.18) “Let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.”

> 19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.
> 20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

(3.20) “God … knoweth all things.”
≠[18 Does God know everything?]

> 21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.
> 22 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

(3.22) “Whatsoever we ask, we receive of him.” How’sthat for a big lie?

> 23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.
> 24 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

1 JOHN 4

> 4 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

(4.1) “Believe not every spirit.”
≠[308 Should we believe everything?]

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

(4.2) “Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God.”
≠417 Are those who believe Jesus is the Christ of God?

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

(4.3) “Every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh … is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.” All non-christians are antichrists. That there are so darned many of them (5 billion or so) is a sure sign that the end is near.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.
5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.
6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
*7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

(4.7) “Let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.”

*8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

(4.8) “God is love.”
≠131 Does God love everyone?
≠294 Is God the creator of evil?
≠132 Should we fear God?

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

(4.9) “God sent his only begotten Son”
≠28 Was Jesus God’s only son?

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.
12 No man hath seen God at any time*.* If we love one another, God dwelleth in us*, and his love is perfected in us.*

(4.12a) “No man hath seen God at any time.”
≠49 Has anyone seen God?

(4.12b) “If we love one another, God dwelleth in us.”

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
14 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.
15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

(4.15) “Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.”
≠417 Are those who believe Jesus is the Christ of God?

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

(4.16) “God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.”

17 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear*: because fear hath torment.* He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

(4.18a) “There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear.”

(4.18b) “He that feareth is not made perfect in love.”
≠132 Should we fear God?

19 We love him, because he first loved us.
20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar*: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?*
21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

(4.20-21) “If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar … He who loveth God love his brother also.”
≠127 Should we love or hate our brother?

1 JOHN 5

5 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God*: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.*

(5.1) “Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God.”
≠417 Are those who believe Jesus is the Christ of God?

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.
3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.
4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

(5.7) "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one." This is the clearest, and pretty much the only, expression of the Trinitarian concept in the Bible. It is not, however, found in the earliest Greek manuscripts and is omitted from most modern translations. Here, for example, are verses 7-8 in the New Revised Standard Version: "There are three that testify: the Spirit and the water and the blood, and these three agree."
≠9 How many gods are there?

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

(5.12) "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life." You're not living unless you've got Jesus.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

*17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

(5.16, 17) “There is a sin unto death.” (But no one knows what it is.)

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

(5.18) “Whosoever is born of God sinneth not.”
≠229 Do Christians sin?

*19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

(5.19) “We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.” Christians are of God; everyone else is wicked.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

2 JOHN

If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed. — 2 John 10

Second John is an interesting little epistle. It reminds Christians to "love one another," while shunning everyone else. Believers are to associate only with like-minded believers; all others are godless antichrists that true-believers shouldn't even say "Howdy" to.

Here are some highlights:

- "Love one another." Except for all those antichrists (non-Christians), that is. Stay the hell away from them. (See verses 7-10) 5
- Non-Christians are deceivers and antichrists. 7
- "Whosoever … abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God." 9
- Don't associate with non-Christians. Don't receive them into your house or even exchange greeting with them. 10

2 JOHN 1

1 The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

(5) “Love one another.” Except for all those antichrists (non-Christians), that is. Stay the hell away from them. (See verses 7-10)

> 6 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.
> 7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

(7) “Many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.” Non-Christians are deceivers and antichrists.

> 8 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.
>
> 9 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

(9) “Whosoever … abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God.”

> 10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:

(10) “If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed.” Don’t associate with non-Christians. Don’t receive them into your house or even exchange greetings with them.

≠468 Should believers discuss their faith with non-believers?

> 11 For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.
>
> 12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.
> 13 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

3 JOHN

I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words. — 3 John 10

If you measure by the number of words, 3 John is the shortest book in the Bible. There's not much to say about it, since it doesn't say very much.

Here are a few highlights (if you can call them that):

- "I will remember his [Diotrephes] deeds ... pratting against us with malicious words." 10
- "Follow not that which is evil, but that which is good." 11a
- "He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God." 11b

3 JOHN 1

1 The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

⚖ !!! (10) "I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words."

*11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

👍 (11a) "Follow not that which is evil, but that which is good." Do good. Avoid evil.

😊 (11b) "He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God."
≠229 Do Christians sin?
≠298 Does anyone ever do anything good?

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

13 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

JUDE

To convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken. — Jude 15

The author claims to be "Jude, the brother of James," which, if true (which it wasn't, of course), would make him the brother of Jesus, too, since "the Lord's brother" (Gal 1.19) was the most famous James among believers at the time.

No one knows who wrote this epistle, but whoever it was liked to call people names. Ungodly men ordained to condemnation, filthy dreamers, defilers of the flesh, ungodly sinners, murmurers, complainers, mockers walking in their own ungodly lusts—all in just 25 verses!

Here are some highlights:

- God pre-ordained that certain "ungodly" men would deny Jesus. 4
- "The Lord … destroyed them that believed not." 5
- "The angels which kept not their first estate" (The angels referred to here are the "sons of God" that had sex with human females to produce a race of giants in Gen 6.4.) 6
- God sent "eternal fire" on the people of Sodom and Gomorrah for "going after strange flesh." 7-8
- Michael the Archangel argued with the devil about the body of Moses. 9
- Enoch, "the seventh from Adam," prophesied that God would come with 10,000 of his saints "to execute judgment upon all." 14-15
- "To convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken." 15
- "Remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles … that they told you there should be mockers in the last time." (The author of Jude thought he was living in "the last time.") 17-18

JUDE

1 Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

(1) "Jude, the … brother of James" The author claims to be "Jude, the brother or James," which means he is also claiming to be the brother of Jesus, since that was the most famous James among believers at the time ((Gal 1.19). He was lying, of course.

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

 (2) "Mercy … peace, and love, be multiplied."

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men*, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and* denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

(4) "There are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men … denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." God pre-ordained that certain "ungodly" men would deny Jesus.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord*, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward* destroyed them that believed not.

(5) "The Lord … destroyed them that believed not."

6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

(6) "The angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day." The angels referred to here are the "sons of God" that had sex with human females to produce a race of giants. (See Gen 6.4)

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah*, and the cities about them in like manner,* giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh*, are set forth for an example,* suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.
8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh*, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.*

(7-8) "As Sodom and Gomorrah … giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh … suffering the vengeance of eternal fire …. these filthy dreamers defile the flesh." God sent "eternal fire" on the people of Sodom and Gomorrah for "going after strange flesh."

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses*, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.*

(9) "Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses." This story is taken from the non-canonical book, The Assumption of Moses.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all*, and* to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

(14-15a) "Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all." This prophecy is from the Book of Enoch (which the author considered scripture and believed was written by Enoch), not from the Bible.

≠[27 Was Enoch the seventh from Adam?]

(15b) "To convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken." (Ungodly was the author of Jude's favorite word.)

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts*; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.*

(16) "These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts."

17 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

(17) "Remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles." Jude was written in post-apostolic times, so it's author could not have been the apostle Jude (Luke 6:16; Acts 1:13; cf John 14:22) as believers sometimes claim.

18 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

(18) "That they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts." The author of Jude thought he was living in "the last time."

19 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.
20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost,
21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.
22 And of some have compassion, making a difference*:*

(22) "And of some have compassion, making a difference." Make a difference in the world by having some compassion.

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.
24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,
25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

REVELATION

The time is at hand. — Revelation 1.3, 22.10

Everything in Revelation should probably be highlighted, because it's all violent, cruel, or absurd in one way or another. But that would make it too hard to read, and it's hard enough as it is.

Revelation has my vote for the worst book in the Bible. And since the Bible, Quran, and the Book of Mormon are the three worst books ever written, that's saying something.

Here are some highlights:

- John believes "the time is at hand," and that the things that he writes about in Revelation will "shortly come to pass." 1.1, 3; 22.10
- Jesus has white hair, eyes of fire, feet of brass, and has a sword sticking out of his mouth. 1.13-16
- "I have the keys to hell and death." 1.18
- False Jews are members of "the synagogue of Satan." 2.9, 3.9
- "Behold, I come quickly." 3.11; 22.7, 12, 20
- Death and Hell kill 1/4 the human population. 6.8
- Only 144,000 celibate, male, Jews will be saved. (Those who were not "defiled with women.") 7.4, 14.3-4
- Horse-like locusts with human heads, women's hair, lion's teeth, and scorpion's tails. They sting people and torture them for five months. 9.7-10
- Four angels, with an army of 200 million, killed a third of the earth's population. 9.15-19
- An angel tells John to eat a book. He does, and it tastes good, but it makes his belly bitter. 10.10
- God will send an earthquake that will kill 7000 people. 11.13
- "There was a war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon." Even in heaven, you can't be safe from war or dragons. 12.7

- Those who receive the mark of the beast will "drink of the wine of the wrath of God … and shall be tormented with fire and brimstone … and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever." 14.10-11
- Jesus and his angel friends slaughter people with sickles. 14.14-20
- "The great winepress of the wrath of God … was trodden … and the blood came … even unto the horse bridles." 14.19-20
- The great harlot is "full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication." She will be made "desolate and naked," and her flesh will be eaten by kings. 17.1-16
- Jesus, whose clothes are dipped in blood, has a sharp sword sticking out of his mouth while he treads the winepress of the wrath of God. 19.13-15
- An angel calls all the fowls to feast upon dead human bodies, or as the angel calls it "the supper of the great God." (Angel food?) 19.17-18
- Whoever isn't found listed in the book of life, along with the fearful or unbelieving, will be cast into the lake of fire. 20.15, 21.8
- Anyone who adds to the words in Revelation (or to the rest of the Bible?) will be struck with plagues, and anyone that tries to remove anything from it will have his name removed from the book of life. 22.18-19

(1.1a) "The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him … sent … by his angel unto his servant John." The book of Revelation was revealed to Jesus by God and was delivered by an angel to a guy named John.

(1.1b, 3) “Things which must shortly come to pass … The time is at hand.” John believed that the things that he wrote about would happen soon, within his own lifetime. After nearly 2000 years, believers still believe that “the time is at hand” and that the events described in Revelation will “shortly come to pass.”

REVELATION 2

(2.1-7) To the angel of the church of Ephesus
Jesus has something against the church of Ephesus. It left its first love and unless it repents, he will take away its candlestick. Still, Jesus and Ephesus have something in common: they hate the deeds of Nicolaitanes. Whoever overcomes, will get the tree of life.

> 2 Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks*;*

(2.1) “These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks.”

> 2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:
> 3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name’s sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.
> 4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

(2.4) “I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.”

> 5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

(2.5) “I will … remove thy candlestick … except thou repent.”

*6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

(2.6) “Thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.”

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

(2.7) “To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life.”

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

(2.9-11) To the angel of the church in Smyrna
Jesus knows all about those blaspheming false Jews who are card-carrying members of the synagogue of Satan. Those that overcome will not be hurt by the second death.

*9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

(2.9) “I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.”

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.
*11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

(2.11) “He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.”

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

(2.13-17) To the angel of the church in Pergamos

Jesus knows where Satan lives: the town of Pergamos! And Jesus has a few things against that town, too. There was that stuff a while back with Balaam and Balac, eating things sacrificed to idols, fornication, and whatnot. But what he really hates is the doctrine of Nicolaitanes. Repent or Jesus will fight with the sword that sticks out of his mouth. Whoever overcomes will get some manna to eat, along with a white stone with their own secret name written on it.

> 13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is*: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain* among you, where Satan dwelleth.

(2.13) "I know … even where Satan's seat is … Among you, where Satan dwelleth."

> 14 But I have a few things against thee*, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.*

(2.14) "I have a few things against thee."

> 15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

(2.15) "So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate."

> 16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

(2.16) "Repent; or else I … will fight against them with the sword of my mouth."

> 17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

(2.17) "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name … which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it."

(2.18-28) To the angel of the church in Thyatira
Jesus has a few things against Thyatira, too. Jezebel has taught them to fornicate and eat things sacrificed to idols. So Jesus will throw Jezebel and her sex partners into a bed of torture. Then he'll kill her children (with death). Whoever overcomes will rule everyone else with an iron rod, smashing the others to pieces. Jesus will even throw in the morning star (the planet Venus?) as a bonus prize.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

(2.18) "These things saith the the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass."

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.
20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel*, which calleth herself a prophetess,* to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication*, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.*

(2.20) "I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel … to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication."

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.
22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation*, except they repent of their deeds.*

(2.22) "I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation."

> *23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

(2.23a) "I will kill her children with death."

(2.23b) "I will give unto every one of you according to your works."
≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

> 24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.
> 25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.
> *26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

(2.26) "He that overcometh … to him will I give power over the nations."

> 27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

(2.27) "He shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers."

> *28 And I will give him the morning star.

(2.28) "And I will give him the morning star."

> 29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

REVELATION 3

(3.1-5) To the angel of the church in Sardis
The guy with the seven spirits of God (Does that include the Holy Spirit?) and the seven stars has noticed that there are a few worthy Sardisians among the living dead that haven't yet soiled their clothes; they will get to walk around with Jesus wearing white, for they are worthy. Whoever else overcomes will get some white garments too, and Jesus will mention his (or her?) name in front of God and his angels.

> 3 And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

(3.1a) "These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars."

(3.1b-4) "Thou livest, and art dead … Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy."

> 2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.
> 3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.
> 4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.
> 5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

(3.5) "He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels."

> 6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(3.7-12) To the angel of the church in Philadelphia
Jesus will force Jews (members of the synagogue of Satan) to worship before the feet of Christian Philadelphians. Jesus will come quickly; hang on to your crown until he arrives. Whoever overcomes will have the names of God, God's city (new Jerusalem), and Jesus' new name tattooed on him (or her?), and Jesus will do the tattooing himself!

> 7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;
> 8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.
> 9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

(3.9) "I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet."

> 10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.
> *11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

(3.11) "Behold, I come quickly: hold … thy crown."

> *12 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

(3.12) "Him that overcometh will I … write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem …

and I will write upon him my new name."

> 13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

(3.14-21) To the angel of the church of the Laodiceans

The Amen (aka Jesus) will spit the Laodiceans out of his mouth because they are lukewarm, and the Amen likes things either hot or cold. The Amen says to buy gold, white clothes, and eye salve. Whoever overcomes will get to sit with the Amen in his throne, who sits in his Father's throne. So I guess all three of you will sit in the same throne together. (I'm not sure who will be on the bottom.)

> 14 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

(3.14) "These things saith the Amen."

> 15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.
> *16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

(3.16) "Because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth."

> 17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:
> 18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

(3.18) "Buy … gold … white raiment … and eyesalve."

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

(3.21) "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I … am set down with my Father in his throne."

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

REVELATION 4

(4.1-5) John's spirit goes to heaven and sees "the seven Spirits of God."

4 After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said*, Come up hither, and* I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

(4.1) "A door was opened in heaven: and the first voice … was … a trumpet talking with me; which said … I will shew thee things which must be hereafter."

2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and*, behold,* a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

(4.2) "Immediately I was in the spirit: and … a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne."

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

(4.3) “He that sat was … like a jasper and a sardine stone.”

*4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

(4.4) “Round … the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats … elders sitting, clothed in white … and they had on their heads crowns of gold.”

*5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

(4.5) “Out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.”

(4.6-10) John sees four beasts (lion, calf, man, eagle) each with six wings and “full of eyes.”

*6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

(4.6) “Before the throne there was a sea of glass … and … four beasts full of eyes before and behind.”

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

(4.7) “The first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle."

> 8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

(4.8) "The four beasts had … six wings … and they were full of eyes … saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come."

> 9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,
> 10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

(4.10) "The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him … and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,"

> 11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

(4.11) "Thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." God created parasites, pathogens, and predators for his own pleasure. He likes to watch things suffer.

REVELATION 5

(5.1-14) John sees a book with seven seals and an angel that screams, "Who can open the book?" But no one in heaven or on earth could do it. Until "the lion of the tribe of Judah" gave it a try. He opened the seals with no problem and then transformed into a 7-eyed, 7-horned, dead lamb with the 7 Spirits of God. The point is, I guess, that both the lion and the lamb are really Jesus, and only he (they?) have the strength to break the seals. So he does it and everyone (the 100 million angels and monsters in heaven, and all the animals on earth) says how great he is for doing it.

> 5 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

(5.1) "I saw … a book … sealed with seven seals."

> 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

(5.2) "And … a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?"

> 3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth*, neither under the earth,* was able to open the book*, neither to look thereon.*

(5.3) "No man in heaven, nor in earth … was able to open the book."

> 4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.
> 5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda*, the Root of David,* hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

(5.5) "The Lion of the tribe of Juda … hath prevailed to open the book."

> 6 And I beheld*, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood* a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

(5.6) “I beheld … a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God.”

> 7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

(5.7) “He came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.”

> 8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

(5.8) “When he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours.”

> 9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

(5.9) “And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy … for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood.”

> 10 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.
> 11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

(5.11) “I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands.”

> 12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

(5.12) “Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.”

> 13 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

(5.13) “And every creature … saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.”

> 14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

(5.14) “And the four beasts said, Amen.”

REVELATION 6

(6.1-17) Jesus (the 7-horned, 7-eyed, 7-holy spirited dead lamb from chapter 5) begins breaking seals and all kinds of bad shit happens. Before each seal is broken, a beast tells John to “come and see.”

> 6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

First seal: A man on a white horse goes conquering.

> 2 And I saw*, and behold* a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow*; and a crown was given unto him:* and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.*

(6.2) “I saw … a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow … and he went forth conquering.”

> 3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

Second seal: A man with a big sword on a red horse forces people to kill each other.

> *4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

(6.4) “Another horse … was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.”

Third seal: A man on a black horse with a balance in his hand.

> *5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

(6.5) “I beheld … a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.”

> 6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

Fourth seal: A pale horse with a rider named Death with Hell following was given power to kill one quarter of the earth’s population with the sword, starvation, and “the beasts of the earth.”

> 7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

*8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

(6.8) "I … behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth."

Fifth seal: Dead martyrs. (This is the excuse for all the other killing.)

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

(6.9) "When he had opened the fifth seal, I saw… the souls of them that were slain for the word of God."

(6.10-11) The martyrs just can't wait until everyone is slaughtered. God gives them white robes and tells them to wait until he's done with his killing spree.

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

(6.10) "They cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord … dost thou not … avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?"

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

(6.11) "White robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest … until … their brethren … be killed."

Sixth seal: A great earthquake, the sun becomes black, and the moon red, the stars fall from heaven, mountains and islands move around, and everyone on earth wishes they were dead (if they're not already).

> 12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

(6.12) "There was a great earthquake; and the sun became black … and the moon became as blood."

> 13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth*, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.*

(6.13) "The stars of heaven fell unto the earth."

> 14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

(6.14) "Heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places."

> 15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

(6.15) "The … men … hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains."

> 16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

(6.16) "And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from … the wrath of the Lamb."

> 17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

(6.17) “For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?”

REVELATION 7

> 7 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth*, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.*

(7.1) “I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth.” The earth is flat and square-shaped.

(7.2-3) God tells his murderous angels to “hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of your God on their foreheads.”

Christians like to use the first part of verse 7.3 to show God’s loving concern for the environment. But the last part makes it clear that it was the angel’s God-given job to “hurt the earth and the sea” just as soon as they finish their forehead-marking job.

> 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

(7.2) “I saw another angel … and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,”

> 3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

(7.3) “Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.”

*4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

 (7.4) “The number … sealed … were … an hundred and forty and four thousand … of the children of Israel.” 144,000 Jews will be going to heaven; everyone else is going to hell.

Few Christians take the 144,000 number seriously, of course. But the Jehovah’s Witnesses do. Boy do they ever! They believe that there are two distinct classes of believers: the 144,000 “Anointed” that are going to heaven and the “Great Crowd” that will remain here on earth. The WatchTower teaches that heaven closed in 1935, and that everyone else will either be killed at Armageddon (if they are not JWs) or live forever on earth.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.
6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nepthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

(7.6) “Of the tribe of Manasses”
≠[84 What were the 12 tribes of Israel?]

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.
8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.
9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

(7.14) "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." Those that survive the great tribulation will get to wash their clothes in the blood of the lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

REVELATION 8

(8.1-13) Seventh seal

8 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

(8.1) “When he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.” That must have been nice.

> *2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

(8.2) “The seven angels … were given seven trumpets.” When the seventh and last seal is opened, seven angels were given seven trumpets. When they start blowing them, all hell breaks loose.

> 3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.
> 4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel’s hand.
> *5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

(8.5) “The angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.”

> 6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

First trumpet: Hail and fire mixed with blood are cast down to earth, burning 1/3 of all the trees and all of the grass.

> *7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

(8.7) “The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.”

Second trumpet: A burning mountain is thrown into the sea, causing 1/3 of it to become blood, killing 1/3 of all sea life, and destroying 1/3 of the ships.

> 8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

(8.8) "The second angel sounded, and … a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood."

> 9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

(8.9) "And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea … died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed."

Third trumpet: a great star (Wormwood) fell into the rivers, making them "bitter" and killing "many men."

> 10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers*, and upon the fountains of waters;*

(8.10) "The third angel sounded, and … a great star … fell upon the third part of the rivers."

> 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood*: and the third part of the waters became wormwood;* and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

(8.11) "The name of the star is called Wormwood … and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter."

Fourth trumpet: One-third of the sun, moon, and stars are "smitten".

> 12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

(8.12) "The fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars."

13 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

(8.13) "I … heard an angel flying through … heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth"

REVELATION 9

(9.1-21) The fifth trumpet: Another star falls; this star was given the key to a bottomless pit, containing smoke and locusts that have the power of scorpions.
The locust/scorpions are told not to "hurt the grass [How could they? All the grass was killed in 8.7] … but only those men which have not the seal of God on their foreheads." The scorpion-torture goes on for five months. (Since only 144,000 Israelites were marked on their foreheads, everyone else will get the 5-month scorpion torture.) Those tormented will want to die, but God won't let them.
God's locust/scorpions will look like horses with human heads, women's hair, and lion's teeth.

9 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

(9.1) "The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit."

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

(9.2) “He opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke … and the sun and the air were darkened.”

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

(9.3) “There came out of the smoke locusts.”

*4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

(9.4) “It was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass … neither any green thing … but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.”

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

(9.5) “To them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion.”

*6 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

(9.6) “In those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.”

*7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

(9.7) “The locusts were like unto horses … and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.”

> 8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

(9.8) “They had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.”

> 9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

(9.9) “They had breastplates … of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots.”

> 10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

(9.10) “They had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.”

> 11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.
> 12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

Sixth trumpet: Four angels with an army of 200 million, kill a third of the earth’s population.

(9.13-15) “The sixth angel sounded, and … four angels were loosed … to slay the third part of men.”

> 13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,
> 14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

*15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

(9.16) "The army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand."

*17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

(9.17) "The heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone."

*18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

(9.18) "By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths."

*19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

(9.19) "Their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt."

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

(9.20) “The rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not.”

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

REVELATION 10

(10.1-11) An angel tells John to eat a book. He does, and it tastes as sweet as honey. But later it made his belly bitter.

10 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

(10.1) “I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire.”

*2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

(10.2) “He had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth.”

*3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

(10.3) “When he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.”

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

(10.5-6) "The angel … sware by him that liveth for ever … that there should be time no longer."
≠63 Is it okay to swear?

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

*9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

(10.8-9) "The voice … said, Go and take the little book … and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey."

*10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

(10.10) "And I took the little book … and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter."

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

REVELATION 11

(11.1-5) God's two witnesses
Anyone that messes with God's two olive trees and two candlesticks (God's witnesses) will be burned to death by fire that comes out of their mouths.

> 11 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.
> 2 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.
> *3 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

(11.3) "I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth."

> 4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

(11.4) "These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks."

> 5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

(11.5) "If any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies."

> *6 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

(11.6) "These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not ... and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will." God's witnesses have special powers. They can shut up heaven so that it cannot rain, turn rivers into blood, and smite the earth with plagues "as often as they will."

> *7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

(11.7) "When they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall ... kill them." After God's witnesses "have finished their testimony," they are killed in a war with a beast from a bottomless pit.

(11.8-12) The bodies of God's witnesses will lie unburied for three and a half days. People will "rejoice over them and make merry, and shall send gifts to one another." After another three and half days God brings his witnesses back to life and they ascend into heaven.

> 8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

(11.8) "Their dead bodies shall lie in the street."

> *9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

(11.9) "They … shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves."

> 10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

(11.10) "They … shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them."

11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

(11.11-12) "After three days and an half … they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven."

(11.13-14) The Second Woe

When the witnesses ascend into heaven, an earthquake kills 7000 men. This was the second woe. "The third woe cometh quickly." (I lost track of the first woe.)

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

(11.13) "The same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand."

*14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

(11.14) "The second woe is past … the third woe cometh quickly."

(11.15-19) Seventh Trumpet: God's wrath comes on those that destroy the earth (on himself?). The ark was on display in heaven's temple, with lightnings, voices, thunder, earthquake, and hail.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders*, which sat before God on their seats,* fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

(11.15-16) "The seventh angel sounded … and the four and twenty elders … fell upon their faces."

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come*, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that* thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

(11.18) "Thy wrath is come … thou … shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth."

19 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

(11.19) "The temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen … lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail."

REVELATION 12

(12.1-6) The woman versus the red, 7-headed, 10-horned, baby-eating dragon

Catholics say the "woman clothed with the sun" is Mary; Protestants say she is Israel, the church, or Eve. But whoever she is, she's pregnant and the dragon wants to eat her newborn baby. He's worked up an appetite by knocking down 1/3 of the stars with his tail. But when the woman delivered, God beamed her baby boy up to heaven. Then the woman went into the wilderness to feed for 1260 days. Whatever.

12 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars*:*

(12.1) "There appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars."

2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

(12.2) "And she being with child … pained to be delivered."

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

(12.3) "There appeared another wonder in heaven … a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads."

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

(12.4) "His tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born."

5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

(12.5) "She brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne."

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness*, where she hath a place prepared of God,* that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

(12.6) "And the woman fled into the wilderness … that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days."

(12.7-11) "There was war in heaven." So even in heaven, you can't be safe from war or dragons.
≠342 Is God's will always done in heaven?

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon*; and the dragon fought and his angels,*

(12.7) "There was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon."

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.
9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

(12.9) "The great dragon was cast out … into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

(12.11) "They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb."

(12.12-17) The Return of the Dragon
After losing the heavenly war, the dragon came back to earth to look for the woman. But she was given eagle wings to fly with, so she flew to the wilderness to be nourished for “a time, and times, and half a time.” Then the dragon spit out a flood, but the earth swallowed it up to help the woman. So the dragon went to war with her seed instead.

> 12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you*, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.*

(12.12) “Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you.”

> 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

(12.13) “When the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.”

> 14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness*, into her place,* where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time*, from the face of the serpent.*

(12.14) “To the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness … where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time.”

> 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

(12.15) “The serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.”

> 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

(12.16) “The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.”

> 17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

(12.17) “The dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed.”

REVELATION 13

(13.1-6) An Unusual, Blaspheming Sea Beast
John sees a sea beast with the usual 7 heads and 10 horns, with “blasphemy” written on each head. It looked like a leopard, except its feet were like a bear, and its mouth like a lion. The dragon and the sea beast were allies and everyone worshipped the sea beast.

> *13 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

(13.1) “I … saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.”

> 2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

(13.2) “The beast … was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion.”

> 3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

(13.4) "And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast."

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God*, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.*

(13.6) "He opened his mouth in blasphemy against God."

(13.7-8) The sea beast goes to war against the "saints". He is given power (by God?) over all nations, and all non-Christians worship him.

7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them*: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.*

(13.7) "It was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them."

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

(13.8) "All that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life."

9 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

(13.11-13) A Fire-Throwing Land Beast
John sees another beast coming out of the earth with horns like a lamb and a voice like a dragon. He could do "great wonders," like make fire come down from the sky.

> *11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

(13.11) "I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon."

> 12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

(13.12) "He … causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast."

> 13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

(13.13) "He doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven."

(13.14-15) The people make an image of the beast that can speak. Anyone who refuses to worship the image is killed.

> 14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

(13.14) "And deceiveth them … by … miracles … saying … that they should make an image to the beast."

> *15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

(13.15) “He had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.”

(13.16-18) The Mark of the Beast

> *16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

(13.16) “He causeth all … to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads.”

> *17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

(13.17) “That no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.”

> *18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

(13.18) “The number of the beast … is Six hundred threescore and six.”

REVELATION 14

(14.1-4) Only 144,000 celibate men will be saved. (Those who were not “defiled with women.”) Or are the 144,000 men that are “not defiled by women” homosexuals? Will only gay men be saved?

> *14 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father’s name written in their foreheads.

(14.1) “A Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father’s name written in their foreheads.”

> 2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:
> *3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

(14.3) “They sung … a new song … and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.”

> 4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

(14.4) “These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins.”

> 5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.
> 6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,
> 7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

(14.6-7) “I saw another angel fly … Saying … Fear God.”
≠132 Should we fear God?

> *8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

♀ 🇽 !!! (14.8) “There followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen … because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.”

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God*, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and* he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever*: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.*

🪶 ⚖ 🔥 (14.10-11) “The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God … he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone … And The smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever.”

Sixth vial: The Euphrates River dried up

> 12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

(16.12) "The sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up."

(16.13-14) Three frog-like unclean spirits come out of the mouths of the dragon, beast, and false prophet. They are miracle-working devils that gather kings to fight in God's upcoming war.

> 13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

(16.13) "I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet."

> 14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

(6.14) "They are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty."

> 15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

(16.15) "Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame."

> 16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

Seventh vial: voices, thunders, lightnings, earthquakes, hail.

> 17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air*; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.*
> 18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake*, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.*

(16.17-18) “The seventh angel poured out his vial into the air … and there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake.”

> 19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
> 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

(16.20) “And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.”

> 21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent*: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.*

(16.21) “A great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent” Since a talent was about 33 kilograms, this would be a new world record. (The current record holder weighed only 0.75 kg.)

REVELATION 17

♀ ☒ !!! ☺ (17.1-6) The great whore that sitteth upon many waters
The great whore has “committed fornication” with all the kings on earth. Everyone else is “drunk with the wine of her fornication.” She sits on a scarlet colored beast with the usual 7 heads and 10 horns. She carries a cup full of the “filthiness of her abominations” and has a big sign on her forehead saying: “Mystery, Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots and Abominations of the Earth.” You’ll know her when you see her.

> 17 And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials*, and* talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

(17.1) “One of the seven angels which had the seven vials … talked with me, saying … Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters.”

> 2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

(17.2) “With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.”

> 3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

(17.3) “I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.”

> 4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

(17.4) “The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.”

> 5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

(17.5) “Upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

> 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

(17.6) “I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs.”

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

(17.12-14) Someday Christians will fight in a holy war between Jesus and the ten kings that are allied with the beast.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

*13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

(17.12-13) “The ten horns … are ten kings, which … shall give their power and strength unto the beast.”

*14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

(17.14) “These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.”

> 15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

♀ ❎ !!! ☺ (17.16-17) After the war, the ten kings will strip the whore naked, eat her flesh, and burn her body.

> 16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

(17.16) “The ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.”

> 17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will*, and to agree,* and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

(17.17) “For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will … and give their kingdom unto the beast.”

> 18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

REVELATION 18

☺ ❎ ⚛ ♀ (18.1-3) Babylon has fallen. All nations have drunk the wine of her fornication, and the kings committed fornication with her. Now Babylon is inhabited by devils, foul spirits, and unclean, hateful birds.

18 And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

(18.1-2) "I saw another angel come down from heaven … saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird."

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

(18.3) "All nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

(18.8-9) God will send plagues, death, and famine on Babylon, and the kings "who have committed fornication with her" will be sad to see her burn.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire*: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.*

(18.8) “Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire.”

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

(18.9) “The kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.”

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

REVELATION 19

19 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

♀ 🇽 !!! (19.2) “The great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication.”

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

*4 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.

(19.4) "The four beasts fell down and worshipped God … saying, Amen; Alleluia."

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

*6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

*7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

(19.7) "The Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready." Woohoo! Jesus is finally getting married.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

*11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

REVELATION 21

> *21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

(21.1a) “I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away.” John saw “a new earth,” the old earth having been destroyed. But the JWs say, contrary to this verse, that the earth will last forever and will never be destroyed. They have to say this because they believe that heaven filled to capacity (144,000) in 1935. The overflow crowd will stay here on earth.
≠314 What’s new?
≠147 Will the earth last forever?

(21.1b) “And there was no more sea.” For an old sailor like me, this verse, if it were true, would be one of the saddest verses in the Bible.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

(21.8) "The fearful, and unbelieving … and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone." All liars, as well as those who are fearful or unbelieving, will be cast into "the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone."

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

(21.16) "The city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal." Heaven is a cube, twelve thousand furlongs (2400 km) on a side.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

(21.27) "There shall in no wise enter into it any thing that … maketh a lie."

≠86 Is it wrong to lie?

REVELATION 22

22 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

*2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

☺ (22.2) "The tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations."

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

*4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

☺ (22:4) "His name shall be in their foreheads."

5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

(22.6) “Things which must shortly be done”

7 Behold, I come quickly*: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.*

(22.7) “Behold, I come quickly.”

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

(22.10) “The time is at hand.”

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still*: and* he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

(22.11a) “He which is filthy, let him be filthy still.”

(22.11b) “He that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.”

≠35 Has there ever been a righteous person?

≠113 Is only God holy?

12 And, behold, I come quickly*; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.*

(22.12) “Behold, I come quickly”

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

(22.13) “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.”
≠349 Is Jesus God?

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life*, and may enter in through the gates into the city.*

(22.14) “Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life.”
≠304 Is salvation by faith alone?

15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

⚖ ♂ ♀ !!! (22.15) “For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.” “Dogs [homosexuals?], sorcerers, whoremongers, idolaters” and along with anyone who ever told a lie will not enter the heavenly city.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David*, and* the bright and morning star*.*

(22.16a) “I am the root and the offspring of David.”
≠329 Was Joseph the father of Jesus?

☺ (22.16b) “I am .. the bright and morning star.” This verse refers to Jesus as the “bright and morning star”, as is Lucifer in Isaiah 14.12. So is Jesus Lucifer?

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life*, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.*

(22.18-19) “If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book. And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life.”

20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

(22.20) “Surely, I come quickly.”

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
